

Halloween Festivities Attract Crowds Police, Rain, Lessen Halloween Pranks

BRIGHT SIDE

The Recreation Department's Hallowe'en Mardi Gras, held in the parking area behind the post office last Monday, was attended by approximately 650 children, 250 adults and close to 400 teen-agers. In contrast to the rain of Sunday night which eliminated the program planned at Braden Field, Hallowe'en night was clear and cool. Illumination in the parking area was furnished by two strong spot lights. All the children attending wore costumes, and received candy.

The contests started promptly at 7:30 with the following winners: apple-bobbing contest, Danny Donnellan, June Jamison and June Donnellan; apple-biting contests, Doris Cunningham and Marie Hennessy. The marshmallow contest was won by Eleanor Chelstrom, Nancy Stewart and Laurice Maffay. Winners in the peanut guessing contest were Dennis Emert, Ronald Hunt, and L. J. Martin.

In the costume contest, Irene Stephans won for the cutest little-girl costume; best story-book costume, Judy Bragonje, witch, and Mike Mahon, tin soldier. Most original costumes, John and Bob Nugent, old couple; and Lee Grabel, short beer. Comic-strip costume, Joe Fuls, Indian; most original, Geo. Timmerman, steel man. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey won prizes for being the best-dressed adult couple.

Several hundred teen-agers and adults danced in the auditorium to the music of Bill Wright's orchestra from 8:30 to 11:30.

Before the dancing started in the auditorium a large group of teen-agers did a snake dance in the center.

Charles T. McDonald, city manager, stated that he was very happy about the results of the program and felt it had accomplished its purpose. The large amount of people participating indicated it met with the approval of the citizenry.

On Monday morning the center store windows were painted with Hallowe'en scenes by upper-grade children from both the Center and North End schools. As prizes each school will be given an album of records.

In the afternoon the elementary school children had their annual Hallowe'en parade.

According to Sam Fox, recreation director, at school assemblies the children indicated that they had very much enjoyed the planned Hallowe'en program.

Bazaar To Benefit JCC Building Fund

The Jewish Community Center will sponsor a bazaar on Thursday and Friday, November 17 and 18, beginning at 9:30 a.m., in the lobby of the swimming pool.

Mrs. Sally Brandon, who is chairman of the bazaar, stated that many of the articles for sale were donated by stores in Washington and nearby areas. In addition to clothing, many suitable gift items will be displayed.

All proceeds of the bazaar will be used for the building fund for the Jewish Community Center. Further information can be obtained by telephoning 4268.

Mark 3rd Year

The Mowatt Memorial Methodist Church at Woodlandway and Forestway will observe its third anniversary Sunday evening at 8 p.m. The public is cordially invited.

The Methodist chapel has the distinction of being the first church building erected in the Greenbelt project.

DARK SIDE

Greenbelters are preparing to wash soap and wax from their windows this week, content with the knowledge that an alert police force, an imaginative recreation department, and a timely rain prevented any further destructiveness or mischief. "Generally speaking," said Chief of Police George Panagoulis, "it was an orderly Hallowe'en, with some instances of destructiveness. . . but as a whole the majority of children were well behaved."

A glance at the police blotter shows over 30 complaints, including "doors tied shut, cut clothes line, broken windows, broken car windows, broken door glass, blocking road, air out of tires, throwing bottles and pans at passing cars, trashy beer bottles at door, blockades of milk bottles, and lawn chairs missing." According to reliable information, The Cooperator has learned that eight letters were sent to the parents of children by the administration office of PHA informing them that they will be required to pay for windows that were broken. Also, several windows in the North End school building were broken.

An apartment on Crescent was completely darkened when pranksters blew a fuse in the basement. The service station was deluged with calls to repair at least a dozen tires punctured with ice picks. A baggage wagon, discovered on Southway and Crescent blocking the road, was later found to be the property of the Berwyn freight station.

All policemen were on duty throughout the night, and seven citizens were deputized in preparation for the night's frivolity. A number of false alarms were turned in, but there were no sirens blown as the fire department was kept on duty.

GHA Will Meet To Decide Future

A membership meeting of the Greenbelt Health Association will be held in the arts and crafts room of the community building at 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, November 8.

