GHI Members Petition For Special Meeting

by Larry Fink

The Greenbelt Homes, Inc. board of directors at its special meeting on Thursday, August 23, was faced with a petition signed by 64 members requesting a special membership meeting to prohibit GHI from exercising control over fences or hedges constructed across the pavements of the rear yards of homes.

The petition, originated by Gilbert Plumer, 26-A Ridge, questioned the legal right of the corporation to exercise such control. The board agreed to hold a special meeting within 30 days of publication of a court ruling based on the injunction to be filed on the legality of GHI rules on installation of fences.

City Taxes

A numbers game was played in trying to determine the effects of new construction on the city tax base. Among the statistics thrown about were a reduction in next year's tax rate to 50 cents per $100 and an increase to $1.98. The lower estimate assumed eventual completion of 5,000 Springhill Lake Apartment units, rather than the 140 now being constructed, the completion of Klein's by Easter as planned, and the building of more than 200 homes around the lake.

Office Costs

Another item on the agenda touched on the value of the un-manned office space at the commercial center. General Manager Roy Breashears in a breakdown of salaries reported that they were approximately equal to those of last year, prior to the opening of the office.

A subject of discussion was the plans for developing the GHI owned idle land. The Land Use Committee asked for a directive from the board on this matter.

15 Kilometer Race

The Senior National A.A.U. 15 kilometer (9.315 miles) race will take place here in Greenbelt on Sunday, September 2.

Last year's champions, the Chicago Track and Field Club, will be back to defend the team title won last year.

Defending champion George Foulds, of Penn Hill Striders of Pittsburgh, will not be back because of illness.

Last year's championship racer, Pete McCordle of the N.Y.A.C., who was far ahead of Foulds until he ran off course and lost his way, will return to try to win. Last July McCordle won the 10,000 meter run at the U.S.A. vs Poland meet held in Chicago. He also won the National Road Runners Club Postal Championship, breaking the world record by four minutes.

The N.Y.A.C. is favored to win the championship.

One of the top local teams entered is the National Capitol All-stars, who were the team champions in the 10 mile Postal run. Awards for the Postal race will be presented prior to the awards for Sunday's race. These awards will be presented to the top five men and the winning team.

A member of the winning team is a 27 year old Greenbelter, Dave Knighton, 18-Z-1 Ridge. Knighton won the Novice championship at the National Road Runners Club meet this year, his first attempt. Knighton is a member of the U.S. Marine Corps Band.

In all, eleven teams have registered for the race on Sunday, with a total of 77 entries. The furthest entry is from Arkansas. A prize will be given for the first Greenbelter to cross the finish line.

Plan Festival Parade

The Annual Labor Day Festival Parade will take place at 10 a.m., September 3. The line of march, starting at Crescent and Northway, will move up Northway to Ridge, down Ridge to Gardenway, down Gardenway to Centerway and past the Reviewing Stand. Entrants in the parade will compete for 32 prizes in cash and various trophies.

According to Parade chairman Sgt. Austin R. Green of the Greenbelt Police Department, the parade will be made up of four divisions. The first division will be under the supervision of Jim Hanna and will include majorette units, drill teams, color guards, Boy Scouts, and Girl Scouts. John Riley will be in charge of the second division, made up of military units, floats, antique cars, and legion groups. Floats in this category announced to date include "New Weapons for the Fleet" (U. S. Naval Ordnance Laboratory), and a rocket display (NASA Goddard Space Flight Center).

The third group will consist of police department units from the area and decorated tricycles and bicycles, under the direction of Carl Bresser. Charles Link and Harry Davis are in charge of the fourth division of clown units, fire safety floats, ladder trucks, pumps, ambulances, and majorette units. These will be followed by the horse units.

