The committee also announced two nominees for the audit committee: Leonard Baron and Frank La Parle.

Troop 202 Enjoys Outing, Basketball

A group of 20 Boy Scouts of Troop 202 enjoyed an overnight trip to First George Washington Monument State Park near Boonesboro, Maryland, this past weekend. Leaving early Saturday morning with high hopes and heavy packs, they returned on Sunday afternoon - minus the heavy bulk which was the nations - and with a slight look of weariness from sleeping out all night. From the tower overlook in the park, they enjoyed the view of three states-

City Gives $100

To Clean-Up Lake Members of the local Izaak Walton League requested assistance from the city to help clean up the lake bottom, at the special city meeting last Monday night. Roy K. Davis, league chapter president, disclosed that the group is attempting to clean up the lake bottom of bottles cans and other debris by April 1. in order to satisfy State Fisheries requirements. On that date the lake will be re-stocked with game fish.

The lake is presently being drained until a level of 25 feet from the shoreline is reached. Davis asked for stricter enforcement of ordinances to prevent the continued littering of the lake bottom. "There are 15 large city-owned trash cans in that lake," Davis declared, "and the bottom is filthy with debris that has been thrown there in the last two years. Everything not tied down ends up in the lake!" (Two years ago the lake was drained and cleaned completely.) Davis also reported that large stones from the dam breastworks have been loosened and rolled into the lake.

Most Beautiful

"Pop" Bell, also of the Walton League, stated that state officials consider the lake the most beautiful fishing spot in the area and are distressed that it is not kept in better shape.

Plans to organize a group to participate in cleaning up the lake on a volunteer basis was disclosed by Davis. He asked that all scout groups in town be present and stated that prizes would be given to the group participating the most. The city council appropriated $100 towards payment of city employees who will help in the cleaning.

Junior High 'Bee' Here For A Spell The Greenbelt junior high members of the Student Council from the seventh and eighth grades are sponsoring a spelling bee for students of their respective grades. Plans are now being made for the final bee which will be held March 16 in the school cafeteria. Three committees have been organized; the publicity committee, the planning committee, and a committee for the use, seating arrangement, and operations of the bee.

100 Present At Co-op Reception As City Welcomes Puerto Rican Five

Close to one hundred Greenbelters joned in greeting five Puerto Rican Cooperative trainees at a reception held in the Social Hall of the Greenbelt Community Church last Friday evening. The five-Puerto Ricans, now employed in the three shopping centers of Greenbelt Consumers Services, Jose Guzman, Manuel Santana, Rafael Davila, Luis Riestra and Enrique Abruna, were joined in the receiving line by Dr. and Mrs. Fernando Chavez, Dr. and Mrs. Santiago Ortiz and Dr. and Mrs. Beryl Frank, of the Organization

WSSC Will Service Future Waterlines

Final approval to give the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission rights to service future developed areas in Greenbelt was granted by the city council last Monday night at a special (advertised) meeting. City manager Charles McDonald will meet with WSSC engineers to determine dividing lines of authority, based on natural "waterfall" lines.

Chief reasons for the action were cited in the resolution: the WSSC could "more effectively serve those areas," a municipal bond issue necessary to finance improvements on the city utility "might seriously impair the municipalities financial standing," and the city's "inability to proceed with the necessary utilities might seriously delay these proposed developments and thus retard the improvement of the municipality's assessable base."

Petitions by several large property owners in Greenbelt to have the WSSC serve those areas were partly responsible for the move, it vas disclosed. McDonald also declared that WSSC permission might be needed by the city utility to expand, and this might not be given. (The city of Rockville is experiencing this difficulty at present.)

Approval by the State legislature is required before the move becomes a reality.

Present homes in Greenbelt will remain in the city-owned system; also future development in the Lakeside and Woodland areas can be included in the city system, Mc-Donald disclosed. This additional load would bring the city utility to its capacity.

