

Packers Take Over Berwyn Team 19-0 For Their Second League Game Victory

By CATHERINE TUCKER

In the second League game of the season the Greenbelt boys took on a recognized Berwyn team, Sunday afternoon, at the University of Maryland Stadium, winding up on the long end of a 19-0 score. The Berwyn club had a tougher, heavier line, but they were outcharged and out-fought by the Packers.

The first touchdown came in the first quarter, when the Berwyn team, pushed back to their own four yard line, fumbled. Pete Cookson fell on the ball for the Greenbelt touchdown. The conversion was wide. In the second quarter, Eshbaugh had "Powerhouse" Cookson ripping into the line which pulled the Berwyn line up close; suddenly Eshbaugh whipped a pass to the 40 yard line where the waiting Sam Rhine caught it and galloped over for the second counter. Cookson place kicked for the extra point.

In the third quarter Berwyn put up a determined drive, ending up on the Greenbelt 4 yard line: 1st and goal to go. The Greenbelt line dug in and Berwyn lost 10 yards in four attempts. Wolfe then punted out of danger. In the last quarter Eshbaugh mixed wide end runs, line plunges and short reverses up to the Berwyn 30 yard line, where Donny Wolfe tossed a pass to Rhine who out-raced the Berwyn secondary and scored. The place kick was low.

Morris and Rhine spent most of the afternoon in the Berwyn backfield, while Pete Cookson and Winstead were usually in on every tackle. Eshbaugh did a clever job of generalship; Wolfe's kicking, passing and end runs were nicely done. Leiper and Pete Austin turned in some fine blocking. Neuman, Berube, Sipes, Lupton, Flynn, Goode, DeMar, Hughes, McCarl and DeBruin all looked well in the line. Some of the youngsters are going to make the veterans hustle to hold their positions. Fox, Herr, and Aydelot alternated at center and each looked well. The backfield replacements showed a weakness against passes, and evidently didn't know their plays, several times missing blocking assignments completely.

The blocking and tackling was not as crisp as in the Laurel game, and coaches Van Camp, Coulter and Marschauer promise plenty of work in those departments this week, especially bearing in mind Coach Kosik's heavy Mt. Rainier eleven, which tangles with the Packers at Braden Field at 2 p. m. this Sunday, October 15. Mr. Rainier is sending a big crowd of boosters for its team and a battle royal is expected.

The line-up:
GREENBELT
Rhine RE Faulkner
Winstead RT Joe Bordas
Neuman RG Whittick
Fox C Hancock
Sipes LG Irwin (c)
W. Cookson LT Judge
Morris LE Gentry
Leiper Q Jim Bordas
R. Cookson RH Lou Ganecker
Austin LH Walker
Wolfe (c) F Robinson

Replacements: Greenbelt—Eshbaugh, Berube, DeMar, Goode, Hess, Herr, Lupton, Klippert, McCarl, DeBruin, Aydelot, Hughes, Herbert, Fisher, Belton, Flynn, Traimen, Berwyn—Keye, Haber, Stewart, Ward, Haggerty, Gentile, Bond.

The officials were Deal of U. of Maryland and Denson of U. of Md. "Pop" Ross has consented to be the Packer's trainer for the team this year. He had the boys in charge last season, so that they can expect the same good treatment at his hands that they had in '43. Dicky Day, one of last year's stars is assisting as end coach, while convalescing at Walter Reed Hospital. It seems good to have Dicky back with the gang again.

Non-Residents May Still Register

The Voters Information Committee wishes to draw the attention of non-residents to the fact that there is still time for some of them to register, if they wish to vote in the coming election. For the benefit of out-of-staters who have not yet been visited by the committee, or who are still in doubt as to their voting status, the committee states that:

All states require registration, and you cannot vote unless you are registered in your home state. Residents of the following may register by mail, if they do so immediately: Colorado, Iowa, Idaho, Michigan, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Oklahoma, South Dakota and Tennessee. Residents of other states may still have time to register in person. For information regarding deadlines for absentee registration or for personal registration, call Anne Hull, 4626, or Edna George, 6827.

