

Paper Salvage Commandoes Go Over The Top

Victory Commandoes really knocked the top off the 2000 lb. newspaper collection quota set for last Saturday morning. Inclement weather did not at all hinder the work for the day and when the work was completed, there was a total of 5375 lbs., representing $33.79 in cash, and it cannot be stressed too much to ask every home to please cooperate with this grand bunch of children. It will be most helpful if you would separate the newspapers from the magazines and tie each package securely with twine, then place the bundles on the porch on Saturday morning where they will be picked up by the Commandoes who start collecting at 8:00 a. m. Twine costs only 15 cents a ball and besides being used for tying up newspapers for the Commandoes it is most useful around the house. When the papers are not tied up, it means a great deal of work after collection which almost defeats the purpose since it necessitates the work of several to prepare the bundle. Furthermore, it is the patriotic duty of all American citizens to help in this endeavor and obey the rules and regulations laid down by the War Production Board which specify that the bundles be tied. Won't you all please cooperate in this worthy cause? We want to be able to count on all Greenbelters. The Commandoes will proceed as usual this coming Saturday and a truck will be in back of the firehouse, for this purpose from 8:00 to 10:00 a. m.

Horse Show Sunday at Sherrod East's Farm

Members of the Indian Creek Trail Riders club and the riding club of the University of Maryland will stage a horse show at the Sherrod East Farm which is located just past the intersection of Branchville and Edmonston roads, near Greenbelt high school, Sunday beginning at 10:30 a. m.

The line-up of events includes four pony classes, four gymkhana and five horse show classes. Prizes for the winners are being donated and will be announced at the show.

The affair is a benefit, half of the proceeds to go to the Branchville rescue squad. The luncheon concession will be operated by the Maryland Minute Men Reserve Company No. 930 of Berwyn.

Dr. Linden Dodson of Greenbelt is president of the Trail Riders group and Joe Rogers of the University of Maryland is president of the student organization. Dr. Dodson will ride in the show. Other Greenbelters who will assist are Mrs. James McCarl, who will be the entry secretary, Mrs. Ethel Ackerman, score record secretary, and Sherrod East, paddock manager.

Judge for the benefit will be Dr. Charles Mahoney.

Boy Scouts Sell GCA Hallowe'en Ducats

With the local Boy Scout troop making house-to-house advance ticket sales, plans for the festive Hallowe'en ball to be presented by the Greenbelt Citizens' Association are practically completed according to Byron Roshon, who is in charge of the fund raising dance. Bob Hannan's ten-piece band will provide music for the traditional affair which is to be held on Saturday, October 30 in the auditorium of the elementary school.

Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes and dancing contests will be held.

"Since funds raised by Citizens' Association dances are expended for the benefit of the community, it is hoped that the Hallowe'en ball will be well supported," stated President Dayton W. Hull.

North End School Is Ahead of Schedule

The new school building is ready ahead of schedule for the north end pupils who will take possession Tuesday morning. The principal has requested that each parent affected read carefully the letter of instructions giving the necessary information.

Everything—furniture, equipment and supplies will be the same as the old school—just the building is different.

It goes without saying that every north end parent will welcome the advantage of having the young child's school near home with the advantage of having the child go home to a hot lunch during the winter months. Two other advantages are that the small children are separated from the older groups and that they will not have to travel through the center of town.

Mrs. Perkett Is New Legion Aux. President

The Greenbelt unit of the American Legion auxiliary installed new officers Thursday evening. The home unit was honored in having one of its own members preside at the installation. Mrs. Thomas Freeman was installed Wednesday in Baltimore as vice-president of the Southern Maryland district, and the Greenbelt installation was the first over which she had presided. The department officers for Maryland were special guests.

The new officers are Mrs. Oliver B. Perkett, president; Mrs. Edward C. Kaighn, first vice-president; Mrs. Robert R. Gray, second vice-president; Mrs. Miriam Provost, secretary and Mrs. Carl J. Jernberg, treasurer.

Refreshments were served.

Town To Collect Tin Cans Twice Monthly

A renewed effort to collect tin cans will begin Wednesday when the garbage collection crew will make an extra trip around town to collect all tin cans put out by residents.

