Greenbelt Nine Takes First Place In League

Greenbelt took undisputed possession of first place for the first time this year, winning their last three games in a row at home. Scaggsville was the victim in a double-header at Braden Field on June 26 by scores of 18-1 and 15-4. Bill Moore and Gary Brown were the winning pitchers, while Rich Fonda collected the Shamrock's first home run.

On July 3 Greenbelt entertained Fairland and won 21-8 in a hitting affair. The game was tied 6-6 in the sixth inning but then Greenbelt bats broke the game wide open. Rich Fonda got 3 for 4 and Billy Ancell connected for a three-run homer for Greenbelt. Gary Brown went the distance for the win, his 5th against no defeats.

The Tri-County League All-Stars will meet the Montgomery County All-Stars next Sunday, July 10 at Gaithersburg at 2:30 p.m. Regular league games will resume July 17 as Greenbelt goes over to visit Fairland.

Fire Dept. Downs Co-op In Babe Ruth Playoff

With an exciting come-from-behind finish the Fire Department won the first half against the Co-op, 7-6, and earned the right to play the Quantic Babe Ruth team here on July 16.

It was the same old story as the Fire Department was down by 2 runs going into the 7th and with two walks, McCauley's triple, and a wild pitch they were ahead and the game was over.

Louis Caruso started for the Fire Department and James Caruso was the starting pitcher for the Co-op. James went the distance pitching a real good ball game, allowing only 4 hits and striking out 9. Sloppy fielding by his infield in the first two innings allowed the Fire Department 4 runs. He then held them scoreless until McCauley's triple in the 7th.

Louis Caruso was relieved by Tim Moore in the 4th for the Fire Department. Moore was the winning pitcher making his record now 4-0. Caruso and Moore struck out a total of 13 Co-op men, Moore allowing only 1 run and two hits in the last 3 innings. Dave Palmeron's 2 singles and James Caruso's double and single led the Co-op attack.

McCauley's 2 triples and single were the big blows for the Fire Department.

CORRECTION

An error in last week's article concerning Cub Pack 746 of the Mowatt Memorial Methodist Church and its First Pinewood Derby, resulted in the omission of the name of David Bates, who was second with a 4-ounce silver and red speeder. Walter Louk, Jr. piloted a 3-ounce green model in winning first place.

PROJECTS DELAYED

The extra work placed on the city's maintenance crew by the littering of areas used for the carnival and fireworks display has delayed somewhat the refurbishing of playgrounds and the marking off of parking spaces in the courts. These projects will get under way as soon as the other operations of the city's maintenance men are back to normal.

GCS Members Elect Rosenzweig to Board

George Weber of Alexandria, Va. and Benjamin Rosenzweig of Greenbelt, Md., have been added to the Board of Directors of Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc., as a result of the balloting conducted at the Annual Corporation Meeting June 24 at the organization's headquarters in Beltsville, Md. Retiring directors were Lawrence Oosterhouse of Takoma Park and Rev. Robert Hull of Greenbelt.

Re-elected for another two-year term were Robert T. Bonham of Rockville, Donald H. Cooper of Wheaton, and Edward Weinberg of Takoma Park.

This will be Weber's first term on the GCS Board. Professionally a Foreign Affairs Analyst with the National Security Council, he is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati with an M.A. in economics. Rosenzweig, who has already served several terms on the Board in the past, is a standards engineer for the Secretary of Defense. He has been a member of GCS since its beginning in 1939.

At the first meeting of the new Board, Robert T. Bonham was re-elected President of the Corporation; W. Clifford Hoag, vice president; Donald H. Cooper, Secretary; and William C. Arntz, Treasurer. Elected to the Executive Committee were Bonham, ex-officio; Arntz and Weinberg.

Also on the ballot were four referendum questions for stockholder reaction on measures relating to the protection of the consumer in the marketplace. By an overwhelming majority, the members directed their organization to give active support to legislation designed to standardize measures of content in food packages, to require by law the conspicuous declaration of net content, to support adequate appropriations for effective enforcement of those laws related to the prevention of fraud and the protection of food and drugs from impurities in food and drugs. Members also called upon their organization to oppose actively the so-called "fair trade" laws.

