Only Six Candidates File For GHI Board Position

An unusually small number of candidates — six — will compete for the four openings on the board of directors at the Greenbelt Homes, Inc. (GHI) annual election on Wednesday and Thursday, May 15 and 16. Balloting will begin shortly after 8 p.m. at the Wednesday night meeting at the Greenbelt Theatre and continue the next day from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. in the Twin Pines office at the Center.

Competing in the race are three incumbents — Nat Shinderman, Steve Polaschik, and Katherine Keene — and three other announced hopefuls: Norman B. Charles, Douglas T. Hawes, and James (Jim) Smith (4-H Southway). The latter is not to be confused with James Smith of 19-F Ridge, who is presently on the board.

Biographies of the candidates appear on an inside page of this issue. All openings are for two-year terms.

Also to be elected is a 3-member audit committee for 1-year terms. The latest candidates for this committee are Mrs. Roberta S. Lange, 6-X Plateau Pl.; John I. Leslie, 56-E Crescent Rd.; and Janet M. James, 1-D Plateau Pl., Incumbent Thomas White previously announced his candidacy.

A nominations and elections committee consisting of 5 members will be elected for a 1-year term through nominations from the floor at the Wednesday night meeting.

Voting for candidates is by secret ballot, with each member asked to vote for as many choices as there are vacancies. The candidates getting the highest number of votes are declared winners. Unlike city elections, no previous registration is needed to vote. Membership in the housing co-op (GHI) entitles a member to vote. Each family is entitled to only one ballot and vote.

By-law changes

In addition to the elections, the membership will have before it by-law changes. The amendments for the most part are intended to bring the by-laws into conformity with corporation policies and practices that have developed over the years and to clarify provisions that have produced confusion.

Among the major changes are: (1) clarification as to the circumstances under which the GHI board of directors will go into executive session; (2) clarification of powers of GHI board; (3) clarification of regulations dealing with financial matters; (4) retitling of officers; (5) clarification as to when a newly-elected nominations and elections committee assumes office; and (6) revision of amounts authorized to be deposited with insured financial institutions — from $10,000 to $20,000.

Of more substantive nature are by-law proposals that (1) the board be allowed to enter into new fields of business enterprise, but only when specifically authorized by the membership at a membership meeting; and (2) the corporation be permitted to assess members for violation of parking regulations, not to exceed $15.

A two-thirds vote of the membership present is required for ap-

Closing of Roadway

The city council will consider at its next regular meeting on May 20 the closing of the road behind the Municipal Building. This is the road that connects the center school with the West parking lot. City Manager James K. Giese has recommended this action because of accidents that occurred as a result of police cars backing out of parking spaces at the Municipal Building into cars which cut through the roadway. Closing the road will also create a total of six additional parking spaces.

proval of by-law changes.

Attendance of five percent of the membership or about 75 persons is required for the conduct of official business. Four door prizes of $25 each will be awarded at the Wednesday evening meeting. Members must be present to be eligible.

$785,525 CITY BUDGET PRESENTED; $500,000 BOND ISSUE PROPOSED

by Al Skolnik

A preview of the 1968-69 municipal budget, presented to city council on Monday, May 6, by city manager James Giese, revealed no planned increase in the real estate tax rate of $0.87 per $100 of assessed valuation. However, an increase of 50 cents per month in refuse collection charges is being proposed. Total expenditures of $785,525 are being anticipated, an increase of more than $90,000 over the current fiscal year.

The highlight of the budget is a proposal that a bond issue in the amount of $500,000 be authorized to finance a number of major capital projects, including an addition to the Youth Center, new tennis courts, purchase of additional parkland, parkland development, and major street construction projects.

The bond issue would require approval of the voters at a referendum. "By undertaking these projects now," Giese said, "we will be able to meet better the future needs of our growing city and enjoy the benefits now." He stated that by issuing bonds, the city will insure that future residents will share in paying the costs. He pointed out further that the project can be built at present-day lower costs, assuming further inflation.

Since it would be several years before all these projects could be implemented, the bonds would be issued only as required. The effect on the tax rate for any single year would thus be minimal.

