

Navy Wives Take Charter; Install

The recently organized Truman Riddle Navy Wives Club received its charter from the national parent organization and the officers were installed at a candlelight service Tuesday evening before a large audience in the Elementary School Auditorium.

Mrs. Theodore Wilkinson, wife of Rear Admiral Wilkinson who is commanding the amphibious forces in the South Pacific, was the sponsor of the organization. The principal speakers were Town Manager James T. Gobbel; Navy Chaplain Clinton Wunder, who just returned from duty in Cuba and Comdr. Albert Jacobs of the Navy casualty and allotment division. Mrs. Wilson Brown, wife of Rear Admiral Brown who is the aide to President Roosevelt, was a guest.

Mrs. Helen Bolshazy of Greenbelt, national president of the Navy Wives Clubs of America, was the installing officer and she presented the charter to Mrs. Dora Thomas, president of the local club.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Edith Reid, vice president; Mrs. Dorothy Mitchell, secretary; Mrs. Genevieve Bradley, treasurer; Mrs. Edith O'Reilly, parliamentarian, Mrs. Eunice Deardorf, chaplain and Mrs. Mary Ellen Duncan, sergeant at arms.

Mrs. Bradley was the mistress of ceremonies and the national colors were presented on behalf of the Greenbelt American Legion Post by Judge Thomas R. Freeman, vice commander of the Southern Maryland district.

Citizens Election To Be Advanced

The annual election of the Citizens Association will be advanced to Monday, April 3. Abe Chasnow, acting president, announced today.

The executive board decided on this action because of the recent resignation of Dayton Hull and George Tretter, president and treasurer respectively, of the association.

The following nominating committee has been appointed: Don Cooper, Bob Volckhausen, Edna Stripling, Estelle Dolgoff and Mrs. Clarke George.

The executive board urged the nomination of residents from the newer sections of town as many of the problems arising recently directly affect them. Nominations may be made by contacting any of the committee.

Every adult resident of Greenbelt is a member of the association and entitled to vote and hold office. The association charges no dues. Activities are financed through dances and other social activities.

Path Is Cleared For Opening Of Private Medical Practice Here

With the Health Association finding little success in obtaining additional medical services to supplement the town's lone doctor, it was revealed today that the community administration regulations have been relaxed to permit the establishment of an office for any physician who may desire to start a private practice.

The administration officials pointed out that they have been making a considerable effort to help the Health Association locating additional doctors. The medical assignment and procurement division has certified that Greenbelt is entitled to three physicians, but since the resignation of Dr. Isabel Blum two weeks ago efforts to locate another doctor have been unsuccessful. Health Association officials state that they have some leads, but nothing definite has been arranged as yet.

Under the terms of the rental leases which occupants of the Federally owned homes must sign, the practice of a business enterprise in the houses is prohibited and this provision has resulted, in the past, in a ban on private medical practice. Community officials stated that arrangements will be made, upon request, for the rental of an apartment or house as a doctor's office. The doctor would not be permitted to reside in the same house, but a residence would also be rented to the physician and his family within the town. Health Association officials stated that Dr. William Eisner is caring for the 375 member families, about 1250 persons, and it is estimated that almost as many more persons, not holding membership in the association, call upon him for treatment. It was also stated that the entrance of Dr. Christenson of Berwyn into military service has also placed an additional load upon Dr. Eisner as the former has a wide practice among Greenbelt residents.

Hyman Black, Health Association president, announced today the engagement of Rudolph Shubert as business manager to succeed Delbert Mesner who has accepted a position with the Group Health Association in Washington. Black also stated that the directors are making a bid for more cooperation between the association officials and members. He pointed out that Dr. Eisner is treating approximately 20 office patients and making an additional 10 to 20 home visits daily, besides caring for many obstetrical cases.

Black urged the members and non-members to be as considerate as possible, for the present at least, in the use of the association facilities. He pointed out that the board of directors have been holding meetings twice a week to help relieve the critical situation.

Store Hours Cut

At a special meeting of last evening the G. C. S. board of directors approved a plan to close the food store Wednesday afternoons at 1 o'clock, effective this week, until further notice. Shortage of help was given as the reason for the move.

Greenbelt Mgrs. Meet

The community managers of the three Greenbelt towns conferred this week at Greenbelt. The officials, Lawrence H. Tucker of Greenhills, near Columbus, Ohio, Walter E. Kroenig of Greendale, near Milwaukee, Wisconsin and James T. Gobbel, discussed the manpower situation and other problems facing the community administration heads.

Henry Tamesan of 36-E Ridge Road has recently been promoted to the grade of Captain. Captain Tamesan is a member of the Army Airways Communications system and was employed as a motor mechanic in Greenbelt.

