Jaycees Honor Leo Gerton

The Greenbelt Junior Chamber of Commerce held its Annual Installation & Awards Night on June 17 at a banquet at the Fireside Restaurant.

The highlight of the evening was the granting of the Jaycee's Distinguished Service Award, given for "outstanding service" to a very surprised City Councilman, Leo Gerton. In demonstrating that Greenbelt can indeed keep a secret, it should be noted that Leo Gerton was the only one of more than 40 civic and community leaders present who was not aware that this award, the highest attainable nationally, was about to be bestowed upon him. In announcing the Award, outgoing President, Greg White, described Gerton as "a quiet dedicated man" and said of him that "through his loyal, faithful and unselfish efforts, he has made a great contribution to his community, state and nation."

State Senator, Steny Hoyer, Chairman of the Prince Georges County State Senate Delegation, in presenting the Award, congratulated Councilman Gerton "on the recognition you have received for your outstanding contribution to your community." He said further that "such men as yourself are really the great men of our society."

Following the presentation the Jaycees held their Installation for new officers. James Nelson was installed as the new President, John Walsh as External Vice-president, David Conley as Internal Vice-president and Robert Hardie as State Director for the Greenbelt Jaycees.

Softball Tournament Starts This Weekend

Twelve teams are scheduled to begin play in the annual Fourth of July Slow-pitch Softball Tournament beginning with three games this Friday. At 6:45 Huntington Hunters will play Springhill Lakers, Peoples Hardware takes on Clancy's, last year's runner up, and Pizza Inn plays Thomas American.

The tournament will continue Saturday, the 29th, with ten games. Four games will be played on Sunday, starting at 1 p.m. Finals will be held on the week-end of July 5 and 6, starting at 1 p.m.

Defending champion Greenbelt Shell will play P.G. Chuckers in their opening game at 12 on the 28th. Other metropolitan leagues will be represented by many top teams. From the Government Printing Office League, Press Union #1, Fred and Harry Seafood will represent Montgomery County, three teams will represent Bowie and three have entered from P.G. County.

All games will be announced and umpired by A.S.A. officials. Schedules are available from the Recreation Department.

ARMY FIELD BAND PERFORMS FRIDAY

One of the most popular performing groups at the Greenbelt Lake Park bandshell last summer, the First U.S. Army Field Band, will return to the city this week when they present a concert Friday, June 27, at 7:30 p.m.

The First U.S. Army Field Band, official headquarters band of the First United States Army, is a very versatile musical organization capable of performing as a concert band, a marching band, an 18-piece stage band, as well as providing numerous combos for troop entertainment.

Musical offerings of the band range from pre-Bach masters to modern composers, such as Don Gillis and Richard Rodgers. The highly popular stage band is as familiar with long-established popular music and Broadway show melodies as it is with progressive jazz.

Conductor and commanding officer of the First U.S. Army Field Band is Chief Warrant Officer Charles W. Woodman. First Sergeant, Enlisted Band Leader, and percussion group leader is Sergeant First Class John E. Reel. Sergeant First Class John E. Reel is also the Drum Major of the band and Drill Sergeant of all marching formations.

The Police Blotter

A breaking and entering occurred Wednesday, June 18, at the Greenbelt Junior High's new addition, which is under construction. A ladder was used to gain entrance to an opening in the roof. Various sizes of copper pipe, amounting to $270, were stolen. Such pipe is usually resold to junkyards or other construction companies.

During daylight hours an adult was caught stealing a spare tire from a car in Beltway Plaza. He was charged and is currently out on bond.

Two auto thefts occurred, one from Lakecrest Drive and one from Springhill Lake. During the week also, there has been an excess of barking dog complaints.

A boat was stolen from University Square. However, it was later discovered that management had the boat impounded for violating parking regulations.

It is to be noted that swimming in Greenbelt Lake is a violation of city ordinances. Parents are notified when their children are involved in such violations.

Fourth of July

The Fourth of July will be celebrated in the usual manner with fireworks and a concert by the Greenbelt Band at the Lake Park. The concert will get under way at 8 p.m. with the grand finale of the fireworks at dusk.

City Notes

On Friday, June 20, City Manager James K. Giese and Director of Public Works Albert S. Attick made a field trip at the invitation of the Division of Demonstration Operations of the Bureau of Solid Waste Management of the Public Health Service, U.S. Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare. Despite the impressive title of their hosts and an invitation received two months earlier, the goal of the journey was modest enough — to survey what was formerly called the Kenilworth Dump of the District of Columbia. Now renamed the Kenilworth Landfill, the site offers a demonstration model of up-to-date landfill operations. Public officials from many nearby municipalities were invited to participate in the Friday tour.

