

Center PTA Meets Tuesday, Nov. 23

The next regular meeting of the Center school PTA will be on Tuesday afternoon at 4:15. Ten sixth-year children will participate in a panel discussion entitled "If I Were a Parent" and "If I Were a Teacher." Ellen Linson will be moderator, and the cast will include Marshall Gerstel, Daniel Zell, Joe Donellan, Sharon Thomas, Maureen Moore, Diane Finley, Janette Lewis, John Garden, Eugene Herman, Annie Redd Fontaine, Mrs. Tretter and Mrs. Grimm.

The meeting will be followed by a covered-dish supper scheduled for 5:30 to 6:30. The supper is planned to help raise money to buy a movie projector for use in visual-audio education. Parents will provide one of three dishes meant to serve 4 to 6 people, a casserole dish, a salad or a dessert.

At this supper-meeting, tickets for the PTA-sponsored evening of ensemble music will be sold. The program will be offered by members of the Prince George's Symphony Orchestra on Sunday evening, December 5, at the Center school auditorium.

County Thrift Shop Opens In Hyattsville On Monday

The County Thrift Shop opens its new and permanent location at 4344 Farragut St., Hyattsville, Md., on Monday, November 22. With items of special value to the Christmas shoppers, the store offers slightly used and donated articles of wearing apparel, costume jewelry and novelties.

The shop is under the joint sponsorship of the Ladies of Charity and St. Vincent de Paul Societies of Prince Georges County. Volunteer salespeople and donated stocks make it possible for the profits of this venture to be used to help the needy of the area.

Members of both sponsoring societies invite everyone to visit and inspect the shop, and to assist in a worthy cause.

Lookout! Sadie Hawkins Day Is November 26

The senior high girls will try to drag their Li'l Abner to the finish line on Friday, November 26 from 9 to 12 at the Drop-Inn. Girls, this is the chance that you have been waiting for. The girls will have to pay an admission charge of 10 cents which will pay for the music. No boy will be admitted unless brought by a girl. So girls begin to look around for the boy that you would like to court for this night. There will be new records to dance to and a square dance will be held during the evening.

Rules for Sadie Hawkins!

1. Girls will bring boys.
2. Only couples will be admitted to the dance.
3. Girls will pay for boys.
4. Members only of the Senior high group.

First Come, First Served For Teen-age Dance Class

The teen-age dancing class will begin December 13 in the Center school building with the class meeting each Monday thereafter for ten weeks.

The class will consist of ten lessons at the rate of $6.00 for the series with one introductory class given free.

Since the class will be limited, the first forty boys and the first forty girls to get reservation forms and their fees paid will be assigned to the class.

Reservation forms may be picked up and fees paid at either the Drop-Inn or the Recreation Office.

Cub Scouts Have Trading Spree

At the last meeting of Cub Scout Pack 202 (sponsored by the American Legion) the boys celebrated Hallowe'en and had a trading spree—swapping match covers, books, comics, and toys. Cubmaster Woolley auctioned off white elephants to the parents. Of the 150 parents and Cubs present, Den 5 had the highest average attendance and retained possession of the honor flag which they had won at the September pack meeting.

Women Voters Confer On State Legislation

Representatives of the State League of Women Voters from all counties in Maryland will attend a state conference November 17 in Annapolis, Maryland, for the purpose of considering legislation to further the state league program, adopted at the convention held in Baltimore in May.

Next Monday's WGAY broadcast, "emphasizing health and welfare, the need for modernization in county government, and the recent visit of the League's committee to the County Alms House. The broadcast starts at 9:45 a.m.

Greenbelt Shooters Beat Md. Riflemen

Greenbelt's rifle team No. 2, with Joe Dalis in lead position, defeated the rifle team of the 163rd MP Battalion last Monday night, 1257 to 1209. Following Dalis on the winning combination were Paul Klenner, Ben Rosenzweig, Pete Hazell and Sulo Raitala.

The local club's No. 1 team fires against the Freshmen team of the University of Maryland this coming Monday.

JCC Plans Dance

The second annual dance sponsored by the Jewish Community Center will be held in the Center school auditorium on Saturday evening, December 4. Music will be furnished by Lee Maxwell and his Rhythm Boys, a well-known Washington orchestra.

Tickets for the dance can be obtained by phoning George Bloom at 5923.

Swell Work Kids!

GCS Shorten Hours For Sunday Shopping

At a meeting held last Friday night, the GCS board considered the letters from the Rev. Eric T. Braund of the Community Church and Rabbi M. Sandhaus of the Jewish Community Center urging them not to keep the supermarket open on Sunday.

