Lakewood Funds Restored, Construction Months Away

by Virginia Beauchamp

Well into the regular Greenbelt City Council meeting on June 10, County Councilmember Audrey Scott, arriving from another meeting, took the floor to present a verbal cornucopia of gifts. These things include direct aid, services, and ongoing programs from the county that have been allocated to Greenbelt by the Prince George's County government in its new budget adopted on May 29.

Two items that had been funded last year and then taken away during the county's budget crisis were now refunded, Scott pointed out. One was an $8,000 allocation for CARES, the other $500,000 to cure the storm drainage problem affecting the Lakewood subdivision. The CARES fund was back, Scott said, though at a lower level—$5,000. Nevertheless, this amount was assured. She was particularly delighted to announce that the long-festering drainage problem could now at last be ended.

Another long-standing unfinished project — the creation of Greenbrook Lake — may also come to completion with the final installation of $205,000. In addition, $43,000 has been allocated for the planning phase of a project to correct flooding problems involving Ridge Rd.

Among other monies allocated to Greenbelt were the following: a grant for the community center, $25,000; funds for the teen drop-in program, $20,000; therapeutic and arts programs and services, $24,000; summer playgrounds, $15,600; supervised gyms at Greenbelt Middle School, $1,200; community supervisors, $19,200; and the Boys and Girls Club, $2,000. Not all monies are given directly to the city but support programs and services provided by county agencies to constituencies within the city.

For example, $8,800 is earmarked to be spent on program, clerical and administrative support in Greenbelt. Another $162,000 continues the county's support for the after-school program for the Greenbelt Elementary School.

In addition, Scott reported that another $120,000 in federal block grant funds was expected to be allocated to Greenbelt for improvements on Edmonston Rd. This would come about, she has been assured, at a hearing on Thursday morning, June 13.

Amid a bouquet of expressions of gratitude from the city councilmembers for Scott's work in representing Greenbelt,

Audrey Scott

Councilmember Thomas White said, smiling, "And the citizens of Greenbelt deserve every penny." Scott did not disagree. "The city received its fair share of what was given out this year," she said.

Mayor Antoinette Bram commended Bowie resident Scott's concern for the city. "I live in Bowie but my heart's in District 4," Scott answered, "—all of District 4," referring to the county council district she rep-

Green Ridge Residents Protest Policy on Manager

by Virginia Beauchamp

The issue of policy concerning the hiring of new management for Green Ridge House was resolved without council discussion at the June 10 city council meeting by the placing of the residents' petition on the consent agenda. In effect, council agreed with the city manager's recommendation that a 24-hour presence be available at the residential facility for the elderly that is maintained by the city at 22 Ridge Rd.

Although neither the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development nor the state government, which have jurisdiction over the facility, require a resident manager, Green Ridge House in its 18 years has always previously had a resident manager. Some 59 residents of Green Ridge House petitioned the Greenbelt City Council that the manager be allowed to live off site.

Currently the position of manager is vacant, since the former resident manager has resigned — apparently because she preferred a 40-hour week. In the interim, Community Realty, which manages the facility for the city, is conducting a search, a process which is estimated to take as long as three months. In the meantime, according to the city manager's memo, a member of the office staff has been given a beeper and a 24-hour answering service is also available to respond to residents' calls.

Spokesperson for petitioners

During the petitions and requests segment of the agenda at the June 10 meeting, Dorothy Milech, a resident of Green Ridge House, spoke with some fervor concerning council's action in supporting the city manager's recommendation. "Why was our petition with a majority count for a manager (as opposed to a resident manager) not honored?", she wanted to know. She went on to stress "the excellent security" and the easy availability of telephone assistance. (Apparently residents hope that the popular former resident manager could be prevailed upon to return if she could live off site.)

Conceding the large proportion of residents who are independent, Mayor Antoinette Bram nevertheless expressed council's concern over the remainder, who may not feel independent. Councilmember Thomas White pointed out that having a 24-hour presence in the building did not necessarily preclude having a 40-hour work week for the manager.

