Band Tribute, Spectacular Show Speeches Make up Greenbelt Day

by Randy Crenwelge

On Sunday, June 4, The City of Greenbelt commemorated its 58th anniversary as a municipality. On June 1, 1937, the city was incorporated by state law (even though the first residents didn't move in until September). A Family Day was held at the Greenbelt American Legion Post #136. The celebration was co-sponsored by the Legion and the Greenbelt Recreation Department. All Proceeds from the Family Day will benefit the Greenbelt Community Center and Eleanor Roosevelt High School Graduation Night.

Family Day activities included a variety show featuring young entertainers, a Greenbelt Day Program led by the Mayor and City Council, a horseshoe tournament, a moon bounce, face painting, a 50/50 raffle, tarot readers, Vegas cards, a used book sale, dart tournament, an education table hosted by the Recycling Advisory Committee, health tests and screening performed by the Greenbelt Lions club using their mobile van, Bingo games, a performance by the Greenbelt Concert Band, and DJ music.

"Greenbelters have a reputation for possessing boundless energy."

—Mayor Toni Bram

Greenbelt Day Program

The Greenbelt Day Program opened with remarks by Mayor Antoinette Bram commemorating the city's 58th year. A sculpture was presented by the Mayor to Greenbelt American Legion Post 136. Special recognition was given by the Mayor and council to John DelHomme, former conductor of the Greenbelt Concert Band. County Councilmember Audrey Scott presented a $25,000 check for the Community Center and announced funding for two Maryland Park and Planning Commission staff positions at the center. Finally, the Community was presented with $400,000 of bond money from the state by Maryland State Senator Leo Green.

Bram introduced honored guests, council members and Greenbelt American Legion officers. City officials on hand for the ceremonies included Mayor Pro-tem Edward Putens and Councilmembers Thomas White, Rodney Roberts and

"Honoring all who sacrificed for our freedom" sculpture presented to American Legion Post 136 from City of Greenbelt.

Judith Davis, Greenbelt American Legion Post #136 Commander Joe Beam, Kathy Hurm, president of the Ladies Auxiliary; and Mike Hurm, Squadron Commander represented the Greenbelt American Legion Post #136.

Bram delivered an anniversary message to all who attended Greenbelt Day and to all of the city's citizens. She stated that it was a privilege to join the citizens of Greenbelt and the host of Family Day, American Legion Post, in the observance of the anniversary of the founding of Greenbelt. The Mayor remarked that it is truly a day to honor the past and look toward the future and that Greenbelt's pioneers and founders must have enjoyed the exercising of their rights and God-given talents when they conceived a totally planned community. She said that time has demonstrated that Greenbelt has developed into a highly successful city where its citizenry have displayed an active interest in the promotion of civic programs. "They have a reputation for possessing boundless energy and displaying great enthusiasm," she continued "This represents a healthy community spirit." "This is what makes Greenbelt great."

Bram pointed out that the Greenbelt "Experiment," after 58 years has made an outstanding contribution in the fields of civics, public service, and community planning. Greenbelt's success is evidenced by the continuing high level of community services, programs, and glowing spirit of our residents, she proudly remarked, and this spirit is still alive and growing. She thanked the crowd and guests for being a part of the celebration of Greenbelt's past and future.

Sculpture Presented

Bram expressed the city's appreciation for all of the contributions to the community made by the members of Greenbelt American Legion Post 136. She presented a sculpture to the Post in honor of those who served and especially those who sacrificed their lives for freedom in World War II, Korea, Vietnam, Desert Storm, and all other conflicts. Mayor Bram dedicated the sculpture to the memory of those who served and expressed thanks and prayers to the Legion including its Members and their families. The Mayor offered them a salute, and she closed the presentation by thanking the Legion for hosting the Greenbelt Family Day Celebration.

The sculpture depicts a soldier with one hand touching his helmet to the ground and the other touching a monument or stone while praying for his departed comrades. On the monument engraved are the words, "Honoring all who sacrificed for our freedom; greater love has no one than this, that one lay down his life for his friends." This is quoted from scripture in John 15:13. The sculpture is engraved with these words: "Presented to the Greenbelt American Legion Family of Members for Outstanding Community Service; City of Greenbelt, June 4, 1995."

City Takes Over Recycling Council Supports Gun Ban

by Diane Oberg

Council formally approved a new city-run curbside collection program for recyclables at its May 22 regular meeting. The councilmembers also took positions in support of retaining the federal "assault weapons ban."

Thursday, June 29 should be the last county collection date for recyclables. There will be one week without recycling collection, then the contractor to be hired by council will begin collection the week of July 10.

Because of the short time available, a negotiated contract will be used for the first year, rather than competitive bidding. Council is expected to take action on the proposed contract at its June 12 regular meeting.

