GREENBELT, MARYLAND

BOY DROWNS IN GREENBELT LAKE

By William R. Poole

Tragedy cast its shadow over this summer's swimming season in Greenbelt when Thomas Williams, 14, of Beltsville, Md., was drowned in the Greenbelt Lake Saturday, June 11, while playing in an old rowboat with four other young boys.

One of the youth's companions, Robert Hanna, 9, also in danger, was rescued by W. Clayton Barlowe, 37-J Ridge Road.

Mr. Barlowe had taken his young daughter, Jackie, to see the lake, and was returning home when he heard the boys in the lake yell for help. He immediately ran to the edge of the water where he saw one of the youths swimming towards shore, and the other two struggling in the water.

Mr. Barlowe stripped off part of his clothes and swam towards the two who were struggling for their lives. Grabbing one of the boys, Mr. Barlowe swam to the shore about 30 yards away. He returned to see the other youth sink beneath the surface of the water.

Mr. Barlowe dived several times for the other youth but was unable to find his body, until others were summoned to the scene to aid in the rescue.

Mr. Roy S. Braden, Community Manager; Mr. Wallace F. Mabee, Chief of Police; Mr. George Panagoulis, police officer; and Mr. George Fair, newly appointed life guard, went immediately to the lake, where they were joined by Mr. Robert E. Jacobsen and others of Greenbelt in their search for the body.

Finally, all the men joined hands and started walking, beneath the surface of the water, in the direction

The Greenbelt High School will graduate its first class Monday, June 20th, at exercises to be held in the school auditorium at 8:00 P.M.

Five boys and one girl will receive their diplomas from Ormondo Phair, board member of the Prince George's County Board of Education.

The address to the graduating class will be delivered by Livingston Blair, Educational Advisor of Farm Security Administration. Mr. Sliker, Principal, will preside.

Members of the graduating class are:

Dorma Ashley
Martin Boziovich
Richard Davis
Harry Ewing
Earl Smith
John Guest

The Greenbelt High School, which has been conducting its classes in the community grammar school, will move into its new $142,000 building at Branchville and Crescent Roads next September.

The new high school, which will accommodate approximately 300 pupils, will offer courses in all standard high school subjects and will meet all the requirements of a certified Class "A" high school in Maryland.

A LETTER FROM MANAGER BRADEN

Dear Fellow Citizens:

It was a most unfortunate and regrettable accident that happened Saturday afternoon at the lake, the details of which are printed elsewhere in this issue of the Cooperator.

Here, I just wish to make an appeal for your full cooperation which, heretofore, you have so often and so willingly given the Administration.

We are rushing the construction of necessary equipment for water sports at the lake just as fast as our staff can build it.

Although we planned the opening of the lake for last weekend, certain peculiarities of the problem forced a slight postponement.

It may even be that, in the beginning, we will not be able to allow non-swimmers in the lake at all but, you may be assured that, just as in the past we have done our utmost to provide every necessity and comfort for Greenbelt citizens, we will leave no stone unturned to accommodate all.

I wish only to appeal to you at this time to help us to make water sports a safe and enjoyable activity by following our swimming regulations which, in reality, are devised only for your enjoyment and protection.

where the boy's body was last seen. Mr. Jacobsen, when he reached about six foot depth, felt the boy's body on the bottom of the lake, and exclaimed that he thought he had touched the body. Mr. Fair immediately dived for the youth.

Artificial respiration was started at 12:02 P.M. and inhalators arrived ten minutes later from Bladensburg.

Dr. James S. Dryden worked feverishly in an effort to revive the youth, but after two hours' work proved futile the boy was pronounced dead.

Robert Hanna, who was towed ashore, owes his life to the heroic efforts of Clayton Barlowe.

The others in the boat when it overturned were Dan Corrigan of Boltsville, and Thomas Freeman and Carl Pearson of Greenbelt. These boys were able to swim ashore by themselves.

SCOUTS THROW FATHER AND SON BANQUET

In commemoration of Father's Day, the Boy Scouts and Cubs will hold a father and son banquet in the social room of the school, Thursday, June 16, at 7:30. The guests of honor will be town manager Roy Braden, assistant town manager, O. Kline Fulmer, Field Executive for Scouting, Hovey; Mr. Robert Jacobson and Prince George's County District Commissioner for Scouting, Frank Taylor.

Following a turkey dinner with all the trimmings there will be a complete Olympic program between the fathers and the sons in the gym.

All fathers of scouts or cubs who have not as yet been contacted, kindly get in touch with Mr. Pottit or Mr. Lane at once.

MABEE NAMED FIRE AND POLICE CHIEF

Town Council Approves Appointment

The Town Council, meeting Monday night, approved Town Manager Roy S. Braden's appointment of Wallace F. Mabee as Fire and Police Chief of Greenbelt. The position will pay $1.00 per year, per office.