If already registered, citizens of all except the following states may vote by absentee ballot: Florida, Louisiana, Maryland, Missouri, New Jersey, New Mexico and Pennsylvania.

There is still time to vote by absentee ballot in all the remaining states except Rhode Island, South Carolina and Wisconsin.

Ballots must be in the hands of election officials between October 28 and November 7, at the latest, depending on the particular state in which residence is held. Call Mrs. Hull or Mrs. George for further information.

The Voters Information Committee, more than 50 strong, have visited almost every family in Greenbelt in the past 2 weeks to give registration and voting information. They have made a special point of visiting Greenbelters who declared their intention of becoming Maryland residents last year, to remind them of the registration dates.

Co-op wardens will combine business with pleasure next Wednesday evening by attending the film "Going My Way", followed by a brief meeting climaxed by more fun and more party. The wardens have set up and operated a two-way co-op communication system between the membership and the board and management, for suggestions, information, questions, and anything relating to the local co-ops.

"Going My Way" is the first film to be held four days at the Greenbelt Theater. Jack Fruchtman, manager, says, "It is the best film I have ever seen, and I see hundreds of films a year on my job."

Republican Candidate Randall To Talk At Citizens Assn. Meeting Tonight

New Highway To Pass Oldham Farm

The post-war highway that is scheduled to put Greenbelt on a superhighway between Washington and Baltimore was discussed at a meeting of the Prince Georges County Federation of Citizens Associations, at their October 5th meeting.

Wells Harrington, who together with David Granahan attended from Greenbelt, stated that the highway will probably run about half a mile east of the Maintenance Building and just skirt the gardens by the Oldham Farms. It will give easy access to downtown Washington via New York Ave. and K St., where it will be developed on two levels, one for through traffic.

Civic leaders of Prince Georges should submit a plan for civic improvement to the next session of the Maryland Assembly, Louis A. Granados, chairman of the county affairs committee, told the meeting.

With a population of 126,000 persons in Prince Georges, he declared, "there is still no published building code available." "Also", he continued, "there is no supervisor of weights and measures. If you want to buy a gallon of gas, what assurance do you have that you're getting a gallon?"

Judge Vincent A. Osterman of Orphans Court, speaking before the federation on the training and guidance of juveniles, said the "dilapidated condition of county colored schools is a disgrace" and asserted it was the paramount duty of all to delve into the problem.

Blanchard Randall, Republican candidate who will oppose Senator Millard E. Tydings at the polls November 7, speaks in the Elementary School auditorium tonight at 9:00 p. m. This special meeting of the Citizens Association is the second of a series of meetings concentrating attention on the coming election. The Democrats will be represented by a speaker on Oct. 30.

A lifelong Republican, Candidate Randall graduated from Johns Hopkins University in 1914 and served in World War I, rising from the ranks to the grade of captain. From 1919 to 1932 he was in the grain exporting business and from 1933 to 1942 served as president of the Mortgage Guaranty Company. For the past two years he has been manager of War Production Board's salvage division, and deputy director for this region. He has been active in civic affairs in Baltimore over a period of years.

The Greenbelt Band is curtailing its regular Friday practice to allow for the meeting.

Jones and Sowell Get Appointments

Warren W. Jones, office manager for Greenbelt Consumer Services for the last 15 months, will succeed George Frenar as manager of the Valet Shop starting Monday. Mr. Frenar, who has been managing the Valet Shop for over a year along with a full-time job with the Government at Beltsville, has been looking for a replacement for some time. In the last few weeks Mr. Frenar has been working on the problem of securing a dry cleaning unit for Greenbelt Consumer Services and will present his findings, to the board soon.

Mr. Jones, accountant and auditor, held responsible jobs with the Government for almost ten years before coming to G. C. S. As a construction project auditor with the War Department U. S. Engineers he managed a travelling business office which went to construction projects, new airfields, canals, and so forth.

Mr. Jones also served as chief investigator for the Labor Department, working on contracts with the Government and big manufacturers such as Crucible Steel, R. C. S., and Bendix Aviation Corporation.

