

Greenbelters Urged To Write Gov. Lane

Greenbelters were urged this week by Councilwoman Elizabeth Harrington to write to Governor W. Preston Lane and State Senator L. Harold Sothoron, asking for a quadrupling of the State's "incentive fund" to aid the counties' school building programs.

Large majorities of both houses of the State Legislature this week signed companion bills to this effect. It is expected, however, that Gov. Lane's commitment to a program for improvement in mental institutions may cause him to reject the bills. Senator Sothoron, member from Prince George's County, did not sign the Senate bill.

Last Thursday, a delegation of 40 representatives of State and County organizations called upon Senator Sothoron at Annapolis to plead for his support of the bill. While remaining non-committal, the senator did not speak against. See WRITE, Page 4

Bloodmobile Coming Thursday, March 24

The Red Cross bloodmobile will be in Greenbelt on Thursday, March 24, from 12 noon to 5:45 p.m. at the Center school auditorium. According to Mrs. Joseph Rogers, chairman, the bloodmobile is equipped to take 100 pints of blood which is sorely needed by the hospitals in the county. At present Prince Georges County is not meeting the need for blood, which is being furnished by other chapters.

The bloodmobile is under the direct supervision of qualified physicians, nurses, and laboratory technicians, and a physician is always in the center while blood is being taken from donors. No charge is made by Red Cross for furnishing blood; while doctors and hospitals may charge for their services in administering blood transfusions, this is not a charge for the blood itself.

Greenbelt residents who wish to donate a pint of blood should contact Mrs. Rogers at 3171 at the earliest opportunity for an appointment. Donors' blood will be typed and examined for RH factor, and this information will be forwarded to the donor.

Maryland's V. D. Campaign Extended

Widespread public information, combined with modern treatment and adequate facilities, has proved so effective in the Eastern Shore venereal disease campaign that the program is being extended to other areas in Maryland. Dr. R. H. Riley, Director of the State Department of Health, announced today that the extended project goes into effect immediately in the Southern Maryland counties on the western side of the Chesapeake Bay, and stated that "every thinking adult belongs in this fight to cut down venereal disease from its top-ranking position among the reported communicable diseases." In 1947 syphilis ranked first among all communicable diseases reported from Maryland's twenty-three counties, and gonorrhea ranked second. Tuberculosis, chickenpox, pneumonia, whooping cough and measles followed in that order.

A new penicillin compound is being used by the health department clinics. Treatment for syphilis can now be completed in five days.

The campaign aims to place the facts before the public, and to find and treat the victims of venereal diseases—syphilis and gonorrhea. "Through knowledge and understanding of this problem," said Dr. Riley, "we hope to gain the full cooperation of all citizens and civic groups."

John Wants Council She's A Queen! To Find His Mary

The Greenbelt girl named Mary who sent a valentine to a boy named John, in a certain New England state, should hereafter sign her last name. Apparently John loves more than one Mary! At least, he indicated as much in a letter to the town clerk, as follows: "Please send me a list of girls names by the name of Mary—there's a certain girl down there by the name of Mary and would like to know who she is—she sent me a valentine with just her first name and no address."

In addition to insertion of John's plea in the record, the Greenbelt Town Council Monday night endorsed Col. LeRoy S. Mann, 360th Antiaircraft Artillery Group, District of Columbia National Guard, for the position of commanding general of the D. C. Guard when a new appointment is made.

Other business included instruction to Town Manager Charles T. MacDonald to draft an ordinance with respect to opening a taxi stand; a request to the Prince George's chapter of the American Red Cross to appoint a separate campaign captain from Greenbelt; approval of a Woman's Club request that live Christmas trees be planted for permanent civic use; and the reading of a letter announcing that April 17 to 23 is Religious Toleration Week in Maryland. Enroll Jr. March 16 For Kindergarten

Wednesday, March 16, is kindergarten enrollment day at both the Center and the North End schools. If your child will be five years of age on or before December 31, he or she is eligible to enter kindergarten in September.

It is very important that parents enroll their children on that day, in order that plans can be made for employing the required number of teachers and arranging for the proper class room space for all of the children who will enter kindergarten next fall.

The present kindergarten classes will be dismissed on that day so the teachers will be available to consult with the parents in filling out the questionnaire. The children whose last names begin with letters from A through K will be enrolled in the morning from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. The children whose names begin with letters from L to Z will be enrolled in the afternoon from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Birth certificates should be brought along for verification, as well as health records.

The public health clinic will be open that day for administration of booster immunization shots.