Pack 229Banquet Features Awards

Pack 229 held its annual Blue and Gold Banquet last Thursday, February 24, at the Lutheran Church. Among other delights, the menu included fried chicken, salads, ice cream and cupcakes. Dick Orton led group singing after dinner. Pastor Birner, who offered a prayer before dinner, Frank Comploier, and Mr. and Mrs. Cornett were special guests of the Pack. Comploier, Neighborhood Scout Commissioner, presented awards earned by Pack 229 for its work during the Goodwill Industries Collection and the Sustaining Membership Fund Drive. Pack Committee Chairman Lee Leasia, accepting the awards, pointed out that the Pack had collected $132 from 120 Sustaining Members. Sandy Cornett, former Cubmaster, was given a leather wallet as a token of appreciation for his devoted service NINE COOP to the Pack. Mrs. Bridge made the presentation. Leasia then presented a gift to Stan Goldberg for his work as the Banquet Master of Ceremonies. The gift consisted of a bottle with a rubber snake which jumped out when the bottle was opened. The gift was enjoyed by all of American States. Dr. Frank 15 Chief of the Division of Labor and Social Affairs of the OAS. Mayor James Wolfe and City manager Charles MacDonald as well as, Councilmen Ben Goldfaden, Robert Hurst, and James Smith greeted the visitors with MacDonald acting as spokesman for the city in., his message of welcome,

Mac Speaks for City

MacDonald recalled that we werein the midst of our observance of Brotherhood Week and that in that: spirit welcomed our tellow Americans of the Island Commonwealth, Sam Ashelman, general manager of GCS, expressed the expectation that our own cooperators would learn much from those who had come to learn from us, thus demonstrating that cooperation and technical assistance was a two-way street. GCS. President Walter Bierwagon declared that it was with understandable pride that we welcomed these trainees since it demonstrated that the value of the Greenbelt Consumer Services were felt far beyond ourimmediate scene.

Speaking in behalf of the Organization of American States, Dr. Frank described the satisfaction which the OAS felt that a Consumer Cooperative Technical Assistance Program was functioning. The OAS considered this program of great importance and significance and looked for an expansion of it.

"Never Forget It"

Manuel Santana, as spokesmarr for the trainees, replied to the greetings with thanks for the opportunity presented and voiced his and his groups' deep appreciation for the kindness shown them, and for the genuine warmth and friendship which they have experienced. "We shall never forget it; it shall remain among our most preciousmemories. We shall work hard and learn as much as we can so that we can go back and help our peopleall the better in trying to build a fuller life.'

Marian Hatton - 3251

Marie and Gerald Boisvert, of 7-C Crescent, proudly announce the arrival of Jon Andre on February 14 (Valentine's Day!) Jon weighed in at seven pounds 15 ounces at Prince Georges Hospital and joins a sister, Lynnette, 18 months old.

Al Herling was one very surprised man Monday night, February 28. The Choral Group arranged a birthday party in his honor and it was a real surprise to him. The group presented him with two batons to mark the occasion. (One to beat time and the other to beat—whom??)

Martin Rosenzweig, 4-E Crescent, has made the fencing team at Johns Hopkins. (Barbed wire fencing? Touche)

Condolences to Hanna Beroza, 17-E Ridge, who lost her father on February 25.

The JCC theater party on Sunday night, February 27, was a huge success with close to 200 Greenbeit residents present. The group went to the Arena Theater and saw "Sholem Aleichem" and they report they enjoyed it very much.

Barbara Skolnick, 45-P Ridge, is recuperating very nicely from a tonsillectomy performed March 1.

Wonder where all the rain is coming from? The latest report is that Mr. and Mrs. Feagin, their daughter and grandson brought it up from Florida with them! They are visiting their cousins Sonia and Alexander Novak, 2-A Westway, whom they haven't seen in a year. The Faegins stopped off on their way home to Flushing, Long Island.

It's been awfully quiet around the Barnett household lately, but it must be pretty maddening to Evelyn. Evelyn, 45-F Ridge, had a minor throat operation this week and won't be able to talk for two weeks. Hope her writing arm holds up for two weeks!

Bill and Rae Goddard have deserted our fair town for Virginia. Their new address is 4609 South 30th Road, Arlington, Virginia.

The Herbert Hertz household has a new phone number—GRanite 3-6371. Make a note of it, please.

Barbara Granims, 2-S Plateau, is now home recuperating from an appendectomy and wants to say "Thanks" to the many friends and neighbors for their cards and gifts. She especially wants to thank the Girl Scout troops and their leaders.

Thanks to the kind efforts of City Manager Charles McDonald and the very courteous driver, the Greenbelt Cooperative Nursery school children enjoyed a bus trip around town on Thursday morning, February 24. What a thrill to the children—some of whom had never been on a bus before!