Responding to the distress expressed by Milech concerning the fact that the issue had already been decided (by its placement on the consent agenda), Councilmember Rodney Roberts moved that the petition be placed on the agenda for the next council meeting, which will take place in late July. Council unanimously approved the motion.

Issue Revisited

The issue did not die there, however. At a later moment, but after the audience for the council meeting had thinned out, Betty Brown, who has provided nursing care for some two to seven Green Ridge House residents at any one time during the last many years, spoke strongly in favor of a 24-hour presence in the facility. Many residents are handicapped, she pointed out. Some are blind; many are deaf. Some are in their mid-nineties. Many could not handle seeking help by telephone. Many also use wheelchairs, which are difficult to negotiate through the front door.

Celebrate Library's 50th With Read-In and Sweets

by Eileen Peterson

Greenbelt Library invites the community to begin signing up for places in its day-long Read-In, "The Sweet Taste of Greenbelt: E Pluribus Unum," set for Wednesday, June 26, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Celebrating with words and sweets the 50th anniversary of the county library system, the local branch will hold the read-in on the main floor while offering desserts and beverages in the lower-level meeting room.

In All Languages

Sign-up sheets are at the children's and adult's services desks.

Readings are limited to 10 minutes; those wishing to read a short poem—and children—may want to sign-up with a friend or two to fill the time slot.

Passages can be read in any language. Those reading in sign-language are asked to bring a speaking interpreter; conversely, those who can sign are invited to help throughout the day.

Any published poem, story, book segment, script, musical lyrics or historical document is welcome.

For maximum enjoyment, readers will sign-in again that day and list the title or source of the reading. Patrons can then search for and enjoy the longer passages or other works by an author featured.

Local, county and state elected officials are being invited to share favorite readings.

Silence and Sweets

Downstairs, desserts—including fruit—and beverages will be served all day to word-lovers who are invited to bring (or check-out) a book to enjoy as they eat.

A Community Party

Restaurants in the area have joined in pledging food donations; food stores and civic organizations in Greenbelt have received letters asking them to cosponsor the Read-In Cafe. Desserts with ethnic backgrounds will mingle with ordinary sweets, reflecting Greenbelt's diverse population.

Any civic group that did not receive a letter but wants to be part of the birthday festivities, call the library at 345-5800.

Phone calls are now being made to those on the mailing list; some are promising homemade treats while others are sending cash donations for beverages and supplies. Names of all commercial or civic cosponsors of the free, day-long event will be publically recognized on signs that day and in the press. Checks should be made out to Friends of the Greenbelt Library.

Volunteers

Help is needed throughout Tuesday and Wednesday, June 25 and 26. Please call the library or come in to sign up.

Where Were You Born?

A world and a U.S. Map on the wall near the information desk will give everyone a chance to mark a birthplace with a star-sticker. Souvenir bookmarks will be given away.

Partnership Plans Excite Bank/Middle School Team

by Donna H. Fohs

The adoption process is underway. Thanks to a campaign spearheaded by Congressman Albert R. Wynn of Maryland's 4th District, Greenbelt Middle School will soon be "adopted" by Chevy Chase Bank. This new partnership will expand the Adopt-a-School/Partners in Education Program, which encourages businesses to have long-term relationships with schools. Although not in his district, Greenbelt Middle School benefited greatly as a result of Wynn's recent "Adopt-a-School" Drive, which further encouraged businesses to become involved with those schools most in need of assistance.

According to Judy E. Sheehan, Special Assistant to the Superintendent for Business and Community Outreach for Prince George's County Schools, the ten-year Partners in Education Program has been hailed as a valuable and successful resource for area schools and businesses alike. The schools benefit because the partnerships increase student motivation and teacher morale, develop specific interests in certain subject areas and increase the number of positive role models. Such partnerships also improve the school's image, offer educational opportunities and support, and provide practical experience for students in the workplace.

