

Delay Protested In GCS Expansion

Expansion plans were the main topic of discussion at the quarterly membership meeting of GCS last Wednesday night. Herman Ramras, management committee chairman, reported that the construction of the new building has been approved by CPA, but is being delayed by a failure to agree with FPFA as to either the site of the building or the terms of the lease. In the discussion that followed, dissatisfaction among the members at the slow progress and at what was described as "the obstructionist tactics of FPFA" resulted in a committee of three, Edith Nicholas, Charlotte Walsh, and Hans Jorgensen, drawing up a petition to the GCS board of directors protesting the delay in construction.

James Dunnaway, general manager of the Rochdale stores in Washington, spoke on "What's Ahead for Cooperatives in Washington." He revealed that the members of the Rochdale Co-op have authorized an increase in their capital stock to $1,000,000 in order to finance an expansion program to result in fifteen supermarkets throughout Washington, seven service stations, an appliance store, and a co-op wholesale. He also said that a co-op department store will open in Fairlington, Virginia, in about one year.

Following Delbert Mesner's report for the auditing committee and the report on CARE by Elisa East the meeting was adjourned. The election of members of the auditing committee was postponed because of the lack of a quorum.

Mayor Outlines July 4 Program

Mayor Bauer last week called a Greenbelt July 4th celebration. Mr. Bauer outlined a tentative schedule of events and appointed the responsible committees.

The Parade committee will be headed by Frank H. Riley and Frank C. Comptoir. Organizations wishing to have floats in the parade should contact Mr. Riley at 6851 or Mr. Comptoir at 3683. The Recreation program will be planned by Cliff Cockill, Phillips Taylor, Athletic directors, Holochwest, Goldfaden, Knauer, Lake activities are under the direction of Abe Chasanow and Robert Davenport. Fireworks will be arranged by Harry Walls. The committee in charge of prizes will be Paul Dunbar, Louis Gerstel. The Boy Scouts will set up a First Aid Station.

Any profits made by concessions will be divided so that half will be used to defray the expenses of the celebration and half will go to the treasuries of the participating organizations. Organizations interested in operating a stand should call Mr. Chasanow at 4202 or Mr. Davenport at 4072.

Mr. Gobbel sounded the keynote of the celebration by indicating that July 4th observance is a memorial to honor all men of any generation who were fighters for American independence.

Local Drama Club Plans New Plays

A June program of one act plays is currently being planned by the Greenbelt Dramatic Club, which meets tonight and every Friday night at 8:30 in the Arts and Crafts Room of the Elementary School. "Helena's Husband", a historical satire, is in production with a cast including Ruth Masek, Bob Broadbent, Charles Huttsler, Lou Zimmit, and Edna Strippling, direction by Charles Huttsler. Several other plays are being considered by the group. Greenbelt residents who are interested in any phase of dramatics are invited to join the group.

GCA Will Discuss Veterans' Center

Elmer H. Leroi, Maryland representative of the Veterans Administration, will speak at the meeting of the Citizens Association, Monday night at 8:00 in the Center school auditorium. He will speak on the possibility of establishing a veterans' advisory service, and will answer questions about veterans' benefits.

The balance of the evening will be devoted to discussion of the highway and airport. New information will be presented, announces Captain Robert C. Davenport, president.

CARE Collection Will Cover Town

The CARE collection fund was swelled this week by a $45 donation from the Community Church taken in a special collection at the church last Sunday. A sermon "Lest We Forget" by the Rev. Eric Braund inspired many Greenbelters to "dig deep" and fill the collection plate.

Mrs. Charles East, in charge of CARE collections reports a $15 contribution from Mrs. Florence Bloom and Mr. and Mrs. James Beck. Mrs. Bloom has a cousin living in France for whom she designated her collection. Mrs. Ruth Abromowitz of the 3 court of Eastway Road collected $13.75 from 3 and 5 courts of Eastway. The recent sale of chances at the Food Store netted nearly $70 for CARE.