It is assumed that the $500,000 bond issue would be supplemented by $193,000 from Federal aid in the form of open space funds and urban secondary road funds.

Fund Distribution

The distribution of the funds would be for the following major projects:

(1) Reconstruction of Southway. Between the Baltimore-Washington Parkway exit and Ridge, it is proposed that Southway be constructed as a four-lane divided boulevard with a grassy, tree-planted median strip. Between Ridge and Crescent, it is proposed to widen the street slightly but maintain only the present two travel lanes.

(2) Springhill Lake Streets. City assistance may be needed in the construction of an access road to replace Edmonston Road, either by extending Springhill Lane through the rear of Board of Education property or by extending Breeze-wood Drive to Kenilworth Ave. City funds would also be used to

SHL Republican Club

Morris, legislative aide to Senator Pearson of Nebraska and President of the Prince Georges Young Republican Club. For further information call Mike Gendell at 474-7733.

Council Seeks Safeguards On Springhill Lake Motel

by Al Skolnik

A meeting has been called by city council for this Monday to see if an accord can be reached on how to guarantee the use of some 6 acres in Springhill Lake North for construction of a motel-convention center with shopping arcade, but excluding a gasoline station. Invited to the meeting were representatives of Springhill Lake management, the city solicitor, and members of the city's Advisory Planning Board.

The six acres lying between the State Roads property and the city cemetery on Kenilworth Ave. have been the subject of a rezoning petition to C-2 (General Commercial) by the Springhill Lake management, which indicated plans for a motel and gasoline station.

The council at last Monday's meeting expressed approval of the motel complex, but reiterated its concern that the C-2 zoning would permit all types of commercial operations, not all of which would be desirable. The council is seeking a way of restricting the development of this acreage to the type of construction promised by the owners of the property.

Harold Kramer, representing the Springhill Lake management, stated that the city would be protected since the gasoline station and other uses considered undesirable by the city could not be constructed without first obtaining a special exception.

The council, however, expressed its preference for some kind of conditional zoning that would directly commit the developer to the type of construction shown in his plans.

Mayor Edgar Smith said that while "we have had excellent relations with the present Springhill Lake management, the property might conceivably change hands and we want to have safeguards."

Petitions

The council received a variety of petitions and requests dealing with recreational matters. A group of boatowners, led by George Loutsch, 13 Maplewood, submitted petitions requesting council to rescind the recently-adopted annual fee of $3 for a boat permit. Their objections centered on the annual fee as opposed to a one-time registration fee of $1, and its amount which they felt was discriminatory.

City manager James Giese and the Park and Recreation Advisory Board favored an annual permit requirement so that the city could have an up-to-date record of boat permits. The annual fee was set at $3 so as to cover administrative costs.

A motion to switch from an annual fee to a one-time registration fee paid just once was defeated 3-2, with Smith and councilman Francis White in the minority.

Tennis Courts

A group of tennis players submitted petitions requesting renovation and resurfacing of existing tennis courts and construction of additional ones. Acknowledging that the present courts are in deplorable condition, Giese said that the 1968/69 budget does not include funds for tennis courts from current income. However, the budget calls for a bond issue which would include $70,000 for 12 new tennis courts.

Discussion followed as to whether the tennis courts should be centrally located at Braden Field or located in several areas. It was decided to take the matter up with the budget, when an overall plan for the development of the lake-park area will be considered.

The Lakeside Citizens Association requested that the land at the foot of Olivewood Court abutting the lake be developed for recreational purposes and not left as open play area, with first priority given to combination tennis and basketball court. George Beauchamp, president of the Association, also requested installation of physical fitness equipment and a set of large swings for age 10-14 youngsters. The council directed management to provide the latter two items.

Parkland

The Boxwood Civic Association requested that the city consider acquisition of parcels 7 and 8 (the land abutting the Crescent Road entrance to the city) for park recreational usage. Merle Scheibel, president of the Association, said that Boxwood Village lacks neighborhood playground areas and that the acquisition would enhance the beauty of the entrance. The matter was referred to management and the city's advisory boards.

Bicycle Paths

In other recreational matters, council authorized a bicycle rental concession to SCH corporation at the Lake for 12 bikes, and management was directed to review the possibility of resurfacing pathways. Concern was expressed from the floor that action of council would attract out-of-towners and create congestion.

