Heavy Rains Wash Away FDR Parking Lot Asphalt

by Elaine Skolnik

Saturday's heavy rains caused the liquid asphalt from the newly-surfaced parking lot of the Franklin D. Roosevelt Senior High School to run off into the Greenbriar project leaving a slick of several thousand feet in pools and pockets between the sewage treatment plant and the large school parking lot. In addition, there was damage to an unfinished apartment building.

The asphalt threatened the nearby unnamed tributary to Beaver Dam Creek but, according to the Maryland Water Resources Administration (WRA), the spread of the thick tar-like substance was contained and stopped for the most part before running into the creek by drainage ditches and sedimentation basins located on the Greenbriar property.

WRA official Ronald Parise estimates that it will take five to seven days to clean up the mess. Assuming responsibility for the work is Glassman and Glassman Construction Co., Inc., contractors for FDR. Back-hoes and other earth moving equipment are already in operation.

Contributing to the problem was the soil-cement process used on Friday to surface the large school parking lot. The method consists of tilling the sandy soil of the lot, then spraying on a liquid asphalt tack which has the consistency of tar, and rolling the surface. However, before the asphalt had a chance to harden, the rains came, washing the asphalt liquid onto the Greenbriar property.

The spill was discovered last Saturday afternoon by John Emmer, the city's engineering consultant. Subsequently a straw barricade was placed in the stream below the silt traps on Greenbriar property. WRA and the Coast Guard, which has jurisdiction over waters that flow into navigable streams, were notified on Monday. WRA immediately sent a truck and trailer and corrective action began. Filter screens were set up in the storm water channel at two points on Greenbriar property.

The city also checked the stream at various points since it runs under the Baltimore-Washington Parkway to the city's northern property on parcel 1. Near the city landfill there was some evidence of asphalt traces on the banks, but not in the stream. North of the city landfill a trap with straw was placed.

Drug Information Night

There will be a Drug Information Night held in Grenoble Hall - the lower level of St. Hugh's Church, Wed. evening, Oct. 9 from 7-8 p.m. A detective from the Greenbelt Police Department will give the presentation. Children of all ages and their parents are cordially invited to attend and become aware and knowledgeable on an important social problem.

APB Explores Uses For Golden Triangle

In response to its request for a review of the possible types of development that should take place on the Golden Triangle, city council has received a report (#154) from the Advisory Planning Board.

The APB recommended that development should be a compromise between facilities that would generate a minimum amount of traffic and facilities that would provide a maximum amount of tax income for the city. It saw private office development or a motel convention center or something similar as meeting these criteria. It noted, however, that while private office development would provide a good tax base, it would increase traffic during peak rush hours. It also admonished against office development by a public agency, such as the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission, since not only would the traffic generated be equally as great as that from private office development, but also the property would be tax exempt.

As for a motel convention center, the APB saw several advantages—not only generation of a good tax base, but also a city yield from the admissions and amusement tax and not much generation of traffic during peak hours.

As for a new car dealership reportedly planned for the eastern half of the Golden Triangle, the APB agreed that it would generate low volumes of added traffic, but saw it providing a relatively small amount of added tax base in relation to the acreage utilized. It also foresaw the storage of automobiles as presenting problems if the facility were not well planned.

Day Care Facility

Another APB Report (#156) recommended approval of a special exception for the proposed day care facility in the Greenbriar Community Building. The facility is to be operated by the Campus Center for Early Learning which is associated with Prince Georges County Community College.

A request for special exception and parking modification has been filed by Greenbriar Associates with the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission.

The day school operation for pre-school and nursery school age children will utilize 2,954 sq. feet on the ground floor of the Greenbriar Community Building and accommodate a maximum of 70 children. Twelve parking spaces would be required at a ratio of one space for every six children. Adjacent to the Community Building are 27 parking spaces.

It was APB's opinion that an adverse parking problem would not develop from the school use but it recommended that the special exception be conditioned on all loading and unloading of children taking place in the parking lot adjacent to the Community Building rather than along Hanover Parkway. APB also expressed opposition to the conversion of any existing green space for parking now or in the future should a parking problem develop.