GCS, the nation's largest consumer cooperative, ranks 12th among all retailing corporations in the number of its stockholders. It now operates 10 supermarkets, seven service stations and five pharmacies in the metropolitan area and Westminster, Md.

New City Buildings Under Construction

According to City Manager Charles McDonald, construction work on the two new municipal buildings is proceeding according to schedule. Work on the firehouse is now in the "cleaning up" stage. A tentative date of August 1 has been set for the fire equipment and furnishings to be moved in.

Work is in progress on the new Youth Center building. At present construction workers are awaiting delivery of the steel necessary for the structure. This is expected during the next week or two.

Co-op Gets 'Face Lifting'

A major remodeling of the Greenbelt Co-op supermarket is now well underway. New display tables in the variety section have permitted expansion of several non-food lines. Ladies wear, in particular, will have an enlarged section.

The snack bar has been removed and will be replaced by an expanded bread and pastry section. Overall decor will be improved by the use of modern "decorator" paints and overhead spotlights. A new window will be installed closer to the pharmacist's working quarters.

Business is being conducted as usual during renovations.

Five Local Boys Hurt As Car Skids Off Road

Five Greenbelt boys and one boy from Berwyn Heights were involved in an accident which sent four of the boys to hospitals. The accident occurred on Saturday, July 2 at about 11 p.m. on the Metzger rd. cut-off between Riggs rd. and New Hampshire ave. The car skidded and went down a steep embankment.

Two of the boys are still hospitalized. They are Richard Sharp, 71-C Ridge, with internal injuries and possible broken leg and Greg Vella, 6-B Hillside, with facial cuts and possible fractured skull.

The 2 boys released are Michael Holmes, 2-C Gardenway with a chipped kneecap and 5 stitches in his head and Steve Groark, 1-G Gardenway with a deep gash in the eye.

Pete DeCoste, 20-L Hillside, received a few bruises but was not hospitalized. The Berwyn Heights boy, John Mulligan was uninjured.

FIRST AID CLASS

At the first session of the first aid training class, being taught at the fire house by instructor Don Pratt, it was decided to change the hours for the class. The session will now start at exactly 8 p.m. Those attending for the first time are advised to read the first three chapters of the First Aid Textbook and bring two triangular bandages and a safety pin to class.

SPECIAL BUS SERVICE

During the special vacation Bible School sessions of the Greenbelt Baptist and Lutheran Churches, June 27-July 8, and the Greenbelt Community Church, July 5-15, the city bus schedule has been altered to accommodate children attending these sessions. Bus service is provided at a 5c fare.

Legion's Club License Approved By Prince Georges Liquor Board

By Al Skolnik

Prince Georges Board of License Commissioners has approved the application of the Greenbelt American Legion Post No. 136 for a Class "C" Club Liquor License. The action was taken in executive session on Thursday, June 30, after a ten-day postponement had been granted to give interested groups a chance to file additional petitions and evidence in support of their pleas against the license.

Police News Review

City Manager Charles McDonald and Police Chief Jim Williams have been invited to attend a dinner given by the Automobile Club of Maryland on July 7. At this time Greenbelt will be honored with a certificate for "Excellence of Record" for their pedestrian record of no fatalities for the past year. This is the tenth year in a row that Greenbelt has had no pedestrian fatalities.

A resident on Northway reported the theft of two automobile tires on June 27. Two lawnmowers were reported missing from 23 court of Ridge, with a later report that one had been relocated.

A report of vandalism in the apartments on 42, 44, 46 and 48 Crescent was made on July 1. The complainant reported 17 windows broken. Broken windows, about eight of them, have been reported at North End School since the end of the school year.

A field vole, commonly referred to as a field mouse, bit a girl on Plateau pl., and the child was taken to P. G. for a tetanus shot. The vole was caught and kept in a jar in a car overnight and was found dead in the morning. Laboratory tests are still not complete to ascertain whether or not the animal was diseased.

Many reports of juveniles setting off firecrackers were received by the police. Through questioning, the police were able to learn two of the sources, one being in the District, the other being in Virginia.

A "peeping tom" was reported on Research rd. during the early morning hours of July 2. Police chased the suspect through the woods, but one of the officers tripped over a log and the person had a chance to slip out of sight.