Council received a report from the Park and Recreation Advisory Board on the need of Greenbelt's youth for game room facilities. The Greenbelt Youth Council had pointed out that the youth had to go out of town to participate in such activities as billiards, bumper pool, (See COUNCIL, p. 2, col. 4)

Puzzling Actions

(The following letter was also sent to the City of Greenbelt.)

I am bothered by this sequence of events, which seems to occur every time construction is planned against the wishes of Greenbelt:

1. Planning is completed,
2. Building permits are obtained,
3. Bulldozers move in, ground clearing is completed, and often,
4. Construction of the undesired building has begun, before
5. An injunction is finally sought.

So far I have seen this tardiness work against the wishes of the citizens of Greenbelt in the cases of the Golden Triangle, the Charlestowne North highrise, University Square Apartments, and the present construction in Charlestowne Village. I am sure that more cases exist in which the order of the above sequence has cost other acres of Greenbelt's once beautiful green belt.

Can you tell me why? Why is an objection raised only after the primary damage is done, and the trees are gone? Why seek injunction only after every legal advantage has been granted to the developer? Why sue, when even if successful you will only have left another ugly scar of bare clay to add to the silt so rapidly destroying our lake? Surely the woods which once stood, but perhaps even a shopping center would look better than the eyesore ragweed patch which has been "Goldenrod" triangle for the past several years. Why is there no law to prevent the destruction of the desirable ground cover on such property until all legal questions have been settled? Consideration of the silt pollution produced by such denuded property should be a convincing argument for such a law. And why, when permit to build in Charlestowne Village was obtained on April 18, was a temporary injunction not obtained on April 19, when there was still something worth saving?

Younger Generation

Seven high school students in our neighbor county to the west have recently given us an encouraging glimpse of the younger generation at its best. Sitting in the seats of the Montgomery County Council on the County's annual Student Government Day and pointing to the suburbs' moral obligation to help overcome the problems of the District of Columbia in every possible way, problems which, they said, the suburbs have helped create, these young people unanimously passed a resolution urging the County to find jobs and to give job training to Washington negroes, to open County recreational facilities to deprived children from Washington, to create a program of low-income housing open to Washington residents as well as County residents and to exchange students between schools in Washington and the County. The constructive and responsible spirit expressed by these young people does them great credit.

Spring Song

Little fellow, nearing eight,
Where could you be? — it's getting late;

Did you spot a robin's nest
Or a beehive, now at rest?
Are you fishing in the lake?
Or catching frogs, a-home to take?
Ah, here you come, hands clutching tight
A bunch of violets, for my delight!

Basically Good

Since the race issue is so important to our country and to each of us individually, I'd like to express some thoughts on the subject. First, let me state that I think progress in this situation hinges on two important factors. One, when violence, looting, or burning occur, our law enforcers must be allowed to use whatever force is necessary to bring the affair to an end. The law violators must be arrested, brought to justice, and punished accordingly. A free society cannot survive without law and order. Two, we must try to create, in the short time left to us, conditions in which none of our citizens, black or white, has to suffer human degradation because of his color or station in life.

Each of us can do a great deal to bring these conditions about. We can start by showing just simple human decency to those we encounter. We can make sure that our children are taught that character, and not color or status, is a most important factor. More important, especially for those with religious beliefs, we can teach them that each human person, by his very nature, has an infinite worth which is completely independent of his physical or mental makeup.

I'm reminded of Pope John the 23rd of a few years ago. It seemed there was a continuous stream of Protestants, Jews, and others coming to see this great man. These distinguished guests were certainly not attracted by the Pope's physical attributes. Pope John often joked about his own homeliness. His mental prowess was, as he admitted, quite limited. Could it have been that these great men took long journeys to visit for a few minutes with John because here was a man who really cared about people and with whom they felt completely comfortable? To him Jew, Protestant, Negro or White all looked the same. He was somehow able to penetrate through the irrelevant surface characteristics to the real human person. I wonder if this thing that he had is what's really needed to turn our country right side up.

