APB Gets Back Sr. Ctr. - PO Requests for City Land

by Al Skolnik

After a short preliminary discussion, city council agreed at last Monday's meeting to refer back to the Advisory Planning Board the matter of utilizing on a lease basis city-owned land adjacent to the North parking lot for a senior citizens center. The council felt that the question of a post office on this site should be dealt with concurrently.

It also felt that the different groups involved should try to get together for a meeting of the minds. The APB had submitted a negative report on the use of this land for a senior citizens center and the Senior Citizens Housing Cooperative had defended the choice. Councilman Dick Pilski also suggested that the APB look into the matter of securing a recreational center (without residential quarters) for elderly citizens.

The council asked its solicitor for an opinion as to whether the proposed center would be a public or private function and whether the city could enter into arrangements for this purpose.

Annapolis Visit

Councilman Bill Hoff reported on council's trip to Annapolis to discuss House Bill 840 which calls for WSSC to take over maintenance of all surface and storm drainage systems by July 1, 1966 (except those maintained by MNCPPC and State Roads Commission). This bill was enacted last session and certain municipalities in Prince Georges County, including Greenbelt, are seeking amendments to the bill.

One of the major amendments would be to make the maintenance provisions of the bill permissive with municipalities so that if a municipality could provide the needed services at a lower cost than WSSC it could opt out and also be excluded from the WSSC tax. This tax is presently one cent per $100 of assessed valuation, but authority is granted in the bill to raise this to three cents.

Other Items

Councilman Francis White secured council approval to have the APB study the problem of beautifying the entrances to Greenbelt, especially the Southway entrance. He suggested curbing, gutters, and sidewalks, with perhaps illuminated maps for visitors.

Councilman David Champion reported on a meeting of the National Capital Transportation Planning Process. This group is concerned with bringing rapid transportation to the outlying areas and each participant is assessed an appropriate share of expenses. (Greenbelt's share is an estimated $100).

In answer to Councilman Dick Pilski's inquiry, Buddy Attick advised that Greenbelt Lake will be stocked with 300 legal-size fish this spring.

Council approved an APB-recommended change in its by-laws which would eliminate a specific date for APB's monthly meetings (now the third Tuesday of each month). The APB needed more flexibility so as not to conflict with other meetings.

P.O. Needs Names, Nos.

In order to insure better and efficient service, the local post office requests citizens to identify themselves by means of properly placed house numbers and names on apartment house mailboxes. Although some Greenbelt postmen are "old timers" on the routes, there are still many occasions when substitute mailmen are covering the various routes and the identity of the families along the way is known merely as a number in front of a doorway or a name on a mailbox.

Merit System Suggested For MNCPPC Workers

A merit system for employees of the Maryland - National Capital Park and Planning Commission and a Merit Board to administer the new program would be created under legislation introduced in the Maryland Senate this week by State Senator Fred L. Wineland, (D-PG).

The merit system, which would include all employees of M-NCPPC except the several department heads and the assistant general counsel, would be administered by a Merit Board made up of two members of the commission, two laymen, and the State Commissioner of Personnel.

In introducing the measure Sen. Wineland said, "it is readily apparent that in an agency with such sensitive decisions as the Park and Planning Commission, those people who work there should not be subject to undue pressure or reprisals because of the various reports they may be required to write during the course of performing their normal duties."

Physical Fitness City, Md.

Greenbelt has a good chance of being named Physical Fitness City, Md. 1966-67. The Maryland Jaycees are sponsoring a physical fitness program to select the first city within a Jaycee chapter to log 1,365 miles in running or logging starting in February and ending by July 1, 1966. The distance chosen is the mileage from Annapolis, Md. to Tulsa, Okla., Jaycee national headquarters.