As for the businesses, they gain visibility, acceptance and positive community relations as

Remember Fala

I hope that in selecting a name for the park for dogs, the city will look to the tradition of commemorating the Roosevelts where appropriate. If I can assure you that I mean no disrespect to Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt with that statement, I will proceed to offer the following suggestion. Since we memorialize him with our Roosevelt Center, and her with Eleanor Roosevelt High School, it seems a perfect choice to name the dog park after Fala, their black scotty.

The reference librarian informed me that the dog's full name was Murray of Fala Hill, and that when reporters would see Fala, they knew that the president was nearby. We, from that era remember how well-known Fala was to the nation because he was made note of in the media over a long period of time.

I can recall a broadcast when, as a kid, I heard FDR speak during a re-election campaign. He elicited a great, gleeful, partisan response from a large audience by jovially berating the Republicans. With that wonderful voice, and that endearing Roosevelt gusto, he said that it was not enough for the Republicans to have attacked him, but they had to go after his family as well—his wife, Eleanor, his son, Jimmy...and now they are even attacking "my little dog, Fala."

They Will Come

This letter is in response to Marsha Barrett's article New Deal Cafe Has Financial Problems from the May 23 edition of the Greenbelt News Review. I will not dispute the journalistic accuracy of anything that Barrett reported in her article relative to the current profitability of the cafe, but the tone was gloomy and intended as a rallying cry for the community-at-large to come save a sinking ship.

As the music director for the New Deal Cafe, I feel it is important to offer an insider's perspective that may put a different spin on how to interpret the status of the cafe. I want to clarify that the New Deal Cafe is like a baby that was born in January (when the Greenbelt Community Center opened) and that as such the cafe should be allowed to crawl in the first six months before it is expected to walk. Barrett's article did not take into consideration that the New Deal Cafe opened in the dead of winter and most people prefer summer weather climate when visiting a coffee house, so her mentioning "The New Deal Cafe may close its doors in a few weeks." was a premature rush to conclusion not unlike forecasting the outcome of an election when only 35% of the precincts have reported in.

If I exercise a leap of faith and presume that most readers will believe what they read in the Greenbelt News Review, then I have cause for concern that Barrett's article could cause some potential patrons to the New Deal Cafe to take their business elsewhere as they would not want to go to a doomed cafe. That would be unfortunate. So my hope is to put a silver lining on Barrett's cloud.

It is significant to point out that the majority of people working at the New Deal Cafe are volunteers. They provide a tremendous amount of time and energy because they believe, as I do, that Greenbelt needs its own version of "Cheers" — where everybody knows your name — and where you get to see live entertainment every night without having to pay admission at the door. For FREE, people!!!

As the new music director, I have networked with countless musicians to bring first-rate music to the people of Greenbelt despite the fact that all the musicians play for is tips. Call me crazy, but I believe that the New Deal Cafe is like Kevin Costner in "Field of Dreams" who heard the whisper on the wind that said "If you build it, they will come." Well folks, we have built something very special and now it is up to the people of Greenbelt to come out in force to ensure that this real life movie about a cafe plays out with a happy ending.

Race to Honor Sid Conger

Sid Conger, a long-time distance runner from nearby Berwyn Heights, is being honored for his 35 years of service to the community and to the Berwyn Presbyterian Church where he is pastor. Conger, who has run in many Greenbelt races, including the marathon, is being honored by—of all things—a race called the "Sidney Shuffle." This five mile run or walk on Saturday, June 22, starting at 9 a.m., may be run or walked at one's own pace. Prizes will be given in all age groups and to an overall winner.

For some Greenbelters it may introduce a new course around Lake Artemesia on a flat, paved, tree-lined pathway. The start is at the Wells Ice Skating rink on Paint Branch Parkway.

Entry forms for the race with directions are available at the Greenbelt Youth Center. Children under 18 must have a parent or guardian's signature on the entry form. Children under eight must be accompanied by a parent. All registrants will receive a "Sidney Shuffle" t-shirt for as long as they last. Early registration is helpful but race day entries will be accepted.

