Report City Programs, State Laws At Citizens Meeting April 25

Reports on the library and recreation programs, the Maryland General Assembly's actions affecting Greenbelt and a discussion on whether an agency like the Central Intelligence Agency, should locate next to Greenbelt as the County Commissioners have urged will be points on the agenda of the Greenbelt Citizens Association meeting Monday April 25.

At a meeting of the GCA executive board Tuesday night to consider the agenda, it was announced that at the membership meeting April 25, 8:30 P.M., in the Home Economics room of the Center School, business would include election of the nominations committee. Election of officers will occur at the following meeting, May 23.

GCA President Walter R. Volckhausen made public at the executive committee meeting a letter from Perry O. Wilkinson, Chairman of the Prince Georges County delegation in the State legislature. Wilkinson's letter was in response to Volckhausen's letter of March 22, in which the GCA President informed Wilkinson and other state legislators of GCA recommendations on several bills.

GCA favored the bills to keep trucks off the northern end of the Baltimore-Washington Parkway, to set up a juvenile court, and to provide adequate State Welfare funds. Opposition of most GCA members to bills to outlaw the union shop in Maryland was expressed to the law-makers, based on the previous GCA meeting.

Wilkinson wrote to Volckhausen that "I was indeed happy to receive the views of your Association. It is always a pleasure to hear from a group such as yours and to be informed of their thinking on certain types of legislation."

He then indirectly reported to Volckhausen that the Prince Georges delegation voted three out of four times the GCA way, declaring:

"You may inform your Association that the Prince George's Delegation voted against keeping trucks off the Parkway; voted to set up a juvenile court under the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court; voted against the 'Right to Work' legislation, and voted for the Welfare Budget."

Hi-Point PTA Meets April 19 To Elect

"Parents and Teachers Face Their Problems" will be the subject of a panel discussion at the April meeting of the High Point High School P.-T.A. Tuesday evening, April 19, at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Dr. Stanley Jackson will act as moderator. Participants in the panel are Mrs. Virginia Wolfe, Mrs. Mary Lee Perkins, John Brown and Thomas Mulkey. A brief question and answer period will follow the discussion.

Election of P.-T.A. officers to serve during the 1955-56 school year will be held. A slate of candidates named by the nominating committee include Ellery Denison, president; Mrs. Wolfe, first vice-president; Dale Woodburn, second vice-president and faculty representative; Mrs. George Young, recording secretary; Mrs. Stanley Henry, corresponding secretary; and Col. Charles D. Waldecker, treasurer.

The High Point P.-T.A. membership numbers more than seven hundred, and all members are urged to attend.

Woman's Club Spurs Cancer Fund Drive

The American Cancer Society is planning a one-hour drive on the night of April 25, in Greenbelt. The welfare department of the Womans Club is sponsoring the drive, as they have done for several years, and are in need of volunteers to assist them on the night of the drive.

Anyone who would like to assist them in this worthwhile work is asked to contact Mrs. A. C. Long at 7088, as soon as possible.

Dressy Dance Demands Ties To Tango, Twirl

St Hugh's Teen-Age Sodality will hold its Easter Dance on Friday, April 15, from 8 to 11 p.m., in the school hall. Music will be furnished by records, and refreshments will be available. Dress will be "dressy," therefore boys attending are expected to wear ties.

Smith Comments On City Trash-Tour

James C. Smith, city councilman and chairman of Greenbelt's Joint Committee on Cleanup, commented this week on the recent "trash tour" taken by council, city manager, GVHC board member and guests:

"The tour emphasized the problem of cleanup with which the committee and the city has been concerned. The tour also demonstrated the need for cooperation by three specific groups in Greenbelt: the homeowners, Greenbelt Veterans Housing Corporation, and the municipality. Very little can be achieved without this cooperation. I hope the firsthand observations made on the tour will spur these groups to follow through to reach our ultimate aim of a cleaner city. I am going to continue to put forth every effort to help achieve the cooperation of these groups. The Joint Committee on Cleanup is meeting shortly to formulate additional plans for followup of the tour."

Kindergarten

Registration for Kindergarten classes for next year will take place at the North End and Center schools on April 20 from 9:15 to 11:45 a.m. The child must be five years old by December 31, 1955. Records of vaccination and booster shots and birth certificates must be presented at the time of registration. A fee of $5 must be paid at time of registration.