Mr. Jones and his family have lived in Greenbelt for six years, moving here originally from Washington.

Mrs. Addie Sowell will replace Mr. Jones as office manager for G. C. S.

Women's Club Meets

The fall series of meetings of the Greenbelt Women's Club, opened at the home of Mrs. Daniel J. Neff last Thursday night with a talk by Virginia Gordon Hanson, Chief of Placement, Bureau of Prisons of the Department of Justice on "Light on Prison Shadows".

The business portion of the meeting included the introduction of new members to the club and the announcement that the Board has voted $20 for Red Cross kits and authorized the purchase of an album of new victrola records for Beltsville Reconditioning Center.

Minnie Briggs, Washington artist, will display a group of etchings and speak on "Rambling on Copper" at the next meeting which will be held at 2:00 p. m. on Thursday, October 19th, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Hawk, 45-T Ridge Road, with Mrs. Daniel Branch and Mrs. George Panagoulis as assisting hostesses.

No Shoes Till 23rd

The management announces that shoes will not be accepted for repair at the Valet Shop until Monday, October 23.

181 Register As Maryland Voters

According to James Wolfe, local registration officer, a total of 181 Greenbelters registered on October 3 and 10 at the American Legion Home. Of this number 110 were Democrats, 49 Republicans, and 22 Independents.

By next Tuesday the total registration lists will be revised to include those who registered last April and earlier, and to exclude people who have moved away from this precinct. The figures will be printed in the Cooperator. Keepers of the local voting lists are, for the Democrats, Mr. Wolfe and for the Republicans, Mrs. John Walker.

The Voters Committee of the Citizens Association estimates that approximately 65% to 80% of Greenbelt civilian residents are going to be able to vote in the coming election, the majority of them by absentee ballot. Almost 100% of all servicemen living in Greenbelt have already voted, or have taken the necessary steps to do so. A complete report of the work of the committee will be made later.

Greenbelt Needs 24 Fire Fighters

The first session of this year's firefighting classes will be held Monday night at 7:30 under the leadership of Fire Chief John Belton at the Greenbelt Fire House. All who are physically fit are welcome. A height of about five feet eight inches and weight of 140 pounds or more are desirable. The class will run for 25 weeks and upon successful completion of the course, students will receive diplomas from the University of Maryland College of Engineering, Fireman's Training Course.

At present there are only six graduates active in the Greenbelt Fire Department, and Chief Belton states that he would like to have twenty-four enrolled this year. He expects to have about 100 in the class, as twelve local companies are cooperating: Branchville, Berwyn Heights, College Park, Riverdale Heights, Riverdale, Glendale, Laurel, Savage and Bowie.

We Marvel

Within the last two months our neighbors in the Washington area have opened two large co-op food stores, one in Anacostia and one in Bethesda. One of these was actually built during the last year through the initiative of the members themselves. Both are full of shiny up-to-date equipment. We of Greenbelt witness this progress with marvel and envy.

Greenbelt was originally built for 780 families, and the stores were equipped with this in mind. The town has more than doubled under wartime conditions and there is no need to repeat again the story of terrific pressure being placed on limited facilities.

About a year ago plans were drawn up, approved and presented to Federal Public Housing Authority at their request, and after their own survey showing the need for new shopping facilities. Nothing has happened since then except that we have been told that material and manpower are not available and that priority problems make construction impossible.

If the energetic cooperators of Anacostia and Bethesda could get together, pool their efforts, and push through red tape to provide themselves with adequate goods and services, why not Greenbelt, too? In a democracy wonderful things can be accomplished when people get together and speak up. And a cooperative is a working demonstration of democracy in business.

October Days

Life can be beautiful! October in Greenbelt does much to offset the cold winters, hot humid summers, and rainy spring weather in this area. These next two weeks will give us a riot of color in the woods which surround the town. And the crisp sunny days will lure us to the picnic grounds or down the woodland trails.