School Trustees Meet

Trustees of the Center School had their final meeting of the year on Wednesday evening at the home of chairman Mrs. Helen Hufferdick, 15 Greendale. Trustees Larry Levin and Ben Rosenzweig were also present to receive the closing report of the year from Principal Miss Hannah Long.

Miss Long reported that the school year had closed with only minor problems which had been satisfactorily resolved. The school will be open on a limited basis for arts and crafts and reading classes under teacher supervision.

Improvements will be made during the summer. The cafeteria will have plumbing repairs made and stainless steel sink and serving area will be installed. The pantry area will be enlarged to receive a new refrigerator and deep freeze. New fiber glass drapes will be installed in the auditorium, and repairs will be made to the boiler room. Parking in front of the school will be enlarged by the addition of paving for about 11 cars.

Miss Long reported only limited changes in the teaching staff. Mr. Merricks is transferring to junior high school, and no replacement teacher has been reported for Mrs. Gerrits, who retired this year. The trustees' meeting adjourned to reconvene on call this fall.

ELECT LOCAL REALTORS

The Prince Georges County Real Estate Board has just announced its committee appointments for the year. Abraham Chasanow, of Greenbelt Realty Company, has been appointed Chairman of the Legal and Advisory Committee and Chairman of the Constitution and By-Laws Committee. Helen Chasanow has been appointed Chairman of the Women's Council. Mr. and Mrs. Chasanow have just returned from the Annual Conference of the Maryland Real Estate Association, which was held in Ocean City, Maryland.

The city council took advantage of this ten-day period to pass a resolution on June 23 opposing the granting of the liquor license. The major reasons for the city's opposition were:

(1) The area surrounding the American Legion property is scheduled for early development as a residential subdivision, with the possibility that an elementary school will be within 1,000 feet of the American Legion Home.

(2) Issuance of liquor license to a facility planned for continued use as a dance hall located in a residential area would be inconsistent with the concept of Greenbelt as a "planned community" and out of keeping with the total atmosphere of the community.

(3) The American Legion property is within 150 feet of park property owned and being developed by the United States Department of the Interior as a Federal park.

(4) Admittance by applicants that there has been non-compliance by the American Legion with the regulations governing the use of its present beer permit gives grounds for concern that there might be "mis-controls" and further infractions if a Class "C" Club Liquor License were granted.

The Class C License permits the sale of hard liquor to members and guests at the Legion Home. In hearings before the Liquor Board, the Legion indicated that it would no longer rent the use of its quarters for dances and other affairs by outside organizations.

Little League Chatter

By Bud Dean

Monday the Pepsi Cola Athletics battling to stay near the top in the American League race had a fight on their hands in downing the Lions, 12-7.

Tuesday Co-op, after being the doormat for the rest of the league all season, came up with a fine pitching job by Gerring and heavy hitting by the entire team to rap the knuckles of the American Legion Cardinals, 12-4.

Wednesday the National Guard Indians now coached by Rollie Newkirk are still on a winning streak taking the Greenbelt Pharmacy Orioles, 8-4.

Thursday paced by Shegogue's 4th homer of the season with 2 men on, the GHI Giants are keeping pressure on the American League race by taming the Lions, 16-6.

Friday rained out.

Need for Fellowship

By Warren Leddick

(Editor's note: This is the third in a series of articles on the sources of pleasure in recreation).

Man is essentially gregarious. At all ages his desire for fellowship is strong. Many forms of recreation minister directly to this basic need for companionship, social relationships, and cooperative activity.

Activities commonly considered as meeting this particular need are community gatherings, parties, social dancing, dinners, and outings of various types. Such widely differing activities as a birthday party, holiday celebration, or chamber of commerce clam bake all belong in this group.

Fellowship also plays a large part in team games, athletic contests, group singing, and clubs of all types. It is basic in such a simple but universal activity as conversation. Canoeing, hiking, camping, and many other activities are enriched when they are done in company with other people holding similar interests. The strong and widespread desire for fellowship is commonly recognized by introducing regular or occasional social activities in the programs of groups primarily formed for some other purpose.