Mr. Mabee, who is also an Assistant Community Manager, resides at 3-Woodland Way. He has had considerable experience in public administration work, having served both as mayor and as alderman in Eastport, Maine. He was also State Director of the N.R.A. in Maine for two years.

According to Mr. Mabee, the Fire Department will consist of the Greenbelt maintenance employees, who will be on constant call.

The present police force is made up of two full time officers, Yale B. Huffman and George Panagoulas. "Buddy" Attick, one of the maintenance employees has been deputized as a police officer by Mayor Louis Bessmer, and has been assigned to the Lake Greenbelt Area. Buddy has lived here all his life, his family home being on what is now Greenbelt land until it burned last winter.

CHILDREN ENJOY NEW PLAYGROUNDS

by Sally Larmore

Three large playgrounds for children of school age and further equipment for the thirteen small play units, constructed in the inner courts for pre-school children, will complete, according to Roy S. Braden, the recreational program for the youngsters of Greenbelt.

In addition to the sandboxes and see-saws, which are already in use, the thirteen small play units each will have a little slide, overhead bars, and three benches for the convenience of mothers. A fence will encircle each playground with shrubbery around the fence to give privacy to the children.

Big slides, swings, jungle bars and overhead bars will be included in the equipment for the three large playgrounds; one to be provided beyond the school below the underpass of Block "B", one in the grove of trees below the Food Store and one in among the trees between Block "J" and Block "E".

The Management may construct a few extra sandboxes in areas where a small number of children live.

A man and woman of technical training and experience in physical education will be appointed to supervise the recreational activities, including the playgrounds, swimming, boating and tennis for the children and adults of Greenbelt.

Below the one and one-half feet of sand used in the 13 sandboxes are six inches of gravel to permit good drainage. Approximately 26 tons of sand were used for the 13 boxes.

Construction of the small play units was included in the original architect's plans for Greenbelt, but Mr. Braden and Mr. O. K. Fulmer, realizing the necessity of recreational facilities for the older children, are responsible for the large playground units.

Approval of the sandboxes and see-saws has already been expressed by the youngsters of Greenbelt. Richard Maughan, 21 months old, starts toward the sandbox whenever his mother goes to the store. Madeline Mary Mark says, "I like to play in the sandbox, when I'm not riding my red bicycle."

SUMMER PLAY PLANNED FOR YOUNGSTERS

The Committee on Recreation for Girls and Boys met June 9, to discuss immediate plans for summer activities.

Manager Roy S. Braden and Mr. George Fair, Swimming Instructor, met with the committee.

Mr. Braden stated that in the very near future three playgrounds for larger children would be in operation; that horseshoes would be one of the features of amusement in the surrounding areas, and that Chief of Police Maboe had expressed a desire to cooperate with the committee on such an activity. Mr. Braden also said that Mr. Shepherd might be interested in sponsoring hiking parties over the newly completed hiking trails.

Mr. Fair said that only swimmers would be permitted to use the lake at present, but that there was a possibility of developing a small beach for waders. He also contributed quite a few suggestions about campfire parties and indoor games, as well as 9 o'clock (P.M.) bathing for swimmers.

Mr. John Bozek made a very definite suggestion regarding "once-a-week" gym night for boys and girls, as well as (See Summer Play, page 13)

"I haven't had much time to play in the little playgrounds", Dorothy Ann Roland informed the reporter, "for I have been going to school, but now I am going to enjoy them very much." Little auburn-haired Janice Gellog likes the sand, but she is not yet quite used to the see-saws.

Eddie Cawthrop also approves of the playgrounds in his statement to the inquiring press. "Even though I am only 16 months old, I have a big time in the sand with my shovels and bucket. It's fun to roll in, too." And little curly-haired blond Ann Goodman, 2½ years old, in an interview over her dish of ice cream in the Drug Store, told us enthusiastically, "I love to play in the sand with my shovels, rakes, and buckets, but most of all with Buddy Jones."

Ruth Morgan, Shirley Mitchell and David Maryn are looking forward with great anticipation, as are many other children of school age, to the completion of the large playgrounds.

HARRY FLEISCHER APPOINTED DIRECTOR OF HEALTH ASSOCIATION

Harry Fleischer, 6C Hillside Road, was appointed a director of the Greenbelt Health Association Thursday, June 9. The board members were unanimous in the selection of Mr. Fleischer to fill the vacancy created by the recent resignation of Arthur Dickerman.

Mr. Fleischer, with his wife and four year old daughter, has been a resident of Greenbelt and has been active in the organization of our Drug Store. He is employed as a chemist by the Department of Interior in Washington. He has also had training in pharmacy and holds a certificate of registry as a pharmacist in Pennsylvania, from which state the Fleischers hail.