All participants in the Jog Along program and the Run for Your Life program are eligible and their miles logged in practice or in events count toward the total. Seven Greenbelters were in the 2 mile Run for Your Life race and another in the Marathon at Beltsville last Sunday. Many more are expected to participate in the next Jog Along event, Saturday, Feb. 26 at 10:30 a.m. at Braden Field. This is a group jog of 1 1/2 miles at your own pace. A 2 mile Run for Your Life race will be held at the U. of Md. at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 27. Mileage logged may be reported to L. Noel, 474-9362.

Center School Honored for "American Heritage Hall"

Center School was notified this week that it will receive the George Washington Honor Medal Award for 1964-1965. Ferd Cardano, principal, told the News Review that he received a letter from the Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge announcing the award for the school's "American Heritage Hall" program.

For two years Center School has featured exhibits of national symbols. The main exhibit consists of a set of 15 flags dating from the Revolution to present day. These flags were donated by the American Legion, Post 138, its auxiliary, and the Disabled Veterans and its auxiliary. Bulletin boards exhibiting the works of the children pertain to commemorative events of the month, famous happenings and individuals who contributed to the growth of American science, arts, etc.

Cardano envisions the growth of the heritage hall by adding areas for presidents and 10 historical shrines in America. He stated that "participation in the program has done a lot for students by stimulating interest in history, and enabling them to discuss more intelligently commemorative events."

Noting that major streets within the City of Greenbelt were kept open throughout the snow emergency of Jan. 29 - 30, the City Council gave special commendation to the city's snow removal crews and authorized the issuance of bonus checks for their many hours of overtime work. New Steps Taken to Resolve School Site Location Crisis

Fast-breaking developments featured last week's activities with respect to the senior high school site "crisis."

(1) A 2-hour meeting was held on Monday morning, Feb. 21, between George Meyers, Assistant to the State Superintendent of Schools, and the city council, with Thomas Gwynn of the County school staff in attendance. Meyers asked the city for a complete dossier, including a chronology of events and a description of the various offers made by the city and Greenbelt Homes, Inc. with respect to the location of a senior high school.

Meyers said that as a general matter the State Superintendent's Office is pretty much obligated to accept the recommendations of the county school board with respect to school sites, but he promised that the matter would be given a through review.

The council reiterated its objections to parcel 2 (the land between the Baltimore-Washington Parkway and GHI property) for a senior high school location, citing traffic problems and the disruptive effects on Greenbelt's Master Plan.

It emphasized the offers that the city and GHI had made to secure a favorable senior high school location, as reflective of the deep citizen concern with the matter. Meyers indicated that he was impressed by this community action which, as far as he knew, was rather unique.

Mayor Edgar Smith reported that Meyers showed keen interest in all aspects of the problem and showed great familiarity with the local area.

City Land Offers

(2) Confirming an offer made orally in the morning, the city council at its regular meeting on Monday night, Feb. 21, voted unanimously to make available the 5-acre city sanitary landfill, 4 1/2 acres of which is still virgin area, as additional land for construction of an elementary or junior high school, provided that the senior high school is not located on parcels 1 or 2. This offer is in addition to the city's previous offer to purchase 5 acres of parkland for location of a senior high school on the city-preferred Beltway - Lake site and GHI's offer to make available 10 acres for an elementary school.

Councilman Francis White stressed that when all these offers are given monetary tags, the cost differentials between the two sites narrow considerably.

GHI Land Offers

(3) Read at Monday's Council meeting were letters sent by GHI to the county school board confirming in writing its offer of an elementary school site. As an alternative, GHI also expressed its willingness to discuss the possibility of purchasing from the school board that land which would have been used for a senior high school, if the school board still felt a legal obligation to purchase the parcel 2 site. Both offers are subject to GHI membership approval. A letter from GHI commending the city council for its support of the preferred Beltway-Lake site was also read.

(4) According to a letter dated Feb. 16 from Royal Hart, Chairman of the county delegation to the General Assembly, to school board president W. Carroll Beatty, the County Board of Education has agreed to arrange further meetings with the city council to discuss the new proposals made by the city and GHI. (Subsequently, it was learned that such a meeting had been set up for this morning.)