Tot Lots

In another report received by council, the Park and Recreation Advisory Board recommended the immediate clean up and installation of trash cans in all tot lots. It also recommended that a regular route be established for trash pick-up in these areas.

GHI BOARD TO DISCUSS SOLAR HEAT FOR HOMES

by Bob McGe

In contrast to the previous marathon, which ran into the wee hours of the next morning, the regular Greenbelt Homes, Inc. board of directors meeting for September 26, 1974, set a new record for brevity — and so will this story. The six members present zipped through a short agenda, and by 9:15 p.m. were sitting around wondering if they had missed something as there was nothing else left to talk about.

Martha Hutzler, from the audience, kicked things off by reading a statement disputing the management's oil usage figures, and taking exception to actions taken and statements made with reference to the mortgage moratorium. She was followed by Ruth Riga, 19-L Hillside, who represented herself and two other occupants of her block who had requested that action be taken to force the fourth occupant to paint his building. She wanted to know why they had not received a response to their request and was relieved to learn that the board planned to take up the matter in executive session that night.

The board then unanimously authorized the annual payments of county and city real estate taxes and the third quarterly payment of $18,266.49 of the capital improvement note, in addition to approving the work and low bid of $7,350 by Lance Construction Company to solve a serious roof problem on the units at 43-A through F, Ridge Road.

In other actions, the board accepted a report from director Hugh O'Donnell but made the NASA solar heating project proposal the sole item on the agenda of a special meeting called for Thursday evening, October 3, with a request that O'Donnell submit a background report to the rest of the board before the meeting. The board agreed in principle with the rest of the Committee report with reference to initiating action to try to obtain federal funding through HUD. Rather than "fishing", however, the board felt that it would be more effective to prepare a specific proposal which would then have to be given consideration by the federal agency. The Committee was asked to present a suggestion as to some of the actions or projects that GHI might be able to undertake.

The board also requested that a special letter be prepared and sent to Joe Dalis inviting him to serve on the new planning committee. He had been an active member of the prior committee and his name had inadvertently been dropped from the list.

Of special note was an announcement by Roy Breashears that Marie Castaldi and Fan Schein, long-time employees of GHI, were retiring and that a special dinner in their honor was being held Tuesday night, October 1. All board members were invited to attend.

The meeting then gradually wound down with some discussion about taping meetings, some talk about turning responsibility for cleaning leaves out of eaves over to GHI maintenance, and something about getting a letter from one of the officers in response to a letter from a member regarding the signing of meeting minutes by officers.

And, that's all folks! 9:15 p.m., and a new record for GHI board meetings.

Open House At Fire Station

Greenbelt Volunteer Fire Department will have an open house from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. during Fire Prevention Week (October 6-12).

Featuring this year's program is an extensive display of Prince Georges county "approved" smoke detectors for home residences. Greenbelt is the only fire department in the county to have a display of this type of "early warning" equipment.

Annoyed by Heating Delay

To the Editor:

Yes, Jim, we've heard that story before about delaying on turning on the heat. However, on September 25th I was the 42nd person to complain about the lack of heat in my home and when I went into our offices I found the building heated with the girls in light dresses and the men in short sleeved shirts. This was quite a contrast to my wife sitting on the sofa under a blanket and an electric heater turned on to keep warm.

If GHI wants to save fuel in heating the 53 Court of Ridge, there is one simple task that could be performed that would cut down our fuel consumption — and this simple task is to simply repair the Weatherman control and the Johnson valve so we don't have to open doors and windows once the heat is turned on for the season.

Our court is typical of many in GHI — inoperative or malfunctioning controls do not provide the proper heating and/or cause excessive consumption of fuel.

If Hugh O'Donnell would but take a look around and ask the residents what is wrong with their courts' heating system he would not have to ask that pseudo-engineer Mr. Meyers what we should do. Nor would he have any difficulty in completing plans for other work that needs to be done.

We do not need fancy schemes but simple preventive maintenance to put what equipment we have in the proper working order. And now that we have splurged by not paying the mortgage, we cannot say that funds are not available. So, let the GHI Board get down to business and quit this fancy talk about future plans and get on with the task of providing proper heat.