I think we can change things because people are basically good. I think we can prove to those of the commune system that free men can control events. It will be difficult for many of us because someone in the course of our lives ingrained in us feelings toward certain people that we can neither explain nor understand. But so is any operation painful. For those unable, for various reasons, to make the change, they can at least give moral support to those trying to do, what in conscience they must, to better things.

Tour of GHI Homes

On Sunday, May 26 between 1 and 4 pm. there will be a tour of GHI homes that have been remodeled or to which there have been additions. This will be an excellent opportunity to pick up new ideas if you are thinking of either remodeling or adding to your home.

A list of the homes to be visited can be picked up at the GHI Board Room, Hamilton Place on May 26 between 1 and 2:30 p.m. Any member interested in showing his home should call 474-5566 or 474-9226 to have his home added to the list

To the Voters of Maryland

On May 14th Maryland's voters have the opportunity — not of a lifetime but a century — to ratify a new State Constitution.

The proposed Constitution is a clear, concise statement of principle, designed to direct a modern state government and protect citizens' rights.

Our new Constitution strengthens and streamlines all branches of State Government. It assures heightened efficiency and economy in the Executive Branch, increased effectiveness and responsibility in the Legislative Branch, and assures professionalism throughout the Judicial Branch of State Government.

Maryland has received national attention and acclaim for the startling success of its constitutional reform. Marylanders may take pride in each step of this achievement.

The final and ultimate step comes on May 14. I urge you to know and vote FOR our new Constitution.

Spiro T. Agnew

Civil Rights and Violence

There is a right and wrong way to change the laws, namely, the courts. Civil disobedience has been extolled by its champions as a form of expression that cannot morally or legally be interfered with even though it incites to violence, produces riots and results in the loss of millions of dollars worth of property and lives lost.

There is a need today for a differentiation between a moral conviction that a law ought to be amended or repealed and a deliberate attempt to encourage an individual to violate any law he doesn't like.

Nothing in the Constitution says freedom of speech means the right to incite persons to destroy lives or property.

Those that bring out our history of violence during our war for independence in comparison with what is going on today, I would ask the question: we also had a history of slavery, does this make slavery OK too?

I believe the responsible people of both races are fed up to here with the disorders and violence that go on in the name of civil rights.

Slowly but surely the rights of all are being undermined today and if the starry-eyed "liberals" would get their heads out of the sand they would see this for themselves.

Golden Agers

by Allen D. Morrison

A group of 40 congenial members visited the National Arboretum Tuesday, April 30. A bus carried the members around the 415 acre tract while a guide described the various trees and shrubs situated there. The plants were representative of many countries throughout the world. Seventeen thousand azaleas were also blooming on the grounds, some varieties were four feet high and six feet wide. If you have not made this trip, please consider it in the near future. There is no need to travel hundreds of miles to see beautiful flowers and trees; they are right here in our neighborhood!

On the return trip a stop was made at the Adelphi recreation grounds. Lunch was served, a bonfire built, music provided by Mr. Mitchell and others, and dancing enjoyed by all.

The Club welcomes four new members: Ann McIlroy, 69-C Ridge; Mr. and Mrs. David Zarovsky, 69-F Ridge; and Elizabeth Day, one of the first residents of Greenbelt, who now resides at 4103 30th Street, Mount Rainier, Md.

Mrs. Stepura dropped into the Club's business office and left 100 lbs. of magazines and the Rev. Musser D. White delighted the Club with a gift of 200 lbs. of magazines. The Club appreciates all these gifts.

Since the warm weather has arrived, attendance at the weekly meetings has been averaging 70 or better. Those attending the festival at Northwestern High School must purchase their luncheon tickets from Mrs. Vorce before May 20th. Come down and visit the Club any Wednesday from 1 to 3:30 p.m. at the Recreation Building.

CITY COUNCIL CON'T

pin ball machines, and bowling PRAB recommended that the city council approve the leasing of the basement of Co-op Supermarket for a game-room facility. It also suggested that the city provide transportation on an interim basis to nearby game-type establishments. Council asked management to get a cost estimate.

