New Sports Center Will Offer Archery, Bowling, Billiards

by Joan Okin

On or around August 15, a new activity will be opened for Greenbelters — the Greenbelt Sports Center. Located beneath the Co-op in the old bowling alley, which is now being remodeled, the center will feature six ten pin bowling lanes, three billiard tables, several pin-ball machines, a coin-operated snack center, and a sport new to this area—ten lanes of archery. There will also be an archery pro shop.

The snack center will be serviced daily by Winnie's Chuck Wagon Caterers and will provide hot and cold drinks, sandwiches, a sandwich oven, pastry, and candy. The fully equipped pro shop will have rental equipment for all ages and will help form leagues and teams for bowling and archery.

Instructions will be given in archery and in use of the lanes, which are fully automatic. Various buttons are pressed to place the target in three different positions and to bring the target to the archer for removal of arrows. Safety is assured as no one will need to go onto the lanes.

From 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. Sunday through Thursday, and until 12 p.m. Friday and Saturday, the center will be open to all age groups. The nature of the sports offered, however, may attract older teens and adults more than children. Prices will be lower during the day than during the evening.

The center is sponsored by a corporation of local people, including Lt. Col. John H. Jones, Robert Wilhide, and Mrs. Helen Cratty, who are major stockholders.

New Bus Routes Asked

Two new circumferential bus routes may be initiated in Prince Georges County by WMA Transit. This information was revealed by representatives of the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Commission recently. The WMATC recommendation was in the form of a "show cause" order, which means that WMA Transit must respond within a reasonable period either by initiating the service or some reasonable modification thereof, or otherwise demonstrating why it should not be required to operate the service proposed.

The additional routing ordered by WMATC would provide circumferential routes serving Eastover Shopping Center, Cafritz Hospital, Penn Mar Shopping Center, Seat Pleasant, Prince George's County Hospital, Capital Plaza Shopping Center, Beltway Plaza Shopping Center, and Prince George's Community College.

The Police Blotter

Last Wednesday Officer Hall sustained injuries to both knees and his left shoulder while investigating the case of a female driver, under the influence of alcohol, whose car was stuck in the mud behind the fire house. She had evidently become lost. The officer asked the woman to turn off her motor. Instead, she accelerated; the car spun, striking the officer, and ended up in the woods. She was immediately arrested. The case will be heard in the courts. Officer Hall was treated at the medical center, and was assigned light duty by the Chief.

The police had their first shooting case in July. Investigation determined that the person was shooting at a dog with a B.B. gun but did not strike the animal. It was also learned that the owner of the dog had been warned against allowing the animal to run loose in his neighbor's yard. Both parties were advised of the ordinances on B.B. guns and dogs not on leashes. Neither party decided to press charges.

Chief Lane reported that during the hot spells there has been a sharp rise in fights, particularly the domestic variety. It seems that the hot weather makes people more irritable than usual.

Two officers helped to register bicycles and judge the bicycle contest at Springhill Lake's Bicycle Rodeo July 13.

City Notes

Men from the Public Works Dept. worked four days last week on relocating a neighborhood playground at 44 Ct. Ridge. Playground equipment was moved from a wooded area, where there was no ground cover and some hazard from stumps and woodland debris, to a sunny, grassy location. Since both locations are on GHI property, GHI and the city in a joint meeting last spring worked out approval of the move. All equipment was newly painted after installation, a bunny on a spring was added, and the whole was enclosed by a chain link fence.

The city crew also prepared the second fill area below the dam for grass seeding. The area was graded, limed and fertilized, but grass will not be sown until cooler weather. They also painted line markings for parking spaces at the Center and, at the request of the Fire Dept., painted streets and curbs before fire hydrants so that hydrants can be more quickly located.

The Parks crew eradicated poison ivy and weeds in various locations and pruned trees along Crescent and Ridge that were obstructing vision for drivers or interfering with car parking.

A private contractor, using a special machine, removed stumps from parks, playgrounds, and the Center shopping area.

Although one garbage truck was out of service for repair last week, the trash collection crew was able to keep almost up to schedule by substituting an open body truck.

The city will be advertising for bids this week in several categories—the bids to be opened at the first city council meeting in August. Among the items sought are a new refuse truck, a brush chipper for the Parks crew, and a hard top utility vehicle. The city is also requesting bids for its annual insurance coverage and for construction work—curbs and gutters and paving of shoulders for parking.