Call 601-5164 for an entry or information. The race will benefit the Help by Phone Community Service Center.

Red Cross Recruits Teens for Summer

Youths who are 13 years or older and would like to get involved with the community are invited to attend a Prince George's County Red Cross Orientation Saturday, June 22 from 10 a.m.-noon at the Chapter Headquarters, 6206 Belcrest Road in Hyattsville.

This program gives teenagers the opportunity to explore their interests while making a significant contribution to their community. Participants will use many different skills and fulfill a variety of needs for Red Cross. Primary work will be done within the Chapter building, including receptionist duties and clerical and computer work. While hours are flexible, generally a minimum of four hours per week is expected.

Anyone interested in attending the orientations should call Prince George's American Red Cross at (301) 559-8500 to register.

Various Services Exchanged by GIVES

by Pat Unger

Farrell Didio, manager of the parent group, the Cooperative Caring Network (CCN), joined members of GIVES, the Greenbelt Intergenerational Volunteer Exchange Service, at their second annual meeting on Saturday, June 1 in the senior classroom of the Community Center. Didio clarified that the volunteer assistance offered by GIVES, although especially helpful for the homebound elderly or the disabled, is intended to be readily available to anyone who completes the registration process. Help can be given, in fact, in filling out the required form.

Once in the computer, the new participant can call the GIVES' office at 507-6580 to ask for such help as light housekeeping or yardwork, shopping assistance, transportation for medical appointments or other needs, as well as many other services. The volunteer who responds earns a care credit for each hour of service. These credits may be used, saved, or given to others.

Irene Hensel, GIVES' office manager, and Karen Haseley, liaison from the recreation department senior programs, reported that more than 100 participants are now registered. The group voted thanks to the Greenbelt City Council for vital support during the first year and passed a budget that will include a printed brochure to help reach more city residents who could benefit from GIVES.

Chair Janet Parker adjourned the meeting at noon to a picnic lunch on the lawn, courtesy of the Senior Citizens Advisory Committee, so that those present could attend the "Not for Seniors Only" workshop on health and laughter that was given by Betty Timer at 1 p.m. All seemed to think it was a pleasant way to spend a day.

Dog Park Approved

by Kerana Todorov

After a public hearing Monday night, the Greenbelt City Council unanimously approved, on a one-year trial basis, the development of a dog park on city owned property on Hanover Drive, next to Greenway Village apartment's pool. The vote was for a 11,550 square foot lot, enclosed by a six foot chain link vinyl fence. The vinyl fence will cost $8,275, according to Planning and Community Development Director Celia Wilson.

Three councilmembers Thomas White, Edward Putens and Judith Davis favored a vinyl fence which they considered softer and better looking. Mayor Antoinette Bram and Councilmember Rodney Roberts, however, wanted a $2,000 cheaper galvanized fence for the one-year trial phase of the project. They were the two dissenting votes.

In another motion, council voted to restrict use of the park to Greenbelt residents but to direct city staff to develop a process for rare special exceptions.

These may include invitations to use the park that could be extended to dog experts by the Greenbelt Dog Park Association and the city staff.

Council also decided to require park users to purchase a $5 permit, valid for one year, and to direct City Solicitor Robert Manzi to review a proposed list of rules and regulations drawn up by the association and the city staff.

After the one year trial period, council will review the successes and problems facing the park before making it permanent.

Kris White, president of the association, said her organization would help with the upkeep of the park.

Local Students Win Scholarship

The Greenbelt Middle School announced that Neysan Sturdivant of Greenbelt and Evin Heath of College Park received Robert C. McKean Scholarship Awards. These awards are given in memory of the late Robert C. McKean, who was principal of the middle school from 1985 to 1989.

Sturdivant, an Eleanor Roosevelt High School student who will attend the University of Maryland, Baltimore County, plans to major in medicine. When he was a student at Greenbelt Middle School, he was awarded the Knapp award for service and grade point average. Heath who will graduate from Parkdale High School, will attend Ricks College in Idaho, where she will major in physical education.