Fire House Addition

The Greenbelt Volunteer Fire Department and Rescue Squad requested the city's approval of the department's plan to proceed with the planning for an addition to the present firehouse to be built at the expense of the fire department. The addition would include a multi-purpose room and mechanical room. In addition, the department requested that the city undertake improvement programs involving additional parking space, a second driveway, and air conditioning for the training room and lounge. These will be considered along with the 1968/69 budget.

Other Matters

Council decided to add "alternate 3" to the new Municipal Service Building. Alternate 3 relates to the construction of a prefabricated loft and would cost $2,800. Councilman White opposed... Introduced for first reading was a proposal to restrict use of present city landfill to city vehicles. This was done in order to preserve the use of the landfill for as long as possible, since the city is prohibited by State law from open burning... City solicitor has advised council that a bill of complaint requesting the circuit court to issue an injunction prohibiting additional construction at Charlestowne Village will be filed this week... City has received a request from Berwyn Heights to support their opposition to a commercial zoning petition for the Jaeger tract. Land is presently zoned for high-rise apartments... Visiting the council meeting were students of Sister Gertrude's eighth grade class at St Hugh's.

Sport for Girls

As Junior Citizens of Greenbelt, we are going through our most active years of participating in the recreation sport of tennis. We feel there is a need for more tennis courts, largely due to the fact that there is an increased number of people playing in this particular sport. For once we have found one sport that interests girls. Most of the other recreational facilities are boy oriented. Please help.

City Notes

In fulfillment of an agreement made last year between the city and the owners of property at 40 and 42 Lakeside, the Public Works Dept. erected a rustic rail fence between the rear of those lots and the pathway around the lake. Because the city's right-of-way at that location was too low and boggy to support the necessary access driveway for the city's maintenance vehicles, the two lot owners agreed to allow the city a right-of-way on their own land. In exchange, the city agreed to build the aforementioned rail fence.

Work on the Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial on Crescent Rd. is now almost complete. All construction has been finished and only the job of sandblasting the stone work remains to be done. This will be the first sandblasting to be undertaken by the city crew. They will use the city's own machine, now in the process of being acquired.

A 6-inch drain pipe is being installed to carry run-off from the swimming pool deck and adjacent sidewalk past the handball court to the creek beside Braden Field. Previously the overflow was carried through an open drain.

The city crew spent many hours cleaning up broken branches and trees from public parks after the severe wind and rain storm Tuesday afternoon, April 30. GHI also reported many calls for similar clean-up in residential properties. The Public Works Dept. placed a large temporary patch on a chuck-hole in the pavement at Eastway and Crescent.

The new city crew in charge of parks has been seeding grass behind new curbing throughout the city, pruning trees and shrubs, and cutting grass.

Contractors for Charles Burton Builders were asked to remove a chemical toilet from the city's right-of-way on Lakecrest at its intersection with Lakeside.

Warning on Pits

The Prince Georges County Commissioners issued a special warning to all parents to be especially alert to the dangers of youngsters playing in and around any open pits or excavations, and particularly gravel pits in the area during this period of spring rains.

A report issued by the U. S. Geological Survey states that much of Prince George County rests on a slippery footing of Patapsco clay which is prone to landslides and cave-ins. When rained upon, the slippery clays become unable to support the over-lying soils.

The Commissioners added that builders and excavators should be particularly careful in shoring excavation and trench walls.

Art Show in Hyattsville

Works of prominent area artists will be on display in a two-day Art Show to be held in the Hyattsville Armory May 25 and 26 under auspices of the Family Service of Prince George's County.

Admission to the show will be free.

Both amateur and professional artists are invited to exhibit their works at the show and should call 927-3323 or 864-6893 to make arrangements.

Junior Highlights

by Pat Rexon

Getting an education and having fun at the same time is one trick Greenbelt Junior High's School sponsored trips seem to have mastered.

This year the ninth grade trip to New York City is scheduled for the weekend of May 25 and 26. Two bus loads of ninth graders will pull out of the school yard at 6 a.m. Saturday morning. Students will spend their next 42 hours touring Rockefeller Center, the United Nations, and the Empire State Building, attending a show and movie at Radio City Music Hall, cruising around Manhattan Island, and resting up at the Sheraton-Atlantic Hotel. Students will return to the school Sunday at 12 midnight.