The largest crowd of the summer — estimated at over 300 people enjoyed last week's concert at the lake when the U.S. Army Field Band performed. Fine weather also encouraged a good turn-out for the children's program on Sunday.

LITTLE LEAGUERS

by Sterling Tropp & Roger Evans
The baseball season has come to an exciting close with the Tigers taking the National League Pennant and the Cubs taking the American League pennant.

The World Series will start Saturday at 2 o'clock at McDonald Field with a game Sunday at 2 o'clock and one again Monday, if needed, at 6 o'clock. There will be hot dogs and pepsies sold at the games.

The Little League has entered a team consisting of 18 all-star players, ages 11 and 12, in a tournament at Andrews Air Force Base, August 3-11 with one game elimination and the winning team receiving trophies.

MUSICAL SONGFEST

Folk music and sing-along medleys accompanied by guitars and string bass will be presented by the Summer Choral Workshop Singers of Bladensburg Junior High School at the Hyattsville branch of Prince Georges County Memorial Library, July 31 at 8 p.m. Songs from "The Sound of Music," "West Side Story," and "A Taste of Honey" will be featured on the July 31 program. There is no charge and the public is welcome.

Summary Judgement Is Sought On Charlestowne Tract Suit

The Circuit Court hearings on the city's cases involving the covenant and agreement on the Charlestowne tract, scheduled for July 30 to August 2, have been postponed until mid-September. According to city officials, the latest development in the suit seeking to enjoin construction of 21 additional apartment units on Charlestowne Village is a July 15 motion by the defendants (Charles and Fleur Bresler, Charles Burton Builders, and Burton Reiner) for a summary judgement dismissing the case.

In asking for dismissal, defendants allege that the covenant is only enforceable against the "instant owner of the land" and that the city did not file its complaint within 30 days of learning of the building permits for the 21 units. The latter were issued on April 18, 1968. Defendants state that the property on which the 21 units are being constructed was conveyed to Stones, Inc., a D. C. Corporation, by deed dated April 19, 1968. The city's original bill of complaint filed on May 7 named as defendants the Breslers who were the owners designated on the permits. The city says that it did not learn of the transfer of property until May 29 when the case came up for hearing at Upper Marlboro. The city then filed an amended complaint including Stones, Inc. as defendants on June 13, 1968.

Dismissal is also requested on the ground that the city has already waived the covenants "by permitting the construction of 144 units on 11.3082 acres in Parcel A — more than 12 units per acre — without objection." The original covenant signed by the Breslers in April 1962 called for limiting the number of dwelling units to an average of 7 per acre for the entire 50-acre Charlestowne tract.

Recreation Review

Teen Club Chatter

The "Indigo Griffens" will perform at the Teen Club Splash Party on Friday, July 26 from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. at the Municipal Pool.

Lake Park Concert Series

On Sunday, July 28, at 7:30 p.m., the Rockville Symphonic Concert Band will be performing at the Lake. On Thursday, August 1, the High Point Concert Band will entertain at the Lake at 7:30 p.m. Little League All-Star Tournament

Watch for more information concerning the Little League All-Star Tournament to be held at Andrews Air Force Base; call Mr. Ray Leber for details.

Junior Tennis Tournament

Phil McDonald took the 18-and-Under Boys title by defeating Earnie Shipley 6-4, 6-2. In previous rounds, McDonald demonstrated his prowess by defeating "Big Rick" Greenspan and Frank Greene, both in straight sets. Shipley advanced in more strenuous fashion, beating Steve Hibb, Jack Casey and Tommy Donnelly each in three sets.

In the girls 18-and-Under division, Linda Sowers breezed to the title beating Lisa McFarland, 6-0, 6-0. To reach the finals, Lisa upset Patty Shipley, 6-3, 7-5 in a hard-fought match.

In boys 12 and-Under, Carl Simonson demonstrated good ball control in taking the title from Matt Ball, 6-1, 6-0. Simonson's hardest match was his first against John Kelly. He outlasted Kelly, 2-6, 6-0, 6-1.

The next tournament will be Men's Doubles and Mixed Doubles on August 10 and 11. Get your partners.