Treiman Buried With Army Rites

Dr. George Treiman of 6-A Parkway died last Sunday at the Mount Alto Hospital and was buried Wednesday with military rites in Arlington Cemetery. He was 82 years old.

Despite his years Dr. Treiman was one of Greenbelt's most active citizens, serving Greenbelt Consumers Services as a director and also as a member of the auditing committee. He also sold a large number of shares of G. C. S. stock in the course of door-to-door calls on his neighbors.

Dr. Treiman was born in Russia. One of his student day memories was that of a detachment of mounted Cossacks forcibly dispersing a queue of persons drawn up to buy tickets for a Sarah Bernhardt play. The Treiman family did not endure, for long, life in a country where the gath-

Mrs. Lejins Urges Youth Court Plan

The Welfare Division of the Woman's Club, Mrs. Linden Dodson, chairman, met at the home of Mrs. Philip Morrell last Tuesday to hear Mrs. Peter Lejins urge the establishment of a juvenile court in Prince Georges County. Dr. Peter Lejins, assistant professor of sociology at the University of Maryland, was the scheduled speaker, but as he was unable to attend, at the last moment, his wife substituted.

Mrs. Lejins advocated that all county organizations interested in the juvenile delinquency problem write to the county commissioners. She also urged support of the county recreation program and a boost in teachers' salaries.

A request for individual donations to fill kits for Russian civilian relief was received and $20 was collected. The members also voted to purchase two albums of popular music for convalescent soldiers stationed at the Beltsville camp.

Mrs. George Clark, president, announced that the Red Cross drive is proceeding very well and called upon the members to assist where needed.

One Week To Go, Red Cross Drive Needs $500 More

With one week to go the local Red Cross fund raising campaign has scarcely reached the half way mark towards the $1,000 quota, Mrs. Joseph L. Rogers reported today.

Only $443.09 has been collected thus far in the drive and an added effort will be made by the volunteer workers to put the campaign over the top before next Friday. Your dollars are needed NOW. Make them work for you at the side of our fighting men. The Red Cross is at their side. The Red Cross is YOU if you give all you can.

Following is a report of all block captains as of March 18:

Mrs. Carl Day, $32.50; Mrs. Ed. Kaighn $13.00; Mrs. Holton, $10.65; Mrs. Miles Bonnar, $58.20; Mrs. J. W. McCollum, $37.70; Mrs. W. Cutsail, $46.75; Mrs. G. Strattman, $26.75; Mrs. John Sandy, $32.89; Mrs. Geo. Clarke, $57.40; Mrs. Bonham, Administration Office, $37.00; Greenbelt Consumer Services, $59.25; Geo. Eshbaugh, Post Office, $16.00; Navy Wives Club, $5.00 and American Legion, $10. Women's Auxiliary of American Legion $5 included in Mrs. Kaighn's. Total $443.09

Lastner Inducted

Town Councilman Francis J. Lastner was inducted into the Army yesterday, leaving behind him an outstanding record as a citizen and law maker of Greenbelt. Mayor Allen D. Morrison, extending the Town Council's appreciation for faithful service, stated at Monday's meeting that it had been a distinct pleasure to work with Lastner during the latter's four years of service on the Council, during which he proved most cooperative and helpful.

James T. Gobbel, town manager, expressing his regards of the departing councilman said, "During our several years of acquaintance, I have always known Lastner to take a definite stand on what he thought best for the community."

In reply, Lastner stated that not only was it worthwhile to serve our country, but it had also proved worthwhile to serve the town in which he lived for seven years. Lastner's seat on the council will not be filled until it is known where his post of duty with the army will be.

The town council, Monday night, acted upon several items of importance to the municipality. Passing a resolution to donate hospital supplies and equipment to the new Prince Georges County hospital at Cheverly, the council expressed Greenbelt's desire to cooperate with the county in this endeavor. The materials have been unused for two years following the closing of the Greenbelt hospital and much of it is facing deterioration. All non-extendable equipment, such as beds, are being sent to Cheverly on a loan basis and can be recalled to Greenbelt on thirty days notice. The cash value of the material involved is estimated at from $1000 to $1500, although the original cost was $4000. The newly erected hospital has been seriously handicapped in its efforts to open and serve the needs of the people of the county because of its inability to secure supplies, a critical shortage which exists throughout the country.

To further the interests of town employees, an ordinance was passed to provide a bonus of $75 to be paid town workers who are drafted into the armed forces. To qualify for the bonus one must have been employed regularly by the town for a period of at least six months at the time of induction. This ordinance is retroactive to July 1, 1943.