445 Greenbelt Children Will Get Free Salk Vaccine Next Thursday

445 Greenbelt children of Center, North End and St. Hugh's first and second grades will receive free inoculations of Salk polio vaccine next Thursday, April 21. The Prince Georges County Health Department, coordinating with the County Board of Education, is setting up inoculation clinics in public and parochial schools throughout the county.

This is being done under the Maryland Department of Health, and is part of a national program under way to give the vaccine to children most vulnerable to polio. The Salk polio vaccine has just been declared safe and effective.

A team of a cooperating doctor, a public health nurse, and volunteer assistants are to staff each inoculation clinic. Here, Dr. Hans Wodak and Mrs. Mildred Comploier, the City Health Nurse, will inoculate 153 children at the Center School, and Dr. M. W. Bloomberg and Mrs. Margaret Pear, the County Health Nurse, will inoculate 133 children at the North End School from nine to twelve on the morning of April 21.

From one to 4 p.m. that same day, Dr. William Eisner and Mrs. Comploier will inoculate 159 children at St. Hugh's. In addition to these, two registered nurses and eight mothers will be on hand at each school to help out, and the teachers and principals will be standing by.

A very high percentage of parents of first and second graders have requested the shots for their children. At least one more inoculation will follow this first one some time in the near future.

GVHC Sign Is Moved At Request Of Council But Stays At Corner

By Russell Greenbaum

The GVHC board of directors at its meeting March 25 agreed to remove its advertising sign from the public right-of-way at the intersection of Southway and Ridge-

1250 Local Families Join Ambulance Club

Two out of three Greenbelt families joined the Rescue Squad's Ambulance Club during its annual fund campaign. Joe D'Agostino, chairman for the drive, reports. Final figures released this week show a total membership for 1955 of about 1,250 out of 1,800 local families.

Originally scheduled to close on March 15, the drive was extended through the end of the month, with late contributions trickling in through last week. With volunteers working through the month, not a single family in the city was overlooked—all local residents had the opportunity to join the Club, D'Agostino reports. Hence only new residents will be asked to become members before next year's drive.

Credit for the successful campaign is due Mrs. Elizabeth Iseli, co-chairman for the drive, members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Rescue Squad and Fire Department, and other volunteers who worked round the clock soliciting memberships, D'Agostino said. He also extended the Squad's special thank to the many residents who gave additional support above the usual $2 membership fee.

County PTA Council Meets At High Point

Four of the special services supplied by the County Board of Education will be the topic of a panel discussion at the Prince Georges County Council of Parent-Teachers Associations' April meeting Thursday, April 14, at 8 p.m. at High Point High School.

Participating in the panel will be Mrs. Louise Bennett, who will discuss the material center; Miss Mary Thompson, county school health supervisor, who will talk on driver education and nursing; Miss Elizabeth Rieg who will talk on home instruction, speech and hearing therapy; and Miss Marian Lobdell who will tell of the school's counseling and referral services. After the discussion there will be a question and answer period.

Carl Murr, Beltsville, president of the County Council, will preside at the meeting. The Council is composed of the president and two other members of each of the P.-T.A. organizations in the county, although Mr. Murr emphasized that all P.-T.A. members and others who are interested in education are welcome to attend.

High Point Hosts

The High Point P.T.A.A. will be the hosts for the meeting. After the business session refreshments will be served by the hospitality committee, headed by Mr. Jean Tregoe of College Park.

The next meeting of the County Council will be May 5 at the Chevy-Cherry-Tuxedo school.

The issue was raised when the Greenbelt Realty Company, the city's sole private real-estate firm, protested the denial of permission to place a sign at that intersection to direct clients to its office. The city council agreed that both GVHC and Greenbelt Realty should comply with the county law forbidding such signs on city streets. City Manager Charles McDonald declared that the purpose of the law is to prevent businesses from placing many advertising signs on the street sides, which would be detrimental to the appearance of the community.

It has been said that prospective clients of Greenbelt Realty were misled by the GVHC sign and proceeded to the latter office on Hamilton Place rather than to the Greenbelt Realty office in the business center. On the other hand it has been equally argued that GVHC customers have mistakenly gone to Greenbelt Realty directed by the latter sign at the business center. It is not clear which organization has gained or lost the most customers through such errors.