Cards will be sent out in a few days to most of the courts and apartment units in town asking for volunteers to help organize neighborhood collections. Mrs. East hopes that everyone in town will be reached and stresses that this is to be a continuing drive, to last as long as CARE remains in operation. CARE was organized to serve throughout the duration of the present famine emergency. Anyone whose court is not contacted, and who wants to help can do so by getting in touch with Mrs. East at 56-K Crescent Road.

CARE at present operates in the following seven countries: France, Poland, Holland, Norway, Finland, Italy and Czechoslovakia. Money can be designated for any person living in any of these countries, to any one of these countries or to general relief. Anyone who has friends or relatives living in any of these countries may request to have packages sent to them if they will leave their names with Mrs. East.

Gobbel May Resign From FPFA To Act As Full Time Town Manager

James T. Gobbel was asked Wednesday night by the Council to act as full time town manager for Greenbelt. This would involve Mr. Gobbel's resignation from FPFA and the appointment of a new FPFA community manager.

At Monday's Council meeting Mr. Gobbel will give his answer and action may be taken to separate the Town office from the landlord functions of FPFA.

AVC Discusses OPA

Mr. James E. Hague, Veterans' adviser of the Maryland State Office of the OPA will be one of the speakers at the next meeting of the American Veterans Committee to be held Monday, June 10, at 8:30 p.m., in the Social room of the Elementary school.

Mr. Hague's speech will be followed by an open discussion from the floor in conjunction with the American Veterans Committee's stand on "Save OPA."

Mrs. Laurence P. Naylor, Information officer of the Maryland State Office of the OPA, will also be one of the honored guests at the meeting.

All local veterans and residents are invited.

Groups Invited To Plan Fair

The Fifth Annual Town Fair will be tossed into the laps of last year's participating organizations at a meeting of representatives from these groups and other interested residents Sunday evening in the Co-op office over the drugstore.

Last year's planning committee for the Fair—Fred DeJager, Paul Dunbar, Lester Sanders, C. J. Van Camp, and Donald H. Cooper—agreed this week that the annual three-day show of exhibits, contests and entertainment should be put on a more stable basis of operation. "We feel," said Mr. Cooper, speaking for the five committeemen, "that while we all want to help with the Fair each year, we have no monopoly claim on its management. Nor, for that matter, should the five of us be saddled with continuing responsibility just because we took the initiative in reviving the Fair in 1945. Last year's five directors believe that a community event of this kind should be a community responsibility, and so we are recommending that the participating organizations—the exhibitors—of the previous year's Fair assume responsibility for the next year's Fair. This will put the show on a permanent, continuing basis."

Sunday night's meeting will begin at 8:30 and will be open to the public.

The first of Greenbelt's Town Fairs was held in September 1939, with Wallace Mabee as director. Mr. Mabee also ran the 1940 event. The third one, in 1941, was directed by Harry Rhodes. During the war the annual celebrations were abandoned, but last year saw a revival. The fourth Town Fair was managed by a committee made up of Fred DeJager, C. J. Van Camp, Paul Dunbar, Lester Sanders, and Donald H. Cooper. As in earlier years, nearly a hundred other Greenbelters took committee jobs and helped with the exhibits, contests, and entertainment program which made the three-day show.

Crowds last year were the largest ever to gather for any purpose in the town's history. The shows have always been free to the public. The budget for prizes, entertainment, and other expenses ran over $1000 for the 1945 fair. Revenue was raised by donations, a refreshment concession, and funds from a state fair committee at the University of Maryland.

The commercialism usually associated with fairs has been noticeably absent from the Greenbelt shows. The Town Fair here has been described as a demonstration of what the town can do.

"Cement Mixers" Sponsor Dance

Door prizes and a floor show will be features of a dance to be held tomorrow night for the benefit of the Memorial Youth Center. Sponsored by—and with music by—the "Cement Mixers", the dance will be held from 8 until 11 p.m., with a floor show at 9:30. Refreshments will be served and all Greenbelters, including high school students are invited. The group's $100 pledge will be presented at 10:30 p.m. in the evening.