The Greenbelt Recreation Department and specifically the Municipal pool staff, would like to extend their appreciation to Mr. Victor M. Fisher, of Gardenway, for his volunteer services. Mr. Fisher has given his time and knowledge to the pool staff and senior life-saving class, to give instruction on first aid and artificial respiration techniques.

SWIM TEAM NEWS

by Mike "Turtle" Jones
Last Saturday, in an extremely tense meet, Greenbelt topped Oxon Hill 246 1/2-240 1/2. Scoring high in the meet were Ricky Smith (15), George Aulisio (13), Addie McCallon (12), Ken Shock (11), Kathy Labukas (11), Jack Downs (11), Heidi Myers (11), Buddy Marquart (10), Janet Goldberg (9), Laine Oertel (8), Barbie Klukowski (8), Mark Hanlon (7 1/2), Gordon Benson (7), Dennis Dredger (7), Andrea Haslinger (6), Karen Coyne (7), Jerry Jenkins (6), George Jones and Angel Flood (9).

Looking at Greenbelt in comparison with the rest of the division, we find that Greenbelt is in a four-way tie for first place with Oxon Hill, Rock Creek, and Tacoma.

This Saturday Greenbelt stays at home to meet and, we hope, beat Burn Brae. Swimmers and officials are asked to be at the pool by 8:30 a.m., so that the meet can begin promptly at 9.

Co-op Nursery School

The Greenbelt Nursery School, Inc. is still accepting applications for the 1968-69 school year. At this time there is space for five girls in the 3 year old class. Vacancies in the other 3 classes may arise before September. The school, in its 28th year, is a parent-run co-operative for 3-5 year olds. The school's new director is Mrs. Charlene Pass. For information call Pat Savage 474-4904 or Mary Lou Williamson 474-4906.

NOTICE

There will be a SPECIAL CITY VOTER REGISTRATION held on Saturday, August 3, 1968 at the Springhill Lake Community Center from 10:00 A.M. to 7:00 P.M. to be held in coordination with a county election registration.

Nita P. Maschauer

City's Dream Is Still Alive

Greenbelt residents are understandably angry about a recent article in a Washington magazine that depicts their town, in the irate words of Councilman Francis White, as a "run-down, left-over WPA community."

It is inconceivable that the freelance author of the article if he had done any research at all, could have overlooked the real Greenbelt in his fascination for emphasizing its aging row-houses and abortive deals with developers.

A significant point he ignored is that these rowhouses, which were built during the days of the New Deal, are still coveted as dwelling places by many who could afford much more so-called luxurious housing.

Perhaps the main reason for this is that the City of Greenbelt is not just an accumulation of houses.

Its City Council meetings, for example, are the best models of grassroots democracy in action found outside the New England town halls. Every citizen who so desires is given a chance to have his say.

The city's park and recreation facilities are tops in this area.

And, most important, there is the intangible benefit of community spirit, of having a common purpose with one's neighbors.

To many residents of suburbia, these true luxuries are more valuable than those found in new subdivisions or swank high-rise apartments.

Let those who read the critical magazine article be assured that the Greenbelt dream is not dead. If anything, it is more alive now than it was 30 years ago.

Old Time Nostalgia

What a perfect spot for an outdoor band concert! One listens to the music, stretched out on a blanket on the grassy slope or at ease in a folding chair. The ducks sail by on the lake's surface and an errant breeze stirs one's hair. Sometimes a gaily striped sail on a wandering boat adds a bright daub of red against the backdrop of forest. The children absorb the music on the run or from vantage points among the trees. Band music is at its best in such a setting.

A scene like this used to be everybody's dream of what was best in American life. But that was when everyone lived in small towns—or on nearby farms—and looked forward to the Saturday night shopping spree and the concert at the band shell.

So many of the old dreams have vanished—around the nation and around the world. But we're glad that moments like this of old-time nostalgia are still offered in our corner of the woods.

Three cheers for the concerts at the lake!

Richard Rossetti

Richard "Dickie" Rosetti, age 6, died on Tuesday, July 23, after a short illness. He is survived by his parents, Priscilla and Joseph Rosetti, 4 Pinecrest, two brothers, James and David and four sisters, Elaine, Janice, Barbara and Pamela. Dickie was a student at Center School.

Friends may visit Gasch's Funeral Home 4739 Baltimore Ave., Hyattsville, on Thursday until 9 p.m. (Prayers at 8 p.m.). Mass of the Angels will be held on Friday at 9:30 a.m. at St. Hugh's. Interment will follow at the National Memorial Park Cemetery, Falls Church, Virginia.