Not Peeping Toms Assures Cormack

Groups of observers seen looking closely at Greenbelt homes are probably PHA experts making inspections with a view to planning the improvements most needed in the various town areas, according to PHA Manager Charles M. Cormack. A variety of problems are continually confronting the administration in the management of a project of the size of Greenbelt and the community manager stated that it is more efficient in the long run to get expert technical advice before beginning any program of repairs.

Among the problems to be tackled are those of drainage, particularly where it has caused soil erosion; and repair of roadways and parking areas.

She's A Queen!

Jeanne Kasko, 9-A Ridge Road, who was chosen queen at all Greenbelt Night held last Friday.

Jeanne Kasko Chosen Queen Of Greenbelt

Jeanne Kasko, a junior at Greenbelt High School, was crowned Queen of All Greenbelt Night last Friday night by John P. Speicher, former principal of the High School. A crowd of approximately 1600 people attended the affair at the University of Maryland's Ritchie Coliseum.

The program included performances by the Greenbelt Community Band, the elementary and junior high tumbling group, the majorettes, the crowning of the Queen, and boys' and girls' basketball games.

Runner-ups to the Queen were Esther Wolfe, Jeri Bryant, and Elaine Scott. No one knew who the Queen was until a moment before the girls were to walk in. The ceremony was beautifully and impressively conducted.

Bladensburg High won both basketball games.

The Police Blotter

The Drop-Inn was entered illegally this past week. Many candy wrappers and empty coke bottles were found strewn on the floor, but nothing else was determined to be missing or disturbed.

There were four complaints about lost children; all were found.

A ring valued at $67 was reported stolen but later discovered to be misplaced.

There were two complaints about a stolen skeeter and a stolen tricycle.

A "coke" machine in the tobacco shop was discovered "smoking." After the police arrived the plug was pulled, and the smoking stopped. A short circuit was the cause of the trouble.

Police responded to a complaint about an intoxicated man. He was a Washington resident. The police placed him on a 6 o'clock bus and instructed the driver to see that he board a District street-car.

There were two complaints concerning mud and other materials being smeared on cars belonging to Greenbelt residents.

A fire in an upstairs bedroom of the Dodson Farmhouse, on Edmonston Road, caused considerable damage. Fire trucks from the Berwyn, Branchville, and College Park areas responded to the alarm and extinguished the blaze. Because the call was put through the Prince Georges County Central Fire Board, the Greenbelt Fire Department did not respond. However, Lt. Attick arrived in the squad car, directed traffic, helped in the investigation of the fire, and gave general assistance.

GMHOC Gets Quorum; Patman Absent

Elected last night to the Greenbelt Mutual Home Ownership Corporation's board of directors were five incumbents and four new members. Re-elected were Paul Borsky, Sherrod East, Benjamin Goldfaden, Wells Harrington and Max Salzman. Newcomers are Bruce Bowman, Henry Pearlman, Thomas B. Ritchie and James Walsh.

The bare quorum of 100 members who attended the meeting heard John Carson, Washington representative of the Cooperative League—USA compare mutual housing to the rural electrification programs. "REA housing," he said, could successfully fight the trend toward government ownership. "Without private ownership," he added, "we lose our independence." Carson spoke in the absence of Congressman Wright Patman (D., Tex.), whose scheduled appearance was cancelled because of an emergency committee meeting.

The Patman bill, which would establish a mutual housing department on a par with Public Housing Authority under Housing and Home Finance Agency, was discussed by Lawrence Westbrook, Westbrook, president of the Trans-American Development Corporation hired to represent GMHOC in attempting to buy Greenbelt, said he considered the small attendance at the meeting an expression of confidence in the board of directors and TADC, rather than complacency.

GHS To Field Football Team

The Board of Education of Prince Georges County announced last Friday a plan to inaugurate interscholastic football next year in six high schools: Greenbelt, Hyattsville, Bladensburg, Maryland Park, Mt. Rainier and Laurel. The program announced by the board is quite comprehensive. Money to set up the program, advanced by the board, is to be returned from the gate receipts from the games. All games will be played at the University of Maryland on Friday and Saturday nights. Each school will play five league games and one outside contest. The University has made Byrd Stadium available for eighteen nights.

The administration and financial control of football will be vested in a three-man committee appointed by the Board of Education. As far as the individual player is concerned, each boy will be insured against injury; each boy will be completely outfitted with two uniforms; and there will be a doctor at every game.

Teams will be permitted two weeks of spring practice. Fall practice will not start before the opening of school. No one not connected directly with the school will be permitted to assist in coaching. Schools cannot accept outside financial aid.