The matter was further complicated by the fact that Greenbelt Realty is headed by Abraham Chasanow, who is also under contract to GVHC as general counsel, although his real estate business is handled by his wife.

Less than five months ago when Chasanow's yearly contract came up for renewal, the board reaffirmed his appointment to continue as counsel by voting 6-2 that there was no conflict of interest between his services for GVHC and his interest in other business affairs in the community.

When questioned by the GVHC board on the sign issue at the March 25 meeting, Chasanow indicated that he had not personally applied any pressure to get GVHC's sign removed. However, he admitted he had pointed out the legal aspects of the matter to Councilman Jim Smith, who brought up the matter before the city council.

The latest action by the city council to settle the matter at its meeting on April 4 would now appear to give GVHC the edge. The council directed the city manager to place two signs at the Ridge and Southway intersection, one pointing to the right stating "Hamilton Place" and the other pointing straight ahead stating "Business Center." Apparently the council's decision was reached on the basis that both organizations used their addresses in their advertising.

Mrs. Emily Turner passed away at the age of 80 years on Friday, April 8, after a brief illness. Mrs. Turner made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Edward Baker, 39-A Ridge. Until the death of her husband, Edward William Turner, in 1950, Mrs. Turner lived in the Brookland section of Washington, D. C., where she had been a lifelong member of the Brookland Methodist Church. Dr. G. Custer Cromwell of that Church and Rev. Braund of the Greenbelt Community Church conducted funeral services at Hines Funeral Home on Tuesday, April 12. Mrs. Turner was buried at the George Washington Cemetery.

Mrs. Turner is survived by her brother, Col. Paul Freeman, Army Medical Corps (retired) of Clearwater, Florida and her sister, Mrs. Mary Jones of Washington, D. C. In addition, Mrs. Turner leaves 8 great-grandchildren, 11 grandchildren, and 4 children, Mrs. Louise Knaub, Bethesda; Mrs. Emily Stone, Arlington; Mrs. Edna Baker and Mr. Edward Turner, both of Greenbelt.

Baptist Chapel Seeks Land For Building

The Baptist Chapel is in the process of securing a three- or four-acre lot in an undeveloped area of Greenbelt to erect suitable buildings for worship and Christian education, Rev. Glenn Samuelson, pastor, announced this week.

The Greenbelt Baptist Chapel will now hold their Sunday worship services in the Center school auditorium, he added.

Services formerly were conducted in the home economics room which became too small to accommodate growth in attendance.

"The use of the auditorium will provide for our attendance increase, will enable families to sit together, and make possible a more worshipful atmosphere," Rev. Samuelson disclosed.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Myers, 9-H Ridge, announce the arrival on April 3 of Heidi Ruth. Heidi made her appearance five weeks early and weighed only 4 pounds, 7 ounces. As a result, she will have to remain in Prince Georges Hospital until she reaches five pounds—but at the rate she's gaining that won't be long. The Myers also have a son, Gary, 2½.

Heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Neff, 6-Q Hillside, who celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary on April 3. Their daughter's thirty-sixth birthday was the same day and the Neffs went to visit her in Virginia for a joint celebration. On Easter Sunday all their children, three daughters and one son, and all the grandchildren came to Greenbelt for a family reunion.

Sorry to hear that "Rusty" Shipley, 45-H Ridge, burned his foot last week by knocking over a pan of boiling water. Speedy recovery, "Rusty"!

Anthony Passavanti, 12-A Plateau, is really a lucky fellow—he won a radio at the Home Show for guessing the right number of ping-pong balls in a "Ballorama."

Our condolences to Sidney Barnett, 45-F Ridge, whose mother, Mrs. Anna Lillian Barnett, of New York passed away April 4.

Nice to see Bill Morin, 3-G Eastway, home from school for the Easter Sunday weekend. He attends Carson Long school in New Bloomfield, Pennsylvania.

Happy birthday to Martin and Marsha Berkofsky, 5-A Ridge. Martin was twelve on April 9 and Marsha six on April 10. Marsha celebrated her birthday with a party at which ten children had a lot of fun singing for a recording and playing it back.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Kaufman proudly announce the arrival on March 26 of Laurel. She weighed in at eight pounds, two ounces at Prince Georges Hospital. Steven, 10, and Bobby, 4, are as thrilled as their parents at having a girl join them at 14-C Laurel Hill. Claire's mother, Mrs. Anna Brick, has come down from Boston to lend a helping hand.

