

Summer Concerts Prove Cool Treat

This Sunday evening at 6:30 on the elementary school grounds the Greenbelt Community Band, under the direction of Dana M. Garrett, will present the third in its weekly sunset concerts. "Raymond" Overture, by Ambrose Tomas, will be the featured work, with several Sousa marches also scheduled. Another youthful soloist, yet to be announced, will play. The band welcomes request numbers, and if anyone's request number is in its music library the band promises a rendition.

Last Sunday's program spotlighted three solo numbers. Jimmy Griggs, tenor saxophonist, rendered "My Regards Waltz," a popular number on request programs. Eight year old Bobby Cooper offered an arrangement for solo trumpet of "Home, Sweet Home" made especially for him by Bandmaster Garrett. Mr. Garrett himself demonstrated his proficiency with an arrangement by Herbert Clarke of an old Irish air, in which the trumpet gives the effect of arpeggios on the harp. Overture of the evening was Von Suppe's "Morning, Noon, and Night in Vienna," which featured a clarinet cadenza, ably handled by Kathleen Scott. Other numbers were the "American Patrol," "The Whistler and His Dog," and three Sousa marches, "The Washington Post," "The Thundered," and "The Liberty Bell."

Recently admitted to the band were Dickie Cooper and Mike Littleton, E-flat clarinetists; Arthur Morin, flutist; and Sonny Brosmer, cornetist.

For one of our members, the concert of June 17 was the last for a while. Alan Taylor left for the Army Air Corps last week. He is stationed at Keesler Field, Miss. The entire band will miss the popular baritone horn player, and we all join in saying, "The best of everything to you, Al."

New Firm Takes Our Dry Cleaning

Following a long period of customer and management dissatisfaction with the laundry and dry cleaning service at the valet shop, announcement was made last week that the University Cleaners of College Park has been given the dry cleaning contract as of the first of this week and that next week laundry is to be sent to another firm.

University Cleaners has recently increased its plant capacity and will be able to give GCS five-day service.

Manager Sam Ashelman made it clear at last Friday's Board meeting that Arcade Sunshine, which has handled all the valet work for G.C.S. for nearly seven years, had continued the Greenbelt service after closing down four of its own shops and discontinuing service at four wholesale outlets due to shortage of help.

Tick Fever Fatality

Amos Jackson, Negro janitor of the Community Building, died last Tuesday of Spotted Fever. He was bitten at his home in nearby Lakeland, last week. He is survived by his wife and seven children, one son being in the South Pacific.

Town Manager James Gobbel wishes to impress on the parents of small children the seriousness of "tick fever". All children should be examined nightly for ticks.

Co-op Votes Discount

Sales of five dollars or more made to non-profit organizations by the Co-op will receive a 10% discount in the future, it was recently voted by the board of directors at Manager Ashelman's suggestion. The custom in the past has been to sell at wholesale prices, and the change is being made to expedite handling the transactions.

Rec. Department Plans Water Show

The annual water show held at the Greenbelt Pool will take place this year on July 27. Anyone interested is asked to contact the Recreation Department by calling Greenbelt 6966 or stopping by the Recreation Office during the day from 9 to 5. A regular practice period will be held from Tuesday through Friday from 12 to 1. Individual practices or night practices will be scheduled, however, for those who cannot make the daytime schedule. Any volunteers to help with costumes and scenery will be welcome, according to the Recreation Office.

GHA To Open Drive With Party

A lawn party at the Health Association offices at 30-D Ridge Road to be held on Thursday, July 5, will officially open the Association's July and August membership drive. A goal of 150 new members has been set. Invitations to some 50 drive workers will be in the mail next week, but anyone who is interested in becoming a drive worker is cordially invited.

Henry Walter, acting chairman of the drive, points out that an increased membership will pave the way towards hiring a second doctor and result in more service to the membership.

The following committees and their chairmen were appointed to aid in organizing the drive: Publicity Committee, Mrs. Betty Harrington and Mrs. Anne Hull; Speakers' Committee, Mrs. Ruth Taylor and Milton William; Manual Committee, Morton Chwalow.

Blew At Va. Hospital

Coxswain Bill Blew, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Blew of 1-C Eastway, has arrived at a hospital in Portsmouth, Va., after a two month trip from the Pacific area, where he was injured April 1.