Happy birthday to Dicky Klein who was nine years old on February 26. He celebrated with a party

Do you complain that you drive a long distance to work every day? Stop complaining and meet a new neighbor who travels 50 miles to work! He is Calvin C. Fox who is a carpenter, and he and his family hail from Sleepy Creek, West Virginia. The Fox family and their two children, Janet, 9, and Dwight, 18 months, live at 15-D Laurel Hill (GR. 4-8882). Mrs. Fox considers herself very fortunate-she's been married ten years and this is their first move. Furthermore, the family LOVES Greenbelt. (That's what we like to hear.)

Another couple that has come a long way to settle in our fair town is the Kenneth VanFleet family. The VanFleets are from Rockland, Maine, and although they had a hard time getting used to our climate they like Greenbelt very much. They have a son Robert who attends the University of Maryland living with them at 18-Z-1 Ridge (GR. 4-8512). Mr. Van-Fleet works for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Winterhak and their two grandchildren have recently moved into 58-M Crescent (GR. 4-8871). Bobby (10) and Billy (7) really like Greenbelt.

Another interesting family is that of Jacob L. Warner, 4-D Southway (GR. 4-8551). They are originally from Kentucky, although they have lived in this area for four years. They have two children—Helen (20 months) and David (2½ month). Mr. Warner is a Physicist with the Naval Ordnance Laboratory.

Mrs. Sarah Hiortdahl is a new neighbor who certainly should not have difficulty meeting people. She lives at 7-B Research (GR. 4-7466) just next door to a son, and also has a daughter, Mrs. James Turkette, a granddaughter, Mrs. Robert Bender, and two nieces, the Mesdames David Lehman and Harry Goldsworthy living in town. She also has a daughter in College Park and a son in Riverdale. Her fifth child is a son in the Air Force in Iceland. Mrs. Hiortdahl has a family she can well be proud of totalling five children, eight grandchildren, and three greatgrandchildren.

On Tuesday, February 22, the JCC Youth Group (under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Dondy) selected a club name. The group will now be known as the JCC'ers.

February 16 the JCC'ers toured Prince Georges County Hospital, under the guidance of the Assistant Superintendent of the hospital. All members and chaperons received free chest X-rays. The visit proved educational as well as interesting.

Very happy to hear that Nat Schein, of 6-Q Ridge, is improving nicely. He thinks the people in Greenbelt are just wonderful. (Just confirming what we already know!)

Mr. and Mrs. John Behrens, 9-A Research, proudly announce the arrival of a boy on February 13 to "even up the score." He was named Mark Joseph and bowed in at Prince Georges Hospital. Angela (5), Joan (4), and John (2) welcomed the newcomer.

Stanley Edwards deserves a pat on the back for a job well done. He was Chairman of the Prince Georges Explorer Scout Ball last Saturday.

Congratulations to Hilbert O. Kurth, 33-E Ridge, who has been awarded a diploma by the National Radio Institute of Washington, D. C.

Glad to hear that little Jimmy Keene of 5-M Gardenway is home from the hospital, recuperating from a hernia operation. Jimmy is only four years old!

Here are some new neighbors we would like to welcome to "Our Neighbors": John J. Wilson of 62-F Ridge; and Lawrence A. Weisel of 21-D Ridge. The Choral Group (and everyone else in Greenbelt, of course) will be very happy to hear that Jerry Pines, of 13-D Hillside, is home from the hospital. Jerry is doing well and would appreciate visitors --musical or otherwise. Seriously, though, the Choral Group needs more male voices.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robinson are lullabying a new baby girl. Cynthia Ann, who made her debut at Prince Georges Hospital on February 13, is the Robinson's first child.

Congratulations to Robert Hansen Green, 48-C Ridge, who received his Eachelor of Arts degree in American Thought and Civilization from George Washington University on February 22.

JCC Folk-Dance Party Stars Dave Rosenburg

A gala folk dancing party under dynamic direction of Dave Rosenberg, well-known Washington folk dance leader, will be held by the Jewish Community Center Saturday, March 12, in the Center School auditorium from 8:30 to 12:30, in celebration of Purim.

