

New Store To Be Built In Greenbelt

Legion Home Is Poll Place For All Greenbelt Voters In Precinct Reorganization

For the first time Greenbelt voters will go to the polls in their own precinct next month for the state primaries. A reorganization which made the Greenbelt area Precinct No. 3 of the 21st District of Maryland was announced this week as a surprise to local residents.

Large Area Included

The Legion Home, on the north side of the Branchville-Glenn Dale road, a half mile beyond the last Southway houses, has been agreed upon as the polling place. It will serve an area from Good Hope road on the south to Cedar Crest Road (the Vanesville District line) on the north, and from Edmonston Road on the west to Bowie Road on the east. Included are a large number of farmers on the Telegraph Road which runs north and south across the Glenn Dale Road a few miles east of Greenbelt.

Precinct Officers Named

For the Democrats Major Joseph Nesbit has been named judge, and Thomas Freeman, registration officer at the polling place. Theresa O'Rourke, residing on Telegraph Road, is to be the Democratic clerk. Republican precinct officials are to be named soon by William A. Duvall.

"A polling place in Greenbelt marks the end of a three-year fight," said Judge Freeman, who more than any other local resident was responsible for this political recognition. "I think this brings to an end Greenbelt's role as a Federal island in Prince Georges County," he added.

Primaries in September

On the second Tuesday in September local residents who are registered will vote for complete State and county slates in the primaries. General elections will follow on the second Tuesday in November.

All persons who have resided in Maryland for a year may declare for residence at once and register October 2 and 3. Transfer of registration from other Maryland areas will be accepted October 8. All those who registered a year or more ago are eligible to vote in the September primaries.

Judge Freeman has been endorsed by the Democratic committee as a delegate to the State convention.

Legion Collects Phonograph Records

A canvass of phonograph records known as "Records for our Fighting Men" will be sponsored by the local post of the American Legion on August 12.

Proceeds from the disposal of the old records as scrap will be used in purchasing new discs and phonograph players to be sent to every camp, base, post and station wherever there are Americans in uniform.

To open the local campaign, the band will present a concert in the community center on August 12 at 8 p.m. All residents who have old, discarded or broken records are requested to bring them to the concert.

According to Virgil Estes, post commander, the non-profit agency, "Records for our Fighting Men," was sponsored early in June by Kay Kyser, Kate Smith, Sigmund Speath and Gene Autry acting as the original incorporators. Following the formation of the new agency, the national organization of the American Legion offered to provide full assistance in mobilizing, canvassing, and collecting operations. Through Lynn U. Stambaugh, national commander, the executive committee of the Legion agreed to undertake the drive, throwing all the resources of the organization behind a Nation-wide house-to-house salvage campaign.

The local committee in charge under Chairman Roy Bell are endeavoring to obtain one of the original sponsors, either Kate Smith, Gene Autry or Kay Kyser to be present on Wednesday night.

There will be a short parade as part of the program and the newly organized Minute Men are invited to participate as well as other branches of the Civilian Defense Corps.

Lastner, Dunbar, Moyer and Hull On Co-op Board

From a field of 10 candidates who accepted nominations to the board of directors of Greenbelt Consumer Services Inc. Frank Lastner, Paul Dunbar, Clifford Moyer, and Dayton Hull were elected at Wednesday night's membership meeting.

Mr. Lastner and Mr. Moyer will start second terms, having stood for re-election. Mr. Dunbar was a member of the Cooperative Organizing Committee which started the consumer owned stores in the early days of Greenbelt. Mr. Hull served as president of the Homeowners Cooperative last year.

Three Win Door Prizes

To Sherrod East went a door prize of a ticket to the first Redskins game. Two other prizes given at the meeting—$5 war stamps—went to Mrs. Martin Smith and to Mayor Allen D. Morrison.

In reviewing the financial statement presented by Treasurer Fred A. DeJaeger, Manager Tom Ricker stated that gross sales for the stores had increased 38 per cent in the last six months, keeping pace with the town's population increase. Total sales for all stores for the half year ended June 27, 1942, were $295,901.24. The gross margin for the period was $92,721.18, and the net margin was $16,574.58.

For the last quarter the Food Store showed the largest net margin, $3,105.10. All of the eight cooperative enterprises showed an operating surplus. Even the Valet Shop which had lost $252 in the first quarter of this year earned a surplus of $79.54 in this last three months. Other margins for the quarter were: Service Station, $2,683.03; Theater, $1,583.51; Variety Store, $1,272.84; Beauty Shop, $491.89; Drug Store, $366.41; and the Barber Shop, $147.81.