Bill's ship, the USS Kidd was refueling when the mooring rope broke loose. Bill scattered his men, but as the ship jerked away the huge rope coiled around his groin and leg, swinging him head downward and knocking him into unconsciousness against the side of the ship.

Besides rope burns he suffered a badly broken leg and ankle.

When Coxswain Blew was taken off a few days later, the entire company of officers and men lined up, and as a token of their appreciation for the lives he saved by his action, presented him with a purse of $130. Three days later the Kidd was hit by a Japanese suicide squadron bomber and some of the boys who had lined up to see Bill off were killed.

One of the first Greenbelt boys to enter the service, Bill reported to the Navy December 8, 1941. The news about Pearl Harbor came over the radio shortly after he had left town. Bill took part in the North African and Casablanca campaigns, and has participated in 10 major invasions in the Pacific.

First Graders Get Cards

Many of this year's first graders have fulfilled the necessary qualifications for securing a library card. All week before the close of school tablefuls of youngsters could be seen in the library bending over the cards which they are required to fill out with their own names and addresses. The children must also take home a form for their parent's signature. Ability to read simple sentences is another requirement for would-be card holders. Some first graders are able to qualify by the middle of their first year.

Seeks To Promote Americanization

The American Legion this year presented citizenship awards to Ed Kalvass and Winnie Strickler of the Elementary School.

The Greenbelt American Legion Post No. 136 had its origin in the chance meeting of a few veterans at the first session of the Citizens Association, in November, 1937. Since that time the post has steadily increased and accepted more responsibilities. Veterans of World War II now hold 50% of the post offices.

Obligations of the post cover not only Greenbelt veterans but also those eligible for membership from Branchville, Berwyn, College Park and University Park.

As part of its "Americanization" program, the Legion distributes flags, books, and pictures to five schools in the neighborhood: Greenbelt Elementary, Greenbelt High, Berwyn Elementary, Beltsville Elementary and the Holy Redeemer Parochial School. Annually an award for citizenship is made to a boy and girl from each of these schools under the auspices of the Legion. The student body, student council, and the teachers put up a candidate, and the winner is presented with a certificate and a medal.

Mrs. Willis New Manager

Mrs. Jean Willis was scheduled to take over the management of the Beauty Parlor Thursday to take the place of Mrs. Mary Holland who left recently to open her own shop in Mt. Rainier. Mrs. Willis managed a beauty parlor in Takoma Park for five years and has also served as assistant manager of the "Heads of Connecticut" beauty shop in Washington.

A change in policy will give the manager a salary based partly on commissions from her own work, partly on work performed by the whole shop. Formerly, the salary of the beauty parlor's manager was based on commissions on her own work alone. The new plan gives the manager more incentive to build up a busy and efficient group of operators, General Manager Ashelman pointed out.

Donahue To Head Lyndon Jr. High

Mr. Thomas F. Donahue, social studies teacher at Greenbelt High School for the past two years, has accepted the position of principal of the Lyndon Junior High School in Maryland Park.

Mr. Donahue attended Harvard University, where he received his B. A. degree in 1941, and has since studied at the University of Maryland.

Lyndon Junior High, formerly Lyndon Hills elementary school, was converted into a junior high when the 12-year school system went into effect, and the 6-3-3 plan was adopted. An enrollment of approximately 400 students is expected for next fall, and the faculty will number 15.

Mr. Donahue, at present managing the swimming pool, plans to live in Greenbelt next year.

Capital Transit To File Protest Against Proposed GCS Bus Service

Co-op General Manager Sam Ashelman ascertained recently from the Baltimore office of Defense Transportation, which holds jurisdiction over intra-Maryland bus and taxi service, that Capital Transit has given notice that it will file a protest with the ODT against the bus service extension contemplated here by Greenbelt Consumers Services.

Capital Transit claims that it filed requests to establish a Greenbelt loop bus service with ODT both in 1943 and 1944, when approached by Councilman Fred DeJager. ODT officials, as of Tuesday, however, informed Mr. Ashelman that they have been unable to find these papers.

The Maryland Public Service Commission has indicated that it will not oppose the proposed bus service if the necessary go-ahead signal is given by ODT.

GCS has requested a certificate of war necessity from ODT to run a bus service here. One plan contemplated would be to run the bus at regular intervals throughout the day completely around the town—from the center right on Crescent, continuing around the west end on to Ridge and from Ridge traveling up Laurel Hill and down Research Road, then back to the center via Hillside. The cost proposed is 5 cents per ride.