GMAA STAG PARTY

The Men's Athletic Association of Greenbelt held its first "blow-out" Thursday night at the Branchville Volunteer Fire House. One hundred and fifty members enjoyed the evening's entertainment. During the evening President George Bauer presented Joe Starke, the captain of the Championship Block E Volley Ball Team---Bozek, Sidwell, McWilliams, Dove, Marack, Hitchcock, Gullinoy, and Talbot---with a loving cup for his team's prowess. Highlights of the evening were the rendering by the assembled mob of "Hail! Hail! The Gang's All Here"; singing and piano accompaniment by Maher and Gibbons; and that stag interpretation of the "Big Apple". It was discovered that after the "stag at eve had drunk his fill" of Arrow, he could shine to beat the band and the proximity of fire equipment was appreciated in lieu of some of his hot performances.

The arrangements committee and workers deserve special thanks for their planning and accomplishment of the evening revelry.

MOTHERS' CLUB PICNIC

The members of the Mothers' Club gathered at the lake for a picnic on Saturday, June 4th. Food was in abundance and all enjoyed a glorious time. Those who took part were the Beneficents, Downes, Carroll, Pittman, Slusser, Swailes, Holden, O'Leary, White, Richards, Harper and Hayes families.

JENNINGS B. CRAIG HURT

A collapsing vent stack at the Navy Yard sent Mr. Jennings B. Craig of 35C Ridge Road to the Providence Hospital with a broken hip. The accident occurred last Tuesday, June 7, while Mr. Craig was atop the stack preparing to move it.

Mr. Howard Carr of 33C Ridge Road, a neighbor, reports that the patient is resting well although he may be bed-fast for some time.

The "Life in Greenbelt" Photo Contest, sponsored by the Greenbelt Camera Club, will close Tuesday, June 21st. Prizes are:

First prize-	$5.00
Second prize-	3.00
Third prize-	2.00

Submit as many pictures as you like, any size, to Box 185, or drop them in the contest box at the drug store.

Mrs. Eleanor Templeman was elected to the post of Treasurer at the last meeting.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 21st, at which time interesting and instructive lantern slides covering various phases of photography will be shown. The Club will be very happy to see YOU there.

COMMUNITY CHURCH CHOIR

There have been many requests from the church-goers for a choir. For several weeks we have been calling for volunteers and have had encouraging results. The choir will be a reality soon. However we are sending out a special call for tenors. They are always the scarcest things in any community, but seem especially so in Greenbelt. We have one most good and faithful one in Mr. Fred Wilde, but if we have a twenty voice choir, as we hope, he will need some support. It would work the man's heart out to hold it alone.

All who are interested are most cordially invited to join the present members on Thursday evening in the music room at the school, at 7 o'clock for this week. Hereafter the hour will be 8 o'clock.

THE GREENBELT PLAYERS

By fair means or foul, The Greenbelt Players have been deprived of the services of one of their production aces. Whether the Cooperator offered him more money, a season pass, or a chocolate sundae, we probably never will know but the fact remains that Howard C. Custer has declined an assignment as director of one of the plays in the next offering of the Players.

After his fine handling of the melodramatic, "Danger," in the last offering, it had been decided that his would be the prize play of the next group. The best cast, the most select play, the choicest of everything was to be his for the asking but he has decided in favor of the newspaper world.

In all fairness to the gentleman we are glad to see him drop either one or the other of his positions. To be acting editor of a paper and director of a play at one and the same time would in all probability qualify him for the lunatic asylum in a week. He, in his regretful resignation put it like this, "I have but one life to give for Greenbelt and it matters not to me how that life is given. To me it seems that as editor of the Cooperator I can serve the community to a fuller extent and so, there lies my choice."

Our congratulations to the paper. The Players loss is your gain and we cherish the hope that we may call for his services at some future date.

John P. Murray

Note: The subject of the above remarks appreciates the consideration given him by his fellow Players. He does not remember making the "I-have-one-life-to-live..." remark, but he was in a daze about that time, and may well have. Nice of John P. to give him credit for it anyway. He's not usually that witty.

Cooperator workers, both editorial and technical should turn in total number of hours they worked on the paper during the month of May. Reports should be deposited in the Cooperator box or submitted to John McWilliams, Journalistic Club Treasurer, before 6 o'clock Saturday evening, June 18th.

COMMITTEE ORGANIZES PLAYGROUND

With a view to proper supervision of playground activities so that the children of Greenbelt may derive the greatest possible benefit from the use of the sandbox playgrounds placed in each block by the Administration, the Welfare Committee of the Greenbelt Citizens Association, at a meeting called last Wednesday night by its Chairman, Peter J. Carroll, undertook the organization of committees of interested mothers who would undertake the duty of overseeing the activities at the playgrounds in their respective blocks.