Two of four $500 McKean Memorial Scholarships were awarded this year; the remaining two are expected to be awarded next year. The scholarship is for county resident students graduating from high school with at least a C grade point average who attended Greenbelt Middle School at least one semester. Preference is given to those majoring in education, music, art, or history.

Fractal Terradactyl To Perform

Fractal Terradactyl will be performing at the New Deal Cafe in the Greenbelt Community Center on Saturday June 15, 8 p.m. Fractal Terradactyl is a collaborative trio dedicated to expanding the boundaries of music currently defined as "polyrhythmic experimental adventurousism." The band members are Tom Hopkins of Heartbeat Haven alternately playing acoustic guitar, bass, saxophone, tsunami, xylophone and light percussions; the Gregory "Flaco" Woods of FrancoJazz alternately playing congas, clave, rainstick, whistle and a wide variety of percussion instruments and Trevor "Ras" Siegel of Distant Rumble alternately playing congas, djembe drum, hammer dulcimer, kalimba, xube tube and an assortment of rattles, shakers and bells.

Fractal Terradactyl performances are a blend of traditional ethnic songs and contemporary jazz standards mixed in with coffee-house style musical poetry readings and spontaneous freeform percussion jams inspired by tribal rhythms from Africa. The performance at the New Deal Cafe is a homecoming of sorts for band member Trevor Siegel who was born and raised in Greenbelt and attended classes at the old Greenbelt Center School, which is now the newly renovated Greenbelt Community Center.

Grasscycling Info

Throwing away a good thing? People who are bagging grass might be. Consider "grass-cycling" — mulching the clippings back into the lawn. Grasscycling will hydrate and return valuable nutrients back into the lawn. A single ton of freshly mowed grass contains 50 lbs of nitrogen, 18 lbs of phosphorous and over 45 lbs of potassium, which can be returned to the soil and contribute to a lush, healthy lawn. Grasscycling will speed up the time required to mow the lawn too. Don't bag and drag grass! For a free brochure about grasscycling or backyard composting, call the City Recycling Coordinator at 474-8308.

they promote student and teacher appreciation for private enterprise. The collaboration also helps them to develop product recognition, improve school employee morale and create a better educated work force for the future.

Greenbelt Plans

Specific to Greenbelt Middle School, Principal Richmond Myrick will be working closely with Peggy Hatton, Director of Special Projects for Chevy Chase Bank, to tailor a program that best meets the needs of the school. Dr. Myrick is anxious to begin working toward three goals in particular: tutorial programs, incentive awards for attendance, and the acquisition of state-of-the-art technology and computer software for the classrooms.

Additional programs of interest to both Dr. Myrick and Hatton involve the development of a school newspaper and the establishment of a school banking group to teach basic banking and accounting skills. Other ideas that have been tossed around include tutorial and mentor programs.

Of special importance is their joint goal to establish programs that reward the greatest number of students for a variety of accomplishments, as opposed to only those making the honor roll.

According to Hatton, creativity will be the key in making these incentive efforts appealing to students and successful to the school as a whole. She has already proposed rewarding students with Chevy Chase savings bonds for reaching their goals. Already the rewards have begun to arrive at the school. Chevy Chase Bank has donated solar calculators to the school-wide testing program.

Although the specifics of their relationship are still in the developmental stage, what is intended to be a five year plan will be worked on throughout the summer so that it will be in place by the upcoming school year. Both parties are excited about the possibilities and determined to make this a successful venture. Specifically Myrick believes "the new partnership will add another dimension to our school's delivery of quality education and will assist our Parent-Teachers Association in bringing to fruition the ideas that we have dreamed about but that we would not have been able to realize."

Mosquito Control Spraying Begins

The Maryland Department of Agriculture (MDA) began the adult mosquito surveillance and spraying program in Greenbelt on Wednesday, June 3, weather conditions permitting.