Tickets are priced at fifty cents plus tax and may be obtained from any member of the group.

FPFA, PRA Hear Objections, Promise More Study Of Road Site

Steadfast in affirming that Greenbelt's interests had been given every consideration in locating the super-speed highway adjacent to the community, officials of Federal Public Housing Authority and Public Roads Administration at Monday's special Council meeting promised to give further study to the problem in the light of the town's express disapproval of the proposed site.

Stage Show Aids Care Center Fund

A gala stage and screen show will be presented at the Greenbelt Theatre on June 14, at 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. Professional entertainers will perform a variety show, including Johnny Ray and his "Punch and Judy Act", Handsome Charlie—a tramp comedian, Roy Howard and Eddie Allen, ventriloquist act and five other vaudeville acts. The Master of Ceremonies will be "Uncle" Charlie Demma.

In addition there will be thirty minutes of cartoons, sportsreels and other shorts and a community sing. Admission is fifty cents, including tax.

Theatre manager Jack Fruchtman promises the whole family, from grandpa to toddler, an entertaining two hours. Proceeds from the show will be used by the Child Care Center to establish scholarship funds for children who need the services of the Center, but whose parents cannot afford the present cost-price fees.

Recreation Plans For Summer Season

The Summer Recreation Program sponsored by the Town Recreation Department, will go into effect July 1 with classes offered in tennis, archery, arts and crafts, tumbling and swimming. Softball and baseball teams will be organized.

Tennis lessons will be given for beginners, advanced players and adults; archery lessons for beginners and advanced boys and girls 12 years old and over and adults; arts and crafts for 8 years old and above; tumbling for beginners and advanced girls and boys 6 years and above; swimming lessons for 6 years old and above, beginners, intermediate, junior life saving, senior life saving, and adult classes. Any of these classes are subject to cancellation if registration is insufficient to warrant formation of a class.

Registration for all classes will be held outside the Recreation Department office in the elementary school on June 19, 20 and 21, from 10 to 12 a.m. and 2 to 4 p.m. at which time full particulars concerning the classes can be obtained. Any child under 10 must be accompanied by an adult or must bring a written note from home granting permission to take the classes. All classes are free of charge; however, a small fee is made for materials used in the arts and crafts class and admission cards will be issued for the swimming classes to facilitate entrance to the pool.

Red Cross certificates will be awarded to those who successfully complete their swimming courses, tournaments will be held in archery and tennis, and an arts and crafts exhibit will conclude the handicraft work program. Tumbling classes will take part in the Tot's Talent Show and Water Show. Games with other playgrounds will be scheduled for the softball and baseball teams.

Nursery School

The annual meeting of the Parents Board of the Cooperative Nursery School will be held tonight at the home of Mrs. Abraham Glauberman, 13-E Laurel Hill Road. Elections will be held and the by-laws are to be revised.

All new members are urged to attend.

The meeting, called as a result of the May 27 session of the Council with FPFA, was planned to enable Greenbelt's elected representatives and interested citizens to find out from Public Roads exactly why the highway must pass so close to the homes.

The only answer nearly 100 Greenbelters gathered in the Council room could get was that "all factors considered, the route is the most practical."

Fritz Schrom, neighboring airport owner, attending at the request of PRA, declared that his expansion plans have been under way for several years, and that PRA had not consulted him concerning the highway location.

FINAL DECISION
Oliver C. Winston, FPFA field office director, stated that his office had worked with PRA in protecting the interests of Greenbelt, and, as a result of this meeting, promised to consult the Greenbelt Council before "we make a final decision." He added, "No matter what the solution is, Greenbelt will be given every consideration."