Hart stated that the delegation felt that it should not take a position on specific school construction sites. He expressed the delegation's confidence that the board will continue to make the appropriate decisions, when it has all the relevant facts before it. He thus was gratified to learn that the board would review its decision in light of the new proposals.

(5) The city council at its Monday meeting referred the site development cost estimates prepared by school engineer Elliot Robertson to Greenhorne & O'Mara for an independent analysis. The vote was unanimous with Councilman Dave Champion abstaining.

These cost estimates had been presented for the first time at the Feb. 8 public meeting. Councilman White said that a preliminary perusal of the figures indicate a difference of opinion as to the costs of earth removal, especially since there is city-owned nearby property which needs fill dirt.

CFPG Actions

(6) Citizens for a Planned Greenbelt reported that copies of the petitions signed by over 1850 Greenbelters protesting the school board's choice of the parcel 2 site had been mailed to the following: State Superintendent of Schools, the County Board of Education, the County Commissioners, and the County Delegation to the General Assembly.

CFPG also advised the State Superintendent that it was requesting certain documents from the county school board needed for a full evaluation of the merits of the proposed senior high school sites. Pending receipt of such information, CFPG requested the State, in accordance with its by-laws, to stay the county board of education from proceeding further with the acquisition of a senior high school site.

Appreciative of Greenbelt To the Editor:

Faithfully every Thursday night, one half hour after it has been delivered, I have read the Greenbelt News Review from the first page (known at my house as Mr. Bresler's page) to the back page. Just as faithfully Thursday night do I toss and turn and in between counting sheep manage to compose 6 or 7 rough drafts and at least one final copy to the same Greenbelt News Review. Unfortunately, the Thursdays have come and gone for weeks and not a thought put on paper or a letter dropped into our shiny new mailbox on the corner of Lastner Lane and Rosewood Drive in BOXWOOD VILLAGE — not the Boxwood Village of the lovelorn dogs — or the 5 stray cats — not even the Boxwood whose mud runs into Greenbelt Lake or whose vandals have stamped houses in for the builders — who, by the way have given us a pretty good stamping themselves (Mr. Lerner - Mr. Bresler take note).

I speak of a different Boxwood than has been pictured in the few (and very few) items I have read in the Review about our addition. I cannot speak for all of Boxwood Village but am sure that within the court where I live are some of the finest people and most wonderful neighbors a person could have — waiting for just a little more recognition than has been received. A grouping of people that one can only find in America or Greenbelt — my Jewish neighbors to the right — my Norwegian neighbors to the left — my Italian neighbor — my Irish neighbor — and we are all becoming an integral part of Greenbelt and the community. We are new and most of us could not vote in the last Greenbelt election — we will be eligible to vote in the next. We may even have a mayor from Boxwood Village at some future date! We are increasing revenues to the City of Greenbelt and now that we are settling in are becoming vitally interested in the problems of our newly acquired "home town". The new school situation and the finding of a suitable place to build is of prime importance — as well it should be. Our children will be the beneficiaries of this project — that is, if the adults and Mr. Bresler can get together. We here in Boxwood have inherited the problem but there will be new ones arising as there always are in trying to keep a "hometown atmosphere" within a progressive city.

I like our town. My children, who for so long have wanted the warmth and atmosphere that Greenbelt basically emits, are very happy.

The sound of a siren wailing is the sound of assurance that only a few minutes away a Volunteer Fire Department is ready to assist me in my time of need. I am appreciative of a Police Department that patrols my court so regularly that I could set a clock in the wee hours of the morning, and will assist me in an emergency large or small such as last week — lost car keys. I am thankful we have garbage collections so frequently and good mosquito control during the summer — and for the brave attempt and sometime success on the snow removal — a thanks to the city employees who I'm sure were thoroughly exhausted.