In this manner the group hopes to relieve the anxiety of the mothers of the smaller children, teach the children constructive play, the intelligent use and protection of equipment and, if necessary, act as arbitrators in cases of minor disputes.

The first group to organize was called together by Mrs. Downes in Gardenway. This and other groups since organized have established schedules for supervision and outlined programs for constructive play, organized reading and activities of like nature. Their whole hearted enthusiasm and co-operation should serve as an inspiration for the formation of further groups.

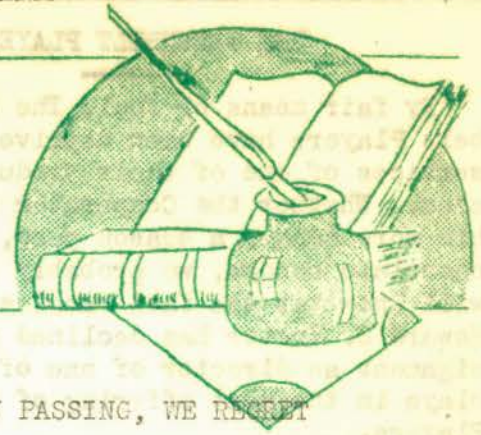

It is unfortunate that some of the playgrounds are not as ideally situated as others in respect to shade but it is hoped that this lack may be in part remedied by provision for beach umbrellas or some other device designed to render them comfortable during the summer.

Each sandbox playground group has its own problems and, it is hoped, through interchange of ideas, that each will avail itself of the opportunity to study the programs and regulations of other groups. In this manner it is felt that our children will reap a maximum of pleasure and benefit from these playgrounds.

With Mr. Bordenot's contribution to the transportation discussion which appears in this issue of the Cooperator, we have before us statements from the conflicting view points.

We regret that we lack space to print other lengthy statements we have received. They have been sincere and well considered, but seemed to offer neither the new slants on the problem nor the new contributions to its solution that would justify the space they demanded.

In general, we believe that the theoretical, matters-of-policy, differences of opinion have now been well defined. We believe that there can be little further discussion of the problem until detailed plans are placed before us.

We recommend to all who are interested, and all should be, that they submit their ideas and plans to the Transportation Committee as soon as possible. And we urge the Committee to have definite proposals before us as soon as possible.

In passing, we should like to express our regret that certain of our own comments on Mr. Bessemer's articles have been misunderstood. We did not say that the reasoning in those articles was that of shyster lawyers. We believe Mr. Bessemer has presented a plan which merits our serious attention, if not adoption.

We did say that it was shyster-lawyer logic to insist that the moneys collected for regular rides were 'gifts', and not 'fares'. We believe that those who are intellectually honest with themselves will agree-- to themselves, if not to the public.

To the Editor:

We hear so many residents of Greenbelt say that their grocery bill here exceeds that for a like period in Washington that we have decided to submit this record for your comparison and consideration. I should like to add that we have kept a very accurate record.

Below is a correct record of our grocery account for the past eight months of our residence in Greenbelt, and for a corresponding period the year before, while a resident of Washington.

Oct.	$42.20	45.32
Nov.	44.60	41.08
Dec.	54.00	44.00
Jan.	33.33	41.23
Feb.	36.00	39.55
Mar.	44.01	33.62
Apr.	40.23	39.55
May	49.15	40.24
	$343.54	$324.59

As you will note, our grocery account is $18.95 less for the past eight months of our residence in Greenbelt than for the like period of the previous year. Also, take into consideration that our children are older and we have one more child now than we had during the first eight months.

We can attribute the saving to several things, namely; milk costs about $2.00 less per month (which pays our Medical membership each month), some groceries are cheaper and we have learned to make better purchases. Instead of buying in small quantities we now get potatoes by the hundred pounds, apples by the bushel, two heads of lettuce instead of one, two bunches of celery instead of one, butter by the pound, and not by the quarter pound, bacon in full pounds or more, two cans of fruit instead of one, which is generally cheaper; Rinso, Crisco, sugar, coffee, all on special reduction days. Why pay $.21 for Rinso when on sale days you can purchase it for $.18? Crisco on sale is $.48 instead of $.53. Why purchase apples in five or ten pound bags and pay twice as much or more as when purchased by the bushel?

A LETTER TO GREENBELT WATER ENTHUSIASTS

You've all heard of boys swimming in our lake unsupervised. You've all heard of last Saturday's fatal accident.

It seems to me that had one young boy among the twenty odd bathers that day known something about life saving methods he could have averted a major disaster to the Williams family. And don't think the Williams family would not have thanked their stars for such a boy life-saver, and don't think YOU would not thank your stars for the saving of YOUR children from injury or fatality in the water.