The Board decided that, inasmuch as there were no other stores in Greenbelt where emergency food purchases could be made and as the sale of bread and milk at the drug-store would be discontinued in order to make other improvements there, they would keep the food store open from 12 to 6 on Sunday.

It was announced that 865 customers had made small purchases at the new store on Sunday between the hours of 12 and 9. The store was kept open during those hours because it had been so advertised; however, no meat or produce employees will work on Sundays. Signs have now been posted in the food store notifying customers that the store would be kept open from 12 to 6 on Sundays and requesting that they limit their purchases to items urgently needed.

St. Hugh's to Hold Bake Sale Next Wednesday

A bake sale, sponsored by the ladies of St. Hugh's Parish, will be held in the lobby of the theater, Wednesday, November 24, beginning at 10 a.m. and ending at 2 in the afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas Canning, chairman of the sale, asks that women desiring to place orders for baked goods, or to make donations, contact Mrs. Vincent Huggard, Gr 5279. The sale is planned to enable housewives to purchase their Thanksgiving pastries in time for the Holiday.

Local Artist In Exhibit

A Greenbelt artist, Ben Abramowitz, will have a painting on exhibit at the Corcoran Art Gallery, starting this Sunday, in an exhibit of "Artists of Washington and Vicinity." This exhibit received great publicity recently when the three judges decided that only 19 of the thousand or more works of art submitted were worthy of exhibit. It was decided later to show the nineteen in a special room and allow one work from every contributing artist to be shown in a gallery of "refusals." Mr. Abramowitz is one of the preferred nineteen, authoritative sources have disclosed.

Center School To Be Leased By Town; Council To Probe Public Health Office

The town council voted last Monday to lease the community building from Public Housing Administration and to investigate services performed by the Public Health Officer.

By a three-two vote, the town manager was authorized to sign the lease for the center school building for a period of one year.

Voted Yes

Orchestra Will Hold Concert December 5

Members of the Prince Georges Symphony Orchestra along with several additional local musicians will present a concert of early Ensemble Music on Sunday, December 5 at 8:30 p.m.

The concert will consist entirely of unusual and rarely heard works. The composers represented on the program will be Telemann, Purcell, Vivaldi, Corelli, Handel and Bach.

Proceeds from the orchestra will go to the Center School P.T.A. and the Orchestra.

The Orchestra holds rehearsals every Sunday from 4 to 6 p.m. in the Center School. Membership is open to any musician living in the county. For further information call Mrs. Oring. Greenbelt 4826.

Junior Boys Club Rolls On And On

By Joe O'Neill

Last Thursday, Armistice Day, the Boys Club junior team defeated a strong District Heights eleven 6-0.

The fine running and tackling of John Teel was the highlight of the game. After Teel had run the ball up to the 10-yard line, Joe Brosmer passed to Mike Redd who caught it in the end zone.

This Saturday the junior team will play Oxon Hill for the championship of Prince Georges County at Oxon Hill, 2 p.m. This will be the most important game of the year.

Anyone who would like to go to the game should contact Don Wolfe on Saturday at 12:30 at the Center.

Senior Boys Club Win Two By 13 - 0

By Don McCollum

The Greenbelt Senior Boys Club football team trampled Hyattsville in a twenty-minute battle at Ritchie Coliseum last Friday night. Hyattsville was more than surprised when Greenbelt started their fast opening ground plays and went on to win 13 to 0.

Greenbelt kicked off and a Hyattsville back ran the ball back from behind his own goal line to their twenty-yard stripe. On the first play from scrimmage they picked up four yards. On the next play, however, Hyattsville fumbled and Bauer recovered for Greenbelt on the twenty-seven yard line. After a twenty-five-yard drive Hofstetter plunged over from the two-yard line. Jernberg scored the second TD on an end run after a 45-yard drive Martone converted the extra point. Bo Hause, star passer, showed his ability when he completed a 30-yard pass to Jernberg, setting up the second score.

The Greenbelt Senior Boys Club eleven ended their league season last Sunday by beating Edmonston 13 to 0. The Seniors have a past season game with Mt. Rainier this Sunday at Greenbelt and expect to have games up to the early part of December.

Cragin made his first touchdown of the season on an end run from the five-yard line. In the second quarter Gussio caught one of Bo Hause's passes for the second score, in the third quarter. This was Gussio's first. Hause played wonderful ball Sunday in completing 50% of his passes.

Affirmative voters Mayor Thomas J. Canning, Frank Lastner and Mrs. Wells Harrington expressed the view that the operation of the building which houses most community functions is a proper function of the town government, and the lease will put the town in a favorable position for eventual ownership of the building.