The Parks crew accomplished a variety of specialized odd jobs during the preceding week, in addition to regular daily duties at the Lake Park and Braden Field. Operating the chipper machine for one whole day, they had chips enough to mulch many municipal playgrounds and the area near the concession stand at the lake. They removed two dead trees at the lake, re-tied newly planted trees in Boxwood Village, and sprayed trees and shrubs in the Center mall. They also applied a killing spray to large patches of poison ivy near the walkway from 6 Ridge to Lakeside Dr. and cleaned out trash and debris from the small park between Greenway and Fayette in the Lakewood subdivision.

The main Public Works crew finished erecting a fence around three sides of the silt basin near the peninsula at the lake and repaired the plastic feed line from the soda ash pump at the swimming pool. Two men from the crew worked all week cleaning storm sewer catch basins throughout the city. This was not a superficial cleaning of debris from near the surface. The men climbed down deep into those catch basins that have not been functioning properly to clear away whatever had been clogging them. All of this work was centered in the GHI areas of the city.

Excavation by an outside contractor at the landfill site is now complete. Work on curbs and gutters for Crescent Rd. began this week. A third outside contractor, hired by the owner of the municipal commercial center property, is replacing a stretch of badly broken sidewalk in front of the entrance to the bank.

Mrs. John Patton, 24 Lakeside, has withdrawn her request for a special rezoning to permit her to display a professional real estate broker's nameplate outside her residence, according to word received by the city from the District Council.

Requirements To Vote, Run In City Election On Sept. 16

Election day for the Greenbelt City Council is just three months away, on September 16, to be exact. All citizens should be aware of the requirements to make them eligible to vote or run for office. Do you know, for example, whether you are qualified to vote, or how to nominate the candidate of your choice, or when and where to register?

Here are the regulations for citizen participation in Greenbelt City elections.

Anyone who is eligible to vote in Greenbelt City elections is eligible to run for one of the five seats on the city council. ELECTION DAY is September 16, 1969; the term of office is two years.

Registration

REGISTRATION DAY for voters is ANY DAY, from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. — just go to the city offices and sign up with the city clerk. If you work during the day and can't register then, wait until special registration days, which will be held on Saturdays and evenings, are announced later in the summer.

Once you have registered for Greenbelt elections, you need not register again as long as you live here continuously, provided you have voted in at least one of the two previous city elections. If you've never registered here or if you moved out of town and then moved back or if you missed voting in two elections, it will be necessary to register again under the same provisions.

Eligibility

To be eligible to vote in Greenbelt council elections you must be a citizen of the United States, at least 21 years of age, must have lived in Greenbelt at least six months immediately preceding the election. Employees of the U. S. government, residing in Greenbelt, are eligible to vote in the city election and run for city council posts.

If you — or your candidate — are eligible to vote, here's what must be done to get a place on the ballot for City Councilman:

1-Get at least 50 and not more than 60 of the qualified registered voters to sign a nomination petition form or get some from the city clerk; she also has an information form that will be helpful. You may use one sheet of paper or several. There were 2122 registered voters as of the November 1968 Referendum.

2-Submit the signed petition to her (together with a $3 filing fee) not earlier than July 18 and not later than August 18 at 5 p.m. Only registered voters signatures are valid, and a voter may sign only ONE nomination petition even though he may vote for five candidates. Therefore, the city clerk will disqualify a voter's signature on the second and all subsequent petition she receives on which it appears.

This means a voter should think twice before signing a nomination petition for someone he isn't really eager to back; it would make him unable to nominate anyone else. This also means that the candidate (or the backers of a candidate) who file their petitions early in the July 18 - August 18 period will have more time in which to get additional signatures to validate the petition.

Married women signers of petitions should use the form Mary Doe, not Mrs. John Doe. The records show them as Mary Doe and if the city clerk doesn't recognize the name in its married form, she may not be able to check and accept it.

3-Within 7 days of filing of a valid petition, the city clerk notifies the candidate. The latter then has 7 days within which to accept the nomination. (In some cases petitions are circulated without the candidates say-so.) The ballot carries only persons nominated this way. But you can write in names when you vote.

That's all there is to it. On September 16 there will be an election. If five candidates fail to win at least 40 percent of the votes cast, there will be a run-off election 7 days later. In the run-off election the ballot will consist of those unsuccessful candidates receiving the highest number of votes, up to twice as many names as there are positions to be filled.