The Greenbelt Public Works Department, 474-8004, will take citizens' requests for mosquito treatments. When making a request it is important to specify the time of day when the mosquitoes are the worst and to describe the exact location of the problem area. The requests will be forwarded to the MDA each Tuesday afternoon.

The MDA would also like to know the location of any beekeepers within the city. Chemicals used for spraying are highly toxic to bees.

Spraying will be done between 7 and 11 p.m. on Wednesdays. Parents should prevent their children from riding bikes, skateboards, etc. directly behind the spray truck. This has been a serious problem in Greenbelt. Children have even tried to escape the notice of the driver and hold onto the back of the truck for a ride while spraying is done. MDA drivers will discontinue spraying if this occurs. They will try to return to the area at a later time but this may not be possible due to time constraints.

Breeding Places

Mosquitoes can breed in any water-holding container, including bird baths, wading pools, pet watering dishes, tin cans, old tires, clogged gutters, and flower pots. To prevent mosquito breeding, water should be changed weekly, gutters should be cleaned out, and other wa-

GREEN RIDGE

some 50 or so other facilities she was acquainted with, Brown urged council to continue its policy of providing a 24-hour presence.

Status Change

Al Herling, a member of the Greenbelt Arts Committee, requested that council change the status of their group from committee to board, in consonance with such other advisory groups as the Advisory planning board or Community Relations Advisory Board or the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board. He stressed the importance of the arts to the quality of life in the city. As a committee, he urged, the group seems merely subsidiary to the Recreation Department, yet the arts, in such things as music and drama, extend beyond the range of that department.

Mayor Bram suggested the importance of other groups which are called committees, such as the Recycling Committee and the Committee on Education. Nevertheless, council agreed to hold a work session with the Arts Committee to discuss the issue further.

FOGM Request

Sandra Lange, president of Friends of the Greenbelt Museum, spoke on behalf of her group in planning for the city's 60th anniversary, which will take place in 1997. On a motion by Councilmember White, council directed the city clerk, David Moran, and the Recreation Department staff to set up an ad hoc committee to coordinate activities for the anniversary, with the understanding that FOGM members would be included.

Lange also informed council and the audience that FOGM had received a $5,000 grant from Prince George's County for its future development. Some 40 visitors had registered at the museum on the previous Sunday, she said — attracted by the Tricentennial "Passport to History."

St. Hugh's Students Receive Scholarships

Three eighth grade students from St. Hugh's Catholic Elementary School have been awarded high school academic scholarships for the 1996-97 school year.

Maureen Berard, daughter of Dr. Michael and Patricia Berard of Glenn Dale, received a $1,000 grant from Elizabeth Seton High School in Bladensburg.

Grants of $1,000 from St. Vincent Pallotti in Laurel went to two students from Bowie, Katherine Jenkins, daughter of Maj. Kevin and Cheryl Jenkins and Jillian Shaner, daughter of Richard and Marilyn Shaner.

In earning their scholarships, all three students scored in the 90th percentile or higher on standardized testing, and maintained a grade point average at or close to 4.0. All three participate in Catholic Youth Organization basketball and softball for St. Hugh's and belong to the Legion of Mary, which provides volunteer assistance to the Greenbelt Nursing Home on a weekly basis.

On May 27, vocational deaf and hard of hearing students from Eleanor Roosevelt High School visited Domino's Pizza in the center. Each student learned both the process of pizza-making and various aspects of the business. This was a follow-up activity using the community as a resource after students made pizza in their own classroom from their newly purchased kitchen unit. Thanks to Sandy, the manager, each participant made his/her own individual pizza. Eating the product was the best part of the entire trip!

Caterpillars Active

Maryland Secretary of Agriculture Lewis R. Riley has announced that several infestations of defoliating caterpillars have occurred this spring in Prince George's County: eastern tent caterpillar, forest tent caterpillar and canker worm, often called loopers, or inchworms. Forest tent caterpillars often feed in the same location as the gypsy moth caterpillars. "When that happens, defoliation is likely to occur," Riley said.