So, how about a REAL life-saving and swimming program this summer? Let us "BE PREPARED" and let us learn to really enjoy activity in the water.

Read the posters and consult your life-guard.

CHILDREN'S PAMPHLETS DISTRIBUTED AT HEALTH CENTER

The Greenbelt Health Association has made arrangements to secure a number of pamphlets from the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor for free distribution at the Health Center.

The following booklets are available: Pre-Natal Care, Infant Care, The Child From 1 to 6, Child Management, Are you Training Your Child to Be Happy?, Guiding the Adolescent, and Posture and Physical Fitness.

NOTICE

Families living in houses with attic storage spaces are requested to be sure the vents in the gable end of the roof are open. Many houses are equipped with boards for closing these vents in the winter, but they should be removed in the summer to facilitate ventilation.

The Greenbelt Health Association suggests that families who are going on vacation trips this summer and have not joined the Association submit their applications for membership before leaving on their vacation in

TO THE EDITOR:

Mr. Bessemer wants to force the tenants of Greenbelt, presumably by raising the rentals, to contribute $4 each month to his proposed municipally-owned bus system--whether they ride the bus or not, whether they want to support the bus system or not and whether they like it or not. If the contribution of $4 per month were left entirely to the free choice of each individual tenant, as were fortunately the contributions to the Health Association, would the bus system fare better than the Health Association? But no, he would use force. Are contributions to the Health Association the next "must"?

He wants the profits derived from this bus system "diverted to expansion and improvement, or to other useful ends". What profits? What useful ends, Mr. Bessemer? Fireworks? "60-day" studies by biased investigators? He seeks the appointment of an authority on public ownership. Ownership is impertinent. Presumably he wants to use our rent money to hire his expert. He emphatically asserts that only by taxing each tenant $48 per year can our transportation problem be solved. In direct contradiction to this, he asserts that only an expert can determine whether this is true. He referred to certain conclusions of "authorities". What authorities? Like other general and meaningless statements, this one is unsupported.

If his proposal, or that of Mr. Porter, were adopted: (1) Bus and Streetcar transportation would cost us more than it does now and (2) the service would be inadequate and unsatisfactory. If it were adopted, bus transportation would cost some tenants, not $48 per year, but at least $113 per year. Bus transportation now costs bus riders, not $84 per year, as stated in his article, but $91 per year. The present bus system would not require so large a subsidy (out of rent money) if the appropriate laws were observed. Nor would the service be so limited.

He seems to question the validity of laws on the ground of well-nigh universal disregard for them. The validity of laws depends not upon their observance but upon whether or not they are properly adopted and promulgated by lawfully constituted authorities with jurisdiction and are not inconsistent with the constitutions of the respective jurisdictions. The morality or propriety of laws are different matters. If the mayor sanctions the violation and non-enforcement of federal and state laws, how can he consistently expect the town ordinances to be observed and respected?

The determining factors in the cost of a transportation system are the wages, frequency, adequacy, maintenance, nature and extent of the service. Likewise, patronage and rates are the sole determinants (except for Mr. Bessemer's iniquitous scheme to forcibly tax each tenant $48 per year for bus service) of the revenue. Revenue would be derived, not out of patronage, but from direct taxation. The question of ownership is utterly irrelevant as to cost. To attempt to ascertain the cost of a municipally owned, as opposed to a co-operatively or privately owned, utility, is unmitigated nonsense. Publicly owned busses use as much gasoline, for instance, as privately owned busses, other things being equal, and so on. The factors that change the picture as to cost of operation and cost to the patron, insofar as the Capital Transit Co. is concerned are: (1) ~~FARE~~ transfer privileges, (2) the streetcar line at Berwyn, and (3) accessibility to any point in the District of Columbia via its transportation system.

These three factors are not predicable of any municipally or co-operatively or privately-owned system other than the Capital Transit Co. These are vital factors to the patron. In view of these facts, what kind of municipally or co-operatively or privately-owned (other than CT) transportation system can be operated on $42,480 per year? Mr. Bessemer seems to be one of those people who seek public ownership of utilities for its own sake.

Fortunately, the adoption of this proposal requires something more than the fiat of the lord mayor.

LOCAL LEGION TO HELP COMMEMORATE SEVENTY-FIFTH GETTYSBURG ANNIVERSARY

Survivors of the Blue and the Gray, numbering but a few thousand, will meet on the battlefield at Gettysburg in their last joint reunion, June 29th to July 6th. This reunion will be in marked contrast with that held twenty-five years ago when 54,000 veterans of the two armies participated.