A by-laws amendment to establish an elections committee passed without opposition.

North End Of Town Will Have Food Market in a Short Time; G. C. S. To Enlarge Drug Store

A new food store will be built in Greenbelt as a result of a "land-lease" agreement with Farm Security Administration which was approved by the board of Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc., at its last meeting, July 29. The decision was announced to the membership of the cooperative at the quarterly meeting Wednesday evening.

The store will be located in the newest section of Greenbelt between Laurel Hill Road and Research Road, past Northway.

Larger Than Present Store

The material to be used in construction is not known at present and will be decided by the War Production Board when the necessary priority rating is granted. However, the type of construction will be similar to the defense homes, the building will cover an area 48 feet by 96 feet, which is slightly larger than that of the present food store. Specifications are being drawn now, and the building contract will be let as soon as the priority rating is obtained.

Tom Ricker, G. C. S. manager, is hopeful that the new store will be completed in 95 days.

$10,000 For Equipment

The terms of the ground lease include a rental rate of $360 plus taxes, payable annually for a period of 40 years. The equipment cost of $10,000 will be paid from present capital of Greenbelt Consumer Services. About $12,000 worth of inventory will be purchased with the aid of the Consumer Distribution Corporation of New York, which has helped to start many cooperatives throughout the country, including the original Greenbelt stores.

Store To Cost $30,000

Most of the building costs will be financed by Southern States Cooperative, Inc. whose headquarters are in Richmond, Virginia. They will lend $20,000 on a five-year mortgage. The Prince Georges Bank and Trust Company has agreed to lend an additional $10,000 for a two-year period.

Milestone in G. C. S. Career

Mr. Ricker feels that the new food store will probably be the most important milestone in the history of Greenbelt cooperatives since it is expected to bring the total business of the stores to the million dollar mark. This will be an even greater jump than the increase in average weekly sales for all the stores from $5500, which was the volume in Greenbelt's earlier days to the present figure of $15,000.

The present food store will continue to operate, and its policies will be maintained in the new grocery store, although the two will be under separate management.

Other Stores to Be Enlarged

G. C. S. is also planning the enlargement of the present Drug Store, Beauty Shop, and Food Store, to enable them to provide more efficient service for the constantly-increasing population of Greenbelt. New soda fountain equipment will be installed in the corner now occupied by the candy and cigar counter of the Drug Store. (Continued on Page 3)

Dan Littlefield Dies Suddenly

Mr. Daniel Littlefield, 73, of 3D Parkway Road, died suddenly at his home Tuesday afternoon of a heart attack.

Funeral services were held at Chambers and burial was in Greenbelt Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Littlefield have been residents of Greenbelt about two years. Surviving Mr. Littlefield are his wife and daughter, Mrs. Thomas Freeman of Greenbelt.

Cooperator Hospital Campaign Boosted by Washington Papers

A boost for Greenbelt as a county hospital site came from the Washington Post Monday morning, and by other Washington dailies in the afternoon, as a result of the Cooperator editorial of July 24.

Meanwhile the Cooperator has been given assurances from official sources that an attractive 10-acre site on the water-tower hill north of town will be available free in case the county decides on Greenbelt as the location for a hospital. This site would have the advantages of a high altitude for this vicinity—250 feet above sea level, a southern exposure on the hillside, quiet wooded surroundings, close proximity to the highway and to all necessary public utility connections.

Centrally Located

Town officials, in backing the Cooperator's campaign for "Build a hospital here," pointed out that approval for the project would have to be forthcoming from housing officials in Washington, but indicated that they could see no obstacles to availability of the Greenbelt site.

Town Manager Roy Braden commented on how centrally located this town was for service to other communities in this part of the county—Beltsville, Branchville, Berwyn Heights, Berwyn, College Park, Riverdale, East Riverdale, Rogers Heights, Bowie, and a score of other growing towns and villages being within a few minutes driving time.

Equipment Available

"I am sure the Town Council would make available the equipment of Greenbelt's former municipal hospital without charge to any county hospital erected here," Mr. Braden said last week. The equipment, including an expensive sterilizer, is being used by the Greenbelt Health Association at the present time.