The letter to the membership announcing this meeting indicates that the Health Association is again in financial difficulties, and the purpose of the meeting is to decide on the future of the association. The problems, according to Robert Morrow, chairman of the board, are first, the need of $1500 in cash to meet the current payroll and debts; and second, an assured additional income of about $700 a month to enable the association to break even in the future.

Police Solve Theft Of Guns In 3 Hours

Greenbelt police cracked a larceny case within three hours this week, after receiving a complaint from the Berwyn Rod and Gun Club concerning the theft of three guns. Several local youths were rounded up and questioned at the police station.

After the location of the guns was determined, police obtained a search warrant in order to retrieve the guns that were cached in an attic. Three of the youngsters were turned over to juvenile authorities.

Chief of Police George Panagoulis was mainly responsible for the swift apprehension of the suspects and the speedy solution of the crime.

Nursery Lowers Age To Admit 3-Year-Olds

The Greenbelt Cooperative Nursery School has openings for several children in the morning group; the age limit has been lowered to admit those children who will be three by December 1949. For further information call Mrs. Shirley Levine, 8956.

Parade Planned For Armistice Day

The Armistice Day parade will begin at 9:45 a.m. November 11, forming on Southway, facing up Ridge Road, according to Austin R. Green, parade chairman.

It will proceed up Ridge to Gardenway, down Gardenway to Crescent, through the Center, past the reviewing stand. Mechanized units will park on Crescent between Gardenway and Southway, while marching units will discontinue their march in back of the monument on Crescent road.

The first division of the parade will include the Greenbelt Police Department, parade officials, city and PHA officials, and the following military units: the 257th District National Guard Band, the United States Infantry Color Guard; the 3rd Infantry Platoon, U. S. Army; the Color Guard, "A" Bat., 224th F. A., 29th Division; "A" Bat. 224th F. A., 29th Division; Greenbelt Mechanized Units, 105 Howitzers; 260th Group Color Guard, District National Guard, Two 90 MM AA pulled by Prime Movers and two 40 MM AA pulled by Prime Movers; and two Half Tracks—4—50 Cal. AA Guns.

(Speaker for the Armistice Day celebration will be announced next week.)

The second division, in charge of Bart Finn, will include the Greenbelt Majorettes "if they can get out of school" and the Greenbelt Band, under similar conditions; the American Legion Color Guard, Post 136; American Legion members, Post 136 and Post 217, Berwyn; the American Legion Auxiliary Color Guard; the American Legion Auxiliary Members; the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps, Reese Europe Post No. 5, D. C.; the Boy Scouts Color Guard, the Boy Scout Members; Color Guard and Members of the Girl Scouts; Cub Scouts; the Boys Club of Greenbelt; the Greenbelt Fire Department; visiting fire departments and the Greenbelt Rescue Squad.

PHA Lawyer Contends U.S. Not Subject To Rent Control

Abe Chasanow, attorney for the Greenbelt Rent Protest Committee, announced the receipt of a letter last Thursday notifying him that the Public Housing Administration attorney, in his answer to the show-cause order filed by the Rent Protest Committee, has filed a motion for summary judgment. (A summary judgment is a decision based on a point of law, rather than the facts at issue.) It is the contention of the PHA attorney that the government is not subject to rent control, and he is basing his whole case on the Supreme Court's decision in the Wittek case (June 1949) that the Rent Control Act did not apply to housing owned or operated by the U. S. government.

Mr. Chasanow stated that it is his interpretation that the regulations of the Office of the Housing Expediter apply the provision of the Rent Control Act to the U. S. government and its agencies as well as to private landlords.

The case is due to come up for a hearing in Federal Court in Baltimore soon.

Introducing Mr. Simon Community Manager

By Aimee Slye

Walter Simon, new Federal Manager for Greenbelt, brings a varied experience to the job. Born in Baltimore, he lived there until six years of age when his family moved to Louisiana. He attended school there through the first year at Louisiana University, when he accepted an appointment to West Point in 1924, graduating in 1928, with a major in electrical engineering.

Worked for FSA

After two years in the regular army, Mr. Simon worked for several years for the General Electric Company, and with other firms, in an engineering capacity in the Eastern part of the country, ending up in the government with the NRA. In 1936 Mr. Simon went to the Farm Security Administration as manager of the Jersey Homestead Projects at Hightstown, New Jersey.