Guests will not only see a lemonstration of traditional dances of many different countries by members of Rosenberg's Washington Folk Dance Group but will participate in these dances themselves. Traditional Scandinavian dances, the lively Austrian "Schuhplattles," unusual line dances from Greece and Israel, the gay and spirited "Tarantella" of Italy, and a fastmoving quadrille from Germany will be among the authentic numbers performed by the group.

A special feature of the dance is that tenn-agers will be admitted at reduced rates. While peasant costumes will be the appropriate dress for the evening, any kind of informal clothing will be acceptable. Comfortable shoes are also advised since dancing will be lively and continuous.

Deeper Purpose

The Washington Folk Dance Group, which meets regularly at Cardozo Center to practice the traditional dances of lands around the world, is part of the adult recreation program of the District of Columbia Recreation Department. The purpose is to combine the fun of folk dancing with the deeper purpose of helping to build better understanding among all peoples by mutual appreciation of cultural expressions in the folk arts.

Dave Rosenberg, the leader of the Group, is a nationally-known authority on the folk arts. Recently he served as Dance Chairman of he Committee for the Arts of the Christmas Pageant of Peace held on the Ellipse behind the White House and was a Chairman of the nce Committee for the Washington Festival of Arts and Interests. He is also Director of the National Capital's Annual Festival of All Nations and is Trustee of the Washington Modern Dance Council. He has held out-of-town workshops and institutes in Detroit, Pittsburgh, Wheeling, New York, Boston, Chicago, and Cornell University

"Penzance" Features Pro Performance

By Mike Littleton

The Montgomery Light Opera Company provided two very enjoyable performances of Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Pirates of Penzance" on February 4 and 5, at the Center school auditorium. The operetta was professionally done down to the smallest detail.

The singers' words came through with the exception of the tongue-twister "I Am a Very Model of a Modern Major General"), and in general the solo work was pleasant to the ear. Especially outstanding was the resonant bass of the Pirate King, Omar Pancoast. The chorus was in top form, singing with fine diction, true intonation, and lusty enthusiasm. The entire cast enjoyed its work in that spirit which enables a competent company to command an answering enthusiasm from the audience. All in all this performance warranted a full house and not necessarily of children; Gilbert and Sullivan is for children in the same way that "Alice in Wonderland" is. Charming but often over their heads.

A Communication County Health Needs Short Of Standards

By Fay LeFevre

Prince Georges County public health services fall far below the recommended minimum requirements. Our county has only thirteen public health nurses or only one nurse for approximately every 19,000 people. The minimum need has been set at one nurse for each 5,000 people; in other words, Prince Georges County should have not less than 50 public health nurses. Neighboring Anne Arundel County has a staff of twentyfive nurses although their population is only half as great as Prince Georges County.

A dental clinic, a mental health clinic staffed with a psychiatrist, a complete physical examination upon entrance to public schools are just a few of the many superior public health services offered to residents of Anne Arundel County. Prince Georges County offers none of these essential services.

This year Dr. Thomas Englar, Prince Georges County Public Health Officer, has urged a budget increase which would lessen the gap between the services the services the health department is now able to offer and the type of

A Communication Youth Center Needs Own Home, Adult Head

The Youth Center in Greenbelt is sponsored by the recreation department for all teen-agers to provide a night of wholesome recreation. This recreation is intended mostly for boys and girls to enjoy a night of dancing, ping pong and other quiet games. The Youth Center now meets in the Center school each Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday. They once had their own building behind the food store; the enrollment was over the 400 mark until they moved to the Center school. Attendance has now fallen below the 100 mark. When they had their own building, there was a certain prideof ownership. We feel by adding a new program of more Culture Recreation such as hobbies, plus a roller-skating program, the attendance will pick up. Now this can only be done if some of the parents that have talents in certain activities would be willing to give some time each week to the youth to act as supervisors in the culture activities. If you would like to work with youth that needs your help in various hobbies, please stop in any Wednesday, Friday or Saturday nights to talk to the councilors in charge.

The Youth Center is governed by an Adult Advisory board appointed by the city council, and meets once a month in the city council chamber on the first Tuesday of the month. The youth are represented by their own advisory board which plans the different activities each month. We need your help to make this Youth Center a wholesome place for youth to meet.

county residents. Requests have been made for funds to hire eight additional nurses including a much needed public health nursing supervisor. Also included in the new budget are requests to provide mental health clinic services and the services of a health educator.