Judges for the parade include Robert E. L. Eaton, Maj. General USAF (Ret.), who will also serve as grand marshal; David L. Brigham, National Executive Committeeman, The American Legion; Curley Byrd, Chairman of the Maryland Tidewater Fisheries Commission; Charles E. Green, Sheriff, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania; Richard Mansfield, Police Inspector (Ret.); and Lewis Graham, Past President of the Prince Georges County Firemen's Association. Master of Ceremonies for the event will be George Seals, Executive Committeeman, Disabled American Veterans.

Silver Anniversary Ball

Tickets for the Silver Anniversary Ball, to be held at the Armory on Saturday, October 27, will go on sale to the general public over the Labor Day weekend, according to Harry Zubkoff, Chairman of the Silver Anniversary Committee. The sale of tickets will take place from a booth at the Center during the Festival, at a cost of $3.50 per couple.

Zubkoff pointed out that the Armory holds a limited number of people and that the advance demand for tickets to the gala affair seems to exceed the supply. Those who want to attend, therefore, should purchase their tickets as soon as possible, since they will be sold on a first-come-first-served basis.

Lastner at Meeting

County Commissioner Frank J. Lastner attended the Annual Summer Meeting of the Maryland County Commissioners Association in Ocean City last weekend.

The Ocean City meeting covered a wide variety of problems and areas of interest.

Festival Innovations

Augmented this year by several new features, the Annual Greenbelt Festival will open its four-day round of activities at 6:45 p.m. Friday at special opening day ceremonies on the platform in front of the statue in the mall. At that time Recreation Director James Woolldridge, who has held that office since July 1, will be introduced. As in previous years, the Youth Center and youth programs in Greenbelt—many of which Woolldridge directs—will be beneficiaries of income from the annual festival.

New to the festival this year will be a dramatic offering by the Teen Theater, organized only this summer. They will present a comedy, "Instruction for Gary," at 8 p.m. Friday in the Youth Center. Also new will be a "Back to School Dance," scheduled for 8 p.m. Saturday at the Youth Center. Two new sports events will also round out the festival program—an AAU National Championship 15 kilometre run (6:40 p.m., Sunday, at Braden Field) and a water carnival (6 p.m. Monday at the swimming pool).

As in years past, a major feature of the festival program is the popularity contest. The thirteen contestants, each of whom is sponsored by a local organization or business, will be formally presented at 9 p.m. Friday on the festival stage. They will make another appearance at 9:45 on the stage of the theater, where they will be interviewed by Eli DonBullian, festival chairman. The festival queen—winner of the contest—will be crowned at 11:20 Sunday night.

Another popular feature of the festival—exhibitions by the Grand Champion Corps Twirlers and the Grand Champion Twirler—will be presented respectively at 1:45 and 9:15 p.m. Sunday. The 1962 winner of the individual competition, held last Saturday at the National Guard Armory, was Nixie Shinn of the College Park Majorettes. She won the coveted award for the second year in a row. The corps of which she is a member were also top winners.

A Rock-N-Roll and Twist Contest will be a regular evening feature throughout the four days of the festival. Talent contests, a diaper derby, a horseshoe contest, an exhibition square dance, slow pitch and Lassie League games—always popular entertainments in previous years—will again be included in the festival program. The art contest, however, has been discontinued this year for lack of a chairman.

The Labor Day Parade—"the biggest ever," Parade Marshal Austin Green affirms—will include five bands this year. Carnival rides and booths will be open throughout the four-day event.

Something Added

The Cake Baking Contest, to be held in connection with the Youth Festival and sponsored by the Greenbelt Federal Credit Union and Pillsbury Co., has been expanded to include no less than six classes of home-baked cakes.

There will be ribbons and cash prizes for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd winners in each of the following classes: chocolate, white, yellow, sponge, and angel food. A sixth class has also been added, including all cakes not falling in one of the above classes.

Registration for the contest may be made at the Credit Union office through Saturday, September 1, at 2 p.m. At time of registration each contestant will receive a free 5-pound bag of Pillsbury flour. Judges for the contest will be

Council Concludes Overflow Agenda

by Sid Kastner

City Notes

The Bresler firm of builders has applied to the Park and Planning Board for approval of a new subdivision. A copy of the application has also been sent to the city of Greenbelt. The land in question, located on Crescent Road beyond the Baptist Church and backing up to the watertower, is already zoned for R-55 (1-family houses, with a minimum lot size of 6500 square feet). The land includes 212 lots.