Legionnaires who wore the Khaki in 1917-1919 will assemble to pay final tribute to the soldiers who, seventy-five years ago, followed Grant and Meade, Lee and Jackson. This tribute will culminate on Saturday, July 2nd, which has been designated as Veterans' Day. National Commander Daniel J. Doherty will head the younger men, marching under the blue and gold of the Legion.

The joint reunion and anniversary celebration has the endorsement of the Department of Pennsylvania, which has arranged for the attendance of a number of crack bands and drum and bugle corps from their own and neighboring Departments.

An invitation has been tentatively accepted by President Roosevelt to dedicate the magnificent Eternal Light Peace Memorial, erected on Oak Ridge on the Gettysburg Battlefield, Sunday afternoon, July 3rd. The Legion has prepared a fitting farewell to its older comrades of the Blue and the Gray.

Your Greenbelt Legion suggests a visit to the Gettysburg Battleground during this reunion as an especially delightful and instructive trip. The distance from Greenbelt to Gettysburg is less than ninety miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Farrington R. Carpenter and their two children were visitors at the Herkus W. V. Letkemann ranch 2D Woodland Way, last Sunday. Mr. Carpenter is the Director of the Division of Grazing, Department of the Interior, and a former neighbor of the Letkemanns in the Colorado Rockies where next door can be a mile away. He operates one of the World's largest herds of pure-bred Hereford cattle and is also interested and active in town planning.

CLOTHING AND TOYS EXCHANGE PLANNED

The newly organized Welfare Committee wishes to announce that its sub-committee in charge of "Clothing and Toys" has arranged for an "Exchange", whereby residents of Greenbelt who have discarded garments and toys can contribute them to this committee for distribution.

Also those residents who can use these articles are requested to make their wants known to members of the committee.

The object of this work is for mutual helpfulness and is in no sense a charity. An exchange, among friends, to make use of articles past usefulness, to those who can find them useful and needful.

The following are members of the committee to be notified:

Mrs. Herbert Barberie--22 F Pkwy Rd.
Mrs. Howard C. Custer--45R Ridge, Tel.4692
Mrs. Thomas Freeman--23 G Ridge, Tel.5671
Mrs. B. J. Finn--13A Ridge, Tel.4162

CONSUMER GROUPS ELECT OFFICERS

At a well-attended meeting in the Social Room on Thursday evening, June 9, members of the Consumer Discussion Groups and other women of Greenbelt interested in the Consumer Movement voted to have the Greenbelt groups affiliate with the National Consumers Federation. Mrs. Ollie Hoffman who presided during the first part of the meeting explained the purpose of consumers in banding together nationally to protect their interests, as manufacturers and producers have done to protect theirs.

Election of local officers followed the motion to affiliate with the N.C.F. Mrs. Stanley Rider was elected chairman, Mrs. Kline Fulmer vice-chairman, and Mrs. Henry Little secretary-treasurer. Application for membership in the N.C.F. will be made as soon as the required number of 5-cent dues have been paid. At present 63 out of a necessary 100 dues have come in.

The newly-elected chairman, Mrs. Rider took charge of the latter part of the meeting. She introduced Mr. Peter J. Carroll who explained important sections of the lease between Consumer Distribution Corporation and the government.

Mrs. S. Hartford Downs then explained a plan suggested by the Welfare Committee for organized supervision by the mothers of the sand boxes and play of the pre-school age children.

Mrs. Jennie B. Partridge and son Bill, of Grass Valley, California, were guests of Miss Ollie Hoffman on Sunday. They are touring the country by motor.

GROUP STUDIES SKIM MILK

Consumer Discussion Group No. 15 held its last meeting until September in the home of Mrs. Scott, 2G Southway. Dry skim milk was discussed, and found to be of the same nutritive value as whole milk, except in fat. Although the food value is not as high, it is rich in Vitamin G, calcium and phosphorus.

The Government has been trying to push the consumption of dry skim milk, usually wasted, and to put it within reach of needy families. It is packed in a glassine-lined paper bag, as it must be kept dry; otherwise it cakes and is difficult to use.

One pound of dry skim milk is equal in food value to 4 3/4 quarts of fresh skim milk. Bought at 15 cents a pound, it would provide, when mixed, fluid skim milk at 3 cents or less a quart. Facts show that people with small incomes can at the lowest possible cost include milk in the diet.

To obtain information on working skim milk into your baking, write to the Bureau of Home Economics.

THE KITCHEN MAID

by
Annis Murdock

Here is a very tasty summer dessert:

Pineapple Ice-box Cake

Mix together $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar and 2 egg yolks. Add 2 tbsp. lemon juice and 1 cup syrup from large can of Sliced Pineapple. Cook in top of double boiler or over low heat, stirring until thickened. Add $1\frac{1}{2}$ tbsp. plain gelatin softened in $\frac{1}{2}$ cup cold water. Cool, then fold in $\frac{1}{2}$ cup finely cut sliced pineapple, 2 egg whites beaten stiff and 1 cup whipped cream.