Recycling Coordinator Tracy Vincent expects little change in the method and schedule of collection from the current county procedures. Materials will be collected, using the same yellow bins currently in use, from the curbside for single family homes and some townhouses. Collection from Greenbelt Homes, Inc., will continue to be outside the service side door.

The one thing that will change is the range of materials collected. Mixed paper and cardboard will be collected in addition to all materials currently collected by the county. City refuse service customers will automatically receive recycling collection (and be billed an additional $3.75 per quarter fee). Other single family and townhome developments can sign up with or without receiving normal city refuse collection.

After council approved the program, Mayor Antoinette Bram praised city staff for developing the program on short notice and tried to make clear to everyone that it was not council's idea to start charging for re-cycling. However, had the city stayed in the county recycling program, the cost to residents would have been $47 per year in fees. Thus, she noted, the new $15 fee actually will save residents $32. (Note: According to City Manager Daniel Hobbs, the final fee set by the county council after the May 15 meeting was $40.)

Greenbelter Recalls Dutch Friend Killed at Auschwitz

by Sandra Lange

The Research Institute of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum recently sponsored "Etty Hillesum: An Evening of Dutch Reminiscences," which included reading from the diaries and letters of Etty Hillesum, a Dutch Jewish woman who died in Auschwitz in 1943. Greenbelter Leonie Snatager Penney, a contemporary of Etty's participated in the program.

Penney grew up in The Hague. She received her Master's degree in Economics in 1942, just before the universities prevented Jews from taking exams. She met Etty during her student days in Amsterdam and their friendship continued for Council also introduced an ordinance providing for an increase of $3 per quarter for city refuse customers.

Gun Control

Council unanimously approved, under suspension of the rules, a resolution proposed by the National League of cities opposing repeal of the national ban on specific semi-automatic "assault" weapons. Councilmember Rodney Roberts emphasized that although he considers himself a "strong supporter" of the right to bear arms, he feels that people do not need assault weapons.

Councilmember Thomas White said that overturning the assault weapons ban would have a significant impact on the city police-- it is "ridiculous" to create a situation where they have to deal with such weapons. Councilmember Judith Davis stated that "every survey" shows "overwhelming support" for the ban.

Other Actions

Mayor Bram presented a proclamation in recognition of the "Poppy Drive" to Sandy Dutton of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Mary Gardner, president of the Golden Age Club presented Bram with a check for a scholarship to Camp Pine Tree for a needy child.

Hobbs showed off the county "Historic Site" plaque that will be placed on the Community Center. The city and county split the $100 cost of the plaque.

Council endorsed proposed legislation to require arbitrators to consider Metro's funding resources in resolving contract disputes; to support the Maryland Municipal League's position on the national Telecommunications Competition and Deregulation Act and to provide additional funding for research into Parkinson's disease and to improve care and assistance for victims and their families.

We Need Your Talents

Two years ago we introduced a "voluntary subscription drive" to provide needed income to continue publishing weekly and to better meet the needs of the city. We are gratified at the generosity of our readers.

This year we are pleased to report that our advertising base has increased and that we have taken other steps to improve our financial situation. Therefore we are not seeking voluntary contributions at this time, but we continue to ask for volunteers.

We hope you have noticed some new names among our writers. We also have gained new copy editors, typists, proofreaders and advertising staff. However, an organization like ours always needs more help. Some events don't get covered for lack of writers. We need more people to help us put the paper together on Wednesday nights. We need people who can help us with the business side of the paper, both in selling advertising and helping with our record keeping. You do not have to make a weekly commitment. You can take on one routine task or many different ones.

We'd like to hear from you soon!

We invite you to fill out the coupon below or to stop down on a Tuesday night between 8 and 10. Our office is located in the basement of 15 Parkway. Press 015 on the security phone for access. If you'd like to join in, but aren't sure what you could do, give us a call (474-4131) and leave a message in the editor's mailbox.)

Letters

Ban Fishing

Three years ago at a Park and Recreation Advisory Board meeting, I expressed my concern that "preserving wildlife habitat" at Greenbelt Lake does not include the fish. (Buddy Attick Park Master Plan draft 6-2-92). I was asked to present a petition on the matter, which I did in the fall of 1992.

After several letters to the News Review and to the Advisory Board since then, we petitioners have not heard one word from the Board, the fish are still being killed; and we can only conclude that the Board not only disrespects the fishes' right to live, it doesn't even have the decency to respond to hundreds of petitioners, nor to its flagrant violation of its own master plan.

As I've stated before, we will continue to proclaim with George Bernard Shaw that "The idler who has nothing better to do than kill is past our patience." And I will add that adults teach children to kill, and the ongoing violence in the world started with an innocent animal, an innocent child, and a guilty adult.

In Memoriam

"This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it."