Harry Rhodes, engineer in charge of public works and sanitation, stated that tin can collections in Greenbelt in the past have had a very poor response. It is hoped that by making the collection every two weeks on Wednesdays the returns will be greater. The town will compete with other towns in Prince Georges county as all collections will be made throughout the county on the same day and will be weighed in at the same salvage station.

Houswives are asked to follow proper procedure for preparing the cans for detinning. The can should be thoroughly washed, the label removed, both ends removed and placed inside the can before the can is pressed flat.

Cans are to be placed in a container and left along the road for the collectors to pick up. Mr Rhodes said it will be impossible for town employees to take the time to go to each individual house so the containers should be placed at the roadway at the entrance to each court. Residents of apartments will place theirs along the roads, also.

Police Warn Parents

In cooperation with the county and state boards of health, local Chief of Police George Panagoulis has requested that parents in Greenbelt endeavor to keep their children away from dogs and cats during the present ninety-day emergency.

Anyone who is bitten by a dog should immediately report to Dr. William Eisner, public health officer; to Chief Panagoulis or call Greenbelt 2011.

As all Greenbelt leases contain a provision prohibiting the keeping of dogs and cats it is not expected that the town will have many cases of this type.

Greenbelt Loses Lt. Curt Barker

By BILL MOORE

When the Navy saw fit to ship Lt. (j.g.) Curtiss F. Barker out to Kansas City last Thursday the town of Greenbelt lost one of its most civic-minded citizens and one of its best athletes. In five and a half years Curt has gained a host of friends who are truly sorry to see their neighbor leave.

At one time or another Curt has served terms in the hectic days of the Health Association on the board, in the town council, and in the Athletic Club's governing body, besides being most active in local sports.

In his younger days he was given a trophy for being the outstanding athlete-scholar at Highland Park High in Detroit. For the past two local elementary school graduations he has seen fit to pass on similar awards to the best such Greenbelt youngster. Teddie Fox and Dolores Wolfe were the winners of the C. F. B. trophy.

When young Barker graduated from Highland Park he was offered a scholarship to the University of Michigan which he lost because of a badly injured knee, hurt in football. He turned his affiliation to Michigan State Normal where he did very well by his books and became collegiate golf champion as well.

Soon after graduation Curt married his college sweetheart, Beulah Gullen and came to Washington to work for the F. B. I. He went to law school at night and passed the District of Columbia Bar a couple of years ago.

When Curt and Beulah came to Greenbelt in March of 1938 the town's only recreation was softball. Pop Widger organized a representative team that year and played several games with nearby communities, thriving on several tiffs with Laurel.

Next summer saw the start of the softball Reps (so dubbed by old Notre Dame Johnny Mesner as short for Pop Widger's Representatives) with Barker doing most of the pitching and a lot of the hitting. In all Curt has pitched the Reps to 2 County League titles and one County Tournament championship. He will always be remembered as a sterling competitor, courageous and aggressive swinging for base hits, risking his still-bum knee on hard slides for that extra base, and pitching always the best he knew how.

His all round good playing and popularity won him a fine suit of clothes awarded by Lou Gerstel for Marvin's on a season-long tabulation of votes from the fans conducted by the old "Sports Parade" in 1941.

The bespectacled athlete captained and played guard on the town basketball team, also named Reps, for the 3 years of its existence. He had a pretty fair scoring eye but excelled at retrieving the ball off opponents' backboard and setting up scoring plays for his mates.

To prove his versatility and hush whisperings that the mush-balls would be foul balls on the baseball diamond, Curt joined the Shamrock nine (formed a year after the Reps) and confounded the "wiseacres" by batting .358, third best on the club in that 1942 season. He played 18 games, covering third base, short, second and all three outfield positions, helping out when regulars were absent and outhitting them generally. He committed but 3 errors at that!

Only 3 Shamrocks played more games than Curt in the season just ended. His batting average shrank to .292 but he batted in 15 runs, and scored as many, on his 27 bingles that included 3 doubles and 2 triples. He spent

New Manager Repeals Clothes Line Curfew

The local "clothes line curfew" was repealed this week, it was announced by James T. Gobbel, community manager.