In the meantime, place broken or whole lady fingers or pieces of cake in the bottom of a spring form pan or serving dish. Around the sides place alternate slices of pineapple and halves of lady fingers which have first been dipped in egg white. Put in half the custard mixture, a layer of lady fingers and the remaining mixture. Chill overnight in refrigerator.

To serve, fill centre with whipped cream and garnish with pineapple and maraschino cherries.

THE YOUNGER SET

by

Toni Larnore

We went to our first birthday party last Thursday afternoon given for Jimmy McCollum, just three years old. It was a fine party with all the little children of the neighborhood invited, Mildred Ann Hawk, Sommer Cragun, Leonard Diebert, Emily Custer, Mary Joyce Johnston, Richard, Buddy and Joyce Procter, Lorraine and Robert Nelson, Beverly Rose Lyman, Betty and Joan Donohue, Paul Reamy and Maureen Murray. Jimmy's two older brothers, Donny and Jack helped manage the party. Refreshments were served picnic style on the lawn, orangeade, cookies, and kiddie candies. Lots of games were played outside including Ring-Around-the-Rosy, Blind Man's Bluff, the Farmer in the Dell, and London Bridge is Falling Down. The older boys had fun with toy airplanes. Carolyn Anne Chapman has grown a lot since we last saw her. She was 14 months old the 21st of May. She walked at 11 months.

Little Allan Richard "Pumpkin" Bishop 10 months old has learned the lesson of economy early. His brother Robert gave him a chocolate ice-cream cone last week. It tasted so good but melted so fast that "Pumpkin" knew he couldn't eat it all so he saved some by putting it on his face and his rompers. Unfortunately his mother discovered the trick and "Pumpkin" lost what he thought he had saved. We saw Charles Godfrey Pettit $\frac{1}{2}$ years old Friday, and asked him if he ever went anywhere, we meant on a vacation, or trip out of town. His mother beat him to the answer. "He's going somewhere all the time," she replied.

Five and one-half month old Lynne Marie Temple had a visitor last week, Sandra Lou Hunt, from Takoma Park. Sandra was a Christmas present to her mother and father and quite a good friend of Santa Claus for she arrived on Christmas Day.

Your columnist blushing admits she was kissed Friday for the first time by a little boy---on the forehead. The lad in question is Eddie Gawthrop. He walked up to the carriage while the author was shaking her rattle and took her un-awares.

MRS. GULLIBLE AWAKENS

If a law required all labels to inform consumers just exactly what products were composed of, Mrs. Consumer would find that the cheese wrapped in tin foil that slices thin and keeps so well, is not real cheese, but process or emulsified cheese.

This type of cheese is made by grinding (very often second quality or otherwise unsaleable) cheese; mixing it with water, salt and some emulsifying agent such as sodium phosphate, sodium citrate. Cheese spreads are similar to the process cheese except that while the mixture is in a fluid state whole milk or whey is added giving the product more moisture and less fat. Some of these process cheeses and spreads are artificially colored.

The taste of the American Consumer has been sadly corrupted: the average consumer, unless he happens to live in the region where the products are grown, has long forgotten what tree-ripened fruit tastes like; bread baked by mass-production system is baked entirely with an eye for profit not taste; and even cheese, one of our most nutritious foods, has been corrupted and changed, and again not to the benefit of the consumer who should prefer the good old ripened cheese.

And if Mrs. Consumer wants to serve cheese spread, she can very simply make up her own by melting a half pound of American "Cheddar" cheese cut into small pieces with a half cup of evaporated milk (use double boiler). Pimento may be added for flavor.

Mrs. Consumer will find this a delicious spread and so much cheaper than those sold in jars and Mrs. Consumer will also know exactly what the ingredients are.

 MANY ACTIVITIES UNDERTAKEN

A tentative outline of procedure for the Welfare Group was submitted by Peter J. Carroll, chairman, at the group's first meeting Wednesday night, June 8. To discuss further aspects of the program, the group was divided into smaller groups.

Important topics discussed by the individual groups included: a clothing and toy exchange; playground supervision (local sandboxes); nursery and nursing service, kindergarten; financial aid (cooperation with Credit Union, drug fund, small revolving fund to assist before payday); employment agency; and recreational activities for youths from 8 to 18.

Committee chairmen appointed are: Mrs. Harriet Wentworth, Clothing and Toy Exchange; Mrs. O. Kline Fulmer, Kindergarten and Pre-School; Mrs. Bertha Bonhan, Finance; Mrs. Hartford Downs, Recreational Activities for Children from 8 to 18; and Mrs. Harry Fleischer, Employment Agency.

manual training.