Final approval was given a resolution to establish the Victory Day committee which now goes to the local American Legion Post for approval. The plan is for the Town Council and Legion to form a joint committee to raise funds to be invested in war bonds until the nation is at peace. The funds will then be used to celebrate the day of victory and to give appropriate recognition of local citizens who served in the armed forces. The committee will be composed of the members of the Council, serving at the time of the adoption of this resolution, the town manager and six members designated by Greenbelt Post No. 136 of the American Legion.

The town manager was authorized to erect and maintain a structure to display the names of all residents and employees of Greenbelt on December 7, 1941 who have served in the armed forces. There are more than 800 at this time and six have died in service.

Harry Rhodes, director of public works, has prepared sketches for a combination recreation hall and field house. The town manager will proceed with plans and specifications and will secure bids for the structure. This building would meet both summer and winter recreational needs of the teen-aged Greenbelters.

Engineers have advised town officials that the walls of the drug store building are not of sufficient strength to support the proposed teen age recreation center on the balcony, with the resulting large gatherings. GCS officials had expressed willingness to enclose the balcony for such a purpose.

While every effort has been made to provide plowing for victory gardens, the town is unable to relieve the situation. Holders of garden plots will be given information concerning private parties who have offered plowing service at fixed rates.

4 Months Old Baby Dies

This community was deeply grieved at the death of four months old Brenda Hollaway last Friday. Surviving are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hollaway and older sisters, Bernadine and Bonnie. The infant's father had left home Friday morning to report to his Army camp in the South. The Red Cross immediately went into action and Hollaway was located aboard a train enroute through Alabama and notified of the baby's passing. Arrangements were made for him to return to his home here.

A new recruit at the Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Illinois is Glenn E. Kitchin, 25, of 7-A Parkway.

Maybe A Recreation Building?

After all these years of wishing and hoping and talking we have tangible action taken towards erection of a recreation building for Greenbelt. Why one was not built in the first place we shall probably never know. For six years Greenbelt youngsters and adults used the Elementary School for all meetings, for all indoor athletics, for all indoor entertainment of whatever sort. The building served tolerably well and every organization in town, at some time or another, has had ample reason to bless its existence and availability for community activity. However, the building was not well suited to many types of recreation, it was not well enough provided with rooms to accommodate all requests for its use, and janitor service has been a very real problem for evening affairs.

Spurred on by critical need for a gathering place for teen-age boys and girls in our community, the Town Council wisely took action Monday night to have plans drawn and funds sought out for erection of a combination recreation building and field house which will take a load off the school building, stimulate athletics and, in addition, provide the rendezvous for youth that seems to desirable to all of us.

Details are of course not yet decided upon at this writing, but suggestions range from shower rooms to a soda bar for the building. The latter item was proposed after construction engineers reported that the roof over the beauty shop and barber shop at the shopping center would not support the roof garden soda bar proposed by Greenbelt Consumer Services.

"Perhaps," one of the councilmen guessed, "we will have the recreation building by autumn." Well, we have been disappointed too many times by delay in house construction, school construction, landscaping and other physical improvements by the Federal Government to place much faith in any dates predicted at this stage, but the fact that the Town Council and Town Manager are at work on plans and funds gives us encouragement which will keep our spirits high for several months.

Orchids To The Ladies

High on our admiration list stand the Navy wives, who received their charter Tuesday night. The Greenbelt group, Truman Riddle Navy Wives Club, has Dora Thomas as its president, but our community is also honored in having here Helen Bolshazy who is national president of Navy Wives Clubs of America.

The local organization has already proven its helpfulness in the recent War Bond drive and now again in the Red Cross drive. For any organization to community and national service we offer our sincere gratitude and best wishes.

P.T.A. Circus Mon.

The Parent-Teacher Association will dispense with its regular meeting Monday in order that the school auditorium may be used for a benefit Animal Circus. The Martinez Society Animal Circus, consisting of highly trained Shepherd dogs, cats, birds, monkeys and other small animals is acclaimed the most outstanding entertainment of its kind.

Captain Martinez, one of the best known trainers has accomplished feats that other trainers have failed to do. The animals, enemies by nature, work together free, without any support or chain. See the monkey ride the tricycle; Watch the puppies do the ball-roll! Don't fail to keep your eye on that mystifying magician when he does his tricks!

The first performance will start at 2 p. m. for pre-school and primary grades; the evening performance beginning at 7:30 p. m. for the upper grades, high school and adults. Due to the fact that a large attendance is expected at both shows, parents are urged to come with smaller children.

B'nai B'rith To Elect

The regular monthly meeting of the B'nai B'rith will be held in room 224 of the Elementary School Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. instead of the following week. Election of officers will feature the evening. All members are urged to attend.

The Home Front

By JUNE WILBUR

This spring it's going to be the fashionable thing to take out that "Old Gray Bonnet" left from last year, add a fresh flower and maybe a veil and feel both dressed up and patriotic for Easter.