Capital Transit, What Now?

We understand that Capital Transit has protested to the Office of Defense Transportation concerning the establishment of an intra-Greenbelt bus service by Greenbelt Consumers Services.

Capital Transit, what now? You may recall that we requested you some time ago for just such a service. Nope, you couldn't. Not enough gas, not enough buses, not enough drivers, and besides ODT wouldn't permit it. (We understand that you've been running extra buses out ever since the pool opened, however. Where'd you get them?)

Now along comes an organization with the interest of our citizens at heart, an organization that is ready to work out the kind of intra-Greenbelt service we've been longing for and you protest. You can't or won't give us this service yourself, but you don't want to see anyone else do it. Aesop wrote a fable about a dog in the manger. We're considering asking our cartoonist if he'll draw us a sketch of a road hog in the manger.

It's Been Good To Know You

You 45 families who are moving out to Fort Adair, Oregon, we're sorry to see you leave Greenbelt. We're proud of the record of community service and cooperation you established and your cheerful willingness to make the most of your insecure pillar-to-post existence. You were awfully nice people, and we're going to miss you.

You come back for a visit after the war, hear?

Tonight is yearly clean-up night at the nursery school, at which the members will take home toys to be repaired and refurbished.

Registrations for next year's term, which opens in October, will be taken at any time by Mrs. Callanan, Gr. 4878.

WWDC To Air Fair 1945 Theme Chosen

Radio station WWDC will devote half an hour to the Greenbelt Town Fair each of the three evenings August 30-September 1, it has been announced by the Planning Committee. Arrangement for the broadcasts were made by Eli Radinsky, chairman of the program committee, and GCS has volunteered to bear the cost of running a line out from Washington. The broadcasts will probably take the form of impromptu interviews among the audience.

From the themes submitted, the slogan committee has chosen: "Our Town in a War Year," and it was suggested that exhibitors keep it in mind while planning their displays.

Guy R. Moore, chairman of exhibits, has compiled a tentative list of exhibits. Frank Watson, in charge of space allotment will mail forms to all organizations and groups so that they may request exhibit space.

Mrs. Lillian Mitchell, recently appointed chairman of the contests committee, has announced the following contests: Photography; Baked Goods (bread, rolls, cookies, cakes, and fancy breads, each scheduled contest to be completed within one evening so that the entries may be taken home while still edible); Canned Foods (fruits, vegetables, preserves, jellies, pickles, juices); Vegetables; Flowers; Needlework (knitting, infants' wear, sewing, embroidery, quilts, new clothes out of old); Oddities and Hobbies (antiques, collections, models other than airplanes, handicrafts); Airplane models. The hope was voiced that victory gardeners would remember the vegetables, flowers, and canned goods contests during the next weeks. It was emphasized that all contest entries must be the work of the person in whose name they are entered.

The following contests in the field of entertainment have been decided upon: dancing (jitterbug, waltz, fox trot); true or false; truth and consequence; rolling pin contest; athletic contests for the children.

OUR NEIGHBORS

Mrs. Tommy Attick with Barbara, 6, and Harry, 2, returned last Saturday from a three weeks' visit with her brother and sister in Charlottesville, Virginia.

While her husband is stationed at Aberdeen, Mrs. George Tepee of Indianapolis, with her two small sons, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Paul Strickler, of 10-C Hillside Road.

Mr. and Mrs. William Blew took the night boat down to Norfolk to visit their son, Bill, at Portsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert of 3-C Crescent Road visited Sonny at Bainbridge, Maryland, on Sunday, along with 5000 other mothers and dads.

Dorothy Herbert sang in the production of the opera "Firefly" given by the Columbia Light Opera Company. Dorothy was also one of the dancers. The opera was very beautifully presented and quite a few Greenbelters were there on the opening night.

Sergeant Edson Hays, one of Greenbelts first residents, visited here last week. Sergeant Hays was stationed with a medical detachment of the Engineer Corps in Trinidad and Panama which has been engaged in doing important research work on tropical diseases contacted in the Pacific by our troops.

Estelle Dolgoff of 14-E Laurel Hill Road held an open house Tuesday night, at which the Laurel Hill folks regretfully said farewell to Captain and Mrs. Pachoda, who are leaving Saturday for Camp Adair, Oregon.

A farewell party for Mrs. Bertha Bochner was held at her home Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ramras. Mrs. Bochner leaves Greenbelt to be recreation director at a veterans' hospital in Dwight, Illinois.