The builder is not applying for any change in the present zoning. His proposed plan indicates streets and roads to be built. The Greenbelt Planning Board will study the application and pass on a recommendation to the Park and Planning Board, which will make the final decision. The new development will be called "Boxwood."

The Martin interests are applying for a zoning change to R-18 for a triangular site in the same neighborhood. It totals approximately 20 acres, and is bounded by Kenilworth Avenue, extended to the farm, and Ridge Road going up Ridge toward the water tower. The developer is planning to build town houses on this site.

A communication has been received from the state fish and game preserve requesting that Greenbelt Lake be drained. It would then be fertilized, refilled, and finally restocked. The City Council will consider the request in the near future.

The contract has been let for the Kenilworth Avenue Extended bridge. The bridge, to form part of a cloverleaf at Kenilworth and the new Beltway, will carry Kenilworth traffic across the proposed new Beltway toward the farm.

Work is proceeding in another area. A clearing is being made for the bridge across Greenbelt Road, to carry traffic on the Beltway.

Hold Public Hearing On School Program

Two public hearings will be held by the Board of Education of Prince Georges County in regard to the proposed $47 million school building program, announced Superintendent of Schools William S. Schmidt.

The first meeting will take place on Thursday, September 13, at 8 p.m. at Northwestern Senior High School, Adelphi Road, Hyattsville.

The second meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 18, 8 p.m., at Francis Scott Key Junior High School, 71st and Atwood Streets, District Heights.

The projects recommended in the proposed building program include sixteen new elementary schools and additions to eight existing elementary schools; six new junior high schools and additions to five; three new senior high schools and additions to four; and two junior college projects. The estimated cost for these forty-four projects is $47,063,261.

Among the proposals would be a 600 capacity addition to High Point Senior High School.

selected by Mrs. Janet Shriver, Home Demonstration Agent for Prince Georges County.

The council decided not to associate the capital improvements appropriation with the annual budget, as this would involve delay in the program. They also felt that future appropriations of this type should not be "tied" to the tax rate because the assessment base might vary unpredictably. A motion by Councilman Tom Canning was therefore finally passed, authorizing an ordinance to buy certificates of indebtedness in the amount of $40,000, to be put to the voters in a referendum.

Juvenile Problem

Discussion of the juvenile problem centered on the question of how to "crack down" on the bad elements without being unduly harsh on the innocent majority. City Manager Charles McDonald's view was that the State machinery, represented by a Master of Juvenile Causes, could handle the problem better than Greenbelt's staff, which he believed was not suitably organized. The general feeling of council, however, was that the city needed to take some concrete steps toward a crack-down.

This position was reinforced by interested citizens present, among them Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gerton of High's store, who stated that their location made them particularly vulnerable to vandalism. (It was brought out at the meeting that the youth who broke the plate glass window at High's some weeks ago has admitted responsibility.)

Two related motions by Councilman Dave Champion were then passed, the first making record files available to any police officer, and the second authorizing the sending of juveniles who have been released to their parents a second time within a year to county courts (at Seat Pleasant, Hyattsville, or Upper Marlboro). The language of the second motion was carefully considered by those present to ensure as far as possible that persons so transported would not be deprived of basic rights, such as being unfairly detained without communication with their parents. The distinction between complaints, as made by private citizens, and charges, which can only be brought by police officers, was brought out. The officer who takes a violator to the court decides whether a charge is to be brought against him; if he is not charged, he may only be detained or released.

Councilman Dave Champion mentioned further that other legal procedures for dealing with juveniles were available to the city as well, if further steps should be necessary.