Chaffing at the long delay in building a county hospital, editors of the Cooperator began to boost Greenbelt as a site when they learned that land under consideration near Landover had been boosted from $75 to $1,000 an acre as soon as it was cited for its suitability. Other property examined by county officials lacked sewer installations.

Dr. James G. Sasser, president of the County Medical Society, and Paul Kea, Hyattsville architect, have been appointed to appraise

A New Store

Long-delayed action on additional shopping facilities for Greenbelt residents will meet with immediate response here as a solution to our crowded food store and drug store.

Location of the new construction in the new section north of the original town will arouse some criticism from those who want everything possible done to keep all of Greenbelt tightly knit into a single community. Erection of a second school and a second food store in the new area for new residents may well create a feeling of separatism which would be unhealthy for the civic spirit which has meant so much to the town. The practical advantages of cutting down distance, however, easily outweigh our sociological fears. In these months when transportation is difficult our cooperatively owned and operated shops must be fully aware of a responsibility to all Greenbelt residents whether or not they are members. The new location will be more convenient for occupants of the new houses, and will relieve the pressure now occasioned by crowding.

Operating on slim capital margins the board of directors elected by customer-owners of our stores have an important job ahead of them in this next year. Despite priorities and shortages stores must be built or enlarged. Despite rising costs and increasing labor scarcity retail prices must always match those of neighboring stores, and our clerks and managers must be courteous and efficient. Quite an assignment, and one demanding the cooperation of all Greenbelt.

Precinct No. 3

Establishment of Greenbelt as a new voting precinct separate from Branchville is a victory for all of us and a climax to the three-year fight of one of our neighbors—Judge Thomas Freeman. In September, for the first time, Greenbelters will go to the polls for state elections within their own town limits.

Not that we objected to Branchville as a voting place—for Branchville residents. Somehow we just could not see much reason in having some 400 voters leaving the compact little town that is Greenbelt and go prowling down the old dirt road for a six-mile round trip to cast votes. With the new road about to be completed some day the trip would be pleasanter but more difficult now that a gas and tire shortage plagues us.

Having our own polling place should stimulate more residents to declare for Maryland citizenship and registration. The reorganization of the precincts within the 21st District has made Greenbelt a part of the Maryland community politically.

One note of caution: Let budding political enthusiasts on the local scene not go rushing into the fight for office with unseemly haste. There are other people in this new precinct besides Greenbelters, and we are still regarded as newcomers by the old residents of some neighboring communities.

Shuttle Bus Again

Only a few days remain for Greenbelt transportation questionnaires to be filled out and turned in to the administration office. The original deadline has already passed. So few have been submitted that the data will not be used at the public service hearings in Baltimore, unless a special effort at this last moment brings in additional dozens of the completed questionnaires.

Perhaps Greenbelters are tired and disgusted with the public transportation and believe that after these long years of wrangling with Capital Transit Company little is to be gained by further efforts. Without the effort which we have expended, however, we might have even worse facilities than are now available. At least we can not risk worse bus schedules at this time. Copies of the questionnaires are available at the administration office. Filling out one tomorrow may give you better transportation to your work next month.

Rysticken Asks All Women To Join Local Defense Corps

By PHIL WEXLER

Comdr. Arthur Rysticken has issued a call to all women in Greenbelt to join the Civilian Defense Corps. Nearly 150 women will be placed on duty as Air-raid Wardens and as Auxiliary Policewomen.

All women registering will be given full training and then placed on duty. The main object of enlisting women in the Civilian Defense Corps is to prepare for possible losses in the corps' ranks of men who are needed for active service or who are forced to work longer hours at their productive units and offices in Washington. Also, women will be placed on daytime duty so that Greenbelt can be assured adequate protection during daylight raids and alarms.

However, this woman's army is only the beginning of a drive to enlist the aid of all women in town to join the defense workers organization. Many women have already expressed the opinion that Greenbelt lacks protection during the daytime—many have also expressed the hope that they be given an opportunity to share the work of the Defense Corps here in Greenbelt—and, now, the call is officially open for those patriotic women who feel that they should do something to help win this war at home. Hand in hand with the menfolk the women in Greenbelt are being asked to sacrifice some of their free time to aid in civilian home protection. Women interested are requested to report either to Officers Buddy Attick or George Panagoulis, Comdr. Arthur Rysticken, or to Mrs. "Honey" Rogers, secretary of the corps.