In the same sense I am sorry to read about the plight of the ducks on Greenbelt Lake going hungry and seeking shelter in such severe winter conditions with only a few good samaritans interested. Yet how much enjoyment and beauty these same ducks give in the warm summer months. Shouldn't this be

Selfish Neighbors To the Editor:

The "big" storm is over and my ire has cooled a bit, but in a city such as Greenbelt, isn't it shameful to have greed, grab and sloth show so plainly?

As many people did on Jan. 31, I dug my car painfully out of the drifted depths — my back was strained and sore, and I was tired — but satisfied that on the morning I could get to work and, when I returned home would have a place to park my car. This was not to be.

Now, sir, I'm not yet 90 but it's been some time since I saw 40 — I'm not lazy either, yet it irks me no end to shovel a space only to have it usurped by persons living adjacent to (not even in) my court (both a good 20 years younger than I).

A couple of my equally diligent digging neighbors had the same experience. Where is the neighborly spirit supposed to watch over Greenbelters in these cases? I PROTEST this undermining of good neighbor relations, and regret the invasion of this selfish spirit. We are supposed to be a cooperative, with each to do his share.

Name Withheld

Thanks To the Editor:

I wish to thank my many friends for sending me cards and coming to the hospital to see me and also for the many beautiful flowers. I am home again and though I am still weak after a severe operation, I am glad to be back home again. Again my sincere thanks.

a city project, to see ducks are given adequate feed and shelter?

To the good again — your store keepers and a friendly postmaster — in this day and age! I like this Greenbelt that has been yours for so long and is now becoming mine and my neighbors' — but most of all we hope you'll like us.

Lore Beard (Mrs. John R.)

Brubaker-Stalnaker

Miss Barbara Gay Brubaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay W. Brubaker of 6-R Ridge, became the bride of Glen D. Stalnaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stalnaker of Gay, West Virginia, on Saturday evening, Jan. 29.

The candlelight ceremony took place at 7:30 p.m. at Greenbelt Community Church with Reverend Kenneth Wyatt officiating. A program of organ music was provided by Clarence Shaw, and Mrs. Francis White sang "Wedding Benediction" and "The Lord's Prayer". Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church social hall.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of ivory damask trimmed with seed pearls. The short train was caught at the back with matching damask roses and her fingertip veil was held by a cap of the same material. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and roses.

Miss Heidi Garner was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Betsy Brubaker, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Barton Truesdell of West Hyattsville. The attendants wore floor-length gowns of emerald green velvet and peau de soie, with matching accessories, and carried bouquets of dark red carnations.

Anthony Lombardo acted as best man; ushers were Jon Garner and Barton Truesdell.

After a wedding trip somewhat curtailed by the blizzard of 1966, the couple is at home in Chevy Chase, Md.

Eartha Kitt Stars At The National Theatre

She's been called a "tigress with silver claws," "tiger woman," "sex kitten" and "panther" and who would argue with any of these descriptions of Eartha Kitt after seeing her in the starring role of the national production of "The Owl and the Pussycat" which will be presented at the National Theatre for three weeks beginning Feb. 28 thru March 19.

Russell Nye who won Broadway acclaim — the "Tony Award," the "Donaldson Award" and the "Theatre World Award" — when he played in "Call Me Madam," opposite Ethel Merman, is co-starred in the two-character comedy hit.

In addition to the regular 8:30 evening performances, there will be matinees on Wednesday and Saturdays.

New School Will Provide Job Training, Placement

The Prince George's County Board of Education now has in operation a new school on a former Nike Site in Croom. The school program at Croom has been established to provide short-term, intensive courses of training in a variety of occupational skills. The program is designed to meet the needs of those students who, for one reason or another, find it difficult to attain success in a regular classroom situation, and will provide job training, guidance services, and placement services. Practical work forms the main portion of the instructional activities with emphasis upon the development of salable skills. Instruction in safety and safe working procedures is also a part of each course. The program includes courses in painting, decorating, and refinishing; lawn and yard care; and plant maintenance and care, including custodial services. Among the courses that will be offered in the near future are food services and clerical services. Course work also includes occupational information and guidance.