Mr. Peter Carroll, Chairman of the Welfare Committee, suggested the idea of organizing three junior baseball and soft ball leagues for boys and girls. Mr. Bozek agreed to further this idea by asking the Athletic Club, the American Legion, and the Executive Committee of the Citizens' Association to finance necessary equipment.

Mrs. Carroll, Mrs. Ed Fitch, and Mrs. C. J. Jernberg were appointed on a committee to plan the campfire parties.

With so many worthwhile features planned, the committee readily saw the need of volunteer workers. Persons interested in such work should contact the following Committee members:

 UNEMPLOYMENT AGENCY PLANNED

Unemployment, both in the Government and in private industry, as a result of the current recession has brought a real problem to many Greenbelt families. While unemployment is usually an individual problem to those concerned, the Welfare Committee of the Citizen's Association of Greenbelt considers it a problem of the entire community.

One has only to glance through the pages of the Cooperator to be convinced that the people now here are constructing a real Greenbelt, a community of mutual aid, with a genuine spirit of friendship and sincerity.

One family has already left the community because a private firm has curtailed production, thereby throwing the breadwinner out of work. It would be well if a Greenbelt Employment Agency could prevent a recurrence of this.

The Cooperator has granted the Committee use of its office upstairs over the drug store and the use of its telephone on Thursday and Friday nights from 7:30 to 9:00 P.M.

The Committee hopes to see at those times not only those who are seeking employment, but particularly those who are employed and have observed employment activities in their particular departments or firms.

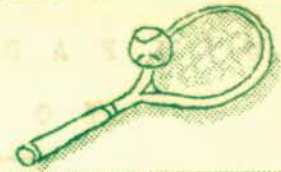

The Committee has already made contacts that will provide temporary employment and thus tide over some families until a permanent job can be obtained.

Please consider yourself a member of the Committee and keep your eyes open for jobs. If unemployed, or about to be unemployed, do not be bashful. Step up and see what the Committee has to offer, on Thursday and Friday nights--- or telephone 3131.

SPORTS

DOPE FOR THE "DUPES"

By Geo. Carnes

"It's all in a days work," says pensive Johnnie Bozek, Recreational Director and potential promoter of good times.

Catching Johnnie in a reflective mood, we questioned him about tentative plans for recreation around this neck of the woods, and it seems that he has been carrying a trump card concealed in his sleeve for the past two weeks. Said trump being nothing less than a giant fourth-of-July picnic to formally introduce recreation to our fair city. Ball games in the morning---picnic by the lake with a side dish of tug-of-war---games for the oldsters---athletic events for the youngsters and a first class swimming meet to top off the menu! Some potatoes! This writer has already tossed his plans for a fourth-of-July trip in the waste basket.

It's hard for the uninitiated to realize what a good recreational program means to any city of this size. Children of high school age and under are the chief beneficiaries, having a chance for the first time, to participate, 100%, in organized health building athletic games and mentally stimulating social activities. Many of our large cities have already inaugurated recreational programs on a large scale and by so doing, have solved that often asked question, "Where is my wandering boy, or girl, tonight?"

Here is a great opportunity for you fathers and mothers who would like to take an active hand in building up a real program designed to make better men and women of the future citizens of Greenbelt. Get in touch with Johnnie Bozek, he lives up around 45-C Ridge Rd., and help him shove the old band wagon along. You won't regret it!

INTRAMURAL SOFTBALL

Representatives of the so-called weaker sex emerge from another hectic week of softballing with the Berries leading the field by 50 points.

Up to date, the Berries are still the "berries" as it looks like a sure thing tournament cleanup for them.

Only one more series remain to be played, Wed. June 15. Don't miss it.

Results of Wednesday, June 1.

NEW DRINK HONORS GREENBELT

The Drug Store staff took a workout Friday morning at a special meeting called to determine what makes an ice-cream soda "click"--but as luck would have it, they also sat in on the birth of "The Greenbelt Frostie", brain child of Frank Purdum.

The "Frostie" is a cross between a milk shake and an ice cream soda and, according to Frank, is something worthy of superlatives.

The workout wasn't so bad either, really--after studying the fine points of soda jerking, each member of the staff stepped up to the plate and knocked out a home run ice cream soda.

The staff of the Drug Store now consists of Robert Jacobsen, Frank Purdum, Vernon Iseli, Lynn Ashley, Mable Aranzo, Beatrice Hesse, Elizabeth Bourne and Ethel Warner.

To the Editor:

The members of the men's athletic club can not be responsible for children on the softball field. Children have been coming unattended by adults and have refused to obey or listen to safety warnings. While we welcome everyone in Greenbelt to watch these games free of charge, we cannot be expected to watch the field and also the surrounding area.
