Our Neighbors

By Elaine Skolnik, GR. 4-6060

Belated congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Alec Slepitzka, 55-G Ridge, on the birth of a son on Sept. 9. Robert weighed 8 pounds. He joins two brothers, Ronnie and Mark, and a sister, Cindy.

It's a girl for Mr. and Mrs. Paul Manchak, 14-F Hills'ide. Janice Lee made her debut on Nov. 2, weighing 7 lbs. ½ oz. She has two sisters, Diana, age 5, and Sherry, age 3½. And a very happy birthday to Diana, who will have a party on Saturday.

Congratulations to George T. Anderson, 10-J Laurel, of the National Guard, who was promoted from commander of Battery C, 380th Missile Battalion (NIKE), to Captain. As a civilian, Captain Anderson is employed as an analyst by the National Security Agency. He has been a member of the local National Guard since 1954, but earlier had served in Korea with the 45th Infantry Division, Oklahoma Guard unit.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Day, 11-J Ridge, announce the arrival of a daughter, Monica arrived on Oct. 29, weighing 8 lbs. 14 oz. She joins a sister, Erica, 20 months.

It's a girl for Mr. and Mrs. John Lovelace, 12-H Ridge. Shelia Denise was born on Oct. 24, weighing 8 lbs. 7 oz. She has a sister Lisa, 21 months.

It all happened in Mr. O'Loughlin's sixth grade class. Last Tuesday twelve visiting parents were challenged to take the same controlled reading test as their offspring. The story flashed on the screen dealt with fire prevention. In the test that followed, the students averaged 91% while the parents—well, let's just say they did not do so well. After all, it's been a long, long time. I might be interesting to note at this time that of the two reading groups in the class, one reads at 320 words per minute—the other clocks in at 240 words. Both groups attain a high rate of comprehension—approximately 86%.

Janie Beale and Michael Lamons celebrated their birthdays on the same day. Both are now 12 years old. Happy birthday!

Birthday greetings to Mary Klinger, 58-B Ridge, who had a birthday on Nov. 14. On hand to help her celebrate her 11th birthday, were her 6th Grade classmates. They all stayed after school for the party.

The girls of Tri Hi Y, Future Homemakers of America, and the Cheerleaders had a slumber party in the gymnasium of the Greenbelt Junior High last Saturday night. The proceeds will go to the school.

A very happy birthday to Rita Skolnik, 2-E Southway, who will be 7 years old tomorrow.

Birthday congratulations to Alexis Pogorelskin, 9-G Ridge, who celebrated her 14th birthday on Nov. 14.

Muscular Dystrophy Volunteers to March

Tuesday, Nov. 25, has been designated as the time the Jerry Lewis Volunteers will seek to raise funds for the Muscular Dystrophy Campaign. On that date Volunteers will visit homes throughout Greenbelt, and they are hoping to be received in the true spirit of Thanksgiving. At the time of the year when we thank God for our own blessings and our health, you will be asked to give a little to help those who are not quite as healthy as you.

Muscular Dystrophy is, thus far, an incurable disease that attacks the muscles, weakening and making them useless. In time the victims become helpless. All patients weakened by Muscular Dystrophy are pried to all simple ailments, any of which can prove fatal.

Your dollars will help the Muscular Dystrophy Chapters throughout the country to give greater service to victims, wheel chairs, braces, lifts, and other orthopedic devices which make life endurable for these sufferers. Over 45 special clinics have been established by the Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America. These centers, providing expert medical advice, drugs and therapy treatment must be expanded to hold the line while research advances on the disease. Here in the Washington Area the MD Clinics is located at George-MD Clinics is located at George-

Help for Muscular Dystrophy victims, rests solely on the extent to which the public makes intensive research possible. Other diseases, formerly incurable, have been conquered through research. With enough contributions for research, Muscular Dystrophy can be next! Please give generously to this worthy cause.

WSSC Digging Beins

Residents of Greenbelt Homes, Inc. units were advised this week that the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission will begin shortly the necessary alteration work involved in taking over the sewer and water system from the city. According to GHI, this alteration work will involve digging up the original outside water meters so as to cut off and seal unused pipes. The water meters concerned are located in original Greenbelt, usually one to each row of houses.

In a notice sent out to members who have such water meters in their yards, GHI manager John O. Walker stressed that the alteration work does not mean that each house will have individual water meters. Metering will be on a court basis. He also pointed out that under the agreement signed with WSSC, the latter is responsible for restoring the dug-up ground to its previous condition after the work is finished.