Loopers, forest tent caterpillars and gypsy moth caterpillars all prefer oak leaves, but will feed on a large number of other tree species, such as maple, hickory and basswood. Trees usually are not severely damaged, however, because the caterpillars generally only feed for a few weeks and pupate early in the season, allowing the tree time to re-leaf and recover. Serious damage can occur, however, when all three species are present in large numbers because gypsy moth caterpillars continue to feed until late June, which does not allow the trees enough time to recover, according to Dr. Robert Rabaglia, Entomologist, Forest Health Monitoring Program in the Maryland Department of Agriculture.

"This spring we are receiving reports of potentially defoliating populations of loopers in Prince George's County," Rabaglia said.

For further information, call Dr. Rabaglia, Forest Pest Management, Maryland Department of Agriculture, (410) 841-5922.

Hospice Help Needed

Hospice of Prince George's County is in need of volunteers to help in the Largo office with clerical tasks such as telephoning, photocopying, and filing. Volunteers are needed to assist with home care activities, such as visiting patients and their families, transporting patients to medical appointments, and providing respite care. Volunteers should have own transportation, and formal training is provided. For more information, or to volunteer, call the Voluntary Action Center at 699-2800.

Recycling Corner

by Tracy Vincent, City Recycling Coordinator

Plastic grocery bags can be recycled at the local Co-Op, Safeway and Giant supermarkets. Plastic bags can be clear or colored. Bags include dry cleaning bags, empty bread bags and any miscellaneous clean bags. Bags should be free of paper receipts and staples (on dry cleaning bags). Old bags are made into new trash bags and plastic lumber.

Recycling plastic bags is easy and important since they don't biodegrade in the landfill. To recycle bags, they must be brought to a supermarket collection point. Bags are not accepted for recycling at the Drop-off Center. If you have a recycling question that you would like to see answered in the "Recycling Corner," call 474-8308 or write me at 25 Crescent Road, Greenbelt, Md 20770 and ask your question.

POLICE BLOTTER

Based on Information Released by the Greenbelt Police Department

An attempted armed robbery was reported at Eleanor Roosevelt High School on Friday, May 31. The victim told the School Resource Officer he was jumped by three suspects in the boy's locker room earlier that day. The suspects forced the victim to the floor and went through his pockets. As a result of the investigation, two resident youths, ages 14 and 15, along with a 16 year old nonresident youth were arrested. The youths were charged with attempted armed robbery and released into their parents' custody pending action by juvenile services.

Responding to a report of an assault in the 6100 block of Breezewood Drive on Friday evening, May 31, officers found a large group of people gathered in front of an apartment building. While the officers were trying to ascertain what had happened, two men started a fist fight. The two men were separated and placed under arrest. A woman, who attempted to intervene as the officers were breaking up the fight, was also arrested after ignoring a request to calm down. The three people, two resident men ages 22 and 24 and the 24 year old nonresident woman, were charged with disorderly conduct, and released on citation pending trial.

A report of a violent domestic dispute resulted in officers responding to the 9000 block of Breezewood Terrace on Sunday afternoon, June 2. The victim, a woman, reported that her husband struck her and pushed her to the floor during an argument. The man, a 31 year old resident, was arrested, charged with domestic battery and released pending trial after appearing before a District Court Commissioner.

A woman was driving along Greenbelt Road on Monday evening, when a man pulled in front of the woman's car and applied his brakes in an attempt to cause an accident. The woman managed to avoid striking the man's car and continued to drive east on Greenbelt Road. When the woman stopped at the traffic light at Southway the man pulled alongside and began yelling at the woman. The man threw several rocks at the woman's car, damaging the paint, and fled the scene east on Greenbelt Road. The suspect, described as white man in his thirties, 5'8", 260 lbs with brown hair, beard, moustache and facial acne, was driving a light blue 1980's Toyota Corolla with temporary tags.