Chorus Plans To Give "Bohemian Girl"

Balfé's opera, "Bohemian Girl," to be presented by the Greenbelt Community Chorus in May, will represent a complete change in the type of music formerly sung by the group, according to its president, Fred W. Pfeiffer.

Now in rehearsal under the direction of Harlan Randall, the chorus at present has a membership of over fifty. Mr. Pfeiffer stressed the importance of members' attendance at rehearsals, and invited all Greenbelters interested in singing to join the chorus.

Rec's Meet Skins Tomorrow Night

The Washington Redskins, headed by Steve Bagarus, will tackle the Greenbelt Recreation department basketball team tomorrow night in the local gym at 8 p.m., donating their time in a benefit for the local youth center. "The 'Skins will feature such favorites of the football field as Steve Bagarus, John "Tree" Adams, Tommy Mont, Al Tereschinski, Al Demea and Hugh Taylor. Against this power Bob Lindeman, Greenbelt Recreation team coach, will throw his tri-county title winners.

In a preliminary game at 7 the local Boys' Club teams will take over. Tickets for the doubleheader are on sale at the high school, the Recreation Department, the elementary schools, the Drop-Inn, and also can be obtained from members of the Advisory Board and Parents' Guild as well as at the door tomorrow. A contest in the elementary schools offers a free ticket to any member selling 5 tickets or more. Refreshments will be on sale in the cafeteria between games—and entertainment is also planned.

Sure and the Kellys Will Gather Begorra

St. Hugh's St. Patrick Day Dance will be held next Thursday, March 17 in the Center school auditorium. Music for dancing will be furnished by Harry August and his Country Club orchestra and a musical trio under the direction of Art Freda of Greenbelt will present musical skits and comedy songs throughout the evening in the social room. Other artists will entertain during the evening. Refreshments will be available in the school cafeteria.

According to Philip P. McGonagle, who is in charge of the arrangements, the dance is being held with a two-fold purpose in mind. March 17 is the Feast Day of the Patron Saint of Ireland and all the Irish or "once a year Irish." The second and uppermost purpose is the building program now in progress in St. Hugh's Parish. All proceeds from the affair will go into the St. Hugh's building fund.

Mrs. Edwards Appoints Red Cross Campaigners

Mrs. Stanley Edwards, chairman of the 1949 Red Cross drive for funds in Greenbelt, announces that the quota for this year has been set at $800. Red Cross services to the people continue the year round. In order to maintain funds to ensure prompt response for disaster relief and to continue with the blood donor program and safety education, such as first aid and swimming courses, it is necessary that the quota set for each community be met. This can easily be done in Greenbelt by each family making a contribution.

This year's block captains include: A Block, Mrs. Donald G. Kern; 7 to 11 Southway, Mrs. Jas. Beck; B Block, Mrs. Edward C. Kaighn; 12 to 16 Ridge Road, Mrs. Leon Mittledorf; C Block, Mrs. Paul E. Featherby; 32 to 38 Ridge Road, Mrs. Matthew Fontaine; D Block, Mrs. Frank A. Kriby; 44 to 48 Ridge, Mrs. Thomas J. Canning; 2 to 6 Hillside, Mrs. John P. Murray; Parkbelt and Woodlandway, Mrs. E. Leland Love; Parkway, Miss Cyrilla O'Connor; 69 to 73 Ridge, I, 2, 3 Research, 19, 20, 22 Hillside, Mrs. Donald F. Römer; Laurel Hill Road, Mrs. Thomas J. Callahan.

Areas not listed under the above are being canvassed by other volunteer workers who are covering individual courts. Anybody not contacted who wishes to make a donation may contact any of the above or Mrs. Edwards at 2086.

Community Church Plans Building

The congregation of Community Church is looking forward to the completed blueprints of its projected church, which should be ready about April 15. The firm of Ferrara and McLeod, architects, is now surveying the site recently bought from the Federal government at Crescent and Hillside, and contractors will be invited to bid as soon as the blueprints are ready. Bids will be opened on May 1, and work will begin as soon as possible thereafter.

The board of trustees of Community Church plans to have the ground-breaking ceremony on a Sunday afternoon, so that all Greenbelt can participate, "bringing their own shovels." Estimated time for completing the building varies, with one optimistic contractor saying that he could get it done by September 1.

Plans for the church building include, besides the 300-capacity chapel proper, a large social hall to seat about 250 people for lectures, suppers, or Sunday school. This basement hall will have a dividing, portable partition, as well as a kitchen, store rooms, and a small workshop connected with the heating plant. A church parlor designed to seat about 60 people will have a good-sized fireplace for social and club activities.