Opera Season Starts

Three performances will be given—Thursday and Friday, Nov. 20-21 at 8 p.m. and Sunday, Nov. 23 at 5:30 p.m. Opening night will be a benefit for the Bryn Mawr College Club Scholarship Fund.

Season subscriptions, at a 10% discount on the price of tickets, and memberships in the Opera Society, which entitle members to attend a dress rehearsal and a lecture on opera, are available at the office of the Opera Society, 1745 K st., N.W. For further information, call RE 7-0582

Local Boys, Stolen Car Located in Houston

By Isadore Parker

Three Greenbelt boys were apprehended in Houston Tex., last week by federal officers, it was disclosed by Police Chief Jim Williams. They will be extradited or returned to Greenbelt where they will face charges of stealing an automobile owned by a resident of Parkway.

The auto was recovered by owners of the Frolic Club in Houston.

The three boys are teen-agers, have police records, and at least two have spent time in Loch Raven for car theft, Williams added.

"Squelch"

The "O'Loughlin incident" was explained to the city council last Monday night by Jim Williams, Greenbelt Police Chief. According to Williams, Officer O'Loughlin reported in by phone radio to the county police switchboard and informed them he would be available through his home phone number for a few minutes. The switchboard operator was a new employee, unacquainted with the procedures, and mislaid the information.

Williams stated that local police officers have had difficulties with the county switchboard previously. Messages would be recognized by the pressing of a "squelch brake" rather than an oral reply, leaving police officers in the dark as to the proper reception of the message. Later inquiries would bring "impolite replies," Williams said.

The city council expressed dissatisfaction with the situation and asked Williams to keep them informed of any future incidents of similar nature. Councilman Ben Goldfaden, presiding as mayor in Tom Canning's absence, declared, "There is no reason for them to be discourteous."

Lost Cases

Another police problem vexes the local authorities, Williams disclosed. Several traffic cases of serious nature have been dismissed in court because of lack of prosecution by local police officers. Williams explained a typical case; trial is held before a court in Hyattsville initially, and after several postponements, a change of venue is requested by the defendant. The trial is moved to Marlboro, where the case is called without notifying the local arresting officers of the date or time. Meanwhile the officer has spent many hours in Hyattsville needlessly waiting for trial only to have the case lost in Marlboro. City manager Charles McDonald, when asked whether this was common practice in Prince Georges County, replied, "It is not peculiar to this county alone." The city council asked to be informed of further incidents of this nature, also.

MAJORETTE BAKE SALE

The Greenbelt Majorettes will sponsor a bake sale on Wednesday, Nov. 26, from 6 to 9 p.m. in the Center. The proceeds will go to repair their tape recorder and to purchase new uniforms. Anyone wishing to bake for the sale may call Mrs. Castaldi, 9420, or Mrs. Aggie McGowan, 9728.

Abramowitz Paintings

The Baltimore Museum of Art at 31st and Charles sts. is exhibiting a one-man show featuring the paintings and drawings of Benjamin Abramowitz, 3-L Eastway. Abramowitz is a noted artist and teacher who has been living in Greenbelt many years.

The opening of the exhibition took place on Nov. 16. The show will continue until Dec. 9, and all Greenbelters are urged to attend.

Manager's 1959 Budget Would Raise Tax Rate by 13.5 cents to $1.71

By Russ Greenbaum

The city manager's proposed budget for the operation of the city of Greenbelt in 1959 would set a tax rate of $1.71 per hundred dollars assessed evaluation, or an increase of about 13.5 cents over the 1958 tax rate of $1.574. The 1959 budget, presented to the city council at its regular meeting on Monday, Nov. 17, totaled $263,138. The council will begin its detailed review of the budget at a special meeting on Monday, Nov. 24, and a public hearing will be held on Dec. 15.

Although the manager's request is only about $2,300 more than the approved 1958 budget, losses in the operation of the municipal swimming pool and the city's bus service, which in turn contributed to a sharp drop in the usual surplus, are chiefly responsible for the proposed substantial tax increase. The 1958 budget was $260,802, pared to that figure by the council from the manager's original request of $271,308. However, the manager pointed out in his message that $5,211 had to be appropriated from surplus during the year to meet city expenses so that the 1958 operative figure is actually $266,013 or $2,875 more than his 1959 request.

The budget surplus at the end of the year is automatically applied to the following year's budget to reduce the tax rate. However, this year, principally because the pool and the bus service lost $8,000 in 1958, there will only be about $5,000 surplus carried over to 1959 as compared to a $14,000 surplus carried over to 1958. (The pool and the bus service, which regularly operate at a deficit, are expected to lose $8,000 again in 1959.)