Lake Restoration

Pros and cons of the lake restoration proposal were considered as a final item on the agenda. The proposal is contained in an interesting letter from the Maryland Inland Fish and Game Commission, whose reading by Mayor Francis White prompted Canning to wonder, "How did they count the fish?" Councilman Ben Goldfaden moved that manager McDonald set up a meeting with the Commission's representative to learn details, such as expenses, etc. Such a meeting was supported by Bud Dean, who pointed out that the inlet side of the lake was too shallow at present, leading to contamination, and that Lakeside residents would be interested in this aspect of the project. The motion was passed, Canning pointing out that the Commission man has already expressed his willingness to participate in such a meeting.

Kindergarten Parents

There will be an important meeting of the kindergarten parents on Wednesday, September 5, at North End School (and not Center School as previously announced) at 8:30 p.m. Every parent who has a child starting kindergarten on Monday, September 10, must attend this special orientation.

Point of View News Review Exhibit

by Dorothy Sucher

Many organizations in town, among them the Greenbelt News Review, are preparing to take part in Greenbelt's 25th Anniversary celebration. The News Review's office enjoys the reputation of a place in which no object can be lost. An item may be mislaid—for weeks, months, or years—but hardly lost, as nothing that passes into the office has ever been thrown out.

Over the course of time, our headquarters has imperceptibly become archives of the history of the town; as have the City office, the town library, and perhaps also the attics of certain private citizens.

Recently, the staff has begun winnowing, classifying, and fling a quarter century's accumulated debris, and some of our discoveries have been intriguing. We catch glimpses of a past that seems quite unfamiliar, as in this comment by the manager of the Greenbelt theater in a 1940 issue of the Cooperator (the paper's former name): "Greenbelt's caste in movies runs far above the average. We demand films of a high artistic, literary, musical, or sociological content." Well, well, well. Anyone for "Brides of Dracula?" Next week's attraction, "Don't Knock the Twist."

Still, most of our discoveries bear out Ecclesiastes — there is nothing new under the sun. In the same year (1940) we find a great to-do about the transportation problem; an irate letter to the Editor ("I have always classified an editorial of a paper as stating the policy of the newspaper . . . only after careful sifting of rumor from fact and careful checking of the source of the information in order to get true facts. Possibly the Cooperator's editorial staff has a different view . . ."); and an editorial entitled "Better Meetings" which urges "a demonstration of confidence in chairmen until there is some evidence that confidence is not warranted. A critical attitude is admirable but this should not display itself as outright suspicion. Give the chairman credit for trying . . . Then put him out of office . . ."

Take comfort, ye chairmen of Committees and Presidents of Boards. Your pangs are hallowed by history and tradition.

These historical oddments would undoubtedly interest many Greenbelters. The News Review hopes to make them available at a nominal cost during the Labor Day Festival. The souvenirs will occupy a section of our exhibit, and offer a unique opportunity to the nostalgic and the curious. Perhaps you would like to preserve the announcement of the birth of a baby who is now grown, married, and a parent; perhaps the issue that appeared during the week your family moved into town; perhaps an article about yourself or a friend; perhaps a photograph of some special event you still recall with pleasure.

Although our files go back to the very first mimeographed issue, only a limited number of copies can be spared. Months of examination and sorting have preceded the exhibit. These preparations have been interesting, as well as laborious; the result promises to justify our efforts.

Freaner Returns to Co-op

Donald Freaner will return to Greenbelt Co-op Super Market as manager, effective September 4. James McCullum, present manager, has resigned effective September 4, to enter the printing business with his brother.

Donald Freaner attended school in Greenbelt and during high school started to work for Co-op as a bagger in the old North End Store, in 1946. George V. Freaner, Sr., who lives at 73-S Ridge, remembers when his son started with Co-op.

Donald married a former Greenbelt, Doris Friend; they now reside in Beltsville. The Freners have four children, ages 2, 6, 7, and 11.

In addition to being former manager of Greenbelt, Donald has managed at Takoma Park and most recently at the Wheaton Co-op Supermarket.