Fifty ninth-grade English students will be attending Shakespeare's play, Much Ado About Nothing, at the Olney Theater, Thursday, May 9 from 1-5 p.m.

A notice from the Prince Georges Board of Education cancelled all trips into Washington, D.C. for the rest of the semester.

Greenbelt publications have done it again! The Maryland State Press Association held its convention in Baltimore. The 1967 Pylon took its second first place and is ranked fifth among the state's top senior high year books. The Bear News collected several awards also. In the junior high competition, the writing team placed second. Individual winners were Sue Kanen with a first in cartooning, Marie Pinches with a second in news writing, and Sue Larue with a second in sports.

Competing in the junior-senior high division, Mike Garin, an eighth grader, placed first in essay writing.

The students who received straight A's for the third marking period were Nancy Chotiner, Karen White, Sarah Grambs, Heidi Meyers, Pat Rexon, Pam Williams, Teresa Schroeder, Doug Sampson, Irma Major and Linda Sheppard.

Your First Chance in 100 Years To Modernize Maryland's Government

YOUR VOTE IS NEEDED —

Previous demands for constitutional revision, although approved by overwhelming state-wide referendum, had been simply ignored by the powers that ran the State on the premise that the total votes represented a minority of the electorate. Today Maryland has finally come forth, for the first time in a century, with a draft of a modern constitution, reflecting today's scene, and recognizing the many lessons we've learned over the past hundred years in making a democratic government more effective.

In spite of this long-awaited opportunity to up-date our State government, special interest groups throughout the State, particularly the holders of minor elective offices protected by the old constitution, are organizing opposition to the proposed constitution. Generally, these groups are comprised of effective political professionals. Your vote - FOR adoption of the new Constitution - is URGENT to assure that these special interest groups will not deny YOU, and the State of Maryland, a charter that has been recognized as a model for the other forty-nine states.

The Proposed Constitution is endorsed by the following Organizations:

- Greenbelt City Council
- Greenbelt Democratic Club
- Greenbelt Republicans for the Constitution

YOU WILL BENEFIT —

- Fair apportionment gives you increased representation from Prince George's County in the Maryland Legislature.
- Home Rule, required for all counties, will bring local government closer to you, permitting the Legislature to concentrate on State-wide matters.
- A Declaration of Rights extends your safeguards under the Federal Constitution (such as double jeopardy) to State cases as well.
- Reduced age and residency requirements extends the vote to more of our citizens.
- A streamlined Executive Department would reduce the 240 administrative boards, agencies, and departments to 20 principal departments.
- A more representative Legislature would be elected from single member districts.
- A modern constitution should save you tax money in more efficient governmental operation.

All this is not yours for the asking — You must VOTE FOR the proposed constitution to enjoy the above benefits.

Greenbelt Homes faces a wide variety of short-range and long-range problems. A few units have already deteriorated to the point where their maintenance costs are excessive. Plans should be developed and implemented for replacement of these units without placing a financial burden on the other members. Also, this long-range planning should not cause the daily problems to be postponed. Sue Lange is very interested in GHI and its problems, partly due to her husband's and her memberships on various GHI committees including his term as Chairman of the Audit Committee. ## Help Needed?

Do you need help? May we assist you? A program of emergency assistance with food, clothing, transportation, furniture, and personal service was recently organized in Prince Georges County.

Included under the heading of personal services are such things as meal preparation or baby-sitting in urgent situations where the parents aren't available, minor home repairs, etc.

If you need help, call 779-2223. A volunteer from the group, which is called "Help by Phone" will return your call and will try to fill your needs. Since the program is designed specifically for emergency situations, problems requiring long-term assistance can't be handled in most cases. It is not our aim to compete with any existing public or private agency, but rather to try to supplement those services already existing.

Nine churches from the College Park, Greenbelt, Lanham areas have cooperated in organizing the "Help by Phone" group, but volunteers as individuals, or additional churches would be welcomed gleefully. If you would consider being a volunteer, or if you wish information about the group, call Mrs. Joyce Bascom, 336-1577.