Mrs. Marjorie Dennard, with Barbara and Carol, are spending the week at Breezy Point, Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Schubert with their three boys are leaving Monday for a short vacation in the Berkshires.

Mary Finn plans to attend Mt. St. Agnes College in Baltimore this fall, with the ultimate goal of becoming a cadet nurse. She has just completed her sophomore year at Maryland University.

Your columnist and Editor Anne Hull kicked up their heels at a joint birthday celebration last Tuesday night, leaving Betts Watson to boss the office and put the paper to bed.

GCS Jobs, Hours

Approved By WLB

The War Labor Board has recently approved job classifications and wage scales for nearly all the positions in Greenbelt Consumer Services, Merton Trast, personnel director, informed the Cooperator. For the first time, complete records are on file with WLB and the Treasury Department, thus bringing GCS into line with Government regulations.

Male employees have been put on a regular 48-hour week instead of 54 with time and a half for overtime.

The opening of the foodstore on Wednesday afternoon has necessitated a reshuffling of shifts, but the management expects the new schedule to work out fairly for all concerned. One butcher is on duty on Monday, when only lunch meat is sold at the counter.

NEW BABIES

Mr. and Mrs. Warren B. Zier of 38-D Crescent Road announce the birth of a daughter, Robin, on June 21. Robin weighed 3 pounds, 4 ounces.

Shamrocks, Snug Harbor Nine In First Place Duel

Undefeated Leaders In Crucial Battle At Braden Field Sunday With McIntyre And Boggs As Probable Mound Duelists

Roy S. Braden Field is, this Sunday, the scene of the most crucial game in the county baseball league to date. After two months of play, Snug Harbor and Greenbelt, having blasted all the weaker clubs of the 12 team circuit and beaten back the runners-up in the past two weeks, find themselves paired off for a battle which will drop one of them from the ranks of the unbeaten and will, most certainly, give the other the first half championship. Each club will have two more games after the Sabbath struggle.

The Harborites, with Lefty Robert McIntyre doing nearly all the pitching, have scored 82 runs against put 15 in reeling off 8 straight wins. Our Shamrocks, facing nearly the same opposition, have tallied 107 runs to 19. Jim Breed was the winning Greenie flinger on four WAYNE DAVIS the locals trimmed Riverdale, who hasn't engaged Snug Harbor, by the same score. So, on paper at least, there is very little to choose between the deadlocked leaders.

League president Jake Reed has ordered all the other games to be played early so that fans and players might attend Greenbelt's diamond extravaganza that gets underway at 2:30.

Interest in the pending duel ran high through large crowds attending last Sunday's tune-ups of the contenders at Snug Harbor and Shady Oak.

Prexy Reed has ordered two District Association umpires to be on hand for the game instead of the usual one overworked "man in blue".

Pete Scalise, dependable third-sacker and leading run producer, may be playing his last game for the Shamrocks. Pete has a date with the Marines next Monday unless selective service issues another deferment. Scalise's loss would be a severe blow to the Hollyrocks' second half chances. He and Bill Zerwick, every game performers, along with Ernie Boggs, have spearheaded most of the very potent bat attack to date.

Manager Jim Lloyd will present a smartly uniformed Snug Harbor nine Sunday, a distinct contrast to the raggle-taggle appearances of other loop teams, and indeed, the host Shamrocks have looked dressier in other years.

One of our own men shows up among our rivals. Wayne Davis,

Greenbelt's best all-time second baseman, is hitting in the clean-up spot and doing keystone duty for the Harborites this season. Wayne played for the Shamrocks in 1942, 43 and 44, having done earlier duty with Snug Harbor in 1940 and 41. The left sided slugger is well liked locally and will come in for a large share of the cheers.

Braden Field's big diamond hasn't been used for several weeks and produced a bumper crop of hay for Angus McGregor's scythe corps all this week. Recreation director Vince Holochwest promises baseball manager Vince Holochwest that the infield will be well manicured and lined.

Following will be the probable line-ups to face one another at 2:30 this Sunday afternoon:

Everybody Welcome

Attendance High At Swimming Pool

Now that the hot summer days are here the swimming pool has become one of Greenbelt's busiest spots if not the coolest. Manager Thomas Donahue reports an attendance of approximately 300 to 400 per day, with a much larger crowd on Sunday.