Water Festival

On Monday, September 3, the Recreation Department of Greenbelt will present a Water Pageant as part of the Annual Labor Day festivities. Everyone is invited to watch the many interesting acts from the hill by the pool. The show will start at 6 p.m. and should last approximately an hour and a half. The program will include stunt diving, precision swimming and a narration of the history of the city of Greenbelt.

The Impossible Happened

Somehow the impossible keeps happening.

It was impossible for Mary Brown (the name is fictitious, but the story is true) to lose Social Security benefits. But she did.

Mary Brown was widowed suddenly, in her early 30's, when her salesman-husband was struck down by a coronary. He left her $6000 in life insurance - and four children to support.

Almost immediately after the funeral she began to run, from memories and from reality. She moved often - each time to cheaper apartments. Her money was dwindling fast. On a February evening some two years later, when the landlord came for the rent, she tearfully displayed two bills and three coins, a twenty, a one, two quarters and a dime. This was the remains of her inheritance.

Appalled and touched, the kindly landlord asked her what the amount of her Social Security check was. Mary looked blank. She received no social security check. "I'm not anywhere near 65," she said. "Besides, I never worked."

By the time adversity finally directed her to us, Mary had lost, for herself and her children, $3048.00 - 12 months at 254.00 a month.

So - if you're a married man and love your family, please face the fact that you're not immortal. Tell your wife that if you should die, there is such a thing as survivor's benefits which you are earning for her and your children. And emphasize that they don't come automatically. She'll have to apply at the nearest Social Security district office. Your nearest office is located at 8113 Fenton Street, Silver Spring, Maryland.

Our Neighbors

Elaine Skolnik - Granite 4-6060

Congratulations to Mrs. Marion Moore, 14-R Hillside, who had her second song, "Camel Caravans," published in the September issue of Grade Teacher. Her first musical composition, "In Japan," appeared in the February issue of the magazine, the oldest national publication for the elementary classroom. Marion received her degree in Music Education from the University of Maryland this month and plans to teach music in the elementary schools.

The Moores came to Greenbelt in 1938. Bill has always been associated with recreation and played an important role in organizing the Babe Ruth and Little Leagues. From the beginning the Moores decided to stay on in the community that was designed so right for children. Of their six children, two are married and make their homes in Greenbelt. Son, Bill, lives at 8-M Plateau with his wife, Erica. They have one child. Daughter Maureen, married to Robert Deller, resides at 36-F Ridge, with their two children. Maureen is a music teacher at Greenbelt Junior High and last spring composed the music to a poem, "Your Friend," written by one of her pupils.

It's a boy for Mr. George and Mary Lou Brezina, 15-B Laurel. Keith Lambert was born August 21 weighing 7 lbs. 7 oz. He joins two sisters, Kandy and Kathy.

Ann and Tony Pisano scored a terrific .645 game at last Friday's duplicate bridge game to dominate the field. Second-place honors went to Dale Frese and George Kaufman, followed by Ed and Adelaide Kaighn. Next game: Friday, September 7.

James E. Foley, 4-E Laurel, was among the eighteen University of Maryland students who recently had the chance to meet President John F. Kennedy when he visited their Air Force ROTC summer training camp at Otis Air Force Base at Falmouth, Massachusetts.

Mrs. Phyllis Ellis, 7-H Research, tried her hand at making a mosaic while at The Great Masterpiece in Lake Wales, Florida.

The Charles D. Barkleys are now residing at 9-A Hillside.

The Robert S. Chandlers moved to 21-C Ridge.

The Charles Logan family live at 21-H Ridge.

Good luck to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Long of Silver Spring, who are retiring to Florida. Former Greenbelters, the Longs made the first issue of the Cooperator (now the News Review), and have always maintained a deep interest in Greenbelt. Mrs. Long has kept your reporter informed of the doings of ex-Greenbelters now living in all parts of the nation, and I expect we'll be hearing lots about Greenbelters in Florida as soon as they are settled at 1504 East River Drive, Margate, Pompano Beach, Florida.

