

First "Big" Fire At Center School

By David Reznikoff

Greenbelt's first major fire in 14 years took place Monday, February 4 and closed the center school for one day. Although the blaze reduced Room 220 to a mere shell, it was brought under control within a half-hour. Greenbelt's firemen were assisted by neighboring companies from Branchville, Berwyn Heights, Riverdale and College Park.

The fire was discovered in a corner closet at 4:20 by custodian Sherman Friend who, after trying unsuccessfully to fight it with hand extinguishers, instructed his helper to pull the alarm. A second alarm was called in by ten-year-old Bobby McLoughlin, who had come out of the gym for a drink, and saw the smoke.

Children, teachers, parents and the librarians joined the rapidly gathering crowds in front of the school. One mother, assisting a Brownie troop downstairs, reported that at the first alarm many of the children ducked under their desks, following their civil defense drill procedure.

Police officer Al Nuzzo was the first to arrive in a squad car and dashed into the building carrying an extinguisher. Greenbelt's two fire trucks followed and went into action. Sidewalk spectators, anxious to help, connected a section of hose to the pump and turned on the water while the loose end of the hose was still on the truck, dousing the firemen instead of the fire. Others tampered with the valves on the pumper, causing further delay. Despite the amateur "help," however, the fire was brought under control in 30 minutes.

Chief George C. Hudgins of the Berwyn Heights fire department, first of the outside companies on the scene, told Mayor Lastner "the Greenbelt fire department is to be commended for containing the fire in one room."

Mrs. Elizabeth Fugitt, principal of the center school, who had been attending a conference with several teachers on the first floor, was "thankful the fire happened after school hours and that no one was hurt." She and Mrs. Mary Jane Kinzer of PHA checked children out of the front door.

Chief George Panagoulis, director of public safety, and fire chief Albert "Buddy" Attick, both of whom were participating in a civil defense conference at the University of Maryland at the time of the fire, estimated the damage at $10,000. An investigation of the cause of the blaze is under way.

The photo above, taken by staff photographer Paul Kasko, shows the almost complete gutting of Room 220. To clean the burning area, firemen threw charred desks, papers, books and other equipment out of the windows, whose frames were bent from the heat.

Questions Answered On Mutual Housing

By Robert Davenport

In the wake of PHA's offer to sell Greenbelt to the Greenbelt Veterans Housing Corporation have come many questions from Greenbelt residents. They are asking: "How can I borrow the down payment? How much will the monthly payments be? Will I be permitted to buy some other house? Must I buy the house I am occupying?" Answers to some of these questions are in the following paragraphs.

Greenbelt residents, if they wish to participate in GVHC, will be asked to pay $111. $11 of this amount is a membership fee to be used to defray organizational expenses. $100 is a deposit on an agreement to subscribe to shares in GVHC equal to the down payment. Members who have previously paid the $11 will only pay the $100.

GVHC President Mike Salzman indicated the membership blank will have a space in which the member-subscriber may show his interest in purchasing a unit other than the one he is occupying.

Each resident has a priority on the unit he is occupying. A member-subscriber who has paid the $111 may indicate his preference for another unit. But of course he cannot gain possession until the present occupant vacates. Under a ruling from PHA, the present occupant has 12 months from the date the contract is signed to vacate. All of the details have not yet been worked out, Salzman said, for those who are occupying one unit and who wish to purchase another.

Non residents will have an opportunity to subscribe and pay the $111. They may indicate a choice of unit at that time. They, too, will have their names placed on a waiting list. As nonpurchasing residents move, nonresident subscribers will be offered the vacancies. Of course, not all of the resident nonpurchasers will wait 12 months to move.

Suppose you wish to purchase a two-bedroom house in new Greenbelt (war housing), what sums would be necessary? Assuming that the house is priced at $2500, and that the down payment is 13% as announced at the recent meeting, the figures are: $325 down, $111 of the down payment payable during sales drive, balance, $214 payable at time sale is consummated (about July, 1952). These amounts are approximate but give an idea of the low prices available under the plan.

The amount of the monthly payment, which will be available soon, will be slightly higher than the present rent. This is because part of the monthly payment will go to accumulate an equity, which has a cash value in the event the resident moves.

If you have bought into GVHC and wish to move to a larger house, your paid-in equity may be applied toward the payment of the equity in the larger house. The difference in the two equities would be payable in cash. If you move out of town, the corporation would have the first right of refusal to purchase your equity at a formula to be determined, but in no case in excess of the amount actually paid in. The formula will have to be decided on by the membership.