Congratulations to Nat and Fan Schein, 6-Q Ridge, who celebrated their nineteenth wedding anniversary on April 7.

On April 6 the children of the Greenbelt Cooperative Nursery School attended the Tiny Tots Concert by the National Symphony Orchestra under Howard Mitchell. The concert was held in the Washington Missionary College Gymnasium and featured music for dancing and story telling and a demonstration of instruments. The children enjoyed themselves very much and the cymbalist was the hero of the morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pugh, 12-B Hillside, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a girl, Michele Camille, on March 31. Michele weighed six pounds, eight ounces, and was born in Prince Georges Hospital. She joins Johnny 8, Sharon 5, and Pamela, 19 months, at home.

Among many other Greenbelters who went away over the recent holidays are:

The William Tredwells and children, 5-A Crescent, who visited both sets of parents in Philadelphia from April 2 to 10.

Irv and Ethel Gerring and three boys left for New York April 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Russell, 2-F Westway, went to Cumberland, Maryland, over the Easter Sunday weekend to visit her parents, sister and brother.

The Trattlers, 1-H Southway went to New Jersey April 7 to 12 to visit Pauline's sister in Hillside and saw the Easter Parade in Asbury Park. Incidentally, they met the Caruso family on the New Jersey Turnpike.

Easter weekend Larry and Frances Miller and daughters Betty and Karen, 21-N Ridge, went to Philadelphia and New York. They really "lived it up" staying at the Hotel Statler, saw "Pajama Game," Barnum and Bailey's Circus, Ed Sullivan's TV show and the Easter Parade on Fifth Avenue!

Mrs. Mary Jane Kinzer, 6-G Ridge, left April 7 to spend the weekend with her sister, Mrs. Scott in Roanoke, Virginia. While there she was joined by her son who is a student in medical school in Richmond.

Very happy to report that many families in Greenbelt had visitors over the Easter holiday:

The Norman Granims, 2-S Plateau, entertained her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rathkopf and son who arrived on April 6 with a friend, Mrs. Ann Fried and her two children from the Bronx, New York. Then, on April 8, Nettie's brother and family arrived unexpectedly from Boston. They are Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Harrison and son. The Granims set up a tent in the yard for the children to take care of the overflow. All the visitors left Sunday, April 10. On Thursday, Nettie left to stay with her sister in New York until April 17.

Another family reunion took place last week at the home of the Alvin Shirens, 8-D Hillside. Miss Rose Malkin, professor of music at Hunter College, New York; Miss Ceil Garfield, a newspaper writer and sister of Mrs. Shiren; and another sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert came down from New York for their first visit to Greenbelt.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Ehrlich of Staten Island, New York visited their daughter, Mrs. Harry Weidberg, 17-A Ridge and her family April 8 through 12.

Miss Ruth Samuelson, sister of Rev. Glenn W. Samuelson was a guest at 4-E Hillside from April 5 through 10. She is from Wilmetta, Illinois and is a first-grade teacher in Golf, Illinois. Before she came to Greenbelt, Miss Samuelson visited another brother, brother, Rev. L. Phillip Samuelson and his family in Schenectady, New York. On Easter Sunday, Mrs. Samuelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Haley of Lakewood, New Jersey arrived for a visit. Mr. Haley finishes 33 years as teacher and Principal at Lakewood High School in June. The Haleys returned home Thursday, April 14.

Why Can't We

Since I did not know any action was to be brought up for discussion at the recent council meeting, I am taking this opportunity to shed some light on this subject:

1. Removing the walk is only a small part of a total landscaping program which has been approved by GVHC and the city.

2. When a neighbor complained to me, I told him I would be glad to place the walk outside my hedge if he and others interested in having a walk would help me move it. He refused.

3. No one has been forced, nor will anyone be forced to walk in the street to get around my house since I have not, and do not intend to close the hedge.

4. As for needing the walk to meet the school bus—nonsense! Although it is not a suitable play area, the kids have played (and continue to play) baseball there. They are constantly chasing the ball into the street, and that is dangerous!