State Roads Acts On Road Repair, Red Light

The city netted a "yes" answer a "probably," and a "no" to three requests recently addressed to the office of the State Roads Commission. In a letter received on Friday, June 20, the city was informed that within two weeks the Roads Commission will repair a badly eroding ditch along Ridge Rd. between Crescent and Ivy Lane.

In the "probably" category was a request made on the recommendation of City Manager James K. Giese and approved by the technical staff for the Commission that a sign be erected for north-bound traffic on Kenilworth Ave. allowing a right turn on the red light into Crescent Rd. Traffic currently backs up at that point for a considerable distance as vehicles exiting from the Beltway for Greenbelt merge with Kenilworth traffic just south of Crescent. The Commissioners themselves must now approve the request before such a sign can be erected.

The city's third request to the Commission was turned down as "not desirable under the present circumstances." This was a proposal to construct a U-turn lane through the median strip of Kenilworth Ave. to allow traffic from Springhill Lake to turn north to enter the Beltway without having to pass through the Greenbelt Rd. intersection.

As a means of sweetening the denial, however, the Roads Commission informed the city that the Traffic Safety Division is currently conducting a new study of the Edmonston Rd.-Greenbelt Rd.-Kenilworth Ave. intersection with a view to discovering whether the timing of traffic signals there should be revised.

SPECIAL TRASH PICK-UP

The office of the city manager reminds residents that the city offers a free special trash pick-up for bulky items and garden debris not normally picked up in the routine tri-weekly trash pick-ups. For this service call the city office at 474-8000 at any time. Merely ask for a special trash pick-up and designate the type of trash and where it will be placed.

City Borrows $60,000

On Thursday, June 19, the city of Greenbelt consummated a $60,000 bond anticipation loan from Suburban Trust Co. The major portion of the loan will be used to pay the building costs on the new addition to the Firehouse until such time as the city sells its bonds.

Present at the meeting as representatives of the city were City Manager James K. Giese, City Treasurer Mabel L. Kandler, City Solicitor Emmett Nanna, and the city's bond attorney, H. Warren Buckler.

During the course of the meeting Buckler also explored various aspects of the current bond market, such as when and how to sell to maximize the city's financial situation.

Baptist Bible School Holds Parents Night

Boys and girls who have attended Vacation Bible School at Greenbelt Baptist Church will present a special program for parents and friends as a part of the Commencement Service on Wednesday, July 2, at 7:30 p.m. Following the program, displays of the children's work in the various departments may be seen. Refreshments for all will be served on the church lawn.

The Lutheran Church Site

Not all the facts are yet in with respect to the Lutheran Church property, but we think it appropriate to make a few observations at this time.

If the people of Greenbelt want to be certain that the 3 acres at 22 Ridge, which now houses the Lutheran Church, will be developed or used in a manner consistent with the overall development of the city as reflected in the College Park-Greenbelt Master Plan, then the city of Greenbelt and-or Greenbelt Homes, Inc., will have to take positive action.

If the land is acquired by private parties, there will be no guarantee that it will be developed in accordance with the desires of the community.

Our experience to date has pointed this out only too vividly. In 1955, Greenbelt Homes, Inc. sold 650 acres of vacant land to the first of a series of private owners, under the impression that it would be protected by restrictions contained in the sales contract with respect to the physical development of the land. It also thought that county zoning specifications, which at that time called for the land to be developed as rural-planned-community, would be a sufficient barrier to precipitous rezoning applications.

But time proved otherwise. As the land changed ownership from one developer to another, the restrictions in the sales contract were dropped. The county commissioners, who at first resisted applications for high-density zoning, eventually acquiesced. Finally, covenants entered into by developers, which the city counted upon to preserve Greenbelt as low-density development, were disregarded and the courts offered no remedy.

Even though the city has now secured a Master Plan which is in general conformity with the community's desires, the county commissioners can still make exceptions for individual tracts which are not identified on the Master Plan.

The only sure way for the city to assure proper use of the Lutheran Church site is for the municipal government or Greenbelt Homes, Inc. to acquire the land.

This will cost money. Nothing comes cheap, especially these days. But this must be balanced against the advantages. In 1955, GHI mistakenly thought that it could not afford to hold on to the vacant land because of potential tax liability, heavy carrying costs, and the lack of immediate prospects for development.

Let this experience serve as a lesson.

The Forgotten Youngster(s)

To the Editor:

There is a small youngster, age about 11 or 12 years, who is a member of one of the Little League teams. Week after week he trudges to the field, sits in the dug-out and hopes that some day they will allow him to play.

So far this year he has played a half inning in the field and has never been to bat.

No matter how good or bad a player he or any youngster may be, he should be given an opportunity to play. Who knows, he may be a future DiMaggio or Ruth.