It would be possible for a newly-married couple to move to Greenbelt and change units for every change in family composition. There would be a corresponding cash adjustment of the equity with each change of dwelling unit. With

Kindergarten Cut, Health Saved; PHA Slashes Budget By $18,000

By I. J. Parker

This year's "battle of the budget" ended last Monday when the city council authorized Mayor Frank Lastner to sign an agreement with Public Housing Administration for a "payment in lieu of taxes" amounting to $182,574. Original request was for $202,514. The reduction followed a series of conferences between PHA officials and council representatives.

Most dramatic service affected by the budget cut was the kindergarten, to be discontinued after the present school term. The library, recreation department and capital outlay suffered reductions; however, a new tract loader for the sanitation department, a new siren, the entire public health service, and a portion of the surplus money were "saved" by the negotiations. PHA's request for a $36,000 reduction was cut in half.

a paid-up membership, a member may retire with only the modest monthly payment for operating expenses on his house.

Salzman had these reassuring words for Greenbelt residents: "There is no reason why any family should move from Greenbelt because of their impending sale. With prices from $1500 to $10,500 per unit there is an ample and a variety of housing accommodations that are unequalled in the Washington rental market area."

One question that has bothered Greenbelt residents is the extent of their liability as members of GVHC. The answer is, liability is limited to the amount subscribed for and paid in. In the beginning, the new member is liable only for an amount equal to the down payment. He is not liable for payments on his lease agreement after he moves from the property. In the usual real estate transaction, the mortgagor is liable for any difference between the sales price of a house under a defaulted mortgage, and the mortgage balance. This is not the case in cooperative housing.

Of course, if the monthly payments are set too low, and this results in a deficit operation, an assessment would be levied on the membership. But such an assessment would have to be voted by the membership.

A risk inherent in the operation of a housing property, whether privately owned or cooperatively owned, is the erection of a project during a high-cost period with resulting fixed charges brought about by the financing. If revenues decline, fixed charges cannot be paid, and the property reverts to the mortgagee. This problem has been avoided in case of Greenbelt, because of PHA's willingness to sell at a price based on long-term value and use. Such a price is considerably below the market price of the property.

Kindergarten Parents Must Take Over Plans

First comments on the budget reduction came from Mayor Frank Lastner, reached at his home Tuesday. "The council and the city manager are willing to cooperate with anyone who finds a way to keep our kindergartens."

Little Explanation

Chief reason for the curtailment of kindergarten was expressed by Roy Little, PHA representative. He stated that Greenbelt citizens are enjoying services no other community in the county has. He felt that the imminent sale of the city made it necessary at this time to allow Greenbelt citizens to determine which services they desire when taxes are paid directly by residents. According to a letter received during the negotiations from PHA, another reason for the budget cuts was to make it unnecessary to raise rents.

Addressing the twenty-five spectators present at the meeting, Mayor Lastner declared: "Over fifteen dollars a month from old Greenbelt's rent goes for taxes, and over seven dollars from defense housing rent. When Greenbelt is sold, I expect the council meetings to be just as crowded at every meeting as they are now. When people have to pay taxes directly for services, they will take a deeper interest in Greenbelt."

Can't Repay Teen-Agers

Discussion of a request from the Advisory Board of the Youth Center to repay $116 spent for fuel oil to teen-agers disclosed that such a re-payment was impossible. The federal government permits only an expenditure of $1000 a year; last year's sum was spent before the year was completed. Any attempt to pay additional money would be illegal and invalidate the lease, city manager Charles McDonald explained. Advisory Board members requested skilled janitor service, "irregular" visits by patrolmen to the vicinity of the Drop-Inn, and closer liaison between the council and the Youth Center.

Legion Liquor

The Board of Deacons of the Greenbelt Community Church informed the council that it unanimously protests the granting of a liquor license to the local American Legion Post. Mayor Lastner stated that the county liquor board considers such applications and holds public hearings. At present such a license is not available, and it is hoped that the Legion membership may decide against applying.

Absent from the meeting were Councilman Steve Comings, who suffered a heart attack last Friday and is in a Baltimore hospital; and Councilman Ben Goldfaden, ill at home. Comings is expected back from the hospital this week, and his condition is not considered serious, according to his wife.

Monthly Duplicate Bridge

American Contract Bridge League sanction has been obtained for the monthly duplicate sessions in Greenbelt. The first of these regular games will be held on Friday, February 15. For further information and registration call Mrs. Eva Daly at 5702.

His own recommendation is for "parents of children ready for kindergarten next year to get together immediately and make their plans."