WARM WEATHER CAUTION

The chicken salad smells delicious. Tastes wonderful, too. And it can put you in the hospital.

Because mother boiled the chicken in the morning and left the pot on the back of the stove to cool for three hours. Some "staph" got in—they're everywhere, just everywhere—found the food good and the temperature just right, settled down to multiply and produce their own particular poison. Then mother fished out the chicken, cut it up, added celery and onion and mayonnaise and put the result in the icebox.

An hour before dinner, out came the chicken salad. It sat on the table for a couple of hours more, while the family took showers, had cooling drinks. The "staph" germs were delighted. If there's one thing they like better than chicken left at room temperature for several hours, it's mayonnaise. They multiplied—the icebox had temporarily inhibited them—produced more poison. The poison has no taste or smell, so the unwary family ate up all the chicken salad. Two hours later they were all in the hospital, not a bit consoled by assurances that they weren't going to die because they wished they could.

Any dish containing poultry, ham, cream, custard or mayonnaise should go straight from stove to icebox and from icebox to table only when it is going to be eaten immediately. Don't take these foods on picnics unless you have a portable refrigerator to keep them in. This column is sponsored in the interest of better health by: Your Tuberculosis Association.

ANNOYING SITUATION

To the Editor:

I read with much interest the item "Who's to Blame?" and also it brought to mind the following: It seems as though Centerway and Crescent rd. forms a much needed arena for playful minded youthful characters, who like to demonstrate their auto-prowess—or, to be truthful, the lack of it.

In the military game the on-duty hours are scheduled to suit the situation. So it seems to this writer that the Greenbelt Police are not aware of a session of motor racing and tire screeching that starts some 15 to 20 minutes after they go off duty at midnight and will last for at least a couple of hours. So why not perform their duty as police and exercise the duty entrusted to them by the residents of Greenbelt and reschedule their duty hours to fit the situation?

I thought that maybe if the events were made a public issue the annoying situation could be brought to a screeching halt!

As a public minded editor, as you are, I thought you would have a bit to say to the public on this.

Thank you for your time in reading this.

Respectfully yours,
F. A. Oltman,
36-E Crescent

(Editor's note: The Greenbelt police are on duty 24 hours a day. The switchboard is also open 24 hours. Any complaints may be called in directly at any hour of the day or night).

Bowman's Father Writes Book About Funerals

The American Funeral: A Study in Guilt, Extravagance, and Sublimity, by LeRoy Bowman, Ph.D., Washington, D. C., Public Affairs Press, 1959. 182 pp., $4.50.

The author of this study of funeral customs is the father of Bruce Bowman, well-known Greenbelt resident. Brought up in a semi-rural neighborhood of recent immigrants, he became interested in their conflicts of customs and beliefs. While a student he worked for an undertaker and became familiar with the ethics and methods of the business. Trained for the ministry, he did social work and became a university professor of sociology.

The book covers a wide range of problems both technical and social that eventually confront everyone but are usually given little attention.

Most families lack proper guidance as to appropriate procedures when death takes a family member. Burdened with grief and sometimes with feelings of guilt, they need the solace of friends and the community's recognition of the departed one's role in life. The family and community reminisce and relive their former associations, gaining new meaning for the years that remain.

These needs are variously expressed through religious and secular traditions, but often the traditions are weak, customs have not been adapted to deeper spiritual needs, and the undertaker stands ready to substitute elegance (at a price) for sublimity.

The author recommends that, long before death is expected, individuals should record their wishes as to disposition of remains and kind of services desired. Memorial associations sponsored by churches on a community-wide basis (e.g. in this area, the Maryland Suburban Memorial Society) will give disinterested advice and help. In a few places, cooperative funeral societies have been successful.

Mr. and Mrs. George Neumann, 48-H Ridge, are the proud parents of a daughter, Nancy Lynn made her debut on June 22, weighing 7 lbs., 3 oz. She joins a sister, Gail.