Oft times, Nellie Turkiewicz would quote this verse from the Bible to me. "This is the way I start each day in a positive way" she would tell me with a smile. When visiting Nellie at Greenbelt Nursing Home, I would find her in her room, always confined to a wheelchair, and singing softly the old church hymns she knew so well.

I first became acquainted with Nellie some years ago when she was visiting with her sister, who at the time was a resident of the Greenbelt Nursing Home. Usually Nellie was reading the Bible to her sister.

A few weeks ago, at the age of 96, Nellie passed away. I will miss her. She was an inspiration to me and to others who passed her way. Although a bit saddened, I find joy in knowing that Nellie is with the Lord where she longed to be. Nellie was ready!

The regular 10:15 a.m. worship service at the Greenbelt Community Church on June 11 will feature the music of "The Messengers." The Messengers' program will include a variety of gospel, inspirational and contemporary Christian music.

What started out to be an informal group singing at a Good Friday service in 1983 has emerged to be an ongoing music ministry of First United Methodist Church of Baraboo, Wisconsin. The group now averages 25 to 30 appearances a year ranging from complete church services to programs for banquets and other special events.

The Messengers recently completed their fifth recording entitled "The Invitation." The group's appearance at the Greenbelt Community Church is part of the group's second tour to the Mid-Atlantic area, the first being in September 1992.

The Greenbelt Community Church is located at the corner of Hillside and Crescent.

by Sandra Lange

Ladies hats of the 1930's and 1940's is the subject of the Friends of the Greenbelt Museum's latest exhibit, running every Sunday through Labor Day weekend at the Greenbelt Museum, 10-B Crescent Road. Thirty-one hats are displayed, which cover an array of fashion features for the period.

In the late 1930s, doll hats were popular. Curls were piled on top of the lady's head and a small hat was pinned or anchored with a rubber tie or comb. In some cases, specially designed hat grips were positioned on each side of the head to hold the hat in place. A set of hat grips is displayed in the exhibit.

During World War II, many clothing factories were engaged in making uniforms and other materials used in the war effort, so fabrics for hats and other clothing items were in short supply. As a consequence, the size and shape of ladies' hats changed. The small skull cap was popular.

Most of the hats in the exhibit are dark in color, black, brown or navy. Conventional styles include the cloche, sailor, beret and pill box. Veils were common. Ornamentation included sequins, flowers, ribbons, fur and feathers.

For centuries hats were status symbols, visible signs of wealth, religion, nationality, political beliefs or occupations. The Romans crowned their athletes and military heroes with laurel wreaths. Crowns and head-dresses were symbols for royalty. In Renaissance Italy, the leading families wore distinctive hats as visible reminders of their power and wealth. Hats had religious symbolism, such as the bishop's mitre.

In the early years of this country, hats were worn by every man, woman and child whenever they went outside their home. With the hat shortage during World War II, many women began to wear scarfs. Some even went hatless. In the 1950s, the popularity of the beehive hairstyle and the French twist made hats all but impossible to wear. The growing informality of fashion and the emphasis on teen styles during the 1960s spelled the decline of hats as a mandatory form of apparel for women.

While hats are still popular for some types of formal events such as weddings, and are customary apparel for some religious groups, today most western women wear hats as a matter of personal choice or for protection from the elements.

The museum's exhibit was organized by FOGM board member Mary Linstrom. Hats in the exhibit come from the collections of Linstrom, Jan Kuhn and Barbara Havekost. Ten hats are from the Museum's own collection.

The Greenbelt Museum is open every Sunday, 1 - 5 p.m. Special tours may be arranged by calling the Museum at 474-1936. Admission is free.

City Notes

A Public Works crew was called out at 3 a.m. on Monday, May 29 to put out traffic cone and barrels along Greenbelt road at the Beltway Plaza in connection with the police shooting incident that took place there that night.

Also during the week that ended June 2, the Public Works Department hosted members of the City of College Park Landscape Board. They had a tour of the greenhouse, nursery areas and landscaped areas throughout the city.

The Memorial Day weekend followed by the Greenbelt Day weekend kept the Public Works crews busy with community service projects. On Memorial Day, a crew set up flagstands, platforms and chairs for the American Legion service at the War Memorial on Centerville. Ten booths were refurbished and erected for the Greenbelt Day festivities at the American Legion grounds. Eight picnic tables were also transported there, as well as 15 to Holy Cross Lutheran Church, five to GHI and four to the 73 court of Ridge.

Single and double yellow traffic lines were repainted along city streets and special pavement markings were painted in handicapped spaces at Roosevelt Center. Bicycle control signage was installed in wooded areas.

The spring flowering bulbs have been removed. In their place, summer flowering annuals were planted and the beds were mulched and watered. New bulbs were ordered for fall shipment and planting. White goods were collected May 31. These discarded house appliances, stoves, washers, dryers, air conditions, refrigerators, etc. were taken to be recycled and for proper disposal of the environmentally hazardous CFC gases.