Raid Demonstrations

Civilian defense workers who would like to see the raid demonstrations sponsored by the War Department Civilian Protection School at College Park every other Friday night are requested to ask their unit chiefs to make reservations for them. As soon as all civilian defense workers who are interested in seeing this amazing show have had the opportunity to do so tickets will be available to the general public through Comdr. Rysticken.

By the way, the general public is admitted to these demonstrations after 8:30 p.m. the night they are held. Ticket holders are given up to that time to obtain their reserved seats. However, it is only fair to remind you that although many without tickets are permitted into the grounds to observe the demonstrations—many are also turned away due to lack of accommodations and space.

Warden Signs

Sometime next week display cards will be set up in yards and block centers throughout town indicating air raid posts and wardens will be given cards or stickers to place in their home windows informing the public as to their personal locations.

Drug Store Display

Every one in town should look into the Drug Store prescription window to see the various informational booklets on display therein. A chart giving a full description of various gases and bombs effects and the possible treatment and care of one receiving burns, etc., due to the bursting of such bombs is also there for observation and study.

Air Raid Spotters Needed

Comdr. Rysticken announces that he has rescinded the order that defense workers cannot take their turn as air-raid spotters on the roof of the observation tower above the drug store. All civilian defense workers are hereby notified that they can and should contribute some of their time to help the local air raid and observation post fulfill its proper functions and duties. If every warden, auxiliary policeman and fireman, motor corps or medical service member would serve one or two hours at the post the full schedule could be maintained easily and without placing an unnecessary burden upon the shoulders of the few who do report regularly. Judge Thomas Freeman, in charge of the Greenbelt post will be notified when the "alert" signal is received so that he may be able to rush down to the post and relieve any defense workers who may be on duty at the time in order to have them fulfill their proper duties as part of defense units. All defense units are asked to cooperate with the air raid spotters organization for although the observation post is sponsored by the War Department and supervised by the American Legion, our defense organization stresses the need for full cooperation and coordination of every activity which aids in protecting Greenbelt homes and lives.

Blood Bank

Mrs. Virginia Harris submits her regrets to the various women who have called her in regard to contributing to the Blood Bank this past week. Due to the lack of gasoline the Hyattsville Motor Corps informed Mrs. Harris that they could not provide transportation to Washington last Thursday. However, the Motor Corps promised to have at least one car available for this coming week so all those interested are requested to call Mrs. Harris and make arrangements.

It is encouraging to note that so many women have recently called requesting they be included as Blood Bank contributors due to the various notices they have seen in the Cooperator regarding this patriotic defense activity. A bouquet of flowers to the women of Greenbelt for aiding in this much needed and necessary program.

"The Unconquered People"

A new booklet entitled "The Unconquered People" has been released by the Office of War Information, Washington, giving a graphic picture of the bravery and heroism of the people in Europe today living under the harsh rule of the "New Order." All citizens should read it and a copy can be obtained by calling or writing the Office of War Information in Washington.

One Thing Well

By D. W. GREENBELT

It's great to see a chap
Who works along at tasks,
While others sit and loaf and nap
Or in the sunlight bask.

He may not be a shining light
Who dazzles with his skill,
But working far into the night
He does it with a will.

I like to see a fellow dig
For things he wants to know
And build his house so grand and big,
A house of mind and soul.

Some day his praises we will sing
And stories we will tell
About the chap who does one thing
And learned to do it well.

OUR NEIGHBORS

By SALLY MEREDITH

Hello, Greenbelt:

We have another wedding announcement this week—that of Miss Mary Ellen Gray to Mr. Paul Herbert Cherry, of Berwyn. They will be married Sunday, August 16, at the American Legion Home, where a reception will be held after the wedding. It's expected that approximately 150 guests will be present.

The Charles T. Cooksons of 21-A Parkway have been entertaining members of their respective families for the past couple of weeks. Charles' mother, Mrs. Charles J. Cookson, and his grandfather, Mr. Timothy O'Herron, arrived Wednesday, July 29, and left Wednesday, August 5. They're from Canonsburg, Pa. Sally's mother, Mrs. Rose Pressler, from Washington, Pa., arrived Sunday, and is expected to stay for a while longer. Another new arrival at the Cooksons', "Judy," arrived via stork July 19. (See last week's "New Babies.")

Lucille Clarival, 10-H Parkway Road is convalescing rapidly and gaining strength after an illness.

—Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Mott of 19-D Parkway this week were "Bunny" and "Dickie" Lindfors, from Philadelphia. They left Wednesday.—Mrs. J. C. Seward, of 35-C Ridge, is entertaining her granddaughter, Carol Seward, from Baltimore.—Mrs. Page Kirk and Mrs. James Moyer from Washington visited the Del Mesners at 21-B Parkway Monday evening.—Safety Director Panagoulis left last Thursday, July 30, for his home in Nashua, N. H. He was expected back today. The last Mrs. Panagoulis heard from him he was gloating over the fact that it was so nice and cool up there.—Mr. and Mrs. John Vachon, 3-G Eastway, are entertaining John's mother.

Mrs. Herkus Letkemann left last Friday for three weeks in Massachusetts. Mrs. George Hodsdon, her across-the-street neighbor, is still up in that neck of the woods.

The very good friend of many Greenbelters—in fact, one of the first people to move here after the project started—George Bradford, of 33-E Ridge, left Tuesday by plane for California, where he is recuperating from a three months' illness. Technically, it's called spontaneous pneumothorax, but I understand George has other, less printable, names for it. At any rate, it's a very painful affair, located in the lungs. Not knowing any particulars about the medical side of it, I can only say that I hope, as all his friends must, that he'll be back in much less than the six months the doctor prescribed for him, well, and with that book he's planning on completing. Good luck, George!

A farewell party was given last Saturday night by the Mah Jon Club for Mrs. William Tredwell, who left Tuesday for Chicago. Mr. Tredwell has taken a position there with the Government.—Mrs. Helen Chasanow, 11-T Ridge Road, is entertaining members of her family en masse here this week end. "Brothers, sisters, cousins; uncles by the dozens!"

Thought for the Week Department: The dance was a lot of fun last week. Did I say Miss Shiller had voice appeal. From the expressions of appreciation on the faces of the gentlemen present, I'd say the appeal was—well, not so specific! Even the ladies would admit she's pretty!

Mid-Summer Dance Nets $11 for Association

Forgetting the sweltering heat for a few hours, 177 Greenbelters turned out last Saturday for the Greenbelt Citizens' Association midsummer dance. A net profit of $11.15 was realized, according to the association's president, Stanley Ostler.

The orchestra, under the direction of Jack King, and the vocalist, Miss Rose Mary Shiller, were in usual good form, it was claimed by many of those attending.

Mr. Ostler announced another dance to be held by the G. C. A. in the near future, expressing his hope that the results will be as favorably as at last Saturday's event.

Club Honors Memory Of Mrs. Willis

A special meeting of the Greenbelt Woman's Club was held July 30 at the home of Mrs. Joseph Rogers, 3-C Eastway.

Business transacted was as follows: program plans for the fall and winter, revision of the constitution and by-laws to fit current needs, and a resolution of respect passed unanimously for Mrs. Mary Lloyd Willis.

Special tribute was paid to the work of Mrs. Oscar Johnson, retiring publicity chairman, who is moving back to her home in Illinois. She will be replaced in this office by Mrs. Denzil Wood. Mrs. S. Leonard Houlton was appointed American homes chairman to succeed Mrs. Joseph Loftus who has resigned.

The resolution adopted follows: WHEREAS on July 19, 1942, it was the will of Almighty God to call our beloved member and friend, Mrs. Mary Lloyd Willis, to her last great reward; and

WHEREAS MRS. WILLIS was one of the most faithful and highly esteemed members of the Woman's Club, having been a charter member and serving as the club's first president. She was known for her service throughout the District and nearby Maryland; and

WHEREAS, she was truly a club woman and emulated to the highest degree the principles of club work in serving her fellowman. Her high standard of ability, fidelity, kindness and duty won the confidence, respect and admiration of her acquaintances and the love of all who knew her. Her devotion to her community activities was so varied and extensive that this County and District will miss her greatly, and while we as members of the Greenbelt Woman's Club especially feel the great loss that we have sustained, we have the satisfaction that her good deeds and great works will never be forgotten.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Woman's Club is deeply thankful for our association with Mrs. Willis, and for having the privilege and pleasure of working with her and under her great leadership.