When Pick Temple lowered the big microphone for an introduction to Michael Garin, 10-A Hillside, he said, "Mike meet Mike." In response Greenbelt's Mike touched and sniffed the other Mike, asking, "Are you fatteo or datteo?" Pick Temple raised his eyebrows, smiled then, for the next few minutes turned the show over to five-year-old Michael, who proved to be quite a showman. It was delightful, especially when Michael yelled, "Happy New Year!" after popping several balloons with his gun. Off camera, Pick asked the remarkable Mr. Grain who wrote his material, "My mother," was the reply. Whereupon Pick remarked, "I'll have to hire her." (Any offers yet, Sonia?)

City Plans to Replace 2-Year Old Police Cars

The city council has put out for bid two new police cars to replace the present 2-year-old models. More than twenty local dealers were asked to submit bids on either a purchase or rental basis, with several options offered respecting type of engine and extra equipment.

A new specification this year calls for the dealer to provide maintenance on a per mileage basis. Another new feature being considered is to sell the used cars outright rather than trade them in on new cars. Police cars average about 75,000 miles a year.

The council has also approved an expenditure of $5,605 for kitchen equipment in the new fire house, to be supplemented by $500 for kitchen exhaust fans, with the total, including costs of installation not to exceed $6,200. The equipment included cafeteria counter, work tables, refrigerator, oven range and hood, sink, dispensers, automatic dishwashers, fryer, and wall cabinets.

The city originally planned to pay for furnishing the building, with the Volunteer Fire Department and Rescue Squad paying for the kitchen and equipment. It was later decided to reverse the allocation of costs, since it would be easier for the city to prepare bid specifications on kitchen equipment than on other furnishings.

Swim Team to Compete In Meet Saturday A.M.

The Greenbelt Swimming Team, a group of hard working boys and girls with ages ranging from almost 8 to 18, will be participating in first swimming meet of the season on Saturday, July 9 at 9 a.m. at the Greenbelt Pool.

Four of the five meets scheduled this year will be held here, which is an invitation for the townspeople to come on down to the pool and spur these kids on to victory. They have been practicing every day, with their coach, Jack Trudeau. The time available for the team has been from 7 to 9 a.m. and 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. on weekdays, and other free hours on Saturday and Sunday.

A good cheering crowd is a good incentive for the team to try just a little bit harder to bring honor to their home town. Let's see the home town bring honor to its representative team by showing up.

When The SIREN BLOWS

By Rita Fisher

July 5

The only siren blowing that was heard in town this past week was done on Saturday. Early that morning I'm sure the triple siren served as an alarm clock for quite a few people in town when it sounded off at three minutes past seven. The call came from the B&W Parkway. A bus had run into the rear of a car. I believe I heard the men mention that an ambulance from Beltsville took one injured man to the hospital. The extent of his injuries is not known by the department since they did not make the run. No other injuries were reported.

A car with an overheated motor (which was not burning), was the reason for the second call which came in at 12:40 p.m. This also was from the Parkway. No assistance necessary.

The third and last call came in at 10:27 p.m. and was for the men of the Rescue Squad. A man from Plateau pl. was in need of hospitalization because of low stomach pains. He was carried to P. G.

The men were all pretty active this past weekend anyway as any of you who were at the carnival noticed. They took turns driving the old fire truck around town, always filled with excited kids. They seemed to be continually carrying things around on the carnival grounds and acting as barkers with the mike. With only about a month's time to prepare for the carnival, I think the men managed the affair pretty well. And, folks, just a hint now. Next year's carnival should be a good one. We'll be in the new house and raring to go.

I have just learned about an accident which occurred last Wednesday and which I had no knowledge of until just now. But a report on it seems necessary in that it may serve as a warning to others. A little 2 year old boy was watching his daddy cut through a piece of wood with an electric saw. The child wanted to catch the piece of wood as it fell, but, in doing so, he cut his hand on the saw. His hand was badly cut, and two fingers were cut so deeply that he may have lost them.

A landmark in Russian literature receives the first American translation in the 20th Century. The Charterhouse of Parma by Stendhal. Introduction by Harry Levin, translated by Lowell Bair. This is the first American translation ever made of the brilliant novel of 18th Century France. An exciting period of history as seen through the eyes of a young Frenchman. Arms and the Man by George Bernard Shaw. Introduction by Louis Kronenberger. This wonderfully sly play pits the poor male against the ever-scheming female. Shaw at his wittiest.