There are two groups of trees which are usually of special attraction in fall dress. One is the clump of purplish-red sweet gums north of the Shopping Center, best seen from Crescent Road near the Elementary School. The other is a sizeable clump of young oaks that flame into red and brown near the high school cross roads. These can be seen best by looking to the left approaching Greenbelt on the Branchville Road. New residents will be delighted, too, by the golden hickory foliage and the bright scarlet of dogwood—all these against the dark green pines.

Don't miss the show, neighbors. It is all free, for those who have an eye for beauty.

GREENBELTERS IN UNIFORM

By MARY JANE TOWNSEND
Call 5718 after 5

This week a card was received from the former assistant manager of the theatre, Ray Trumbule, now a Private at Sheppard Field, Tex. He writes "Just finished reading your column in the weekly COOPERATOR. To me it is the most interesting part of the paper. I got a great kick out of it and would like to know if it would be possible to have the COOPERATOR mailed to me direct every week." We appreciate hearing from you, Greenbelters in uniform, and we would like to keep you informed as to where all of your buddies are, and what they are doing!

Word has been received from Jean Day, Lieutenant in the Army Nurse Corps, who has arrived safely in England. Jean last visited Greenbelt approximately two months ago.

After an extensive trip to every port imaginable, Ralph Jones, former "genius" at Greenbelt High, arrived here for a short leave. Ralph has done quite a bit of travelling in the few months he has been with the Merchant Marine.

Dicky Day has been transferred to a recuperating center to recover from the serious operation he has undergone. Back among us this week for a while, we were all glad to see how much better Dicky is doing.

Ray Ward enjoyed another 3 day pass this week, but doesn't expect many more, if any.

Our friend Joe Lewis, changes his address very often. Joe, now a member of the Seabees is in California awaiting a ship. Last week he was at Camp Peary, Va., a Seabee training center.

From Camp Crowder, Mo. came Pvt. Leroy Day on his furlough. Pvt. Day is with the Signal Corps at the camp, which is in Joplin, Mo.

Another Private, Stanley Edwards, was also home on furlough from Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md.

We heard that Tommy Freeman was not satisfied with his recent duty as life guard at one of the hotels for the training men, and that he complained to his commanding officer. Being a congenial fellow, his C. O. asked him what he would like to do. Tommy is now aboard a destroyer.

George Davidson was seen home again last week-end. Dolores and George, both in the service, luckily were home at the same time. Dolores, a cadet nurse, stated that she would be home every week-end, as long as her grades were up to par.

The Sommers family is well represented in the service. Robert T. Sommers has been qualified as a Paratrooper, having completed his fifth jump, and is home on a furlough for 14 days. Cpl. James J. Sommers, Jr. is now in France. Richard, the youngest of the boys, is still in Parris Island.

Walter W. Curtiss, 20-A Crescent Road, is entering the Armed Forces on October 19th. Good luck "Red", and here's hoping you get beyond Ohio.

As a last item, I would like to ask all of you who have anything of interest concerning Greenbelters in uniform, to please call 5718, or address a card to me in care of the Cooperator, and share your information with all of the boys in the service.

Goodnight, wherever you are.

Church School

The Community Church School meets each Sunday morning at 9:30. Everyone is invited to come, especially the children of the community. The following list of age groups and superintendents is given in order that new pupils and their parents may know to whom to report: Miss Helen Kaighn, Cradle Roll; Mrs. George Eshbaugh, Beginners Department, (under school age); Mrs. Ed Halley, Primary (first through third grades); Mrs. Rolfe Sauls, Junior, (fourth through seventh); Mrs. Lillian Mitchell, High School Group. There are also two women's classes, a Couples Class and a Men's Class.

The Philathea Class will entertain the Fidelis Class at a Halloween party, Friday evening, October 20, at 8 o'clock in the Home Economics Room. All members are cordially invited.

Howard Fitzhugh, better known as "Howdy" to everyone in the Church School, has been reported, doing as well as possible following an accident while in training in Texas. His eyes were injured and he received several ugly burns as the result of a serious mishap with his gun. His last letter said that he was feeling much better and wanted to hear from some of his pals.

A Junior Choir is being set up again. Any girl or boy interested please call Mrs. Lydalu Palmer at 5201 any evening after six o'clock. When enough volunteers are obtained, a meeting of their parents will be called.