The aim of the game may be to win, in which we put too much stress, but children of that age should also be taught fair play, team spirit and anything else that may make them good citizens.

In my eyes, because of his determination and not quitting, he is a bigger man than the coaches.

Another point. A coach should not have his own progeny play on his team. Regardless of how impartial a coach may seem to be, there will always be a tendency to be partial to his own offspring. Dad, don't feel bad. It happens to the best of us, I know.

They have chosen this particular hallway because it is rampant with the smell of garbage and has been so for the past week, despite phone calls to the resident, or rather, non-resident manager. This, as the saying goes, is the last straw.

I realize that complaining is a risky matter. If it were not for the fact that I am moving soon, I would submit this letter anonymously, or at least, be tempted to. It isn't so much a letting-off steam letter as it is a letter written in the hope that the next tenants in this building will live better and, hopefully, more hygienic lives. But at this moment, the tenants are living in conditions which one usually associates with slums and tenement life. I hate to see it happen, but it is happening. It will get worse unless SOMETHING is done.

"Deflowered"?

To the Editor:

When the WASHINGTONIAN declared last summer that Greenbelt had been "deflowered," I, a newcomer here, protested vigorously. Surely not the Greenbelt I knew. Perhaps they were right. Although I am still optimistic enough to have purchased a Greenbelt home, I cannot help but wonder each time I pass through the Center Hill tunnel. Surely someone has noticed that the pavement has worn away in several areas. Surely someone who has returned from the center mud-spattered after rain has protested. Why, then, has the condition existed for some months now?

But if this were my only complaint, I could not agree with the WASHINGTONIAN. There is more. The apartment building in which I am now living is directly across from the Center. Since Halloween it has carried, in letters a foot high, "Jim loves Terry," or something to that effect. No one, apparently, cares. Nor does the management of my building see fit to replace light bulbs as they are extinguished. I have spent three of my best Sylvania soft-pinks on this building.

At this moment, I can all but

Fire Prevention Tip For June

by J. Wenrich

PAINT AND GASOLINE

During the months ahead painting in and around the house and giving proper attention to the lawn that needs cutting bring forth the ever-present need for caution in the storage of gasoline as well as left over paint. Do not use a glass container in the storing of either of these highly combustible liquids.

Remember these three items of importance:

1. Always be sure lids are down tight on paint cans and use either a metal container or, better yet, a safety can in storing gasoline. This container can be purchased at a very low price.
2. Do not store under the stairwell leading to the second floor of your home; if stored in a basement, keep away from any source of an open flame. Whenever possible store outside or in your garage; however, one factor to be considered is that a garage is not always the safest place, especially if it is attached to the home.
3. Always store out of the reach of children.

Your Fire Department repeats these cautions over and over with the hope that they will never be called to respond to a call caused by any negligence by home owners. Yet there are many cases each year where children and adults are severely burned or suffer permanent injury or lose their lives—not to mention a high loss in property damage.

Help us. Protect your loved ones and your home.

Farm Visitation Day

When was the last time you or your youngsters visited a farm?

The Prince Georges County Extension Agents are inviting everyone to participate in the Farm Visitation Day program, to be held on Sunday, June 29, between the hours of 1 and 5 p.m.

Planned to promote better understanding between citizens in rural and urban areas, the program will show how modern-day farms operate. A guided tour has been organized to show the operation of a typical Prince Georges County tobacco and grain farm, with an additional tour to an adjacent livestock farm to see all of the animals.

The farms to be visited and the hosts of the tour are Judge William Bowie and his farm manager, William Lamm, and Mrs. Hallam Tuck and her farm manager, Walter Gibbs.

To reach the farms take Exit 32 South off the Beltway (Rte 495) and proceed south on Md. Route 202 for 5.7 miles. Watch for the "Welcome Farm" sign at the entrance.

For additional information contact the Prince Georges County Extension Agents, John Lancaster or Buddy Knepley, at 627-5114

What kind of investment is Freedom Shares?

Shrewd? Safe? Patriotic? Exclusive?

You're right if you checked all four boxes.

Freedom Shares are a shrewd investment because they pay 4.74% when held to maturity. They mature in just four-and-a-half years, and are redeemable after one year.

There is no safer investment because Freedom Shares are backed by The United States of America.

Exclusive? Absolutely. Not everyone can buy new Freedom Shares.

You have to belong to the Bond-a-Month or Payroll Savings Plan. Freedom Shares are a bonus opportunity for these regular Bond buyers.

And, as you help yourself by buying Freedom Shares, you're also helping your country. Sign up for Freedom. Get all the facts from the payroll people where you work or any officer where you bank.