Dissenters David M. Granahan and Allen D. Morrison said that operation of the building will be a "headache" for the town, and buying the building would best be considered at the time the town is sold.

After Much Groundwork

The voting followed many hours of discussion at past council meetings, conferences with attorneys, and requests for changes in the lease. In a letter from PHA read at the meeting, the government agency refused to allow the town to carry additional insurance on the building, but agreed to a complete inventory of equipment and a physical survey of the property. In case of extensive damage to the property, the PHA letter said they had no fixed policy on rebuilding; each such case was considered on its own merits. The letter concluded with the information that if the town did not sign the lease, PHA might reopen negotiations for the sale of the building to the County Board of Education. (The Board's unwillingness to arrange for community use of the building after school hours, in the event the Board purchased the building, was made clear at an earlier meeting.)

The town will pay PHA one dollar a year rent and will receive funds from the Board of Education sufficient to operate the building. PHA will continue its landlord functions and the town office will schedule all events to be held in the building.

Salary Question

A request from Dr. William Eisner for salary for the last half of 1947 was presented to the council by Town Manager Charles T. McDonald. Mr. McDonald explained that the previous council had reduced the public health officer's salary, checks at the old rate had been sent him for half of 1947 and then stopped. No notice of the salary reduction had been given Dr. Eisner by the former town manager, Mr. McDonald said, insofar as the records indicated.

Mrs. Harrington questioned whether Dr. Eisner had been performing the duties of his office during the last half of 1947. "Before voting this payment of over $800, I would want to be assured that Dr. Eisner was on duty at the times he was supposed to be there," she said.

Mr. Lastner shared this opinion, saying, "I have strong reasons to believe he was not there at his regular times."

No Physicals Given

Mrs. Harrington pointed out that no physical examinations were given at the schools during 1947, a function she believed to be the responsibility of the public health officer. She praised the work of Public Health Nurse Frances Stouffer and said she wished the town could have a public health officer with a public health point of view. "I have seen no indication that our public health officer is interested in public health," she said.

It was voted to make a further investigation before acting on Dr. Eisner's request, and to ask him to be present at the next regular council meeting on December 6 to See COUNCIL. Page 4

The Red Feather

The Community Chest appeal is a challenge to everyone of us to look beyond our own doors and help our neighbors. Through this channel we can make one contribution which will be distributed to member agencies on the basis of need.

Greenbelt has a fine record of supporting welfare drives in the past. May we maintain this standard in 1948, and give others a Thanksgiving to remember.—C.M.

[If it is possible we print all letters to the editor in full. However all letters must be limited to 150 words unless the letter is delivered personally by the writer.]

TELEPHONE INCREASE

To the Editor:

On the back page of the first section of the "Washington Post" on Armistice Day appeared a story announcing an appeal from the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore to the Maryland Public Utilities Commission for an increase in the telephone rates in the area which includes Greenbelt.

Another public utility, Capital Transit, recently won a battle for increased rates—at least superficially it won. It would not be too surprising to learn that this organization's books may show a considerable falling-off in receipts garnered from Greenbelt commuters. More and more of our citizens are joining car pools and riding the Greyhound into Washington rather than spend $.86 a day for incredibly bad transportation.

The telephone company's appeal should not be ignored by our community. The local situation is such that Greenbelters, unlike other citizens in this area, must pay an extra charge over and above their regular monthly rate for every call outside of Greenbelt. Since the majority of working people here are employed in Washington and transact a considerable amount of business in the city of which we are supposedly a suburb, local phone bills are already no light matter.

If the C & P Telephone Company finds it necessary to raise its rates, it should at least give Greenbelters the service enjoyed by other customers in the area and see to it that this community can enjoy a service equal to that given to neighboring communities.

WHAT'S THE FUSS

To the Editor:

Why all the fuss and furor about the police doing a job that they are getting paid to do?

Having lived in Greenbelt over six years, I am well acquainted with the younger generation. If the police found it necessary to take the teen-agers home, the parents should be very thankful. If it had been a city, the boys would have, by this time, a police record. Instead of parents condemning the police, they should commend them.

Being a sergeant in the Greenbelt National Guard, I would advise the parents to teach their children discipline at home and it wouldn't be necessary for the police or any other club that the children belong to, to teach them.

To the parents I say, more discipline at home and to the police, a job well done.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORY

To the Editor:

We would like to thank our many friends who gave us a surprise party Saturday, November 13. Under the leadership of Betty and Eric Kirkham, eighteen couples came to our home in Riverdale to give us an evening we'll never forget.