The life guards, who have been sporting beautiful shades of tan since the pool first opened, are Leonard Lemire, Harry Leiper, Lynn Buck, Al Holiday, and Jimmy McCarl. Catherine Livermore, Mary Cashman, Jack Gale and Donnie Wolfe are employed in the check room while Mrs. John Cook and Miss Lydick are the cashiers.

The regular swimming classes began last Tuesday with full enrollment. At the present time there is no room for newcomers in the classes, but another class may be formed in August. At the completion of these classes those who qualify will be presented with the official Red Cross swimming badge.

There have been no serious accidents since the pool was first opened. This year there have been two minor casualties. To avoid accidents, Mr. Donahue has asked that swimmers please comply with the following rules: 1. Do not try stunting, showing off, or running in the pool; 2. Do not bring lunches inside the pool; 3. Eat and smoke within restricted areas only.

Group of Kids Get Peek At New School Interior

Among the privileged few who have seen the interior of the new North End School are the children of Mrs. Darlene Leknes' Group I class, who went on a sight-seeing tour with their teacher through the kindness of a FWA official who had come out to deliver some supplies shortly before vacation time.

The children report that each schoolroom has its own door leading to the outside, that there are outdoor drinking fountains on each side of the building, and that there are two playgrounds, one for "the big kids", the other for the younger groups. The shiny red and brown tiles, sunny walls, and spacious blackboards were especially admired by the children, most of whom spent their first two years in the makeshift school fashioned from six defense housing units.

The L-shaped, two-story building contains 12 rooms. One of its features is a sliding door between the auditorium and home economics room which offers space control and makes a single enlarged room available if needed.

Paper Collectors Picnic

About sixty boys and girls, workers on the paper salvage campaign, were given a picnic last Wednesday by the paper salvage committee of the Catholic Parents Assn. Sandwiches and soft drinks were donated by the committee headed by Mrs. May Zoellner. Prizes for races and games were theater passes, and each child was given a ticket to the pool, to finish the party with a swim.

The school bus will resume paper collection tomorrow, and will continue throughout the summer at two week intervals.

Mrs. Fields Out On Bond

Mary Jane Fields, colored maid accused of grand larceny in connection with the disappearance of property from Greenbelt homes where she worked, will go on trial in Upper Marlboro in October. The offense carries a maximum sentence of 10 years. Mrs. Fields is at present out on bond. She has plead neither guilty nor not guilty.

Boggs Ties All-Time Team Two-Bagger Mark As He Hits And Pitches Greenies To 16-3 Victory Over County Coppers

Shady Oak, June 24 — The Greenbelt Shamrocks swamped the Prince Georges County Police nine here this afternoon by a score of 16 to 3 before some 1,500 fans. Ernie Boggs gave up 12 hits but was generally smart in the pinches. His mates got to Dick Earnshaw and Tom Turner for 15 hits and benefited by 10 bases on balls and 5 Police miscues, whereas Boggs walked none. The victory allowed the 'Rocks to remain tied with Snug Harbor for the loop lead, the Harborites edging Hyattsville by 4-1.

As in most of their previous tilts, the Green scored pretty much at will. They had the Lawmen 10 to 0 in the sixth before the host nine dented the plate.

Boggs maintained his .500 batting average with 3 safties in 6 tries, two of which went for doubles. Boggs' mark of 8 two-baggers in just 6 games is remarkable in that it ties a club mark. Micky McDonald hit 8 doubles in 1941; Boggs seems to have gotten on to a very good start all around.

Bill Zerwick had a triple and single in four efforts; Pete Scalise and Johnny Newman had a double and single apiece. Joe Todd broke in the hit column with a crispie through second and Donnie Wolfe smacked a double down the third base line, in one official try each.

The Turner brothers, Shagague and Richie Earnshaw reached Boggs for two hits apiece to lead a futile attack against the 'Belters.

The police team played a much better game than the score indicates. Several members were heard to say that, although they liked to win, it wasn't too bad to be beaten by a great bunch of fellows that are the Shamrocks. To be spoken of in such a manner,

G-WORKERS PAY RAISE.

The House and Senate Conference Committee on the Federal Workers Pay Raise Bill have gotten together and agreed on a version of the bill that will undoubtedly be passed this week. While it doesn't go as far as the UFWA-CIO proposals, it is undoubtedly a good bill. There will be a raise in the base rate of pay of something like 16%, computed on a sliding scale, the lower paid workers getting a proportionately higher raise. Time and a half for overtime will be a part of the bill, as well as a number of other favorable changes, such as an increased rate for night work and shorter waiting periods between in-grade raises.