The announcement, which was made in a letter sent to each resident of the town, came as a complete surprise and was one of the first acts of the new town manager.

The regulation which prohibited the hanging of clothes on outdoor lines after 4 p. m. and on Sundays has met with almost universal disfavor, especially on the part of working housewives.

Although the letter to the towns people was somewhat indefinite about the ban on weekday clothes line use, Manager Gobbel explained to the COOPERATOR reporter that the ban has been lifted completely.

The town manager, did, however, request that the housewives cooperate by having the clothes off the lines after noon time on Sundays.

Woman's Club Fetes Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Pence

The Woman's Club of Greenbelt gave a tea Sunday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Roy S. Braden and her mother, Mrs. D. E. Pence, both of whom were among the first members of the club. Mrs. Braden is the wife of Roy S. Braden, former town manager, who recently resigned to take a similar position at High Point, N. C. The tea was held at the home of Mrs. Leon G. Benefiel, club director and a past president.

Mrs. Benefiel introduced Mrs. Catherine T. Reed, former principal of Greenbelt Elementary School and now a Prince Georges county supervisor, who spoke of her long and pleasant association with Mrs. Braden. Mrs. Reed spoke particularly of the close relationship between Mrs. Braden and her mother and the fine influence this relationship had upon the townspeople. She paid tribute to Mrs. Pence and her daughter when she said, "She must have had a wonderful mother to have begotten such a lovely daughter."

Mrs. Thomas Freeman sang a solo, "Forgotten", for Mrs. Braden and in honor of Mrs. Pence she sang, "Little Old Lady". At the conclusion she presented an old fashioned bouquet to Mrs. Pence.

As a remembrance of the honored couple Mrs. Daniel Branch presented each member and guest with a small picture of Mrs. Braden and Mrs. Pence. Mrs. S. H. Downs made the presentation of the club's parting gifts to Mrs. Braden and Mrs. Pence. Mrs. Braden made the reply for her mother and herself and said that she had never worked with a group of women as fine and as cooperative. She stated that the members of the club never worked selfishly or with the idea of individual glory but always for the greatest interest of the club and asked that they continue in the same fine spirit the good work for the club, the town and the county. She said that Greenbelt will always be a bright spot in her memory and that she hopes to return often.

In conclusion Mrs. Alfred Lee, president of the Prince Georges County Federation of Women's Clubs and now a member of the Greenbelt club, spoke a few words.

Refreshments were served in the decorated dining room. Mrs. Daniel Littlefield poured and she was assisted by Mrs. George E. Clark, president and Mrs. Samuel Houlton, vice-president. The candle-lit tea table was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and other fall flowers. Guests who attended the affair were: Mrs. Frank H. Donaghue, Mrs. Elizabeth Fickes, Mrs. Z. M. Gathright, Mrs. David R. Steinle and Mrs. C. E. Welsh.

The Community Church Guild will hold a bake sale in the food store tomorrow morning. Mrs. George Wyant is chairman.

Youth Held After Robbery Here

A Takoma Park naval officer, Lieut. David H. Seidell, 26, received a bullet wound in the jaw last week-end when he was shot and robbed on the road leading from the Baltimore Pike to Greenbelt.

Police stated that Lieutenant Seidell picked up an 18 year old youth who identified himself as Floyd Junior Madison of Stillwater, Okla., in Hyattsville. The youth allegedly drew a gun and forced Seidell to turn into the Greenbelt road and then robbed him of $50. Seidell was shot when he resisted, police said.

The officer attracted the attention of passing motorists who notified Prince Georges County police. Seidell was removed to Georgetown hospital.

Police searched the nearby woods and later took the alleged hold-up man into custody.

The youth reportedly confessed to the slaying of James E. Long, Oklahoma highway patrolman in 1942. The policeman was killed when he went to the aid of a 15 year old girl who was struggling with an assailant in an Oklahoma City park.

Prince Georges officials lodged charges against Madison of armed robbery and assault with intent to kill.

Orchestra To Give First Concert Wed.

The Greenbelt concert orchestra, directed by Henri Sokolov, will give its first concert Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the Greenbelt elementary school. The orchestra was organized for three purposes: to provide an opportunity for musical expression for the people of the town and vicinity; to play concerts for those who enjoy good music and to provide an incentive for younger musicians interested in orchestral playing.