I have said many times that if Greenbelt fails it will be because we have failed to solve the major problem of human relations. I ain't mad at nobody (not even the councilman whose kid pulled up my seedlings last spring). Why can't we solve our minor problems like rational human beings, and let Campbell and McDonald take care of more important matters?
Hank Sirlin

Thanks

We wish to take this opportunity to express our deep gratitude and appreciation to all those that gave such comfort and kind assistance during our recent bereavement. Joe, Ann, Michael and Patrick Murphy, Mrs. Keller Smith.

Girl Scout Camp Program Outline

Mrs. Donald M. Crooks, camp coordinator for the Girl Scout Council of Prince Georges County, has announced the summer camping program, folders and application blanks are now in the hands of all troop leaders.

Camp Misty Mount, an established camp in the Catoctin Mountain Park area near Thurmont, Maryland, will open July 21 and close September 1. A varied program of swimming, hiking, exploring and other campcrafts is planned for scouts who are at least ten years old. Mrs. Ann M. Murray will be camp director.

Three Low Cost
In addition to the established camp, three low-cost day camps will be operated in June and July for Brownie, Intermediate and Senior Scouts. Camp Conestoga on Good Luck Road in Riverdale will be open from June 20 to July 14 with Mrs. Roberta Sinclair as director. Mrs. Charlotte Bristow will be the director of the Northeast Camp at Howard Avenue in Beltsville, and this camp will be open from July 5 to July 28. Camp Plato Place at Berry Lane in Forestville will be open from July 11 to July 28 and Mrs. Kathryn Koch will be the director.

A call has been issued by Mrs. Dorothy Canter, day camp chairman, for volunteers to staff these day camps. In order to provide maximum opportunities for group participation, the learning of camping skills, the development of resourcefulness, and growth in the appreciation of the out-of-doors for the girls, the committee has to provide one adult leader for each 6 to 8 girls. A training program is provided by the camp committee for all volunteers. Further information may be obtained from the Girl Scout Office, 3723 34th Street, Mt. Rainier, Maryland.

Registration at each of the camps is limited. Scouts in the county who are interested in any of the summer camp programs should make application now to the Girl Scout office.

Tennis Courts: We are in the process of having the tennis courts resurfaced and we ask your indulgence until the courts are put in good order. In the event we find that the expense is too great at this time, we will patch the courts and clean them up to be usable. Until the resurfacing is settled, the nets will not be put up as the courts will not be safe to use.

Softball: With the new lights now going up at Braden Field we will be able to start playing on the field the first week of May. New bleachers have been made to make your visit an enjoyable one. We expect Greenbelt to make a very good showing.

Baseball: In talking to Manager Richard Hause of the men's local team, he informs me that Greenbelt has the makings for a very good team. Men who want to try out for the team should report to Braden field. All positions are still open. The team will be entered in the Montgomery County league.

Clean Up Campaign Gets Governor's Help

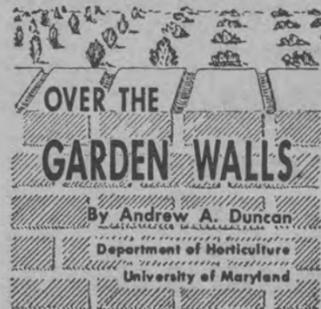

This year a special campaign to "Keep Maryland Beautiful," has been inaugurated with Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin's appointment of a special statewide committee to carry out the theme.

To help stamp out a creeping, growing, ugly, man-made blight Maryland needs your help. You can:

1. Avoid throwing bottles, cans or other trash on highways.
2. Carry a "litter-bag" in your own car, put trash in it and empty in your own trash can when you get home.
3. Be a good housekeeper on the highway as well as in your own home or yard.

DID YOU KNOW?

That it is against the laws of Maryland to throw trash on the highways?

Fertilize for Higher Yields

Vegetables are the monsters and freaks of the plant kingdom. Man eats plants which he finds are palatable and nutritious. For centuries only the biggest, highest-yielding and most flavorful sorts have been propagated. In more recent years man has turned to hybridization to further increase the yields and improve the quality of vegetables, so that the present day varieties have the inherent capacity to produce far more than their forebears.

Certain conditions have to be met to take full advantage of the inherent potential of our present day vegetables. The most important conditions are heavy fertilization and plenty of water. While most home gardeners realize the need for watering plants to make them grow, few are aware of the need for fertilizer.