A woman reported being raped after having received a ride home in the early hours of Saturday morning, June 1. After being interviewed by a member of the Criminal Investigation Unit, the woman admitted no rape occurred. The woman, a 33 year old nonresident, was arrested on charges of making a false report to a police officer. The woman appeared before a District Court Commissioner and was held on $1,500 bond pending trial.

A man exited a cab after arriving at a destination in the 7900 block of Lakecrest Drive. The cab driver was attempting to give the passenger his change when the man reached into the cab and grabbed the cabby's money and a pager and fled on foot. The suspect is described as a black man, 19 to 20 years old, wearing a white t-shirt with black stripes, white pants and a brown golf cap. The robbery occurred on Friday morning, May 31.

On June 1, a wallet containing cash and a credit card was reported stolen from an office suite in the 6300 block of Ivy Lane. The wallet was removed from an unlocked briefcase while the office was unoccupied on either May 29 or 30.

Other thefts reported include: a purse and wallet from an unlocked cabinet behind a cash register in a store in Beltway Plaza on Friday morning, May 31; and an orange and black Sears brand 27" mountain bike from in front of the Springhill Lake Recreation Center on Thursday evening, June 6.

A vandalism was reported in the 9100 block of Springhill Lane on Friday evening, May 31. A rock was thrown through the kitchen window of a townhouse.

Auto Thefts and Recoveries

A computer check on a vehicle stopped for a traffic violation in the 5800 block of Cherrywood Lane on Thursday afternoon, revealed the vehicle, a 1992 Nissan Maxima, had been reported stolen to Prince George's County Police. The driver, a 22 year old nonresident man, was arrested on a charge of theft. A District Court Commissioner placed the man on a $2,500 bond for the theft charge. The man was turned over to the county Sheriff's department for service on two outstanding warrants.

A 1979 Chevrolet Caprice was reported stolen from the 6110 block of Breezewood Court on Friday morning, May 31. Later that day, a friend of the victim noticed the vehicle parked in the area of an apartment complex in College Park. The victim was notified and retrieved his vehicle.

A 1996 Plymouth Neon reported stolen from the 7700 block of Hanover Parkway was recovered on Saturday afternoon, June 1. The vehicle was recovered by Prince George's County Police in the 12700 block of Campton Drive, Upper Marlboro.

An officer recovered a 1988 Mazda which had been reported stolen to Baltimore County Police on May 5. The recovery occurred on Sunday, June 2, in the 5900 block of Cherrywood Lane. The ignition switch had been damaged.

A 1990 Honda was recovered in the 6700 block of Springshire Way on Monday morning, June 3. The vehicle had been reported stolen to Prince George's County Police on May 28.

LAKESIDE FUNDS

Lakewood Project

Funds for the Lakewood project come out of flood control monies, the storm water management fund. In past years other allocations from this fund have been used for engineering studies, including $58,000 spent by the city which is to be reimbursed. City Manager Daniel Hobbs expressed his hope that new studies to finish the project would be based on this previous "excellent" work.

Mayor Bram concurred. The city had been impressed by the design carried out by consulting engineer Lee Botts, who had been recommended to the city by the county staff itself. By careful use of swales and city streets, he had been able to avoid the more expensive solution of piping. "We consider it a very skillful plan," Bram said.

The county withdrew support for the project in November 1995. The city assumes that the reinstated project will be constructed by the county. Meetings with the in the 7200 block of Hanover Drive revealed the vehicle as having been reported stolen to Prince George's County Police. The recovery occurred on Thursday, June 6. The vehicle, a maroon 1989 Chevrolet van, was impounded.

A 1993 Honda Accord four-door, MD tags AWK710, was reported stolen on Tuesday, June 4. The vehicle was taken from the 8100 block of Lakecrest Drive.

Vandalism to, thefts from, and attempted thefts from vehicles were reported in the following areas: 5800 block of Cherrywood Terrace, 7400 block of Greenway Center Drive, 6900 block of Hanover Parkway, 6000 block of Springhill Drive, 6100 block of Springhill Terrace, and 100 block of Westway (two incidents).