The members of the organization have worked hard to bring the orchestra to the point where a concert can be offered and they deserve the support of the people of Greenbelt.

Henri Sokolov, director and violinist, is well known as a teacher of music. He served at one time as concert master for the National Symphony Orchestra and also for the Washington Opera Company. Because he believes in music he has given his time to help develop musical talent in Greenbelt for the past two years and has made considerable progress with a beginners' string group.

The Greenbelt Citizens Association, under the presidency of Walter Slocum, helped to organize the orchestra and is continuing its interest in the organization.

Because of the paper shortage programs will not be printed and it is suggested that those interested cut a copy of the program from the COOPERATOR and bring it to the concert. Girl Scouts will serve as ushers and no admission fee will be charged.

Grocers Also Have Problems

(Editor's Note: During the absence of Editor Waldo Mott the Cooperator has invited prominent local men to be the guest editorialists. This week's editorial writer is Thomas B. Jeffries, manager of the G. C. S. food store.

Emily Post, in her recent article in "This Week" magazine based on the grocer's reply to customers asking for items that are hard to obtain, stated that women are becoming weary of hearing, "Don't you know there's a war on?" I found it very interesting and I'd like to take Mrs. Post to task.

It's true women know there's a war on; it's also true some of them don't realize what that means. It's true grocers know there's a war on; it's also true some women don't realize that. Knowledge and realization of the word "war" are two separate expressions, have two separate meanings.

Mrs. Post and the women say they know there's a war on. If that is true, then why don't they take time to realize its true meaning, realize the fact the grocer has more problems today than ever before. Realize the fact that they could, if they would, help him and at the same time make shopping easier for themselves.

Here are the things you can do to help. Don't hoard food. Hoarding is unnecessary, un-American, utterly foolish and will not help win the war. There is still plenty of good food in this great country of ours. If you must hoard, then hoard war bonds. Food rationing is necessary to assure everyone an equal share and will help to win the war.

To save time and unnecessary delays at the checking counters, plan your order in advance, add the point values and have your ration books ready.

Point values are set by OPA—not by the grocer. It's true it may prove a hardship on meal-planning, but reshelves as they arrive from the wholesaler.

Last but not least, grocers do not hide any merchandise. All food items are bought to sell and are placed on the shelves as they arrive from the wholesaler.

Remember too, we all have loved ones in the armed services and we all hope and pray that this war will be over soon. In the meantime, let's all try hard to keep smiling, to be courteous and helpful and kind to each other. Let's all pray to God and give thanks to Him that we are Americans.—T.B.J.

O. C. D. Cards Sought

The Prince Georges county civilian defense council is endeavoring to obtain the enrollment cards that were sent over thirty days ago. All personnel who received these cards are requested to forward the completed cards to the defense council as soon as possible and to enroll the balance of the personnel in their services within the next ten days.

Director J. R. Sherwood stated he could not emphasize the necessity of having the proper enrollment of the personnel, in case of injury, because if this enrollment is not properly on file in his office there is a possibility the injured party will be denied compensation.

Greenbelters in Uniform

Word has been received that John James Bozek and Lloyd Davies, formerly of Greenbelt and now serving in the U. S. Naval Reserve, have been chosen by the Navy Department to be sent to college and participate in the Naval College Training Program. Both boys attended Greenbelt High School. John graduated with the class of '42. Lloyd withdrew from school in his junior year to join the navy.

Captain and Mrs. Daniel B. Branch of 45-B Ridge road, are spending a few days in New York City.

The Tattler Says:

The Tattler certainly scored a direct hit the past two weeks when he suggested the abolition of the "clothes line curfew". Town Manager Jim Gobbel certainly started his regime well when he repealed that regulation.

A couple of unsigned communications came in this week and went right into the waste basket. All letters must be signed but the names will be withheld on request.

Curt Barker was commissioned an ensign in the Navy late in the 1942 summer and is now a junior grade lieutenant. His wife and their two little boys, Curtis Franklin, Jr. and Brent, will soon be leaving town to rejoin their husband and pop and carry to him the respect and best wishes from the town he helped grow.