Even where manures, composts and other organic materials are used in large amounts vegetables will respond to additional fertilizer and lime. With average weather conditions most gardens produce best when up to 4 pounds of complete fertilizer (such as 5-10-5; 5-10-10; 4-8-12 etc.) are used on 100 square feet.

One-half of the fertilizer should be turned under and worked into the top soil, and one-half used as a sidedressing during the growing season. Most vegetable gardens should have at least 4 pounds of lime to 100 square feet mixed with top soil every 3 years. If ground limestone is used it can be added at the same time as the fertilizer; if hydrated lime is used, it should be worked in separately.

Every home gardener should figure on spending at least as much for fertilizer and lime as he does for seeds and plants.

The Long View

By Al Long

A few days after the last GVHC membership meeting I happened to be walking down the new Lakeside Estates road (What's the name of this new road, anyhow?) when I was hailed by a loud "Hey there!" Looking into the woods I was alarmed to see Leonard Baron advancing toward me with a hatchet in one hand and a long-handled axe in the other. My gosh! I thought, some folks surely take these membership meeting discussions seriously. Who'd think that Baron is so mad about losing his motion that he's out to attack Board members. I was about to take to my heels ((I was quite a runner thirty years and fifty pounds ago) when he gave me the sign of peace and said he was merely trying to find his lot and clear it off. Coming back some time later I noticed that he was resting, completely tucked out, and had accomplished nothing. Last Sunday I again found him on his fee simple domain with the same hatchet and axe, but this time Mrs. Baron was with him, and brother was she clearing away the brush. Funny, isn't it, how a wife can inspire a man to work? He looked full of vim and pep as he leaned against a tree and talked with the passersby.

Farther down the road we passed a tar-papered tool shack and three-year-old Michele, television wise in the way of cowboy outlaws, pointed to it and said confidentially, "That's a hideout." We waited around awhile for Roy Rogers to come riding up to flush the bad men out but I finally convinced her that neither Roy nor the bandits worked on Sundays.

Taking a short cut home up through Councilman Canning's backyard I was hailed with a friendly shout, "Get off that grass seed, Al Long, or I'll write a letter to GVHC!" I had to explain to Mr. Canning's political collar (his boss, Mrs. Canning) that we merely traded such letters with the city council for laughs. So she relented and let me skirt the newly-seeded patch. In this way I didn't even scare the birds who were busily eating up the grass seed.

Thence home just in time to get hooked by the dang dang ice cream truck.

Local Resident Leaves Cotton Unforgotten

Mrs. Leon G. Benefiel, 1-F Gardenway, retired on March 17 after fourteen years' service with the federal government in the Cotton Division, Plant Industry, Department of Agriculture.

She was recently honored at a luncheon at Mrs. K's Toll House by several of her friends and associates, at which time she was presented with an orchid corsage and a clock-radio as tokens of their esteem.

Mrs. Benefiel and her family have been residents of Greenbelt for eighteen years, and were among the first occupants of the town. She is now enjoying her retirement at home.

Legion Notes

The Easter Sunrise Services at Walter Reed Hospital were attended by Commander Nelson Chapman, Treasurer Paul Cherry, State Department Sergeant-of-Arms "Pop" Bell, Past Commander Harry Seay, and Past Vice-Commander Robert Gray of Post 136. All enjoyed the beautiful ceremony which was attended by thousands.

Plans are now being made for a "Past Commander's Night" at Post 136, Greenbelt.

"Pop" Bell received sad news on Easter Sunday when he learned that his eighty-nine-year-old father was seriously ill. "Pop" and his family left Greenbelt immediately for Warren, Pennsylvania, to see the elder Bell.

Our membership drive in the Greenbelt area is about to start. All veterans are invited to join our local post.

The regular monthly social meeting of the Post will be held Thursday, April 21. All members are urged to attend as a nice affair is planned with special entertainment.

The Greenbelt Men's Bowling League will climax its 1954-1955 bowling season with a banquet to be held at the Greenbelt Post on Wednesday, April 20, at 7:30 p.m.

The Post has recently adopted a policy prohibiting the lending of any chairs from the Post since they are available from several vending companies in this area.

"The Beachcombers" will provide the music at our annual Spring Dance to be held at the Post on Saturday, April 23, starting at 10 p.m.