The family requests that expressions of sympathy be in the form of contributions to the Kidney Foundation.

To be able to react in time to avoid danger, you have to keep alert when driving on the freeways. Don't let the steady hum of the engine and the tires give you "highway hypnosis."

GOP Appoints Barber

The Republican State Central Committee of Prince Georges County has announced the appointment of William H. Barber, III, of 26-C Ridge, as Republican Precinct Chairman of Greenbelt's third precinct. Barber, who was raised in Greenbelt, is active in civic and county affairs. He is on the Steering Committee of the Greenbelt Citizens for a Planned Greenbelt and is a founder and presently an advisor to the Greenbelt Youth Council.

The third precinct generally consists of that portion of Greenbelt south of Eastway. The polling place for the precinct is the Center School.

P. G. Community College Expects Record Enrollment

More than 2250 students have applied for admission to Prince George's Community College this fall, a record number for this date. Fall enrollment last year was 3315 and college officials are expected 4000 students to enroll this fall. The deadline for submission of applications to Prince George's Community College is August 24. The three programs most applicants say they intend to pursue are Arts and Sciences with 477 applicants, General Studies with 455, and Business Administration with 415 applicants.

Boys Club News

by Jerry Shafer

The summer baseball program is fast coming to a close and we must now turn to the two programs for this fall. We will sign up boys for football and boxing on Saturday, July 27, and Saturday, August 3, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon at the Youth Center.

Coaches are available for each program, but more help is needed to make these programs a complete success.

Remember, if you don't sign up early, it is impossible for us to set up a program to include all interested boys.

JOHN ADAMS

"Yesterday the greatest question was decided which ever was debated in America; and a greater perhaps never was, nor will be, decided among men. A resolution was passed without one dissenting colony, that those United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States." Letter to Mrs. Adams (July 3, 1776)

Bake Sale & Car Wash For Sickles Campaign

Students for Sickles are cooking up many surprise treats for a Bake Sale on July 27 at the Greenbelt Shopping Center. At the same time, from 10 - 4 on Saturday, they have arranged a car wash in the parking lot behind the Co-op supermarket.

Students will have cakes, sandwiches and cookies for hungry shoppers. The feature of the Bake Sale will be "Sickles Summer Snack" - a favorite of the Sickles Family, and will be prepared by Mrs. Carlton Sickles.

David Mallino, who is organizing the Students' Bake Sale and Car Wash said "their aim was to help Sickles in his campaign to represent Maryland's Fifth District in the U.S. Congress.

Mrs. Sickles' recipe for her Summer Snack follows.

- 6 oz. plain flour
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 3/4 c. water
- oil for frying
- confectioner's sugar mixed with cinnamon
- 1 T. rum
- Sift flour and salt together.
- Add eggs, water and rum
- Beat well to make stiff dough.
- If necessary, add more flour.

Greenbelt Madonna

The mothers meeting in the square Have many items to compare:

They warn their offspring: "John, don't touch!"

Admire the babies: "What a smile!"

I think she'll teethe in a little while."

They are all friends, but there's no doubt

That one poor woman is being left out.

See, there she kneels, aloof and alone.

Brooding over a child of stone.

(From an article, "Greenbelt . . . A Glimpse of the Future," by Anne C. Hull in the Hotel Mayflower's LOG, 1941).

Application Due Soon For School Transfers

Any applications for the transfer of students must, under the terms of the policy of the Board of Education of Prince Georges County, be filed in the office of the Superintendent of Schools, Upper Marlboro, thirty days prior to the opening of school. This applies to transfers of students who wish to attend a school outside of their attendance area.

Therefore, since the 1968-1969 school year officially begins on August 29 for school personnel, all requests for transfer must be post-marked not later than Wednesday, July 31. Requests should be forwarded to the Supervisor of Pupil Accounting, Board of Education, Upper Marlboro, Maryland 20870.

Knead well until dough becomes elastic.

Roll out carefully to paper thickness.

Cut in strips 6" by 1 1/2" wide.

Make slit in center and twist one end to make bow.

Then fry in moderately hot oil until golden brown. (about 3 minutes).

Drain on paper towel.

Dust with sugar and cinnamon.