The figure of $263,138 does not include capital improvements recommended by department heads or a ten percent increase in salary proposed for all city employees, including the manager. These improvements omitted from the budget are the extension of Hillside to connect with Greenhill rd, which it is felt can be delayed, estimated to cost $8,500, new bleachers for the Little League and softball fields at a cost of $500, the construction of a shelter at Greenbelt Lake Park at a cost of $5,000, the resurfacing of the tennis courts which would require $3,500, and improvements to playgrounds and play equipment to run about $5,500. The total figure of these capital improvements is $23,000. The ten percent salary increase would cost an additional $11,562.

The city manager noted that real property in the city showed an increased assessed evaluation of $900,000 during the year, which brings the total assessed evaluation of real property in Greenbelt to $8.5 million. The revenue in taxes from this property is estimated at $145,353 for 1959 or $23,300 more than 1958, with the remainder of the city's revenue coming from other sources. Until this year the county school board has been paying the city $22,500 a year for the rent of the Center School. Since this building will be sold to the county as of June 30, 1959, only $11,250 will be collected in rent in 1959.

The swimming pool is expected to cost $15,640 to operate in 1959 or about $3,500 more than the expected income from admissions. The bus service is expected to cost $12,856 to run in 1959 or about $4,400 more than anticipated fares. The city manager stated that there was a slight increase in bus receipts this year, and it is hoped that a more substantial gain will be made next year.

The general breakdown of the chief costs of the city government as proposed by the manager for 1959 is as follows: general government (city administration)—$41,641; recreation (excluding the swimming pool)—$15,102; and municipal parks—$15,092.

Council Notes . . . Warren Ledick, the city's recreation director, will shortly put out a brochure describing the city's recreation program. In it he notes that during the past year 72,000 people (almost ten times the population of Greenbelt) participated in a city-supervised recreation activity . . . The council has instructed the manager to crack down on double-parking on Centerway . . . Three dogs were picked up last month by the city dogcatcher . . .

GOLDEN AGE CLUB

There will not be a meeting of the Club on Wednesday, Nov. 26. The next meeting will be on Wednesday, Dec. 3, at which time the Club will hold its annual Christmas Party with the Greenbelt Woman's Club. The meeting will be at 1:30 p.m. in the Social room at Center School.

Book Fair - Art Show

Stephen Panagoulis, Grade 6, received first prize in the recent St. Hugh's Bookfair Poster contest, Mrs. Marie Kistler, Bookfair Chairman, announced today. Second prize went to Rose Francis, Grade 5, and third prize to Richard Patterson, Grade 3.

Honorable mention was awarded posters submitted by Robert Floyd, Grade 4, and Laurence Zanin and Randall Mason, both in Grade 6.

The prize winners will be entitled to select any book on display at the Bookfair, Saturday, Nov. 22, 12 noon to 4:30 p.m., in St. Hugh's School social room, while the honorable mention participants will receive commemorative parchment scrolls.

In announcing the winners, Mrs. Kistler invited "all of Greenbelt" to attend St. Hugh's third annual Bookfair and Art Show—adding that the invitation definitely includes children.

Display books have been selected to appeal to all age groups and to a wide variety of reading tastes.

Art exhibits include oil paintings; drawings; wood, marble and granite sculptures; enamel-on-copper; metal work; wood paintings; photographs. These represent work of local Greenbelt artists and of the students and faculty of the Catholic University Art Department.

Refreshments will be served during the Bookfair, with a special refreshment table for children.

Local Co-ops Show Second Film Series

What's different about saving or borrowing from a cooperative financial institution? What are the advantages and disadvantages? What's the difference between the credit union and the savings and loan association?

For answers to these and any other questions you may have about Greenbelt's cooperatives, plan to attend the Co-op Film Night this Saturday, Nov. 22, at the Center School from 8 to 10 p.m.

One of the films to be shown is the colorful "Trip to Cooperative Europe." This shows how cooperators in England, Scotland, France, Holland, Denmark, Finland and Sweden have built their cooperatives to a strong position in their respective economies.

The other is a brand new credit union film, "A Penny Saved." It's the story of three couples at a party and the ways these families use their money.

There will be ample time to ask questions; after which refreshments will be served.

This is the second of a series sponsored by Greenbelt's Nine Cooperative organizations plus the Potomac Cooperative Federation. Every interested person is invited to attend.