"Toots"

The Parents' Board recently discussed the advisability of admitting non-Greenbeltians to the Band. This question came up as the result of the necessity of obtaining older, more capable young people to play the instruments of the lower bas choir. These include the tubas, trombones and alto horns. The new conditions under which an outsider may enter the Band are (1) He must play a brass instrument other than trumpet or cornet, (2) He must pay the regular fees and dues, (3) His parents will not be admitted to the governing board. It was also decided by the Board to have each Band member pay a fee of $1.00 for the use of his own Band music book.

The Greenbelt Concert Orchestra has changed the time of its rehearsals from 8:30 to 8:00 p. m. Tuesday evenings in the social room. All members are urged to be on time, as there is only one more rehearsal after tonight before the Second Annual Concert. The concert will be held Tuesday evening, October 24 at 8:30 p. m. in the Auditorium.

The program for the concert, which will offer numbers to suit the taste of every music lover, whether he likes "long hair" or popular numbers from musical comedies, will be announced within the next two weeks. Be sure to clip out your copy, as printed programs will not be given out at the concert.

Last Friday night band practice was given over to the reading of new music. "Selections from the Bat" by Johaan Strauss, "American Patrol", Manhattan Beach March" by Sousa, and "The Blue Danube" were the new numbers. Mr. Colliver read to the band a poem found in the MacFarland Jr. High School paper, "Maroon and White" about former Bandleader Paul T. Garrett.

Any choir leaders having news to report can notify either Kathleen Scott or Pat Brown or call Gr. 2392. We would appreciate being notified of any musical "goings-on" in Greenbelt.

GOBBEL AT CONCLAVE

Town Manager James W. Gobbel is attending the annual International City Managers Association conference in Chicago. He left Tuesday and will be away 10 days. He will also visit the sister town of Greendale, Wis.

Foodstore Ration Guide & Information Roundup

By THOMAS JEFFRIES

Did you know that—
The Food Store now has dehydrated apples and cranberries. The apples can be used for pies and sauce and the cranberries make a wonderful sauce. An added feature of both is that no points are needed. Apples are 21c a pkg., cranberries 23c pkg.

Here's good news for jiffy meals. Baked beans and all canned soups are now off the ration list. Puritan brand, a New England style baked bean, is our recommendation for the best buy, only 17 cents for a large can. We also stock Heintz and Ritters.

For a delicious soup we recommend—Co-op tomato, 3 cans for 25c; Co-op pea or asparagus at 2 for 21c; Co-op chicken noodle, 2 for 27, and Co-op (real) chicken soup for only 2 for 31c.

Bananas are evidently being sold to the highest bidder and our policy is and will always be not to deal in black markets. We have been able to buy a few now and then at ceiling prices. However, we do stock banana flakes, dried ripe bananas and imitation banana flavoring extract. The first two products will give you all the benefits derived from fresh bananas.

It's hot coffee time again and we would like very much to have you try Co-op Red Label. If you will, we'll guarantee you're in for a rare treat. So we will sell Co-op Red Label Coffee all this week 2 lbs. for 63c, 32c for one pound.

The tobacco store has Co-op cigarettes in 3 different, distinct blends. If you smoke, on of these blends should suit your taste.

Let's talk about Co-op soaps: There are two very important things about Co-op soaps. First they will do a splendid cleaning job. Second, they cost you less money and you get more soap for your money. Here they are:

Co-op Pure Soap Flakes, 16 ounces 22c and Co-op General Purpose Flakes, 27c. Then we have these in the big family size 5 lb. box—Co-op Pure Flakes, 5 lbs. $1.05, and Co-op General Purpose Flakes, 5lbs 95c. Our best Co-op soap buy is Blue Label Granulated 24 ounces only 20c or 2 boxes for 39c.

Here's another fact you may not know. Some time ago O.P.A. allowed a manufacturing price increase in baby foods. Gerbers did not increase their price and neither did your Co-op Food Store, although the retail ceiling for Group 4 stores is 7c per can. We are very happy to say you can buy Gerbers strained or chopped baby foods 3 cans 19c.