THIS YEAR'S GALLUP QUALITY AWARD FOR OUTPATIENT SURGICAL SERVICES GOES TO DOCTORS COMMUNITY HOSPITAL.

QUIET, PLEASE. THIS IS A HOSPITAL ZONE.

We couldn't stop ourselves. We had to blow our own horn. After all, there were only 10 winners nationwide. And it's not every day you win a trophy - especially the prestigious Gallup Quality Award for Outpatient Services. But what makes us particularly proud is that the honor was based on a survey of customer satisfaction. Which means the award really came from you, our friends and neighbors here in Prince George's County - all of you who've marched out of Doctors Community Hospital feeling better and feeling great about us. So we'd like to thank you, the people who make us feel so good.

Mosquito Spraying Begins

The Maryland Department of Agriculture will begin the adult mosquito surveillance and spraying program in Greenbelt Wednesday June 14, weather conditions permitting, between 7 and 11 p.m. Spraying will only be done in reported problem areas when the Department of Agriculture determines the problem areas require spraying. Determination for treatment for larviciding (treatment of immature stages of mosquitos) is made by doing dip counts in the reported breeding areas. This work will continue through early September.

The Greenbelt Public Works Department, 474-8004, will take citizen requests for mosquito spraying. When making a request for mosquito spraying, it is important to specify the time of day when the mosquitos are the worst and describe the exact location of the problem area. The requests will be forwarded to the Department of Agriculture each Friday afternoon.

The Department of Agriculture's policy requires the sprayer operator not spray any area where too many people are outside. This includes children on bicycles, people jogging or walking dogs, etc. The operator will try to return to the area at a later time, but this may not be possible due to time constraints.

Sprayer operators have always had a problem in Greenbelt with children on bikes, skateboards, etc. riding behind their truck to ride in and out of the spray. On occasion, children have actually tried to escape notice of the driver and hold onto the back of the truck while spray was being released. Continuation of this inappropriate behavior could cause the State to stop the spraying program in Greenbelt.

The Department of Agriculture would like to know the location of any beekeepers within the city. Chemicals used for spraying (malathion and permethrin) are highly toxic to bees exposed to direct treatment or to residues remaining on the treated area.

PG Jewish Festival

Prince Georges County Jewish Festival 1995 is Sunday, June 11 from noon to 5 p.m. at Prince Georges Community College. The day will feature traditional Jewish art, music and food, including Israeli folk dancing with Rocky Korr.

There will also be a special children's program for youngsters from 2 to 17 years old. Children may sing along with Kosher Karaoke, design ritual items to take home, participate in mini-Maccabi games and much more. There will also be a Maccabi track meet. Maccabi games are olympic-style events inspired by the Maccabees, an ancient group of Jewish warriors.

The Jewish Festival is sponsored by the college, Prince Georges County, United Jewish Appeal Federation of Greater Washington, Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission, the Embassy of Israel and Prince Georges Community Foundation.

There is a fee. For more information call (301) 454-1870.

CARES Hosts Statewide Youth Services Meeting

by Millie O'Dea

Carol Leventhal of Greenbelt CARES Youth and Family Services was hostess to the annual meeting of the Maryland Association of Youth Services Bureaus (MAYSB) on May 25 in the Greenbelt City Council meeting room. Directors and staff members from the Maryland county youth and family services came from all over the state. The president of MAYSB, Linda Lombardo of Baltimore County, was the first speaker of the day that included several guest speakers and an exchange of concerns. The meeting emphasized prevention services.

Darold Johnson of the Children's Defense Fund shared staggering statistics regarding youth, one being that every day three children die from child abuse. Johnson focused on the Welfare Reform bill and what effect the cut off of child care programs would have on "our youth". He stressed the need to "avoid carelessness and callousness toward our children."

Richard Friedman, Director of Juvenile Justice Advisory Council and Dr. Lee Cornelius, of the University of Maryland also spoke. Members of MAYSB were called on to get involved beyond their individual community youth services, participating as a group in getting correct data to policy makers on the state and national levels and to call on public officials to be accountable.

One issue presented to the members reached beyond the meeting room to every parent in every community -- the importance of a personal audit. Do I have a gun in my house? Do I use alcohol or drugs? What are my values? Am I part of the problem? What can I do to be part of the solution?

"Bee a Honey Day" At Watkins Park

Watkins Nature Center is sponsoring an activity in celebration of bees and their sweet, sticky honey. This family event will be held on Saturday, June 10, from 1 - 4 p.m., and will feature games, crafts, door prizes, honey treats, and a chance to talk with professional beekeepers!

The New Deal Cafe Signs up Members

The New Deal Cafe signed up its first group of charter members at an open meeting in the Greenbelt Theatre last Saturday. Following presentations made by representatives of several planning committees, 40 attendees (most everyone present) became initial members of what will become the newest Greenbelt coop.