The sanctuary will have a center aisle, divided chancel with pulpit, lectern and altar, with the choir seated facing the organ console. A plain balcony over the vestibule will accommodate an additional 50 persons. The church plans to have two morning services and an additional evening service as soon as the building is completed.

Navy Wives Meet

Along Our Street with Aunt Penny

Last night was the night of the big basketball game. Just as one of the boys said, the home team was "on the beam" and won the game easily.

I believe the thing that impressed me most was the way the team worked together. I began to think how important teamwork is in almost everything—in games, schools, clubs and among neighbors, too.

Take the teamwork on our telephone party line, for example. The neighbors who share our line never tie it up with a long unbroken series of calls. When one party is using the line, none of the others interrupts, unless it's to make an emergency call. In that case, the party talking quickly gives up the line.

Just as teamwork helped win last night's game, it can help us all to better party-line telephone service. The Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore City.

Anyone Singing Lunch Pail Blues?

Lady, are your children singing those "Lunch Pail Blues"? Or is your husband guilty of "overlooking" an occasional sandwich? Remember, sandwiches are the mainstays of lunches carried to work or to school, and they should be attractive and varied as well as nourishing if the lunchbox meal is to be eaten with relish.

Home economists of the University of Maryland Extension Service offer some tips guaranteed to empty that lunch pail to the last crumb. Begin by using medium-thin, day-old bread, because it is firm enough to spread easily and hold the filling, yet not hard and dry as older bread may be. Personal taste may decide the question of trimming off crusts, but it does take extra time, is wasteful unless the crusts are saved for other uses, and causes sandwiches to dry out faster.

Soften the Butter

For smooth spreading and untorn bread, soften the butter at room temperature or "cream" with a fork, but don't melt it, since this makes the fat soak into the bread. Work in a bit of seasoning—a pinch of mustard, or chipped parsley, or onion juice, depending on the filling to be used. Of course, spreads such as peanut butter and soft cheese may go directly on the bread, but whatever your choice, apply it lightly and evenly to the very edge of each slice.

Do you know sandwich filling mixtures are so numerous that a different one may be used every day in the year? Different breads also may be used for variety or half-and-half sandwiches made with one slice of rye and one of white bread. Rolls, biscuits and buns may vary the lunchbox too. In making bun sandwiches, slice the bun only three-fourth through to secure the filling for easy eating.

Avoid Overloading

Beware the sandwich that is drippy or sticky. Avoid overloading the bread with filling or using wilted lettuce or juicy tomatoes. Instead, carefully wrap a wedge of cold lettuce, a quartered tomato and crisp carrot and celery strips separately in waxed paper for an easy-to-eat "finger salad."

Sandwiches made up the night before should be kept cold overnight to prevent staling, so wrap each one separately in waxed paper

Robbie And June Among The Missing

By Sally Meredith

Mr. and Mrs. Richmond E. Robertson have now been added to the ever-increasing list of people who have left Greenbelt after creating a place of their own in the community.

No one is likely to recognize the popular young couple by the formal "Mr. and Mrs." title, as they have been known as "Robbie and June" ever since their arrival here nearly two years ago.

Robbie was hired by Greenbelt Consumer Service, Inc., to assist in planning the new supermarket, and to see that the plans were carried out. The long months of 12-hour days Robbie put in to his job were rewarded when the store opened with a Hollywood premiere touch last November. He has now accepted a position as assistant to the director of real estate and development section of Farm Bureau Insurance Company, at Columbus, O.

June will be missed most, perhaps, by The Cooperator. Operating alternately as reporter, business manager, copy reader, make-up specialist, and Tuesday night hostess, June left a vacancy on The Cooperator that would take a half-dozen people with normal energy to fill.

As though her journalistic activities weren't enough, June lent her voice to the Greenbelt Community Chorus, her business services to the Greenbelt Health Association, and her charm and personality to the entire community.

The Robertsons expect an addition to the family this month and there is one question uppermost in the mind of their friends: What name will they pick if Erastus is a girl?

Brownie Troop Holds Party

Brownie Troop 109 celebrated three occasions: Valentine's Day, the troop's birthday, and a "box auction" for the Juliette Low fund.

Mrs. Ester Perry baked a birthday cake, valentines were exchanged, and boxes prepared by the Brownies were auctioned to contribute to the Low fund, whose purpose is to "further world friendship between Girl Scouts."

A letter of thanks was received from Glenn Dale Sanitarium for the two-year supply of Coronet magazines and the cartoon scrap books donated by the troop.