To the Editor---

To The Editor:

In the interest of democracy would you be kind enough to print the enclosed notice in the Cooperator as a public service. If possible in the October 22nd issue as it is necessary in order to make some people think.

As a suggestion, an editorial at this time on the duty of every citizen to express his right to vote would be timely.

It is in the interest of Greenbelt that we have as many registered voters as possible in order to maintain our own polling place. It would be unfortunate if the number of registered voters fell so low that the County discontinued a polling place in Greenbelt, forcing those wishing to vote to go to Branchville as we had to until last year.

I am sure that whatever publicity you can give this notice that all of Greenbelt will appreciate it regardless of political affiliations.

Directions to Mr. Phillips' residence: Baltimore pike opposite B. and J. service station, about one block north of the new Greenbelt road intersection.

Statements may also be filed at Mr. Bowie's office in Marlboro.

Children's Party Tonight

Final plans were formulated at the regular monthly meeting of B'nai B'rith, October 6 for a children's party to be held this evening at 8 o'clock following the regular services celebrating the rejoicing of the Lord.

All Jewish children have been invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

War Fund Drive for Town, G.C.S. Schools

The community war fund drive will cover only the Greenbelt Administrative staff, the staff of Consumer Services and the schools. For that reason Greenbelt's contribution will seem very low in proportion to the town's population unless those who pledge at their places of employment indicate on their card that they wish Prince Georges county to share in their contribution Greenbelt's needs have not been great but excellent co-operation has always been received from the Prince Georges county community chest agency.

Mrs. Linden S. Dodson is the local chairman.

Community Church

"The Man Who Could Forget Himself" will be the sermon theme of The Reverend Wilmer Pierce Johnston at The Community Church Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. "Comforting Those Who Mourn" will be the subject of the children's sermon. The music will be in charge of Mr. G. Byron Roshon and Mrs. Milton Wiksell will preside at the organ.

At 9:30 a. m. the Church school will meet. Ample provision is made for all who desire to attend. The rooms are crowded and many classes meet in the main auditorium yet all will be provided for. The men's Bible class is well provided with substitute teachers while the class is finding a suitable teacher to take the place of Mr. Roy Braden. But now is the time for all to hold on.

All people living in Greenbelt who are not attending some other church are cordially invited to attend the Community Church. The Community Church offers one an unusual opportunity to participate in a great experiment.

Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. the regular meeting of the choir for rehearsal will take place in the social room. All are invited to contact Mr. Roshon if they desire to sing in the choir.

Catholic Church

Sunday Masses—7:30 a. m. and 9:30 a. m. Greenbelt theatre.

Co-op Lectures Planned

A group of Greenbelters who are interested in the cooperative movement met at the home of Robert St. Clair Sunday afternoon to institute a course on cooperatives.

A series of lectures by prominent people in the co-op movement is being planned, along with the course in cooperatives. These meetings will be open to the public. Organized classes will be sponsored as a part of the adult education program. All those interested in the cooperative movement including the workers in the stores and the other cooperatives are invited to register. Already ten people have indicated their intention of taking the course. The course will follow specifically the special interest of the students.

An organizational meeting is to be held Sunday afternoon, October 31 to set time of meetings, as well as the proposed agenda. A short program is also planned for that day. Educational committees of all the co-ops are asked to send representatives.

Those interested may register with Mrs. Mary Jane Kinzer.

A happy reunion took place Saturday evening when Lieut Waldo P. Johnson, III, U. S. N., and Mrs. Johnson, the former Suzanne J. Bole and Mrs. Johnson's brother, Leo R. Bole, visited their mother, Mrs. M. Bole, 38-A Crescent Road. Lieutenant Johnson is now stationed at the Naval Air Station in Wildwood, New Jersey, where he and his wife will make their residence.

School Students To Celebrate Hallowe'en

The fifth annual Hallowe'en party, sponsored by the recreation department, will be held in the elementary school auditorium Friday afternoon, October 29, from 1 to 5:30 o'clock for the grade school and from 9 to 12 P. M. for the high school and alumni.