The new members immediately elected a Board of Directors to guide the New Deal through opening its doors and welcoming customers during its first year or two of operations. The five-member board consists of Alex Barnes, Amy Hanson, S. Lee "slee" Henry, Diane Whaples, and Brian York. Charles Obadia will be covering for Alex Barnes while Alex is working in Russia this summer. Open Board meetings during the next two months will be held every other week at a location yet to be determined.

Planned for the Roosevelt Center, the New Deal Cafe will offer a variety of fine coffees, desserts, and light vegetarian cuisine in an eclectic sit-and-chat atmosphere.

For all internet-surfers, the latest news on the New Deal can be read by viewing the NewDealWeb page, currently at the address: <http://eta.pha.jhu.edu/~NewDeal/> or send email to NewDeal@pha.jhu.edu.

There's still time to sign up as a charter member. Send mail to the NewDeal, P.O. Box 992 or pick up an application at the information desk at the Greenbelt Library.

families, and we rebelled against the existing Bourgeois values," Penney recalls. "Being young, we never doubted our own capabilities..."

Penney described the group as half Jewish, half Gentile. Religion was not a factor in the heady world of the intellect. "We thought about how people lived, and why; we thought about what we did not like and what our values should be and how we wanted to change the world," she reflected.

She described Etty as darkly romantic, living in a world where suffering became the central theme of life. "As the outer world became more menacing, suffering became more and more a triumphant way out... The stronger one wanted to become, the more one should suffer," Penney commented.

After the Germans occupied Holland, Jews were rounded up and sent to Westerbork, a detention camp near the German border. From there, most were sent to their deaths in the Auschwitz concentration camp in Poland.

Etty's friends tried to persuade her to go into hiding or to escape to a safer place. But, as it stated in the book, An Interrupted Life, which contains more than 100 of Etty's diary entries and letters, "She did not want to escape the fate of the Jewish people. She believed that she could do justice to life only if she did not abandon those in danger, and if she used her strength to bring light into the life of others. Survivors from the camp confirmed that Etty was a 'luminous' personality to the last. Her final letter, a postcard flung from a train on its way to Auschwitz, read, "We left the camp singing."

Penney herself spent the war years in Holland. She obtained false identity papers and worked as an au pair for various households. When questioned, she told people she worked for rural families because the food was better. Of the 15 family members of Penney's generation living in Holland at the time, only six survived after the war.

In 1946, Penney obtained a job with the Netherlands Bank processing loans made by the World Bank. In 1948, she came to Washington to work for the World Bank. In 1950 she met her future husband, Walter Penney at the International Student House. In anticipation of the birth of their third child in 1957, they moved to the Woodland Way subdivision on Northway in Greenbelt. After raising a family she became a computer specialist, earning her M.S. degree from the University of Maryland in 1975.

Etty Hillesum's diaries were written in the last two years of her life. A small portion has been translated and published in many parts of the World. Penney has been working recently to have the remainder of the diaries translated and published.

Others who participated on the program at the Holocaust Memorial were Betty Rogers, a journalist who read from Etty's diaries and letters; Manya Pach, a judge from the Netherlands, who talked about

"Holland and Westerbork during the Occupation"; Jan Willem Regenhardt, an Amsterdam historian, who discussed some of Etty's contemporaries whom he had interviewed over the years; Jan Geurt Gaarlandt, a publisher who first saw the value of Etty's diaries and was responsible for making the writings legible and publishing them. Gaarlandt noted that Etty's writings are both unique and universal.

A bronze bust of Etty created by the Dutch sculptor Pieter Starreveld was displayed. The bust was donated to the Research Institute by Etty's Dutch friends and can be seen in the Institute's library.

Noel Coward's Blithe Spirit Comes to Arts Center

by Konrad Herling

The Greenbelt Arts Center's schedule for the month features Noel Coward's comedy, "Blithe Spirit." Opening this Friday evening, June 9, at 8 p.m., the play runs three weekends through June 24. There is also a Sunday matinee performance, June 11 at 2 p.m. This play directed by Bob Thompson and produced by Mary Seng, concludes a busy and stimulating 1994-1995 season. It features a number of actors who have played important parts in earlier productions.

Both Seng and Thompson bring a broad range of experiences in community theatre, as both have been involved in set design and construction, lighting and sound operation and as a stage manager. Thompson's most recent contribution was as a performer, Officer Krupp, in "Time of your life". Seng and Thompson also share another common experience: Both played pivotal roles in converting the former bowling alley into a performing arts space.

The Seng/Thompson combo has done an excellent job in converting the Arts Center's space from the setting of "The Time of Your Life" to a warm, rich living room accomodating a most intriguing set of characters and scenes. But enough of the prelude, what is this play about?

Well, it will require a little imagination. After all, how would you react if your husband's ex-wife showed up for an uninvited stay?

What if the ex had been dead for seven years? How does this all come to be? Charles Condomine, the husband in the story wants to write a thriller about a "homicidal medium." He invites Madame Arcati, the local psychic, over for a seance to develop jargon for his book.

He and his current wife, Ruth, got more than they bargained for. Madame Arcati must find out why.

"Blithe Spirit" stars Jack Shaw as Charles Condomine, Joe Blais as Ruth, an Cristina Sovereign as Elvira. Jack has appeared in several films including the currently released "Major Payne." Jo Blaise produced the award-winning production of "Jigsaws." You may have met her as Samantha the bartender in the recently concluded production of "Time of your Life." Christina Sovereign has appeared in Cedar Lane Stage's production of "Oedipus The King" and other local area productions.

Paul Noyes (a.k.a. Madison V. Marbury), Della Dennis and Lauren Zambreny brighten the stage with their fine supporting roles. Paul and Lauren have appeared in many Greenbelt productions but Della is making her stage debut after several years of working behind the scenes.

Sheila Crossley has also appeared in several Greenbelt productions. She has appeared in "Blithe Spirit" before... as Edith the maid... and returns as Madam Arcati, who must find a way to send Elvira home.

To find out what exactly happens to Elvira and to you as an observer, you can make your reservations by calling 441-8770.

POLICE BLOTTER

Based on Information
Released by the Greenbelt
Police Department

The Greenbelt west area was plagued with crime incidents during the week ending June 2. It began with the armed robbery of a woman in the 9100 block of Edmonston Terrace on Friday, May 26 at 10:32 p.m. While parking her car, she observed three persons walk towards her and then stop. When she left her car, one of the three ran towards her, produced an unknown type of handgun and demanded her purse. After getting the purse, the three fled the area. The suspects are described as: (1) a black male, 18-22, 5'9", 135 pounds, wearing a black jacket, black baggie jeans and a dark colored ski mask; (2) a black male, 11 to 22, wearing dark clothing; and (3) a black male wearing a dark tee shirt and dark baggy pants.

On Sunday, May 28 at 1:34 a.m. a man was assaulted in the parking lot of a restaurant in the 6000 block of Greenbelt Road when a vehicle, described as a red Chevrolet Astro van, pulled into the lot. Three males got out of the vehicle and approached the victim, who was with a friend, and assaulted him. The suspects then fled the scene in the van. The victim was treated for a cut near his left eye at Doctors Community Hospital.

At 4:39 p.m. on Monday a citizen reported being a victim of a strong-arm robbery in the parking lot near a bank ATM machine in the 6000 block of Greenbelt Road. Leaving the ATM, the victim was approached by a man who demanded his money. When the victim refused, the suspect punched him in the head, took money from him and fled, possibly in a red car. The suspect is described as a black male between 20 and 30 years of age, 6'3", 200 pounds, with a close cropped beard and wearing dark clothing.

Several juveniles reportedly assaulted a citizen in the area of Breezewood Court and Cherrywood Terrace at 8:46 p.m. on Tuesday, May 30. The victim, who is mentally challenged, was approached by approximately ten juveniles while taking a walk. The juveniles threw rocks at the victim, then fled the area. The victim was treated for bruises and swelling to the eye, head and back.

Hotline on Drugs

The Greenbelt Police Department needs the help of residents. Any citizen with information about possible drug activity in the city is encouraged to call the Greenbelt Narcotics Hot Line at 507-6524. Callers may remain anonymous.

A strong arm robbery was reported in the wooded area between the Springhill Lake Recreation Center and the 9300 block of Edmonston Court on Wednesday, May 31, at 10:24 p.m. While crossing a foot bridge, the suspects ran up from behind and grabbed the victim, demanding money. The victim surrendered his wallet, keys and checkbook. The suspects fled toward the 9300 block of Edmonston Road. Upon being notified, police tried to trail the suspects with a K-9 dog, without success. However, they did find the victim's empty wallet and keys.

As a cab driver left his vehicle upon completing his shift, he was approached by one of two persons who produced a handgun and demanded the victim's money. The victim knocked the gun out of the suspect's hand, grabbed the suspect by his jacket, threw him to the ground and began yelling for help. The other suspect began attacking the victim and attempted to hit him with a stick. The victim let go and both suspects fled toward Springhill Lane from the location in the 6200 block of Springhill Drive. The victim recovered the weapon, a BB pistol. He suffered a bruised hip, which did not require treatment. This occurred on Thursday, June 1, at 1:08 a.m. The suspects are described as: (1) a black male, age 14 to 16, 5'4", 120 pounds with black hair and brown eyes and wearing a leather jacket and blue jeans; and (2) a black male, 14 to 16, 5'8", 135 pounds with black hair.