At the present time, 95 boys are participating, spending one-half day in classes at the Croom School and one-half day in classes in their regularly assigned schools.

A major responsibility of the school will be the placement of pupils on jobs for which they have received training. A guidance-job coordinator will direct the placement and be responsible for a follow-up program that will evaluate the progress of the pupils and the satisfaction of the employers. Retraining, when necessary will be provided by the school.

It is planned to have the school in full operation by September 1966 with the program designed for both boys and girls.

Springhill Notes

The biggest problem facing the owners and managers of Springhill Lake Apartments is getting into and out of the development. A right turn arrow has been stalled on the traffic light at Edmonston Road. Management is also seeking an access road through the school bus parking lot and also through Beltway Plaza adjacent to A&P. A meeting concerning this traffic problem was held with the Greenbelt City Council. Springhill management urges that letters supporting them in their actions be sent to the City of Greenbelt the Prince Georges County Park and Planning Commission, and State Roads Commission.

Ice Skating will be permitted "At Your Own Risk" when conditions are favorable.

One-Man Showing

A one-man show of paintings by Helene Burns of Springhill Lake is currently on display at the C. I. Smith Color Center in Rockville. Golden Age Club

The Goldenagers are now known as The Greenbelt Golden Age Club, Inc. This is due to a recent incorporation patterned along the lines of the structure of the government of the city of Greenbelt. Incorporation was necessitated as membership has sharply increased and will further increase in the near future.

The very qualified Joseph Long presented a constitution which was unanimously approved by the board of directors.

Under the constitution the president of the club is appointed by the board of directors; the board has appointed Allen D. Morrison as president. The president has the authority to appoint the other officers of the club. Mrs. Dickman was appointed secretary; Mrs. Buker appointed assistant secretary; Mrs. Kaplan appointed treasurer; Mr. Taylor appointed treasurer of the Florida trip and Mrs. Long appointed treasurer of the Williamsburg trip.

The Williamsburg trip with bus transportation and lodging for one night has been contracted for. Almost all of the reservations for the trip have been filled at this time.

A contract has been consummated with the Rosedale Amusement Company for a carnival from May 30 to June 4.

The Prince Georges Park and Planning Commission has again granted the Club's request for a bus trip over the county to historical sites.

The Club will again sell tickets for the Labor Day Committee for the carnival to be held Labor Day week; the carnival is also operated by the Rosedale Amusement Company.

Plans are about completed for the Club's trip to St. Petersburg, Florida and Miami. A side boat trip to Nassau is available for those who desire to take it. Aren't we travelers?

At this time space does not permit the listing of our many new members.

How did a Speakerphone, circa '66, get in an antique dealer's shop?

Ordinarily, the proprietor doesn't put much value on any object less than a hundred years old.

His Speakerphone is the happy result of a Telephone Sales Representative's call.

This young lady from the Telephone Company called to review the shop's phone service. The owner told her of an annoying problem: his difficulty in answering customers' calls while he was in the middle of a job—refinishing a chest, perhaps, or mending a piece of china. She suggested he try a Speakerphone.

Problem solved! The Speakerphone, that can be used without lifting the receiver, is like another pair of hands.

Our team of Telephone Sales Representatives come up with the answers to many a business problem. They are trained telephone counselors. They represent the advisory service we offer all business customers without charge or obligation.

In recognition of Boy Scout week, Craig Zinter of Cub Scout Pack 1253 "pinned" Congressman Rowland Redlin of North Dakota and Clarke W. Thompson of Texas in their offices. He will repeat this ceremony later this week and present a boy scout pin to Senator Quinton Burdick of North Dakota. Craig's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delvin Zinter, 9124 Edmonston, are active participants in the scouting movement - dad is a cub-master, and mom a girl scout leader. The Zinters, residents of Greenbelt for almost two years, also have two daughters, Wendy and Leanne.

High Point will sport a greenhouse next September and two new courses - Horticulture I and II.