Mayor Bauer, and a number of visitors, attacked the presently proposed site of the highway mainly on the basis of danger to the town's children. Not admitting or denying this point, PRA's defence was that the route chosen is the most economical from the federal government's point of view and best serves the interests of the area, including Greenbelt.

Residents were clear in stating that they were far more concerned over the possibility of a child being injured or killed than they were over saving several minutes in commuting to Washington.

At the statement of E. L. Tarwater, PRA engineer, that the highway acts as a barrier between Greenbelt and Schrom Airport, Sherrod East stated that he was not impressed with separating the town from one hazard by another.

ROUTES CONSIDERED
Mr. Tarwater, describing the first route considered for the highway which cut across the Beltsville Research Center grounds, said it was eliminated because it would disturb the goat and hog experiments. This statement gave Greenbelters ammunition for their attack, suggesting that more consideration had been given to the "inarticulate swine at Beltsville" than to Greenbelt's children.

Field Office Folderol

At last Monday's special council meeting it was not necessary to be clairvoyant to tell that FPFA Field Office Director Winston was not impressed with our pleas or objections concerning the routing of the new speedway.

Echoing the often repeated phrase, which by now has become synonymous with the "kiss of death," Winston said, "your wishes will be given full consideration." Consideration is not enough. Greenbelt should have been given that when the routing was first contemplated. It comes too late now. The residents of Greenbelt, and it is hoped that the 100 residents present last Monday represented a cross section of town opinion, want the route changed.

Field Office Director Winston repeatedly said that FPFA had Greenbelt's interests in mind when the route was chosen. How he can say that sincerely is beyond understanding. Greenbelt is not a ghost town. It is filled with people who have a pretty good idea of what their interests are. Winston never came out to learn those interests. How did he know what they were?

An additional current example of the Field Office's disinterest in Greenbelt is their delay in granting a lease and a site for the Greenbelt Consumer Services supermarket. Improved facilities for supplying oversized Greenbelt with food is badly needed. The Civilian Production Administration recognized this in giving GCS permission to erect a building to provide those facilities.

When do we get some recognition from the Field Office? Greenbelters might well direct letters of complaint to Philip M. Klutznick, Commissioner of the Federal Public Housing Authority, Washington, D. C.

New Scout Troop, Cub Pack Planned

Last night a group of local parents met with Boy Scout officials in the social room of the elementary school to organize a second Cub pack and a second Scout troop for Greenbelt. The Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor the new units.

District Commissioner John Waldo has explained that the additional organizations would relieve the pressure on Cub Pack 202 and Scout Troop 202, both of which are now considerably over the maximum size. The North End School is expected to be used as a meeting place for the new group of boys.

Donald Romer was named acting chairman of the sponsoring committee.

Subscription Deal

The elementary PTA is sponsoring a special subscription offer to the Readers Digest. A seven-month subscription is offered for one dollar, the PTA to receive twenty-five cents on each one. If interested, call Mrs. Sherrod East, Tower 5184, who has other special offers for a limited time.

Register For MU Short Course Now

Registration is now open for the Rural Women's Short Course at the University of Maryland. This annual event is being held from June 17-21 and is expected to bring fully 1200 women to the University of Maryland campus.

Plans call for a full week's program of evening events, daytime classroom studies and talks by prominent speakers. Public speaking, music appreciation, and parliamentary law are among the study subjects in this intensive course.

June 4 is the deadline for registration in Prince Georges County. Arrangements must be made thru Miss Ethel Regan, home demonstration agent; Hyattsville 0531.

Correction!

Dudley F. Peeler was the first man to head the elementary PTA, serving as president the first year of its organization.

Braunds Begin

Community Work

By AIMEE SLYE

Rev. and Mrs. Eric T. Braund and two children, Nancy and Freddie, have moved to their new home at 2-A Crescent Road. Rev. Braund is the new pastor of the Greenbelt Community Church and looks forward to working in this community after serving for three years as a Chaplain in the Navy.