Other Crime

A Forestville man was charged with the assault of a non-resident female in the parking lot of Greenway Center following a traffic altercation on Monday, May 29 at 1:44 p.m. The victim suffered a laceration to the face and a possible sprained ankle, after falling from a punch to the face. The suspect left the area but presented himself at the police station a short time later.

Reward

The Greenbelt City Police Department is offering a reward of up to $500 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of person(s) responsible for any of the unsolved crimes as reported in Criminal Investigations in the Police Blotter in the Greenbelt News Review. Contact 507-6530. All information is confidential.

Two juveniles reportedly vandalized the front door of an apartment building in the 100 block of Westway on Sunday, May 28 at 2:57 p.m. The glass was broken with either a rock or a BB gun. The pair were observed running from the area after the glass was broken. One was a white male, approximately 13 years of age, 5'0", wearing a white shirt, baseball cap and a baseball glove. The other, also a white male, approximately 10 years of age, shorter than his companion, was described as wearing a blue shirt, baseball cap and baseball glove.

When a vehicle was stopped for a traffic violation in the area of Greenbelt Road and Walker Drive at 12:41 a.m. on Monday, May 28, a passenger became disorderly after being asked to exit the vehicle in order to be checked for weapons. After he continued to be disorderly despite warnings from the officer, the Washington, D.C. man was charged with disorderly conduct. He was later released pending trial.

The School Resource Officer at Eleanor Roosevelt High School arrested a 16 year old nonresident for possession of tobacco on May 26. He was released on citation pending trial. At the Springhill Lake Elementary School a wallet was reported taken from a purse on May 31.

A bicycle was taken from a storage bin in the 6200 block of Springhill court, according to a report filed on Saturday, May 27. Graffiti was sprayed on the backboard of a ball court in the 8200 block of Mandan Court on Tuesday at 6:45 p.m. A burglary was reported on Wednesday in the 7200 block of South Ora Court, with a basement window being broken to gain entry and a cordless telephone taken. The glass in a door at a residence in the 8200 block of Canning Terrace was reported broken out on Wednesday. On Thursday, June 1 a burglary was reported at a residence under construction in the 6600 block of Springcrest Drive. Part of an electric stove was taken.

Auto Thefts

A 1987 Chevrolet Caprice station wagon, grey in color, was reported stolen from the 7900 block of Mandan Road. It was recovered June 1 in Washington in the 300 block of 50th Street, S.E. A 1990 Acura Legend, stolen on May 24 from the 7400 block of Morrison Drive was recovered on the 27th in the 1600 block of Maryland Avenue, N.E. by the Metropolitan Police Department. The Baltimore City Police Department recovered a 1991 Chevrolet Blazer on May 29 in the 200 block of Shawan Road. It had been reported stolen on April 29.

On May 31, while patrolling the 5900 block of Cherrywood Terrace, an officer observed a suspicious, unoccupied vehicle in the parking lot, checked it out on the computer and determined it was stolen from Philadelphia. It was a 1993 Mazda MX6-2-door. On the same date a vehicle stolen in the 9200 block of Edmonston on the 23rd was recovered in the 500 block of Drake Place in Washington. It had been stripped of parts.

Local Ham Radio Club Receives National Affiliation

by Randy Crenwelge

Friday, May 26, was a great day for the Central Maryland Amateur Radio Club (CMARC). On that day, CMARC celebrated its acceptance as an affiliated radio club of the American Radio Relay League (ARRL). To obtain affiliation with the ARRL, 51 or more percent of CMARC members had to be members of the ARRL.

On hand to celebrate were approximately 20 of CMARC's members: Bill Howard, ARRL Section Manager for Maryland; Hugh Turnbull, ARRL Atlantic Division Director; and Tony Young, ARRL Affiliated Club Coordinator. Young presented CMARC President Oscar Ramsey with a certificate of ARRL affiliation. Bill Howard provided an update of ham radio activities in Washington and the future plans and directions for the ARRL.

Greenbelt hams have provided communications for the Greenbelt Labor Day Parade; teach ham radio classes to beginners, which are held locally; have provided communications for four wheel drive vehicles used to bring essential medical staff personnel to area hospitals during winter storms; and are preparing to test their communications capabilities under emergency conditions using portable generators.

Ham radio is a multi-faceted hobby of personal enjoyment and accomplishment, and is a very social hobby. Hams make hundreds of friends while operating their own radio stations from their homes, cars, and outdoors. They visit with other hams across town or across the world, using radio transmitters and receivers, and antennas. Hams have great fun. It is a lifelong hobby dedicated to international good will, friendship, technological innovation, emergency communications and public service. Hams communicate with each other using Morse code, voice, television, teletype, and data transmission.