Undaunted by freezing weather, the boys of Scout Troop 746 spent the coldest day and night of the year in tents behind the Methodist Church. With their dedicated leader, Albert Cousin, they pitched their tents at 9 a.m. on Feb. 5. This was no easy task since the boys had to dig through the hard snow. For the next 24 hours they kept the fires going, cooked meals and participated in many activities. Services were held at the Methodist Church in honor of Boy Scout week.

Newcomers Pat and Jim Cassidy broke into the winning column in the last duplicate bridge session. They beat out by two points Ed and Adelaide Kaighn to win first place. Next game: Friday, Feb. 25. The game, which is held on the upper floor of the Co-op Supermarket in Greenbelt Center, is open to all.

A speedy recovery to Marcie Walder, 17-D Ridge, who has been ill.

Best wishes for a quick recovery to Mrs. William Webster, 71-K Ridge, who recently underwent surgery. The Cub Scouts of Pack 746, are anxiously awaiting Mrs. Webster's return to Den 7.

A very happy birthday to Olga Penney, 127 Northway, who was 11 years old on Feb. 20.

According to Steve Smith, 19-F Ridge, athletic chairman of the St. Hugh's Young Adult Group, the weekend at Camelback in the Poconos was a tremendous success. Forty-five members of the St. Hugh's club journeyed to Pennsylvania for a "Learn to Ski weekend."

Our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Elsie Farmer, 2-G Northway, who lost her husband.

Condolences to Mr. Revier, 1-C Plateau, on the death of his mother.

Condolences to Arnold Ehrlich, Springhill Lake who lost his mother.

Congratulations to Nancy Weyel, 2-F Plateau, who won five dollars when she very ably answered a problem in "Our Changing World," a magazine containing current events.

We welcome Larry and Ursula Schmidt on moving into their new Lakeside home. Although they moved on the weekend of the great blizzard, we trust that they have settled down now and are enjoying the view of the lake from their wide porch.

Marine Private Gary L. Sidell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sidell of 8287 Lakecrest Drive, has graduated from Marine recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot at San Diego, Calif. He has been assigned to Camp Pendleton, Calif. for individual combat and basic specialist training.

Proud grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Granims, 4-B Ridge, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Karpman, 6152 Springhill, announce the arrival of a grandson. Husky Gregory Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Karpman weighed in at 10½ lbs. on February 18. He has a brother, Lawrence.

Congratulations to Missy Brady, who was chosen High Point Sweetheart of 1966 by a panel of judges on Feb. 12. Preceding this selection fifteen girls had been selected by members of the basketball team and were then placed in the finals to appear before the judges. Maureen Homes was first runner-up for queen and members of the court were Eva Garin and Linda White.

Speaking Sternly . . . by David Stern

The Reader is Warned

Those lovable, folksy characters whom we watch so often on TV, who'd rather fight than switch and who have a good thing going - in other words those healthy, vigorous and athletic chain-smokers - have a shock coming. For, beginning this year, their favorite brand will carry a new message: "CAUTION: CIGARETTE SMOKING MAY BE HAZARDOUS TO YOUR HEALTH."

Relax and enjoy it, fellows. Cautionary labels haven't yet hurt anyone, especially ones with a wishy-washy "may be hazardous" story. Warnings like this - and some much stronger ones - have been with us for many years, and the world still goes around.

New York City, for instance, has on its fire alarms something like "Warning! False Fire Alarms may cause Homicide!" The only way this legend can be explained is that the police commissioner who made it up sought - and found - what to him was the strongest possible expression. We doubt whether it makes much difference, because most potential false-alarmsers don't know what homicide is anyway, even those who read English. And New York being what it is, it is unlikely that changing to "False Fire Alarms may kill Good Guys" will help anything.

Previous generations saw warnings which would be hard to match nowadays, like those that came with boxes of raisins during Prohibition: "DO NOT, under any circumstances, add two quarts water and one cup of sugar to the contents of this box and let stand for 24 hours at 85 degrees, for you will then be producing WINE and violating the Volstead act." Home winemaking was later declared legal, but we doubt this made the warning obsolete.