What has us really worried is how much this raise is going to mean to the government worker, other workers, and consumers in general if the bottom is knocked out of Price Control. Both the House and the Senate have passed versions of the Price Control Renewal Act which have so changed the original character of the Act, that effective price control would be impossible. Now in the joint conference committee of the House and Senate Banking and Currency Committees headed by Sen. Wagner of New York, and Rep. Spence of Kentucky, the Act can still be which both Houses have passed. If saved by eliminating amendments the G-workers want their raise to mean anything in terms of what he or she can buy, they should write or phone Wagner and Spence now to renew the Price Control Act without any amendments. By the time this is printed the bill may already be on the floors of the House and Senate.

DISCRIMINATION

The appropriation for the temporary Fair Employment Practices Committee is coming up on the Senate floor this week for a tough fight. A technicality rules that the Senate must first vote to consider the question of these funds, and a two-thirds vote is needed. The permanent FEPC is still tied up in the House Rules Committee. To make things worse, the House Appropriations Committee has voted to grant the temporary FEPC one-fourth of its regular appropriation for the specific purpose of winding up its affairs. The reactionary cliques in both houses don't want an FEPC. Do you?

The anti-Poll Tax bill is still in the Senate Judiciary Committee.

FULL EMPLOYMENT

Watch for news about a bill recently introduced in the Senate by Murray of Montana, the Murray Full Employment Bill (S. 380). If passed it will help solve the problem of future unemployment in this country.

Nose Broken In Fight

In the Hyattsville court Monday a Greenbelt resident was fined $10 and costs on the charge of assaulting the high school tennis court attendant who asked him to leave the local courts at closing time last Friday. The boy's nose was broken during the fracas.

Because of conflicting evidence a charge of disorderly conduct against the man was dropped. The only eye-witnesses were two friends of the tennis player.

Between 75 and 100 aircraft carriers are now operating with the U. S. Fleet.

HI NAVY

There was great rejoicing at the home of Mrs. H. F. MacMullan, 57-K Ridge Road when she had both her husband, Chief Q.M. Harold F. MacMullan, and her son "Bob" Simmons, U.S.M.M., home on leave at the same time.

Chief MacMullan has been away from Greenbelt for two years in the Pacific. He participated in the Philippine battles and has seen plenty of action. Bob, on a liberty ship, was in Marseille, France, on V-E Day and said they really celebrated victory over there!

Chief McMullan returned to the West Coast Sunday, while Bob still has 10 days leave.

The Wave contingent of Greenbelt, Lorraine Mullen, Zella Bryan and Dolores Carr, was home on furlough recently all at the same time. Lorraine paid her Dad and Mom a surprise visit on Father's Day.

Dolores Carr was home with her brand new husband. Sorry, we didn't get his name. Zella Bryan left Monday for San Francisco.

Chief Petty Officer Newton of Woodland Way is reporting for duty at San Francisco. He was attached to Naval Headquarters in London during the blitz, returned to the States last October, and has been on duty at headquarters here.

Frank Harper is back again in Greenbelt. He has had a medical discharge from the Navy.

Bart J. Finn has completed his first year in Uncle Sam's Navy and would be glad to hear from any of his Greenbelt friends. His address: Bart Finn, S 1/c, 256 77 45, Naval Combat Demolition, Navy 900, Care of Fleet P. O., San Francisco.

George Newman left for Great Lakes Training School. George is a June graduate of this year's class of Greenbelt High.

Ensign Reno, with his devastating moustache, is home on leave from the Navy Air Field at Dallas, Texas. Sonny goes to Miami from here, to the Naval Air Base.

Paul Strickler and his son, Paul are both on duty at Bainbridge. Strickler, Sr. is a Coxswain. Coxswain Strickler was Greenbelt's first bus driver way back when Graylines operated here, remember?

Danny Jones has completely recovered from his arm operation. He wrote that it had rained for days and nights while he was being hospitalized and when he got out and was able to attend a movie in the pouring rain, the theme song was, "There is a little rain in everybody's life." "Too much to take," says Danny.

THE ARMY

Wac June Nyhoff is stationed at a hospital in Atterbury, Indiana.