Activities for the elementary school will begin with a costume parade through the town at 1 P. M. followed immediately by a party in the decorated auditorium for the second, third, fourth and fifth grades. After an hour of both new and traditional Hallowe'en games, the youngsters will adjourn to their homerooms for refreshments while the sixth and seventh grades assemble for their share in the fun. Several novel relays and contests, along with the old favorite, apple bobbing, and the selection of the prettiest, most original and the funniest costumes will follow with dancing. Refreshments will complete the afternoon for the grade school children.

The party and dance for the high school will open at 9 P. M. with an "odd or even" mixer, followed by a Paul Jones. At 10:30 dancing will be interrupted for a grand march after which prizes will be awarded for the costumes selected as the prettiest, most original and most comical.

The specialty of the evening will be a floor show consisting of several musical numbers, novelty contest and the customary Hallowe'en games, with special emphasis placed on a surprise guest performer. The remainder of the evening until 12 P. M. will be spent dancing to the music of the Serenaders, visiting the Gypsy fortune teller, and partaking of refreshments.

The high school students assisting the members of the Recreation Department in planning this affair are:

Decorations—Dickie Day, Ora Donoghue, Betty Dickson, Donald Brewer and Mahlon Eshbaugh; Refreshments—Fay Freeman, Betty Sinco, Ted Fox, Henry Gurney, Betty Gussio and Jane Linhardt.

100-2; Sansone 99-10; Schaffer 97-12; Boggs 97-1.

Basketball

At a meeting in Principal Paul Barnhart's office at the high school last Monday the basketball program for the kids was launched. Ben Godfaden was named head boys' coach and Miss Helena Knauer was given the unenviable task of duplicating the fine work of Miss Rose Nudo, who is now in the Waves.

Goldfaden's boys begin practice Monday afternoon and will hold forth at the gym on Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons of each week. Miss Knauer's girls work out Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Coach Lou Gerstel plans to enter his Clovers in the men's Recreation Basketball League (gym night-Thursdays). He will draw his five and spares, from the baseball Shamrocks.

Grid Echoes

When the Packers reported for their first workouts under Coach C. J. VanCamp they showed a wealth of smart, rugged backfield material but small and discouraged linemen. Then, when the season began, those smallish shock troops proved game. They've been outweighed considerably in their 3 contests but have been the margin of victory each time. They have blocked no less than 7 punts already!

Dickie Day and Herb Sully at ends, Ray Bocherkt and Jimmie DeMarr, Frank Sipes and Mahlon Eshbaugh all have distinguished themselves.

The Home Front

By JUNE WILBUR

Perhaps it's a good thing that these times have put a limit on the variety of styles available in women's clothes. It makes selecting a little less confusing. But still, no one need feel abused that too many styles have been eliminated, there is still on which is correct for you. Remember, there are very few women fortunate enough to have figures that are just right, so if problems of dress confront you, take consolation in the fact that there are many sharing the same position.

From here on our discussion begins to sound like an accounting book with facts and figures and balancing the total. The facts are that color (previously discussed) and line are the foundations of style and these together can make or break the figure.

Therefore it is first important that you know your figure. Be vain, look in a mirror for a long time, squint at your image to close out the detail and see only the form. Then take note, where are you heaviest, slightest or about right? It is essential to know your figure before determining what lines will be best. The "about right" part will want to be emphasized, the "slightest" will need to be built up and the "heaviest" should be detracted from. If this sounds complicated, just think that what you want to do is to balance your figure.

Take a typical example of a person who needs some help: narrow shoulders, about right waist, heavy hips. A dress which has top fullness and padded shoulders, fitted waist and simple skirt with perhaps one box pleat down the center of front and back will do a good job of balancing this figure. Accent color should be around the neck or at the waist rather than on the skirt.

Lines go essentially either across or down. Since it is natural to follow with your eyes the direction of the line it is reasonable to conclude that lines can be made to work for you. A line across the shoulders in the form of a yoke will widen that area, a line up and down on the skirt will give height. Too many lines of course is a danger. Perhaps it will be easy to remember that a dress which is a perfectly good piece of fabric all chopped up is probably going to be difficult to wear.