As a matter of fact, though, we've heard of a few timid souls who keep that unsightly tag on their new sofa ("All New Materials: 50% cotton, 20% unidentified fibers etc. etc.") because it carries a big warning (to dealers, of course) DO NOT REMOVE THIS TAG. This can be blamed on a major oversight, namely, the cautionary label omits any reason behind its message. Such is not the case with a sign posted in one of the men's rooms at Goddard Space Flight Center: "Do Not Put Coffee Grounds in the Commode." An in the United States chosen as the nation's most promising young scientists in the 25th annual Westinghouse Science Talent Search. The national winners will compete for $34,250 in scholarships and awards during the finals beginning March 2 in Washington. His project was "Trigonometry triangle a Variant from its conventional association with a Right Triangle." "We join David's friends and relatives in wishing him the best of luck on March 2-7 and our congratulations to this fine young man in his work. "He has brought honor to himself, his family and to his school," stated Mr. Allan I. Chotiner, High Point principal.

Second Lt. Joerg D. Agin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Agin, 5 Olivewood, completed an officers artillery course at the Army Air Defense School, Fort Bliss.

Birthday greetings to Sterling Tropp, 6-H Plateau, who was nine years old yesterday.

James LoCicero, 112 Lynbrook, attended the Defense Advanced Procurement Management Course of the United States Army Logistics Management Center, Fort Lee, Virginia. LoCicero is a procurement agent at the Defense Personnel Support Center Supply Office, in Landover.

Marine Private Larry R. Aleshire, son of Mrs. O. Aleshire, 11-H Laurel has completed a four-week course of individual combat training at Great Lakes, Illinois.

Seaman Recruit Eugene Doyle, Jr., USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Doyle, 8515 Glendale, is undergoing seven weeks of basic training at the Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Illinois.

Happy birthday to David Mongelli, 45-G Ridge, who was six years old.

anonymous pencil-wielding hand added its explanation below: "It ruins the taste."

So do not be intimidated, dear smokers and friends. If indeed you believed that the hazards of smoking outweighed its pleasures, you would have quit at the time you noticed your doctor switching to a pipe.

There is one more thing, though. PLEASE, DO NOT FOLD, BEND, STAPLE, TEAR, SPINDLE OR MUTILATE THIS PAPER!

Planning to Fumigate?

Are you planning to fumigate your home? Are you planning to have your home fumigated by G.H. I.? The Chief of the Greenbelt Volunteer Fire Dept. and Rescue Squad, Walter "Vince" Dutton, asks that you keep the following in mind.

The insecticide used by GHI is non-toxic to humans. Used with proper ventilation there is no danger of being poisoned. However the spray is atomized; that is, broken down into very fine particles, that can and will burn fiercely at the slightest opportunity. This type of fire is very quickly spread and difficult to control. It is very easy to prevent.

1. DO NOT smoke while spraying is going on.

2. DO pull fuses or make sure all appliances are turned off.

3. Notify the Fire Dept. of your intention to fumigate, so that we will know what to expect when we get a call. (We have responded to some needless calls from neighbors who saw the mist, and thought they saw smoke coming from windows). If possible, we will be glad to send one of our men to your home to inspect and advise.

G.H.I. has been very cooperative with this department and notifies us whenever they are going to fumigate. We ask you to do the same.

Remember Fire PREVENTION also means prevention of PAIN, Death and Loss of Money.

No Sport For Ducks

Not only are the ducks at Greenbelt Lake having a hard winter of it as far as food supply is concerned, but it seems that some children are having "sport" letting dogs loose at them. A local resident believes this is a heartless pastime and urges more decent treatment for our animal population. We hope her call will be heeded, and that our youngsters will not let their dogs run free at the lake.