AND FURTHER, That Mrs. Willis' death is our great loss and we deeply mourn her passing, but shall ever love and cherish her memory.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of these Resolutions be entered on the minutes of our club and a copy be sent to her son and sister, and a copy be sent to the County and State Federation and to the press as a token of the Greenbelt Woman's Club's love and appreciation of Mrs. Willis' services to all Federated Clubs.

Help Clear The Lines For War Calls

Such great quantities of critical materials are needed for ships and weapons with which to fight and win the war that we can no longer continue to expand telephone facilities as we have in the past.

As Local and Long Distance calls continue to grow it becomes imperative to make more careful and efficient use of the present telephone facilities we have.

Won't you please . . .

- ★ Make fewer and briefer Long Distance calls.
- ★ Try to call in the less busy hours—noon to 2 p.m.—5 to 7 p.m.—after 10 p.m.
- ★ Cut down the number and length of Local calls as well—especially on party lines.

Thank you. We knew you'd be glad to cooperate in saving calls—so Uncle Sam can make 'em.

Shamrocks Pound Bolling Field With 6-0 Win

The Shamrocks tip-toed back into the win column with a snazzy 6 to 0 win over the Aviators of Bolling Field last Saturday at Braden Field. It was the third meeting of the two clubs and the third victory for Greenbelt.

Breed Whiffs 8

Big Jim Breed toed the slab for the Shamrocks and was a tough customer with men on the bases. He struck out eight men, walked one, and allowed only six hits while bagging his shut-out. The sixth inning was his best. After fanning the first man he walked a batter and pitched two scratch singles in a row to fill the sacks. The big fellow rared back then, and disposed of the next two on pop flies.

Shamrocks with the biggest bats were Breed, Jerry Geyer, Ernie Boggs, Johnny Picco, and Pete Labukas.

40 Children Earn Swim Certificates In Second Session

Mrs. Doris Armstrong reports that the Red Cross has been delayed in sending out the swimming certificates, but that they should be here in another few weeks. She will post a notice on the bulletin board of the pool when they arrive.

Two hundred and ninety-three children registered for swimming lessons on Monday of this week. This will be the last session of swimming classes this summer.

The second session of swimming classes for this summer closed last Friday with 279 children and 23 adults completing lessons.

A very definite improvement was evident, particularly in the children's classes, town recreational officials said. Approximately 200 of the children were beginners and about 11 learned to swim.

Forty boys and girls swam well enough to receive Red Cross certificates. Those receiving the beginner's certificate are: Julia Borani, Juanita Fenby, Nancy Moore, Lawrence Schultz, Roland Taylor, James O'Neal, Elaine Miller, Bobby Salmon, Ginger Miles, Vernon Vickers, Joan Slaughter, Joan Murray, Georgianna Barrett, Helen Ritter, Benton Havens, Harvey Ritter, Dorrine Taylor, Dick Weir, Joyce King, Jeanette Fenby, Mary Ann Smith, Anna Brandt.

Intermediate certificates were awarded to Billy Turner, Joe Reid, Eddie Halley, Vincent Reedy, Phyllis Lain, Joan Aaromdt, Phyllis Aaromdt, Gladstone Lewis and William Kellehere.

Swimmers certificates went to Norman Richards, Billy May, Billy Colliver, Ray Sowell, Peter Rowe, Betty Sandy, Dick Haas and Margaret Brown.

A class in junior life saving will be completed by the end of this week.

3 Greenbelters Attending Cooperative School

Mr. and Mrs. James Mathers and Mrs. Donald H. Cooper will represent Greenbelt at the Eastern Cooperative Institute which is being held at Massachusetts State College, Amherst, Mass., the week beginning August 9. They will represent Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc.

The object of the conference is to give cooperative workers training in organizing and operating consumer co-ops with lectures and round table discussions by outstanding leaders in the cooperative field. Many of the talks this year will consider the part that cooperatives are playing in a world at war.

An interesting social program featuring dancing, swimming and crafts has been planned for the delegates.

Cooperator Campaign

several hospital sites for the county commissioners. The Cooperator editorial, together with other information on the Greenbelt bid, has been sent to those responsible for the hospital's location.

Stanley Ostler, president of the Citizens' Association, announces that that organization is backing the campaign to the limit and has already sent letters to the committee in charge of naming the hospital site.

It is expected that the Greenbelt Town Council will take formal action to supplement efforts which were made last January when the local hospital closed its doors for lack of funds. That experiment, too small to be economically operated, and located in an inadequate structure, left the county without a hospital when it closed.