The ARRL serves as the official, non-profit voice of ham radio dealings with the government, publishes a monthly magazine (QST), provides insurance to hams, promotes ham radio, and is dedicated to the future of the hobby.

Those interested in ham radio are invited to attend CMARC's monthly meetings at the New Carrollton Municipal Center at 7:30 p.m. on the fourth Friday of the month. They can also meet other local hams by talking on the CMARC 2 meter repeater on 145.23 MHz (minus offset).

Upcoming activities for CMARC include Field Day, a booth at the Greenbelt Labor Day Festival, and beginners' Novice/Technician FCC license classes beginning in September. For more information contact Oscar Ramsey, NV3G, CMARC President at 262-3392.

Greenbelt Municipal Swim Team News

Practices have begun for the Greenbelt Municipal Swim Team's upcoming Summer season, and are being held at the Greenbelt Municipal pool, Monday through Friday, from 6-7 p.m. for junior swimmers and 7-8 p.m. for seniors. Once the school year is over, practice times will switch to 6 - 7:30 a.m. for senior swimmers and 7:30-8:30 a.m. for juniors.

Club dues for Greenbelt residents are $15.00 for each swimmer. Non-residents must purchase Greenbelt Municipal pool passes to be eligible for membership.

The Barracudas moved into the Prince-Mont Swim League's "A" Division (top level) in 1994, finishing just one point short of the league championship. The team wishes to continue, building upon its record of success. Doing so requires an infusion of "new blood" into the team. Swimmers between the ages of 5 and 18 are eligible for membership. One need not be an excellent swimmer to join; in fact, beginners are eagerly sought. All that is required is a desire to learn and the time and determination to learn and grow.

Interested? If so, see Head Coach Gail Drake or Coach Sarah Lofgren during one of the practices.

Tutors Needed

Volunteer tutors are needed by the Literacy Council to work with adult new readers in Prince Georges County. Training is provided and the next workshop begins on Saturday, June 17.

Call the Prince Georges Voluntary Action Center, Inc. at (301) 699-2800.

Learn About Columns

The U.S. National Arboretum will present a program on the history of the national capitol columns. In 1958 the east central portico of the United States Capitol was carefully dismantled to make way for a marble clad addition. The original bases, columns and capitals were placed in storage until 1984 when they were transferred to the U.S. National Arboretum. The transfer was fostered by the Friends of the National Arboretum, who raised private funds to re-erect the columns in the herb garden meadow. William Allen, architectural historian of the Capitol, will present a slide program in which he will discuss the history of the columns, the craftsmen, the quarries and the history of the Capitol itself and finally the erection of the 22 columns at the Arboretum in 1990 on Wednesday, June 14, 1:30 p.m. in the Administration Building Auditorium.

The Arboretum is located at 3501 New York Avenue, NE, Washington, D.C. Phone 202-245-2726 for more information.

Live Trout Fishing At Landover Mall

Trout lovers will have the opportunity to go fishing Father's Day weekend right in the Landover Mall Center Court fountain! The fun-filled family event takes place on the Lower Level of Landover Mall Friday, June 16 through Sunday, June 18. The fountain in Center Court will be stocked with 800 live trout ranging from 8 to 17 inches. For a fee, anglers can fish for seven minutes and may keep or release the fish they catch. Fishing poles, line, lure or bait are supplied. Every trout caught is put in a plastic bag and may be kept fresh in an ice cooler until the angler is ready to go home.

Hundreds of the live trout will be tagged for prizes. Prizes include three Landover Mall Shopping sprees, custom embroidered fishing hats and dozens of prizes from participating Landover Mall merchants. There will also be an opportunity for anglers to have their pictures taken with their "catch of the day".

Martha's Table, a non-profit organization that feeds over 750 hungry and homeless people a day, will be the recipient of all left over trout. It is estimated there will be approximately 200 live trout remaining after the three day promotion. Martha's Table staff members will pick the live trout up from Landover Mall Sunday, June 18 at 7 p.m. They expect to feed approximately 800 hungry or homeless people with the left over trout through five locations in Washington, DC.

Hello Again !!
 As we all know, as time goes on things change. One of the biggest differences in the Automotive business was the introduction of all self service gasoline outlets. There's nothing wrong with this principle but the custom & personal touch that we all have received is all but gone. When I started in this field it was automatic to ask if I could check under the hood. I was taught to spot potential problems just by a simple visual inspection and this practice stayed with me. I, in turn, taught it to our staff.
 We learned that Preventive Maintenance does in fact save dollars and lots of them, even factor the non money part into it, i.e.: lost work time, being late, having to rely on a colleague and then personal problems. The list goes on & on. Now with the weather turning hot it's very important to spot potential problems before they start.
 If you question anything about your vehicle don't hesitate to stop on by or call for your personal appointment.
 Till next time!
THINK PREVENTIVE MAINTENANCE !!