For those of us who sew there are many intriguing fabrics and patterns to entice us to make everything fresh for the auspicious coming-out date of spring. For those who don't sew there are many advertisements urging us to delightful new things. Before buying, let's count up on our fingers the virtues of buying versus the virtues of doing without.

Without question, any person gets a psychological boost with the acquisition and wearing of a spanking new outfit and in war time it is very important to get a boost now and then. In this kind of climate summer garments wear out and lose color rather rapidly because they must be laundered so often and because the sun is intense. Therefore, it is necessary to replenish the washable garments in a wardrobe almost every year. In favor of buying then we have two good reasons: It makes us feel better and worn garments have to be replaced.

On the other hand if last spring's suit can take one more cleaning and pressing and can be perked up with a crisp dicky or blouse, perhaps the psychological boost stemming from the patriotic plea to "make it do" would be a strong one. Or, if the thimble fingered ladies whose husbands are wearing GI khaki or Navy blue were to make spring suits for themselves from the ones hanging in husband's closets, the psychological boost might be double strength. They would make a garment do and yet have something new. The Department of Agriculture has a good leaflet concerned with "Make overs from Men's Suits" which would be a big help in this kind of a project.

Since there is not much chance for rebuttal when it comes to washables, we can only propose that if there is no spring suit or dress which would do for Easter, how about buying or making that new outfit in a washable fabric

Community Church

Mother Of 2 Loses Household Funds

A Greenbelt mother of two small children who lost her purse containing $100 last week faced with a new problem this week when she received word from her husband, who has been with the Navy in the South Pacific for a year, that he is coming home on leave.

He asked her to send him some money to defray his travel expenses for the long journey home.

The young mother said that the money was in a purse which did not contain any identification. She also said the money represented her entire household funds which was to last until receipt of her next allotment check.

If the finder turns the money into the Cooperator, it will be given to the distraught mother.

Postal Rates Jumped

Postmaster George W. Bryant issued a reminder today that all local mail must carry three cents postage starting next week, under the new tax law.

Air mail postage will be upped to eight cents an ounce, with the exception of mail sent to or by members of the armed forces overseas who are served through army or navy post offices.

ering together even of non-political groups was regarded with such suspicion. Young George took his doctor's degree at a medical school, later incorporated by the University of Pennsylvania and practiced for many years in the country districts around Philadelphia. During World War I he held a lieutenant's commission and served with distinction at one of the base hospitals in this country, working with venereal diseases.

Dr. Treiman is survived by his daughter, Martha, and a grandson, Carl, now an Army private, whose wife and six months old daughter are living in Greenbelt.

DeJaeger and Cooper Head Co-op Council

Three local cooperative organizations selected five representatives Friday night to serve as a governing committee for the Greenbelt zone of the new Potomac Cooperative Federation which will bring closer together the various co-ops in Maryland and Washington. Fred DeJaeger, Donald H. Cooper, Henry Walter, Tom Ricker and Clarke George were elected from a large slate of nominees.

At a meeting last evening Fred DeJaeger was named president of the council, Donald H. Cooper, vice president and Thomas Ricker, secretary. DeJaeger and Cooper were chosen as the council's members on the Federation board of directors.

Only point on the agenda of the meeting which drew fire, was the amount to be charged as a membership fee for organizations, with a majority of those present favoring a higher figure than had originally been agreed upon.

The School Week

At a recent school assembly the children presented Recreation Director Ben Goldfaden, soon to leave for the Navy, with a large size regulation duffle bag and overnight case. The Boy Scouts presented the colors and the audience sang Anchors Aweigh.

Mrs. Fugitt praises the splendid cooperation shown by parents in dealing with the scarlet fever threat. Only a very few cases have developed," she declares, giving the credit to meticulous home check-ups made before the children start off for school in the morning.

As one of their spring projects the Northenders plan to plant flower seeds around their school.

One Elementary School boy who had a preview of the forthcoming animal circus at College Park recently, reports that it provided a spectacle that he'll "never forget." He was especially enthusiastic about the big dog who performs on a tight rope with a monkey on his back. And this isn't all. The dog holds in his mouth a pipe upon which balances a real live mouse and a bird.

Walter Reed Boys Thank Greenbelter

A patient at the Walter Reed Hospital recently paid a tribute to Margaret Kreuser of 8-K Parkway Road in the Times-Herald "Voice of the People" section. Signed "A patient at Walter Reed Hospital", the letter reads: "I am taking this opportunity to write to you about a Miss Margaret Kreuser. She has been coming up to this hospital for quite some time visiting the patients. She's always loaded down with candy, magazines and different sundries for the boys in the wards. She also has a cheery word and a smile for everyone.

"This lady works in Washing-