The basic styles from which to build a wardrobe are three—sport, spectator and dress. These will be discussed in the next issue.

Packers Trim Hyattsville By 6-0; Eshbaugh Makes End-Zone Recovery

BY BILL MOORE

Hyattsville, Oct. 17—The Packers tripped over to Magruder Park to help the Hyattsville Police Boys' Club eleven inaugurate their football season but they were not any too helpful after they got there. They skinned the locals by a 6 to 0 score for their third straight victory.

Falls to Victory

Our young Packers have yet to turn "Opportunity" away from their door, once the old gent knocks. It was again their alert playing that secured a one touch-down margin. In the third period the Packers' scrappy center, Mahlon Eshbaugh, jumped on a loose ball, fumbled back of the Packers' goal line, for the game's only score.

Dan Jones' kicking was superb and it was a sturdily toed pigskin that led to his team's score. His 64 yard punt was gathered in on the home team's 14 yard line and they couldn't move it back on 3 tries, so they had to boot. The Green and White forward wall fell on the kicker for the seventh blocked kick in this young season. The loose ball was recovered on the home 3 yard mark by a Hyattsville lad.

An attempted running play was fatal for the Magruder Park kids as the leather oval squirted out of a pair of frantic paws for Eshbaugh to do a dead stick landing on.

The Packer line played a heavier Hyattsville line to a standstill and spent much of their time on infiltration tactics into the Police secondary.

Coach VanCamp used his entire roster against the hosts, Joe Cashman being the only 60 minute man. The redhead, Don Wolfe and Dan Jones gave the Green and White their best ground gains.

To Turn Other Cheek

If present dickerings are successful, Hyattsville will return the Packers a favor by showing up at Braden Field this Sunday. If not, Coach VanCamp assures that there will be a game with Mt. Rainier at 1:30 Sunday.

Delicatessen Team Cuts Eagles' Lead

By JOHN J. DEAN

Corner Delicatessen gained a full game on the leading Eagles as they whitewashed the Defenders 30-; while the Eagles defeated Paradise Lane 2-1, with Sansone's 146-357 topping the Eagles. Eshbaugh's 129-342 was not enough to stave off defeat. Vern Iseli turned on the heat as he set a new high game mark of 160 with a set of 368 which was tops for the evening, as the Commandos pinned the Scorpions 2-1, Tenderfeet devitaminized the Vitamen 2-1; American Legion had it on the Police and Firemen 2-1 and the Minute Men halted the Triggermen 2-1. Coop, with Paul Milasi in rare form, took the scalp of Joe Miller's Redskins 2-1; Yankees had too many guns for the Snafu outfit as they trimmed them 2-1, with Curt Barker celebrating his final bowling, prior to his departure for the midwest, by taking it out on the pins.

Scout Charter Night

Greenbelt's Boy Scout troop will get their tenderfoot badges Tuesday night at a special charter night meeting to which their parents are invited.

The highlight of the evening will be presentation of the national charter of the new troop by a representative of the National Capital Area council. This will mark the official beginning of the troop, although it has now been in actual operation for two months, holding all of its weekly meetings out of doors.

Scoutmaster John Waldo and Assistant Scoutmaster Freeman Morgan were completing the program this week with each of the four patrol leaders accepting responsibility for some part of the entertainment and ceremony. In addition to the investiture and presentations there are several skits and demonstrations ready for presentation.

The meeting will open at 7:30 p. m. in the Legion house on Southway road extension.

The Red Cross has been asked to help furnish the day room for soldiers at the new air base at Camp Springs, Md. which is in Prince Georges County. The School Week

The writer became so involved with insects during her visit to the school this week—along with 800 pupils—she finds it difficult to write about other matters.

These insects are stealing almost the whole column this week. And they've just about captured the complete interest of everyone in school. Although I couldn't take in all the boys and girls were ready to explain to me about insects. I did see things like terrariums, egg masses, larvae and antennae. To say nothing of a female praying mantis that had killed and eaten her mate, laid her eggs, then just keeled over and died, her life's work being completed. Still I'm looking forward to going over to school next spring and having some boy or girl show me her newly hatched family. The preying mantis is an insect to capture your interest and all the boys and girls are for them as they eat harmful insects.