Ben A. Hogensen
 Editor's Note: The GHI office has informed the News Review that no heat was turned on in the offices during the recent cold spell. GHI further indicated that maintenance men began turning on the heat Monday, Sept. 30 and were expecting to complete the job this week. The office heat was turned on Tuesday morning, October 1.

Thank You Party

To the Editor:

We greatly appreciate the help of all the Greenbelters who joined together to make this year's Labor Day Festival a huge success. We would like to get everyone together again, this time for a thank you party. All citizens who participated in the festival, whether serving in booths, in the parade, in special events, behind the scenes, or in any other way, are invited to attend. In keeping with inflationary pressures and the Greenbelt style, we will have recorded dance music, in the style of the '50's, light refreshments, and a cash bar. The date is Friday, October 11, 8 to 1, and the place is the American Legion Hall on Greenbelt Road.

Again, our sincere thanks to all those who worked with us, and we hope to see you at the party.

THANKS

To the Editor:

The Parker family and neighbors would like to express thanks and appreciation to the fire dept and all other concerned people who assisted us in the recent fire in our home. The department did an unbelievable job in containing the fire to just one house, saving the others in the row.

A fire of this sort is a freak occurrence but it is comforting to know Greenbelt has such a well manned Volunteer Fire Dept.

SPECIAL MEETING ON BYLAWS SOON

After fifteen months of many meetings, hard and diligent work (particularly on the part of John Unger, chm. of the committee), the Board has approved and sent to Baltimore for final review all but two of nearly thirty articles of the proposed new bylaws.

One draft was completed by keeping a quorum present until 4 a.m. The latest meeting bogged down at midnight on the two most detailed articles on Meetings of Members and Elections. At that point a new concept was introduced but the Board postponed evaluation until a new presentation can be made Wednesday, October 2nd at the Municipal Building.

An Editorial?

TWIN PINES REMARKABLE RECORD

In spite of being out of the loan business for nine months, in spite of damaging rulings (life insurance) and crippling restrictions (default insurance for a savings & loan with no defaults and practically no delinquencies) TWIN PINES savings have grown over 23% in nine months, while the industry nationwide has been losing savings at an alarming rate.

We have brought our bad debt reserve to within .2% of the 6% required. Our liquidity position (we have been told) is from 200% to 225% better than most.

We have made more than a quarter of a million in loans and continue to make them as money becomes available.

How come? Because we are a cooperative with a very conscientious, hard-working board, because we have a loyal membership that believes in TWIN PINES and in Greenbelt, and because we wouldn't roll over and die as we were encouraged to do time and time again because we were, "different". Vive la difference!

- All these plus the highest dividends in Greenbelt,
- Certificates to suit your circumstances, and insurance up to $30,000.

TWIN PINES has ordered an NCR 270 computer terminal. It is expected to be operational by January 1975.

The benefits to members are expected to be faster and more accurate service. The greater accuracy is expected to reduce the workload in the office considerably. It will also reduce the bookkeeping citations on the audit and examinations. It is almost impossible to avoid these with a manual system.

Dividends will be figured automatically - instead of by a crew of a dozen or more as at present. They will be figured on everything over $10, not just on multiples of $10 and possibly daily instead of monthly but with the same quarterly compounding.

PERSONALS on PERSONNEL

Some of our very attractive personnel we hide in the backroom - even those you see aren't identified (How about badges, Steve?) - Steve Frankenberg, mgr., is one of the crowd on the beach at "JAWS". Look for him at your local cinema. - Madeleine Gbr (Loan Officer) has just returned from a trip to Russia and Poland. - Jo Izzo (Head Bookkeeper) will graduate next June from P.G.C.C. with an associate degree in accounting. - Esther Gerson (Teller) and Hy visited Spain and Portugal. - Nancy Kosisky (Bookkeeper) played right field on the team Twin Pines sponsored. They came in 3rd in their league. - Barbara Baluch (Teller) is now Mrs. Haines. - Vickie Tavarella is a new part-time teller as is Roberta McNamara, also a student at P.G.C.C. and a reporter for the News-Review.