Poor People's Campaign Reception Center Here

It has recently been announced that Greenbelt Community Church and St. Hugh's Roman Catholic Church will be the sites for a reception center for the Poor People's Campaign. The Rev. Larry A. Brantley (St. Paul United Church of Christ, Lanham), coordinator for the local hospitality centers, revealed that the caravan coming from Boston, Philadelphia, and Baltimore would arrive here May 15-17.

The reception sites will be primarily orientation and registration centers, with the campaigners also being fed before entrance into the "New City." The Rev. Brantley estimates that each group arriving will be at the reception center for about three hours and will then head directly to their destination, which the Southern Christian Leadership Conference has not yet announced.

In addition to the planning for the reception center now being done by members of the congregation of the two churches, the city has conferred with county officials concerning the handling of any possible situation which might occur. No incidents are expected beyond the capacity of the city police department to deal with.

"IF YOU HURRY, DEAR... WE CAN STILL MAKE THE NEWS-REVIEW BALL!"

Revolutionary War Day At Smallwood State Park

Sunday afternoon, May 12, will be marked as Revolutionary War Day in the Southern counties of Maryland. The main celebration will be held at Smallwood State Park in Charles County, featuring music and musketry of the revolutionary period and many other shows.

"Smallwood's Retreat"

Back in 1776, General William Smallwood was first commissioned as colonel of the First Maryland Regiment. Smallwood's men soon gained a reputation for "the hottest blood in the Union", and historians credit their stand at the Battle of Long Island as saving the entire American Army.

After the war, Smallwood built "Smallwood's Retreat", a small but handsome brick building overlooking Mattawoman creek near the Potomac river. The building has been completely restored by the Smallwood Foundation, a citizens' committee, and the State of Maryland has acquired 300 acres of the surrounding land for use as a park. The building will be open to visitors during the celebrations, which will last from 1 to 6 p.m.

Just as "Smallwood's Retreat" has been preserved, the First Maryland Regiment is still with us, even though slightly under strength. Composed of over 50 dedicated history buffs and college students, the regiment will demonstrate (beginning at 2 p.m.) Baron Von Steuben's precision drill and flintlock musketry, while the regimental Fife and Drum Corps will play authentic tunes of the revolutionary war.

Other Events

Also scheduled for the afternoon is the performance of a 1780 period comedy "The Contrast" by the Port Tobacco Players, beginning at 3:15 p.m. The Piegari Puppets, who appeared in Greenbelt several months ago, will give 5 performances, and other exhibitions, shows, and rides are also scheduled.

To reach Smallwood State Park, take the Beltway (or the Baltimore Parkway and Anacostia Freeway) to Exit 37 (Indian Head Highway - Rte. 210) and continue for 19 miles south on Rte. 210. Turn left on Rte. 225, go one mile, then turn right on Rte. 224. Follow Revolutionary War Day signs to Smallwood State Park (approx. 6 miles).

BARGE TRIPS ON C&O CANAL

Mule-drawn barge trips along the Georgetown sector of the C&O Canal are again in full swing after repairs along the canal canceled their operation in 1967.

Superintendent Floyd B. Taylor of the National Park Service said the trips this year have been scheduled at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. each Saturday and Sunday in May. From June until Labor Day trips will be scheduled at 9 a.m., noon and 3 p.m. each Saturday, Sunday and holiday, with a special four-hour trip at 6:30 p.m. every Wednesday. After Labor Day and through the end of October, the trips will resume their May schedule.

The two-and-a-half hour trip on weekends originates at the landing at Lock 3, south of 30th and M

Streets NW in Georgetown.

The 90-passenger barge, the Canal Clipper, is a replica of the cargo boats towed by mules during the late 1800's. A National Park Service historian accompanies passengers on each trip and narrates the story of the 132-year-old canal.

Reservations for the trips may be made through Government Services Inc., 1135 21st Street NW, Washington, or Tickets may be purchased at the barge landing at the time of the trip. Tickets for the weekend trips are $1.50 for adults and 90 cents for children under 12.

Other C&O Canal barge trips are also available weekends at Great Falls, Md. These trips operate hourly from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. each Saturday and Sunday.

The barge trips are operated for National Park Service by Government Services Inc. For further information about the trips, telephone GSI at FE 7-8080.