We will enjoy for many years the beautiful fireplace screen they brought us.

Sincerely,

Nan and Wade Gindlesperger

Rosa Berry

Miss Rosa Berry, the maid at the Greenbelt Child Care Center for the past five years, died on Thursday, November 11, at Garfield Hospital after a brief illness.

Mrs. Mary Jane Kinzer, Mrs. Alice Smith, Mrs. Stanley Edwards, and Mrs. Charles Benson attended the funeral which was held at the Metropolitan Baptist Church in Washington on Monday, Nov. 15.

CORRECTION

Last week's COOPERATOR stated that Fred Pfeiffer, president of the Greenbelt Community Chorus, had recently moved to Hyattsville, and that he would not be able to continue in his activities in the Chorus. Mr. Pfeiffer has moved; however, he does plan to retain his office and to attend rehearsals regularly. Chorus members were glad to learn last Monday night at the regular weekly meeting. The COOPERATOR regrets its error, and is glad to learn that moving will not affect his status in the Chorus.

The Police Blotter

The latest summary of petty car thefts includes a complaint from Police Officer Alvin Allen. On November 1, he reported that two windshield wipers, a rear view mirror and a gas cap were stolen from his car.

J. Hart of Berwyn reports an ornament was stolen from his car on November 14, when it was parked just outside the police station. H. M. Irvin, of 32-E Crescent reported that his car was marked with crayon on two different occasions.

The Athletic Club was broken into on November 10, and the side of the cash register was removed, but no money was taken. The apartment of Mrs. Elsie Mondon, 7-E Parkway was entered while she was gone, but nothing is apparently missing.

On the 13th, the cigar store reported that signs were removed from the bulletin board. Some boys were apprehended breaking fluorescent bulbs in the center area, and reprimanded by the police. A complaint was also received concerning the removal and destruction of property at the Oldham farmhouse.

Another complaint was received in regard to the trapping of squirrels. The steel trap was confiscated by the police department.

Two fires were put out by the fire department: one in a man-hole in the center area, and the other in the woods near the north end.

One boy was taken to a doctor after fracturing two ribs near the Center school area, and another child was given ambulance service this past week, after puncturing his lip with a nail at the Child Care Center.

Cooperator Board Picks Orchestra For Dance

The Greenbelt Cooperator announces that Vernon Brown and his orchestra will furnish the music for the New Year's Eve dance. The band features the singing of Jo Mettee, who has appeared at several Washington nite spots.

Brown's present band has been playing in the Washington area for the past three years, including repeated engagements at the Washington Hotel.

How Now - Snow Plow?

All town fire hydrants were opened and flushed last Saturday evening, according to Town Manager Charles T. MacDonald, who hopes to make this a regular procedure at intervals, to make certain that the hydrants are in operation in case of an emergency and that there are no broken valves, stoppages or leaks in the fire plugs. It is also aimed at clearing up any deposits in the water mains.

A new snow plow has been acquired by the town administration, Mr. McDonald announced, with an eye to preparedness for the forthcoming winter.

COUNCIL—from page 1 consider the whole public health program for the town.

Gun Club Request Deferred
Action was deferred on the request of the Greenbelt Gun Club for an ordinance permitting the use of large-bore rifles at the club range. Mr. McDonald reported that the land on which the club is located is not leased by the town, and that further consideration of the matter is desirable in view of the town's responsibility from a public safety point of view.

The council reviewed reports from all departments with favorable comments and accepted them as presented.

A meeting was arranged for 7:30 p.m. next Monday night with Town Solicitor John S. White for further consideration of charter changes.

GREENBELT
CONSUMER SERVICES

Tremendous crowds of eager shoppers greeted the opening days of our new supermarket. On Armistice Day a new record was established for sales in one day. And sales for the first 4 days, Wed. thru Sat., were almost double those of the average week. THIS MAKES US VERY HAPPY INDEED.

However, we wish to apologize to those who were inconvenienced when we ran out of some items the first few days. This, of course, was due to the huge crowds. Purchases in the self-service meat dept. were so heavy that it was impossible to keep the cases completely stocked at all times. Our staff has been strengthened, and opening kinks are being eliminated. We were very much pleased with the many compliments on our low prices. These will continue.

GCS invites you to shop continually in the finest, most modern, completely self-service market in Prince Georges County. You will find the lowest prices in the area, top quality in value, and the utmost in shopping convenience and enjoyment. CHECK THIS LIST OF WEEKEND VALUES:
