Location of Projected New Sidewalk Along Crescent Unresolved by Council

by Leta Mach

On Monday, February 9, the Greenbelt City Council held both a public hearing and a regular session and still finished business in little more than an hour. Even moving two items from the consent agenda did not delay the conclusion of business.

The public hearing continued a hearing on January 27, which in turn had been a rescheduled meeting because of bad weather earlier. The subject was the proposed reconstruction of Eastway, reconstruction of Hillside Road from Crescent to Northway and construction of a sidewalk on Crescent Road from Hillside to Gardenway. City Manager James Giese explained that the roads would be reconstructed to a 40-foot width with concrete curbs and gutters. Five-foot concrete sidewalks would be provided on the north side of Eastway and the west side of Hillside Road. In addition to the five-foot concrete sidewalk along Crescent Road, a short sidewalk would be built from the corner of Gardenway and Crescent Road over a dirt path that connects with the inner walkway. A fence would be necessary alongside the Gardenway underpass because the sidewalk will cross over the underpass.

Only one citizen was present for the hearing. Penny Koines of 60 Court Crescent explained that it was her first time to appear before council. She asked council to consider putting the Crescent Road sidewalk on the inner curve. Present plans call for a sidewalk on the outer curve, where the homes are located. However, Koines felt the other side was more widely used by people getting into and out of cars which were parked on that side. She noted that the area was a muddy mess from people's walking there. She also suggested that it might be less expensive to construct the sidewalk there since it would be shorter on the inner curb.

Decision Deferred

After the public hearing was adjourned, the subject came up again in the regular council session. The staff, however, recommended that the matter be deferred because of the significant differences between cost estimates and money available for the projects. Community Development Block Grant Funds of $173,000 were available for the projects. However, the engineers have estimated that about $80,000 in addition would be needed to complete the projects.

The Advisory Planning Board has suggested that the Crescent Road sidewalk be located on the inside of the road and that the Eastway sidewalk meander away from the street instead of being adjacent to the curb. Council member Thomas White noted that the Crescent Road residents he had spoken with favored a sidewalk on the inside of Crescent because that is where the cars park, the residents feel there is more pedestrian traffic on that side and they are concerned about placing a sidewalk close to drive-days and yards. Giese was not sure about the availability of adequate public land and the way the sidewalk would be handled around the underpass if it were on the inside of the curve. Council Member Toni Bram suggested that placing the sidewalk on the other side ought to be considered. Mayor Gil Weidenfeld hoped council would receive more comments from residents affected.

Other Business

In other business, council—

—Introduced for first reading an ordinance to amend city personnel regulations to bring them into conformance with requirements of the Federal Government imposed under the Fair Labor Standards Act.

—Introduced for first reading and suspension of the rules for final approval of an amendment to a resolution authorizing the negotiated purchase of equipment to participate in the county's Criminal Justice Information System. The original resolution had contained the price of a single printer rather than four.

—Asked staff to collect information about grants for possible renovation of North End School from the Citizens Concerned for a North End Center, as well as to explore the possibility of energy grants. Staff would then organize the information and send copies to council and the Community Relations Advisory Board.

On the consent agenda, council—

Legion Plans Benefit Dinner For 50th Anniversary Com.

The American Legion, Greenbelt Post No. 136 is hosting a full day of food and entertainment to benefit the City of Greenbelt's 50th Anniversary Celebration. The event is scheduled for Sun., Mar. 8, with an all-you-can-eat chicken dinner served from 1 to 6 p.m. and entertainment from 2-10 p.m.

Billed as "Chicken Plus", the food will include chicken in barbeque sauce or Brunswick stew, cole slaw, macaroni salad and baked beans. Draft beer and soda are included.

A variety of musical groups will perform. They are the Eleanor Roosevelt High School Jazz Ensemble, the Potomac River Jazz Club and The Benny Dean Country Revue.

Tickets are available from the American Legion and at the city offices. Door prizes will be awarded. For further information, contact the Legion at 345-0136.

—Directed staff to implement APB's recommendations for development at Roosevelt Center Mall. APB feels that the city should defer its position on construction plans for the mall until a landscape architect prepares design plans for the Center. However, APB feels that design plans should move forward quickly.

—Authorized the purchase of two dump trucks.

—Authorized the mayor to execute a Declaration of Covenants and an Agreement with the Milton Company, contract purchasers of Parcel 15. Subject to the execution of these documents, council had agreed to support rezoning of the parcel for a combination of commercial office and residential townhouses.

James Craze Appointed New Chief of Police

James R. Craze has been appointed Chief of Police of Greenbelt by City Manager James K. Giese effective February 15. Craze, a 15 year veteran of the department holding the rank of Lieutenant, has been serving as Acting Chief since the resignation of Francis T. Hutson on October 12, 1986.

Giese noted that during the time Lt. Craze had served as Acting Chief, he had demonstrated outstanding command ability. Also, in competition with applicants who are holding, or are retired from, responsible positions in other departments, Lt. Craze was ranked first by a panel that conducted oral interviews.

Chief Craze holds a B.S. degree in Law Enforcement from the University of Maryland and is a graduate of the FBI National Academy. He and his wife, Mary Anne, reside in Glenn Dale.

Clam Chowder at Utopia

As an antidote to the winter doldrums, "Clam Chowder" will present a most lively concert at the Arts Center this Saturday, February 21 at 7:30 p.m. "Chowder" has provided great entertainment throughout the area during the last six years. The concert will also be a fund-raiser for cystic fibrosis.

Seminar to Feature Greenbelt's History

by Sandra Barnes

The second part of the two-part "Greenbelt's History" series will take place on Wednesday, February 25, 7-9 p.m., at the Greenbelt Library meeting room. Co-sponsored by the library and the Prince Georges Community College, under the auspices of Greenbelt's 50th Anniversary Committee, the first half of the series explored the city's roots in the Resettlement Administration of Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Part Two will delve into the community life of early residents and explore the physical changes to the city over the last 20 years. Elizabeth Allen, librarian in charge of the Rexford Tugwell collection, will discuss the social fabric Greenbelt's pioneers fashioned in creating cooperatives and a host of institutions, including the county's first public kindergarten.

City Manager James K. Giese will review the development years. As City Manager for the last 24 years, Giese has guided Greenbelt from a community of homes with one small shopping center (Beltway Plaza was just under construction when he arrived) to the current period of explosive commercial growth. How and why these changes occurred still provokes many questions as well as explanations.

In addition to the discussion a special reception will be held prior to the start of the session celebrating the publication of George Washington University's "Links in the Chain: Greenbelt Maryland, and the New Town Movement, an Annotated Bibliography on the Occasion of the 50th Anniversary of Greenbelt Maryland." Copies will be available for sale. Participants can register at the door.

GHI HEARS CITY PLANS FOR STREETS, SIDEWALKS

by Sid Kastner

At the regular Greenbelt Homes, Inc. board meeting on Thursday evening, February 12, Assistant City Manager Michael McLaughlin briefed board members and GHI staff on the next road improvement projects the city will be undertaking on Eastway, Crescent and Hillside. Also discussed were some individual issues brought up by members, and staff provided reports on the parking policy implementation and maintenance status.

The roadwork to be done in the Eastway-Crescent-Hillside area is a continuation of improvements already carried out at the south end of Greenbelt beyond Westway. McLaughlin said that this work involves widening the streets to a standard 40-foot width which will have an impact on adjacent residents' yards and means that some shrubbery and trees will have to be removed and replaced. The city will meet with affected residents in these areas, according to McLaughlin. Assistant GHI manager Steve Wright noted that "Some of these things will require GHI approval, since they affect common areas".

In addition to the roadwork which will include curbs and gutters, new sidewalks are planned along the north side of Eastway, the west side of Hillside and the east side of Crescent Road between Eastway and Hillside. These would be designed to tie in as much as possible to the internal walkway system. McLaughlin agreed with some board members' comments that some of the sidewalk project could be eliminated, and emphasized that the city is interested in GHI's advice on this work because of the housing cooperative's involvement in the area under discussion. McLaughlin noted that this is likely to be the last such work to be undertaken in GHI areas, because the city needs to improve roads in other areas such as Springhill Lake. In reply to questions from the board, McLaughlin's estimate of the total cost of these improvements was about $240,000, of which about $160,000 could come from Community Development Block Grant funds. The sidewalks on Hillside and Eastway would cost about $15,000 and $9,000 respectively, not being a large part of the outlay.

One particular problem that was brought up by GHI Manager Ron Colton was Crescent Road at the Mobil station, where "people usually try to cross" the difficult (and dangerous) intersection. Colton said that "It would be good to encourage people to use the Gardenway underpass." in connection with the sidewalk network. Board member Nancy Hutchins agreed, saying "This is a real problem," and suggested that the city put in crosswalks or reroute the walkway to the underpass.

Board member Ray McCawley was of the opinion that the proposed Crescent Road sidewalk should be dropped, and moved to approve the major roadwork on the three streets with omission of that sidewalk. Board member Chuck Hess agreed with this. When informed that the city staff's suggested priority list was for Eastway roadwork to be done first, then Hillside roadwork, Hillside sidewalk, Eastway sidewalk and lastly Crescent sidewalk, McCawley amended his motion in that way and the motion passed.

On a related matter, McLaughlin noted that since the roadwork has been completed in the south end of Greenbelt, the issue of a sidewalk along the Crescent-Ridge curve has been clarified so that it is worth reconsidering. Hutchins therefore moved to request the city to complete the sidewalk from 7 Court Crescent to the intersection of Ridge and Westway, along the outer side of the curving road. This motion was also passed.

Our Neighbors

Martha Kaufman 474-9359

Our sympathy to Father John Stack, pastor of St. Hugh's Catholic Church, on the death of his mother, Mrs. Edna Stack, on February 16 in New York.

Condolences to Delores Capotosto and family on the recent death of Delores's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Krahling of Takoma Park.

Longtime Greenbelter Leonard Cohen is appearing as Tevye in the Terabac Room at the University of Maryland's production of "Fiddler on the Roof," starting on February 12. Leonard recently appeared at The Utopia as Inspector Poirot in "Black Coffee".

Best wishes for a speedy recovery for Adele Mund. Southway, who is in Walter Reed Hospital after surgery last week.

James and Madeleine Keifline of Hillside Road and Raymond and Marjorie Groht of Greendale Place became proud grandparents when their children, James Edward Keifline IV and his wife Marjorie, presented them with twin boys. James Edward Keifline V weighing 8 lbs. 3 oz. and Joseph Raymond Keifline weighing 7 lbs. 10 1/2 oz. were born on February 13 at Sinai Hospital in Baltimore. Two great-grandmothers, Helena Leonard of Castlebury, Florida, and Betty Keifline of Birmingham, Alabama, were thrilled at the news. Both mother and babies are home and doing fine. Dad is a city employee.

Apology

To the Editor:

Last week, in the News Review, I stated unequivocally that we Golden Agers are NOT in our second childhood — and then proceeded to act as if I were. I stated, in the article on Golden Age Club programs, that we would have "Show and Tell" on February 18. That will be our program on February 25. On February 18, we had a talk by Arnold Simon on "Prevention of Blindness". This was followed by a Valentine Party.

I apologize to Mr. Simon, to the Golden Age Club, and last but far from least, to the News Review for putting inaccurate information in your very reliable paper. Mea culpa!

Resident Admits Holdup At Co-op Supermarket

by Jack Brickman

In a holdup-robbery which took place about 12:30 p.m. Sunday, February 15 at the Co-op Supermarket, 121 Centerway in Roosevelt Center, a man in the express checkout lane pulled a handgun and demanded the money from the cash register. The female cashier was terrified when, according to police spokesman Pat McAndrew, the man poked the weapon into the cashier's side and pulled the trigger. The gun did not discharge. She gave him $180 from the register and he fled through the front door.

Officer Tom Keiffline, investigating the robbery, was able to gather information from store employees and others pointing to a suspect whose photograph was on file with Prince George's County police as the result of a previous arrest. The robbery victim was shown the photograph and McAndrew reports that she positively identified the man in the photo as the robber. Keiffline then obtained an arrest warrant for the suspect, Ray Nash Lewis, 29, of 7076 Hanover Parkway. He arrested Lewis at that address on Monday, February 16. The handgun used in the robbery, recovered at the time of the arrest, proved to be a pellet gun, says McAndrew, and it had not fired when the trigger had been pulled during the robbery because it had been empty.

McAndrew reports that Lewis, who has confessed to the robbery, has been held on $15,000 bond, charged with armed robbery, assault and use of a handgun in the commission of a felony.

Gray Panthers Meet

Capital Office Park, the Greenbelt Hilton and Towers, and Classy 95 (WCLY-FM) will hold their first annual "I Need It Bad Party" on Thursday, February 26 from 5-9 p.m. at the Hilton's Grand Ballroom.

Proceeds of the fund raiser will go to help the Sunshine Foundation, the nationally recognized volunteer organization which makes wishes come true for handicapped and severely ill children. The foundation is trying to raise $70,000 to send 200 children from the Charles E. Duckworth School in Beltsville to Disney World.

The Washington Capitals, Bullets, and Prince Georges County politicians will be bartenders, and disc jockeys Baker and Woodside will provide the entertainment. People can get into the beach mood with cocktails, 6 cash bars, and beach videos. Prizes will be awarded. The public is invited.

MLS

Based on Information Released by the Greenbelt Police Department

A 21-year-old Greenbelt resident, walking to his apartment building in the 9100 block of Edmonston Road about 3.45 a.m., February 7 was robbed by a man who drove up to the victim and, after asking for directions, said he had a gun, although he did not show it. He robbed the victim of cash and a wristwatch. He was described as a black male in his late twenties, wearing a dark brown jacket, driving an early 70's model light blue Buick Electra with a white vinyl top.

About 10:30 p.m., February 7 a man ran up behind a 30-year-old woman in the 6000 block of Springhill Drive, grabbed her purse away from her and continued running. He was described as a black male, about 20 years of age, 6'0", 160 lbs., wearing a waist-length navy blue wind-breaker and blue jeans.

Officers Leslie Hodge and Robert Musterman broke up a fight about 2:30 a.m., February 10 at an apartment in the 5900 block of Cherrywood Lane, where during the altercation one man had threatened another with a knife. The two participants, both Greenbelt residents, ages 20 and 21, were arrested and charged with possession of marijuana as well as other charges stemming from the fight. They were held on $1,000 bond each.

Cpl. Timothy Hahn arrested a 31-year-old Greenbelt resident about 2:30 a.m., February 9 for driving while intoxicated in the 7700 block of Hanover Parkway. Hahn then found the motorist in possession of suspected marijuana and a loaded semi-automatic .32 caliber pistol in the car. The man was held on $5,000 bond, charged with possession of marijuana and transporting a handgun.

A man walked into the patient waiting room of an office suite in the 7500 block of Greenway Center Drive about 9:25 a.m., February 6, picked up a VCR in the room, tucked it under his arm and ran from the building. He was described as a black male in his mid-20's, 185 lbs., wearing a gray hat, gray jacket with red stripes, gray corduroy pants and white tennis shoes.

An apartment in the 9100 block of Springhill Lane was broken into during the day on February 9 by breaking a ground-level window. Money was stolen.

Two cars were stripped of all four tires while parked overnight on February 9. One was a 1979 VW in the 9200 block of Edmonston Road. The other was a 1982 Toyota Celica in the 6900 block of Hanover Parkway.

A 1986 Chevy Spectrum, stolen February 8 from the 400 block of Ridge Road in the Lakeside North apartment complex, was recovered two days later in Baltimore. At the same location on February 8 a 1985 Chevy Spectrum was damaged in an unsuccessful attempt to steal it, and on another parked car two tires were slashed.