Seen around town: Original Greenbelters, Alice and Lee Pittman and their children, Jill and Jerry, were visiting their many friends. The Pittmans, who now live in West Palm Beach, made their first visit back to Greenbelt nine years ago.

Glad to hear that Mrs. Edith Morris of San Francisco, California, is in town visiting daughter Pearl, 54 Lakeside. Pearl and Al spent many weeks in California this summer and brought mom back with them.

Talk on Nigeria

Holy Cross Lutheran Church cordially invites all members, friends and neighbors on August 30 at 8 p.m. to hear Linn Haitz, author of "JuJu Gods of West Africa," tell of his experiences in the mission field in Nigeria.

Haitz was a successful builder and contractor in St. Louis, Missouri, when he heard of the dire need for proper housing of the African people. Deciding they needed help, not just sympathy, he prepared for work as a lay missionary. After three years among the people of West Africa, he felt that their spiritual needs transcended that of proper housing and returned to the United States to complete his training for full time missionary work.

Haitz is an excellent speaker with first hand information on his subject. Although it is the regular monthly meeting of the Sunday School Teachers, all members of the congregation are urged to attend, and the meeting has been opened to all who would like to know more about the people of Africa.

Attention Golfers

On Sunday, September 2, at 1 p.m. at Braden Field there will be a golf chipping contest which will be open to anyone wishing to participate. The object is to chip a golf ball 75 yards to a flag placed in the center of the circle. Each contestant will be allowed three tries, and the one chipping the ball nearest to the flag will receive a trophy. Contestants must bring their own clubs and golf balls. Participants must be at the field by 12:30 p.m. to register with Mr. Raymond Hudson, chairman.

Police News Review

Some children were reported throwing stones at cars in the vicinity of North End School last week but were gone when police arrived on the scene.

Complaints of fireworks being exploded near the Community Church turned out to be two young boys shooting off harmless pop guns in their own back-yard.

Again a reported larceny from a basement washing machine was reported last week. Investigation showed that the coin box had been removed skillfully. The theft was believed to have been committed by someone familiar with such machines.

Disorderly juveniles were reported by a resident of Eastway, who claimed to have seen five youths tampering with a car. The boys left the scene but no damage was found.

A Lakewood resident reported a prowler last week after midnight. Police arriving on the scene found an eighteen-year old Greenbelt youth who said that he was merely out for a walk because he could not sleep.

Three juveniles were picked up for being disorderly at the Center on the complaint of a citizen who claimed that the boys used disrespectful, although not vulgar, language towards him. An officer talked to the boys.

Two white and gray rabbits were reported stolen from a yard on Plateau.

Eleven pieces of women's under garments were reported missing from a clothesline last week.

A resident reported that vandals had used a sharp instrument to cut two long gashes, about 12 inches long, in his windshield.

A nineteen-year old College Park youth was picked up for being intoxicated. He was picked up by an officer on Lakeside. The youth was released to the custody of his step-father, who had been summoned to the Police office.

Softball Tournament

The Greenbelt Little League opened its Twelfth Annual Invitational Softball Tournament Monday night with the strong Farmer Insurance Company beating Crystal Floor 3 to 1. This tournament brings together some of the best teams in the Washington-Baltimore area, — the Jerry Walmouth Construction Company (last year's champs), Maggie of Washington, Westinghouse of Baltimore, S & J Restaurant, and many others.

Double headers are played every night starting at 7 o'clock. All proceeds will benefit the Little League. We need your support, so come on down and watch the teams in action. You won't see better ball anywhere.

School Registration

Registration day for all pupils who may be entering first grade in September and who have not already registered—and for all pupils who may have moved into the area during the period of the summer vacation—will take place on Friday, August 31, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at North End and Center Schools.

The schools will open on Tuesday, September 4.

She's just passed her tests and interviews. Now she's going to be a Telephone Operator.

What's so special about that?

Everything, if you're a young lady like Karen.