Cpl. John Egl, eldest son of Mrs. E. Kitchin has been wounded and sent back to duty in Germany from a hospital in England. John was going to Pennsylvania State College when Mr. and Mrs. Kitchin came down here so he didn't get around much with the Greenbelt crowd.

Allan Taylor, another of our recent Greenbelt High graduates, has qualified for the Army Air Corps and is on his way to Keesler Field, Mississippi. Happy Landings, Allan.

Leonard Braun, a Greenbelt High graduate of 1942 has had a recreation hall named for him out in the Pacific somewhere. Leonard was killed last winter in the Philippines.

Cpl. Thomas Snoddy of 42-G Ridge Road is quite proud of his new rank.

Lt. Ed Martone is home on leave. This is his eighth trip over and back.

A letter and a SHAEF press release sent to the Cooperator by Pfc. Seymour Levine bring us the information that his Gun Battalion, the 126th AAA, was one of those which combatted flying bombs from the cliffs of Dover and the Romney Marshes. Marshal Montgomery later requested their services to protect Antwerp, essential Allied supply port, from a "desperate" five-month all-out attack by the V-1's.

Good night and God bless you.

Community Bldg. Closes

The elementary school building will be closed for the summer at the end of June, and will not be available for organization meetings until September.

Garden Club Plot
Getting Greener

"It's a great year for the gardeners," says Oscar Zoellner, president of the Garden Club. The club plot, which is located in "D" Block behind the defense homes, gives evidence of a flourishing season.

All of the root crops are coming along especially well, according to Mr. Zoellner; and this spring saw one of the finest yields of peas in the history of Greenbelt. Although the tomato plants don't look too sprightly at the present time, a little rain will start them thriving in their usual hardy fashion, he said.

Plans for the regular Garden Club booth at the Town Fair are being hampered this year by a shortage of members with enough time to handle it, but a supreme effort is being made to maintain the booth as in former years. As most of the men in the Club are in the service or doing war work, the job of tending the gardens has fallen into the hands of the women, who, Mr. Zoellner assures us, are doing a grand piece of work.

A "scarecrow" for garden thieves, in the form of a $10 reward for apprehension and conviction, is offered again this year by the Cooperator.

HS Point Committee Lists
22 For Letters, Stars

The Point System Committee of the High School Student Council has compiled a point list to provide recognition for outstanding students who merit a Greenbelt "G". Students who have earned a letter thus far are: Seniors—LeGrand L. Benefiel, James Carneal, Lucy Forrester, Dotty Jeffries, Pat Robinson, Joanne Scott, Paul Strickler, Carolyn Tompkins, Donnie Wolfe; Juniors—Teddy Fox and Donald Grimm.

Those students earning a star for having twice the required number of points are: Seniors—Pat Brown, Mahlon Eshbaugh, Ellen Gussio, Jane Linhardt, Marilyn Maryn, James McCarl, Shirley Mitchell, George Neuman, Ann Turner, and Bob Humphrey.

Reed-Craig Nuptials

Verena Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Craig of 35-C Ridge Road, was united in marriage to Sergeant Dewey W. Reed of Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, at the Lutheran Church in Mt. Rainier, on Saturday. The bride wore a white net gown fashioned with a long train while her veil and head-dress was a Mary Queen of Scots design embroidered with pearls. The bridal bouquet was white roses and gardenias. Dorma Ashley, one of the first residents of Greenbelt, was her only attendant, wearing the white dress uniform of the W. R. M. C. Stanley Provost acted as best man. A wedding reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Reed left for New York City on their honeymoon and will go to Camp Lejeune where Sergeant Reed is on duty at present.

Benefit Party Held

A benefit card and mah-jongg party was held on Monday evening, June 25, the net proceeds being donated by B'nai B'rith of Greenbelt to the United Jewish Appeal for 1945. Hostesses for the event included Lillian Stutz, Dorothy Bogan, Lillian Gerstel, Minerva Krasnor, and Ann Mitteldorf.

Mothers Gang Up On Kids

One method of child supervision that eliminates excessive wear and tear on mother's temper has been successfully worked out by five mothers of 56 Crescent Road. Each mother has agreed to take one hour duty a day to play with and care for the seven children of the five families. The young participants are Carol and Ellen Getzin, Stephanie Schein, Karen and Michael East, Johnny DiPietro and Gil Salzman.

Ranging in age from 2½ to 7 years of age, these children take walks, visit the playgrounds, and listen to stories during their five hours of daily supervised play. The program is carried on for five days of the week.