Letters to the Editor

On Housing

Many residents have requested me to clarify the statements I made at the last general meeting of GVHC concerning the rights of persons who do not purchase but desire to continue to rent in Greenbelt. The Office of Rent Stabilization has issued a regulation which provides that any present tenant in Greenbelt can continue to rent indefinitely (with or without a lease) unless the full down payment required by PHA is paid by tenants in occupancy of at least 65% of the housing units in the City.

This means that unless roughly 1225 of the 1880 units in Greenbelt are purchased by the present tenants, any one who desires to continue to rent for the indefinite future may do so even if the sale goes through. No outsider (or other insider) can obtain possession of a unit unless and until the present tenant voluntarily vacates, if less than 1225 units are purchased locally. If more than 1225 units are bought locally, a non-purchaser will get a one-year lease. (Prior to this January 16 amendment, the regulation allows any purchaser to rent indefinitely regardless of how many units were sold locally.)

The pertinent part of the regulation is as follows [bracket material added]:

"Section 192 (a) (3) In the case of housing accommodations . . . owned by a cooperative . . . no certificate [of eviction] shall be issued, for eviction of a person who was a tenant . . . at the time of purchase . . . (ii) unless the cooperative . . . acquired title pursuant to any priority right granted by Public Law 65 [the law giving GVHC its priority right] AND unless the stock . . . in the cooperative has been purchased by persons who are tenants in occupancy of at least 65 percent of the housing accommodations AND are entitled to proprietary leases of the housing accommodations . . ." [Federal Register, January 16, 1952 at P. 479 as Section 6 of Miscellaneous Amendments of RR-1-Housing]

Trattler Chatter

Gr. - 3762

Hi! Thanks for all the society news. 'Twas nice to see our town's activities in the Star on Sunday. Keep all the news rolling in. . .

It's a boy for Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lents, 9-M Research. Little David arrived on February 2. Brother Paul Jr. is thrilled with the new addition. . . The dress worn by little Joseph Louis Rogers, 5-E Parkway, at his christening last Sunday, at St. Hugh's Church, was sent here from France. It is hand-embroidered with lace trimmings. In the evening, Mr. Rogers' mother, who lives in Takoma Park, held a party for friends and family. Champagne and French candy, which was sent from Reims, France, was served at the gala affair. . . Mrs. Ethel Gerring, 36-N Ridge, has a house full of guests from New York. Mrs. Gerring's brother brought four friends with him on this trip. (Ladies, why not drop in at Ethel's house to borrow something?) . . . Mr. and Mrs. Murray Ryss had a buffet supper party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Borsky, who paid them a surprise visit. The Borskys recently moved to New York. . . Mrs. Bessie Gold, 38-J Ridge, held "open house" on Sunday, in honor of her daughter's sweet-sixteenth birthday. Lucky Pearl will spend this Sunday at the Ice-Capades, a treat from her mother and friends. . . About one hundred ladies attended the tea at the Community Church on Sunday. Mrs. Mattie Blake and Mrs. A. McDermid had the honor of pouring. A musical program followed. . . Mr. and Mrs. John Murray, 45-G Ridge, had as house guests Mrs. Murray's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Elliott, from Cape Charles, Va. (Did they bring any shrimp, Helen?) . . . Our deepest sympathy goes to the Benefiel family, 60-B Crescent, with the passing of Mr. Benefiel's mother, Mrs. Benefiel, who lived in Sarasota, Fla., had been ill at the time of her death. . . Sorry to hear that William Moore, 33-K Ridge, is a patient at Prince Georges Hospital. (Don't think that's very nice, Bill. Hurry and get well.) . . Mrs. "Bobby" Vernon, 13-K Parkway, was pleasantly surprised when her husband paid her a visit over the weekend. Marine Vernon is stationed at Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. V. works in the food store. . . Mr. and Mrs. William Wrede, 14-G Ridge, have a new arrival. He's little William Wrede who was born January 21. Mrs. Wrede also works in the food store. . . Mrs. Helen Chasanow, 11-T Ridge, just returned from a week's visit with her family in Camden, N. J. Little Ruthie and Myrna went too. . . At this writing Mr. and Mrs. Leon Mittleldorf, 14-X Ridge, are on their way to vacation at Miami Beach, Fla. (Such lucky people.) . . Well, that does it for this week; keep well, everyone!

$42,000 For Only $228

This may sound impossible but it actually happened. Not so long ago a man paid $228 for an Occidental Family Income policy. Unexpectedly he died. Under the terms of this policy his widow, left with a young daughter, began to receive a check for $100 from us every month.

By the time this benefit stops in 1965, she will have received $42,000. Sounds like pretty sound insurance for a family man, doesn't it? Let me tell you how reasonable it is. Just call!