Mr. Braund was ordained a Methodist, but feels that his experience as a Navy chaplain has made him particularly sympathetic to the problems inherent to a community church. He is confident that the membership will go forward with its plans to build a church as soon as possible.

Mrs. Braund, the former Ann Bonsall, daughter of an Episcopalian minister, hails from Swarthmore, Pennsylvania. She is a graduate of Wooster College and taught school for a short time with the idea of studying medicine but forgot her plans upon meeting Mr. Braund. A graceful, athletic woman, Mrs. Braund participated in hockey, basketball, and swimming when in school and appreciates the advantages of our recreational program here.

In 1937 the Braunds directed a camp for underprivileged children. Mr. Braund attended Yale Divinity School during that time. In 1939 they went to Europe as delegates to the World Christian Youth Conference in Amsterdam, Holland, spending their free time in southern Europe.

Daily Bible Class Begins June 17

Chesley at church services Sunday, and should be accompanied by the $1.00 registration fee to cover material expense. Those attending Brownie Camps, who wish to attend the last week and a half of the session, should also register now so that a final estimate of needed materials can be made.

Mrs. Chesley, the new director, has taken special courses in this field from the Washington Federation of Churches and several planning sessions with the teaching staff have developed the following program for the various age groups:

BEGINNERS: Age 4—Theme "God's Plan for Happy Homes". TEACHERS: Mrs. Horace Kramer, Mrs. Mildred Richerson, Mrs. Lillian Higgins.

OUR NEIGHBORS

BY DOROTHY VAN SCHELVEN
Phone 4563

Hi, neighbor! Greenbelt's youngsters are concerned over the hunger of Europe's children. They are doing something about it, too. This week a group of the tots in the 11 court of Ridge Road loaded some of their toys on a big display stand atop their wagon and, to the tune of their harmonicas, raised over a dollar by selling their playthings with the proceeds going to CARE.

At exercises to be held Saturday morning in the University of Maryland, Mrs. Mary Jean Bonham, 7-D Crescent Road, will receive her Bachelor of Arts degree in English.

Louise Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Burke, 60-D Crescent Road, will be graduated from the University of Maryland, Saturday morning. She majored in institutional management of dietetics.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Fitzmaurice, 8-D Hillside Road, attended the graduation last Sunday morning of their niece, Joan Julia Fitzmaurice, at Holy Cross Academy in Washington.

Mr. C. J. Van Camp, 3-E Crescent Road, flew to Detroit last week because of the death of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bechelli, 4-S Laurel Hill Road, welcomed a second son May 17 whom they have named Michael James.

Mrs. J. Merton England of Lexington, Ky., daughter of Mrs. Bertha Bonham, 35-B Ridge Road, gave birth May 31 to a daughter, Mary Leslie.

Mrs. Pauline Ruback, 13-B Hillside Road, has been bedfast for the past three weeks. She is much better now and her family hopes she will be allowed to have visitors within a week or so.

Town Manager James T. Gobel will be away from Greenbelt about two weeks beginning the middle of next week in order to attend the Conference of the International City Managers Association in Montreal. Mr. Gobel, as the Maryland representative on the Board, will report on the President's Highway Safety Conference.

John Brown, food store employee, was married on May 26 to Mamie Wolfe. The couple have returned from a trip to the Middle West and plan to make their home in Greenbelt.

Billy Baxter, son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Baxter, 7-A Crescent Road, was made major of the bands at St. John's College High School during competitive drill last week. This is the highest musical award given in the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Pogorelskin, 6-D Parkway Road, are the proud parents of a second baby girl, Anne Winifred, born June 1 in Garfield Hospital. Anne weighed five pounds.

Bart Finn, Jr. S-1c of 13-A Ridge Road, reported to the Separation Center at Bainbridge, Md., Tuesday for discharge from the Navy.

Familiar scenes around town: Industrious individuals practicing for the Fourth of July potato races . . . Mothers pulling sonny's wagons on quick trips to food store, without sonny . . . Paper-gatherer spearing reluctant tissues as he ambles around town.