Don't forget frozen foods, as we are trying very hard to keep a wide selection in stock. May we suggest, cod fish cakes, chow mein and pumpkin pie mix as three very fine frozen food products.

P. S. Let me know if you would like some good tested recipes printed, maybe one a week.

SCHOOL NEWS

By ERMINE POWELL

Many parents have wondered why their child has had a half day off from school recently. Mrs. Fugitt wishes to explain that different groups are being excused a half day at a time in order that teachers may have an opportunity to work out their course of study together. Capably assisting are Miss C. Mabel Smith, curriculum consultant and Mrs. Catherine T. Reed, county supervisor and former principal of Greenbelt Elementary. Other county supervisors and teachers have been interested visitors at these meetings. It is the aim of all to work out the most beneficial course of study for the future citizens of America—our boys and girls of today and give them every possible assistance.

Mrs. Fugitt also expresses thanks to the many parents who have cooperated in the marking of childrens' clothing and seeing that they are not in the building before 8:50 a. m. and 12:50 p. m. Many minor and some serious accidents have occurred around the building and children are warned not to play on or near the steps and railings leading to the basement rooms. Parents can help by adding a second warning.

The mothers who so graciously helped register and fill out P.T.A. membership cards Monday, September 25 have a vote of thanks from the Association. The meeting was well attended and 125 members were accepted at the door.

The P.T.A. launched a drive for more members last week by sending home with the children envelopes to be filled out with the parents names and returned with the 50 cents annual dues.

Set aside the fourth Monday of each month at P.T.A. night and keep coming.

We don't believe in "high powered" advertising

Frankly, if a haberdasher, for instance, tells us that he has the only good ties in town and infers that we are unable to decide for ourselves, but have to take his say-so---well, our contrary nature tells us NOT to buy ties of that man.

If somebody who makes ice cream, says to us: "Ours is the only good ice cream—ours is best"—we are tempted to say to him "Is that so? Well, if that's what YOU think—YOU eat it yourself!"

Of course, we don't really depend on high pressure talk to sell National Beer—we depend upon two elements—the sound judgment of the public and the quality of our brews. We don't believe in holding a man's nose, as it were, and pouring it down.

One way or another—ever since we began brewing NATIONAL PREMIUM, it's needed just a little bit of announcement to call it to people's attention. Then it seems they come back for more and they tell their friends.

And in the case of NATIONAL BOHEMIAN—well, that's beer history. Starting out in the fall of 1938 as a new-comer among popular priced beers, you all know the popularity it has attained. Of course, there again, it seems that a lot of people particularly like the body and the flavor. And you might say it is a compliment to their taste sense. Your tavern keeper knows—your dealer knows—they pay more for National Bohemian than for any other popular priced bottled beer on this market. It OUGHT to be good.

A new book of grand old time Maryland Recipes is recently from the press. If you will send your name, address and 10-cents to partly pay for printing and postage, we will be glad to forward you a copy.

Seven Years of Growth

This month G. C. S. is celebrating its seventh anniversary. The business has grown, and members have gained in experience in the operation of their own stores.

Seven Years Ago . . .

The Food Store began operating where the Valet Shop is now; had sales at $1,400 the first month. First day's sales amounted to only $11.15. Store was opened when there were only about 25 families in town — served about 200 families by the end of 1937.

The Store was operated under a lease held by Consumer Distribution Corporation pending a decision by residents as to whether they wanted to operate their own stores.

Other units, Service Station, Drug Store, Barber and Beauty Shops, were added rapidly.

AND NOW . . .

The Food Store is operating on a much larger scale - has a branch store. Sales run at about $12,000 weekly - total $700,000 a year Serves 1,895 families - about 7,200 persons.

Store is doing much more than it was thought possible - was designed to serve population of 3,100 at a maximum of $6,500 weekly sales. Additions and improvements are waiting on more capital and materials.

Theatre, Valet Shop, Variety Store, Garage, and the Tobacco Store have been added. Sale reached $1,000,000 in 1943.