Golden Triangle Hearing Postponed Again

The Circuit Court hearing on the Golden Triangle zoning appeal filed by the city has been postponed once again - this time to the third or fourth week of March. The hearing had originally been scheduled for Feb. 3, but ran into the big blizzard, and was rescheduled for Feb. 21.

Please, Feed the Ducks

What could be nicer than the first warm rays of the sun each spring when thoughts turn to taking the children out for a picnic at the lake? How nice it is to sit at one of the picnic tables or lounge lazily on a blanket while the children run down to the edge of the lake and, with shouts of joy, feed the ducks.

Left-over scraps of bread, perhaps a loaf just bought or a box of left-over cereal that's been sitting on a shelf a little too long; these are the things that will send the ducks in the direction of the tiny hands that are stretched out. Friendly little ducks, with their loud quacks, quickly encircle the givers.

But how sad it would be if this joy that we can see in the eyes of our youngsters as they accomplish this feat of feeding ducks has to become a thing of the past. It will, you know, if they are neglected through the hard, cold, snowy months. Food is scarce for them at this time of year and it's up to human hearts and hands to keep them alive and quacking.

End-of-Year Title Rush To Beat New Auto Law

Almost 5,000 more automobile titles were issued by the Maryland Department of Motor Vehicles during the last four days of December, 1965, than in a similar period in 1964. The increase of more than 60% was attributed to a last minute rush by car owners to register and title their vehicles before Jan. 1, when the Maryland Inspection Law went into effect.

The new law requires that a certificate of inspection be presented with every application for title and license tags. The certificates can be obtained at authorized inspection stations licensed by the State Police.

CLOVERBUDS 4-H NEWS

by Linda Simonson

The 4-H'ers of the Greenbelt Cloverbuds 4-H Club and their families participated in a chaotic but enjoyable Parent's Night, Jan. 28. A pot-luck supper prepared by the members for their families started off the program. Group singing, some history and statistics about our club by our leader, Mrs. Simonson and skits written and performed by the 4-H'ers; cartoons drawn by Mr. Noel, and finally a circle game version of follow-the-leader completed the program.

Linda Simonson was Mistress of Ceremonies. Song leader was Laura Simonson. Participating in the skits were Patty Geiger, Carmen Torres, Debbie Hibbs, Kathy Geiger, Jill Bergemann, Diane Pranges, Ellen Hanyok, Mimi Noel, Maureen Geiger, and Laura Simonson. Cynthia Whittaker played three classical favorites on her accordion. It was deemed a success by the fifty members and guests.

The Greenbelt Cloverbuds saw the end of 1965 with a grand finale - a Christmas-Chanukkah party and a cookie-making session. The cookies were taken to the Washington U.S.O. The party included games, refreshments, and an authentic pinata, created by Mr. Torres, father of one of the Cloverbuds, Carmen.

Recently, several members have given demonstrations at our meeting. Jenny Simonson casting on from her knitting project, as did her sister Linda purling. Ellen Hanyok's peach cobbler from her dinner unit made a hit, and Mary Virginia Haker made an attractive terrarium from local greenery.

by Nancy Daffron

Rhapsody Royale, the biggest dance of the school year at Greenbelt Junior High School, was held on Friday, Feb. 11. Featured were the Oxford Reformers, a band from the Belair-Bowie area. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the king and queen who were elected from the ninth grade to reign over the school.

Wrestling is a new sport added this year. Our team will compete in matches against other junior high schools in the area.

The student council recently raised over $580.00. The picture of the presentation appeared in the Washington Star.

Another important event, the fourteenth annual science fair, took place Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 19 and 20. Names of winners will be announced in next week's paper.

Greenbelt students are proud of Miss Anna Monaghan, a special education teacher, who received a certificate for her superior contribution and wholehearted dedication by the National Association of Special Class Teachers and Parents of Handicapped Children.

Our student council had been very busy with the Evergreen Palace Dance and the Children's Hospital Fund. Student council members' pictures were in the Washington Star as they presented the check for $525 to the hospital.