Shamrocks Defeat Takoma Park, 6-5

In a very closely played ball game the Greenbelt Shamrocks defeated Takoma Park on Memorial Day, 6-5, before a large crowd.

Ernie Boggs, although hit hard at times, pitched a very acceptable game, striking out 16 batters. Perez, his opponent on the mound, was equally good, allowing but 2 hits. Shoddy fielding by his mates led to his downfall.

Sunday's game was rained out again.

On June 9, Greenbelt plays host to Snug Harbor, at 3:00 p. m., at

Reps Trip Rainier In 3-1 Thriller

On Memorial Day the Reps traveled to Mt. Rainier to help them celebrate the day. Greenbelt spoiled their day by beating them in a hard fought game, and returned to Greenbelt a cup that was donated to the winning team. This same cup was offered to the winning team three years ago, but the game ended in a tie. It was not until this year that most of the same players returned and again accepted the challenge.

For two innings there was no scoring, each pitcher allowing only three hits. In the third inning Mt. Rainier scored once to take the lead. Miller opened by rolling out Barker to Taylor, Fisher singled, Remington was called out on strikes, Bauman hit to the second baseman who fumbled, Fisher scoring from second. Greenbelt tied the score in the fifth inning. Foster walked to open the inning, Coulter was hit by a pitched ball putting men on first and second. Al Bowman came through with a double scoring Foster and sending Coulter to third. Dobyns then struck out the side.

In the sixth inning the Reps scored twice. Curt Barker opened the inning with a long home run. Then with two outs Foster walked and Dick Coulter came through with a triple scoring Foster. Mt. Rainier got one more hit in the last inning, but failed to score. This was not a league game.

Missing Tot Found Napping Under Bed

Frances Compoier, age 6, created a bit of excitement in the 38 court of Ridge Road recently when she disappeared after a trip to the center to buy an ice cream cone.

Officer Attick came in answer to a call for the police after neighbors and children searched for her in vain. A check of the center and the surrounded wooded areas failed to reveal the child.

Little Harriet Riley, age 9, of 38-M Ridge Road finally found Frances in her room, fast asleep under the bed.

Assemblies Climax School Year Close

Thursday, June 13, is the closing date for the local elementary schools. Assemblies will be held next week at both schools, and awards will be given to the three students in each school who have been voted most representative and able. Attendance certificates will also be given to those who have missed only five days or less.

Afternoon and morning kindergarten groups will meet together in their rooms at 9:00 a. m., Thursday. There will be no afternoon session that day.

"...Of the People, By the People, And For the People"

• Lincoln might well have had cooperatives in mind when he spoke those immortal words.

"...Of the People"?

Yes indeed! Co-ops are made up of people from the small towns, the farms, and the cities, a real cross section of the nation. ALL persons are eligible for membership. Co-ops truly are, 'of the people.'

"...By the People"?

Certainly! Co-ops are controlled by the members. One member, one vote. All management is under the direction of the Board of Directors, elected in open meeting by a vote of the members. Yes, co-ops are, 'by the people.'

"...For the People"?

Of course! Co-ops incarnate the public interest because they are operated for benefit of patron-owners, not for profit of investors. No great financial hurdles must be cleared to share in the benefits. Membership shares are low cost and may be earned in savings made through trading with the co-op. Decidedly, co-ops are, 'for the people' and their best interests.

Capital Transit receives its third award... thanks to you!

We have just won, for the third consecutive year, the Safety Award competition of the American Transit Association. The Silver Plaque, symbolic of the Award, bears this inscription:

"... FOR HIGH ACHIEVEMENT IN TRAFFIC AND PASSENGER SAFETY AMONG TRANSIT COMPANIES OF THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA SERVING URBAN POPULATIONS OVER 600,000."

To win this important award once would be an honor for any company and any community. To win it three times is truly an event. It proves that in Washington all of us are interested in making our safety program work.