Now, about meetings—expectation is keen about the P.T.A.'s meeting Monday evening. The teachers are looking forward to becoming acquainted with their pupils' parents during the classroom session from 7:30 to 8 o'clock.

One matter the writer would rather not mention and did hold until last regards the thoughtless manner in which some few of the grown-ups use the school classrooms at night. One or two classes reported that adults meeting in their rooms at night had thrown cigarette stubs and match sticks on the floor, left chairs and tables out of place and even library books on the floor. Perhaps these adults do not realize there is no janitor service between the time of their meetings and the opening of school in the morning.

From The Halls Of G. H. S.

BY MARILYN MARYN

From the junior class comes news of the Junior Jump which was held last Friday night. A total profit of $35 was realized and the dance was considered a big success. The door prize was won by Margaret Walker. Black discs resembling phonograph records hanging from the walls made a big hit with the gang.

Thursday afternoon we were relieved from the usual monotony of afternoon classes by a half holiday. There was a county teachers' meeting in Bladensburg.

At the last meeting of the Pioneer a permanent staff was elected. Dolores Davidson, editor; Marion Ball, assistant editor; Dot Wood, business manager; Kathleen Scott and Rachael Lewis, class room reporters; Pat Brown and Leah Sauer, art editors; and a long list of reporters. Work has begun on the next issue which will be published soon.

On entering the school Tuesday morning, Mr. Barnhart saw a cloud of smoke coming from the science room. He entered and put out a fire which had broken out on the laboratory table. Some paper had accidentally been shoved under the table and acid poured on it. During the night spontaneous combustion resulted and Mr. Barnhart extinguished the fire in time.

The basket ball teams are meeting this week to start practice sessions. The cheering squad is also meeting this week to organize and learn some new cheers.

P-TA Meets Monday

The second monthly PTA meeting is scheduled for the elementary school building Monday night. The new plan of having a classroom session for parents to consult with teachers will be in effect from 7:30 to 8 p. m. A bell will ring at eight to announce the general meeting.

Mrs. Comly Richie, PTA president, announced a change in the scheduled program. W. H. Hunt's illustrated talk on "The Unique Life History of Bees and their By-products" will highlight the program instead of the talk originally scheduled.

Band Party Tomorrow

A party for the Greenbelt band members, in appreciation of the summer concerts, will be held in the auditorium of the elementary school tomorrow evening. Attendance will be restricted to members of the band, the feeder band and a few invited guests.

Plans arranged by John Collier and the committee include games under the direction of Mrs. Doris Armstrong, dancing to recorded music and the serving of refreshments.

Scouts' Mothers Elect

Mothers of Girl Scouts in Greenbelt met last Thursday at the Elementary school and completed their organization as District Number One, affiliated with the Prince Georges County organization.

Miss Jane McCay, executive secretary of the county organization, helped with the forming of this group. Mrs. Lloyd Nelson was elected district chairman and Mrs. Philipp Crofford, secretary. Committee chairman are Mrs. Gerald Campbell, organization; Mrs. Harry W. Rhodes, training; Mrs. John Holmes, camp; Mrs. Hilbert Kurth, program; Mrs. Dawson, membership; Mrs. O. M. Slye, public relations and Mrs. Benjamin Gold, finance.

The mothers hope, through this organization, to stimulate interest in girl scouting in Greenbelt so that the local girls can continue the scouting program.

The reason your Co-op handles CO-OP Cigarettes is because a large number of our consumer-owners ask us.

Tobacco is a relatively mild form of dope that gives pleasure to some and annoyance to others. Co-op Cigarettes will not improve your wind, give you the biceps of a bison, the throat of a songbird or the pearly teeth of a photographer's model. Stubs will not burn any longer in your carpet or smell more fragrant to Aunt Louise.

Our choice of blends is based on the decisions of a group of testers from a large number of samples prepared by a reputable manufacturers. The two we have selected are designated as No. 17 and No. 19*

They are made of different combinations of Turkish, matured Virginia, aged Kentucky burley and other domestic tobaccos. Nothing new has been added, subtracted or multiplied, but sales are good. Maybe it's an accident, but if you are curious and must smoke