DELEGATE DAVID GRAY ROSS?

Answer:

"People legislation, designed to meet the needs of his constituents." Some of the eleven Ross bills which passed the Maryland House of Delegates in 1971, were

- POLICE DEATH BENEFITS - H.B. 487 - Provides a $15,000 death benefit to the surviving spouse or children of any law enforcement officer, State, County or municipal, killed in the line of duty.
- COMMUNITY COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS - H.B. 283 - Establishes 200 scholarships for County students at the Prince Georges Community College..
- CRIME PREVENTION - H.B. 149 - Vetoed by the Governor, would have made it a crime for any adult to contribute willfully to the delinquency of a minor.
- TUITION REDUCTION - H.B. 859 - Increased the State share of funding Community College operating costs, permitting lower tuition and lower County contributions.
- LOWERED VOTING AGE - H.B. 133 - Changed the minimum voting age from 21 to 18 in all State elections.
- INTER-COUNTY ATTENDANCE - H.B. 198 - Which died in the Senate, would have permitted students from Prince Georges County to attend a community college in another county to take a special program without having to pay the higher non-resident tuition rate.

How come this kid has more money saved than you do?

Take stock in America. Now Bonds pay a bonus at maturity.

Because over the years his parents have invested in U.S. Savings Bonds—in his name, for his future—by participating in the Payroll Savings Plan at work.

He probably doesn't even know. And right now, he couldn't care less. But when he's older, that money can be used for a lot of things—a car, a college education, or even a new home.

The Payroll Savings Plan is an easy way to save money for you and every member of your family. When you join, an amount you designate will be automatically laid aside from your paycheck and invested in U.S. Savings Bonds. It's a painless way to save.

And now there's a bonus interest rate on all U.S. Savings Bonds—for E Bonds, 5½% when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months (4% the first year). That extra ½%, payable as a bonus at maturity, applies to all Bonds issued since June 1, 1970 . . . with a comparable improvement for all older Bonds.

Join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work and make your son the richest kid on the block.

Bonds are safe. If lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace them. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Tax may be deferred until redemption. And always remember, Bonds are a proud way to save.

City Officers Arrest

Cumberland Robbers

Bond has been set for two male adults who were returned to Cumberland and charged with attempted robbery with a deadly weapon of Hank's Pharmacy in that city recently. The two were taken into custody by three officers of the Greenbelt police force.

Lt. John Krob, who is in charge of operations for the Greenbelt force and who was one of the arresting officers, said the two were apprehended about 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 7. He said his department had been alerted to be on the lookout for the two by Cumberland detectives who were in Greenbelt on Friday. The men were supposed to be driving a U-haul truck and were possibly armed with a .357 magnum pistol. Greenbelt authorities were informed at Saturday's noon roll call to be on the lookout for the suspects, and it was shortly thereafter that they were spotted on Parkway Rd.

Lt. Krob said the two were in the truck which began moving around 1 p.m. Police, in an unmarked car, trailed the truck approximately one-half mile until they were in a clear area on Crescent Rd., and a marked police car was called to pull the truck over. The unmarked police unit then moved in and the two were taken into custody. Lt. Krob said there was no resistance, and he added that no guns were found in the vehicle or on the two men.

Other Greenbelt officers involved in the arrest were Cpl. Ernest Brumley and Pvt. Ralph Cancelose. One of the hold-up men was shot and killed at the time of the attempted robbery by the owner of the pharmacy, who was also injured and hospitalized.

A third suspect was picked up in Greenbelt a few days later.

City Manager James K. Giese and Mayor Richard Pilski attended a meeting with officials of the Agricultural Research Center regarding the extension of the use of the College Park-Beltsville landfill beyond the July 1, 1976 cut-off date that had been established by the Research Center. As a result, it was indicated that the city would be able to use the landfill until approximately Jan. 1, 1978, and that engineers from Greenhorne and O'Mara would work with the Research Center officials towards a final design plan for the landfill area. The city had originally championed the terracing of the landfill in a pyramidal design which would enable Greenbelt and College Park to use the landfill for another ten years, but this proposal was not accepted.