Therefore, the victory is yours as well as ours. As one of the million and more persons who ride Capital Transit street cars and buses every day, your co-operation was necessary. All our investment in modern safe equipment, all the vigilance of our operators, is planned to help you travel safely.

CAPITAL TRANSIT COMPANY

Road Site

The route given second consideration, right through Schrom Airport, was impractical according to PRA representatives because the damages to Schrom were beyond the budget allowed for the highway. Hence, the third route close to Greenbelt was determined to be the most practical.

Urged to give consideration to running the highway around the far side of the airport, Mr. Tarwater said that topographical considerations made this more expensive.

Ben Rosenweig pointed out that in considering the expansion of Greenbelt, location of the highway hugging the community would prevent any development in that direction.

Don Cooper stated that the hazard to children was not only in the fact that they would get on the highway, but that cars coming off the highway into Greenbelt, for sightseeing purposes, would be unlikely to drive as slowly or carefully as Greenbelt residents.

LEGAL POWER

Replying to Bob Davenport's question as to the effect the discussion would have on the final decision, Public Roads attorney Howe said that due thought would be given to the point of view of the residents. One solution, he said, might be to move the defense homes nearest the highway.

Pressed as to the legal power the town would have to prevent the presently planned highway location, Mr. Howe stated that PRA has full authority to condemn even Federally owned land for the highway subject only to the approval of the President and the Attorney General.

At the close of the meeting, the Council adopted the ordinance given first reading May 27, making it illegal for anyone to construct a highway closer than 2500 feet from the homes of Greenbelt.

BUSES AND PLANES

It was learned at the meeting that while trucks would not travel on the highway, long distance buses and sightseeing buses may be permitted to use it.

Not much time was given to the airport problem, but Mr. Schrom claimed that most of the low-flying planes annoying Greenbelt came from the factory at East Riverdale.

Mayor Bauer expressed his appreciation of the orderliness of the meeting considering how great was the difference in opinion between the Government officials and the townspeople.

He suggested that future letters of protest on the highway site be directed to FPHA Commissioner Klutznick rather than to the Council.

Church To Award Camp Vacations

The Community Church has allotted $150 for camp scholarships for at least 10 young people from the high school and the senior department of the Church School. Registration for non-denominational "Camp Kanesatake" (Indian for "Camp on a Hill") near Altoona, Pa., are still available for the following sessions from Rev. Braund:

Senior High Boys—July 1-13—$23.00.
Junior High Girls—July 15-26—$21.50.
Senior High Girls—July 29-Aug. 10—$23.00.

Stage Personages Make Home Here

BY DONNA ROMER

The intrigue and romanticism of footlights, greasepaint and stage performers has doubtless escaped no one who has ever seen a performance in the theatre. The people on the stage are placed in an "Out-this-world" setting and it's a little hard to imagine any one of them as your next door neighbor. But in Greenbelt it's true. The tenants of 9 court of Research Road have this distinction, for living in 9-T are Yvette and Bobby Whaling. And believe it or not, they are people just like the rest of us.

Yvette and Bobby, cyclists, whose last name is Eisenberg, are starting a new series of bookings at the Capitol this week. They have appeared there before and it's likely that lots of Greenbelt residents have seen them. Bobby's unicycle skit is the most breath-taking part of the act.

The Eisenbergs have two children and recently moved here from the Lily Ponds housing project after the birth of the second little girl now 7 months old. Marlene, their first daughter, is eight, likes Greenbelt, and is the "fairy-tale princess" to the other kids in the court with her world-wide stories and experiences.

After leaving the Capitol theatre the Whalings are booked in New York and Atlantic City, then to the Hippodrome in Baltimore and the Roxy, New York.

During the war years, Bobby served in the army in a recreational unit entertaining boys in camps and overseas.

Perhaps we can catch Yvette and Bobby between bookings and have them in a show in Greenbelt. Both are willing to do a benefit here because they are "so thankful for such a wonderful place to live."