Back in Washington in 1939, Mr. Simon worked in the FSA on various homestead projects until 1942, when he entered the Army Air Forces as a first lieutenant, emerging several years later as Lieutenant Colonel Simon. During the war he spent nearly two years in the China-Burma-India theater with the Air Force Intelligence.

Lives in D. C.

Since the war Mr. Simon has been working in the Washington office of PHA. Mr. Simon owns his own home in the Washington area where he lives with his wife and teen-age daughter Dianne, a junior at Western High School. The Simons do not plan at present to move to Greenbelt.

While Mr. Simon has not had any direct connection with Greenbelt in his previous work, he stated that he has always been very interested in the "Greenbelt towns." In reply to a question about the possible sale of Greenbelt, Mr. Simon stated he felt sure "any selling plan will give reasonable protection to the existing development."

St. Hugh's To Dedicate New Church, School

St. Hugh's Parish Hall and School will be formally blessed and dedicated on Sunday, November 6, at 3 p.m. at the Crescent road site, according to Rev. Victor J. Dowgiallo, pastor of the local parish. The Most Reverend Patrick A. O'Boyle, archbishop of Washington, will bless the building, after which Father Dowgiallo will extend greetings to clergy and laity present. Msgr. John J. Spence, diocesan director of education, will deliver the sermon.

A papal and an American flag will be presented to the parish by Colonel Charles Baish, representing the fourth degree Knights of Columbus.

Scouts Honor Court Will Be Held Friday

The Boy Scouts Court of Honor for all the troops of the Southern Maryland District, which includes Greenbelt, will take place in the auditorium of the Center school on Friday night at 8. The Court of Honor is held to recognize advancements in scouting in the past four months. Several boys in Greenbelt will receive recognition.

The public is invited to attend.

Library Closes On Holidays

Under a new regulation, the Greenbelt public library will be closed on all legal holidays observed by the state of Maryland.

On Registration Day, November 8, and Armistice Day, November 11, the library will therefore be closed.

GCS Elects Miller Mitchell, Littleton

Despite considerable promotional work a bare quorum met last night at the Greenbelt Consumer Services quarterly membership meeting to transact business. No official action was taken at the meeting until 10:30 when a quorum was finally mustered.

The chief action taken by the members was the election of three board members: Carolyn R. Miller, John W. Littleton, and Robert T. Mitchell. Mrs. Miller and Mr. Mitchell had been previously appointed to fill interim board vacancies by the directors. Also the members unanimously voted for the only three nominations to the auditing committee: Sherrod East, Daniel Lyons, and William Feller.

Mrs. Beatrice Schalet of C.A.R.E. replacing Morris Mitchell as speaker of the evening, spoke of the continuing good work of the relief organization. Although $90,000,000 worth of food has been sent to Europe for relief purposes by C.A.R.E. it is impossible to put into words the situation that still exists in Europe, she said.

Henry Walter, leader of a panel discussion on cooperatives, said the GCS earnings are "15 to 16 percent higher this year than last year for the nine months period. Taxes will likely be higher this year, and certain portions of the earnings may be taxed at the rate of 57 percent, he added.

The Greenbelt Community Band, directed by Dana Garrett, played several John Philip Sousa compositions in tribute to the 93rd anniversary of the eminent march composer's birth.

Only 5-Day Residence Needed to Register Tues

Residents of Greenbelt who have lived in town for as short a time as five days before next Tuesday, November 8, may register to vote on that day from 1 to 9 p.m. in the firehouse at the center, according to Mrs. Oscar Zoellner and Mrs. John Walker, election supervisors for Greenbelt. The resident need not prove his residence by old bills or other papers, his oath being sufficient.

If he is already registered elsewhere, however, he must produce a transfer or certificate showing that his name has been erased from those registration books. This certificate may be obtained from the old polling place on Registration Day and brought to the new one on the same day.

From now till the November 1950 election, the new registrant must make Maryland his residence in order to have lived a year in the state and six months in the county before the election, not before registration.

Confusion over necessary residence before registration, and whether or not proof was needed, led election officials to stress the short residence requirement of less than a week.

In November, 1950, Greenbelters will vote for a U. S. Senator and congressman, the governor of the state, delegates to the General Assembly (state), state's attorney, comptroller, attorney general and judicial candidates, and the five county commissioners, as well as other county officials.

Correction

Spokesmen for the Jewish Community Center called to The Cooperator's attention this week the fact that bingo equipment to be used for their November 19 building benefit has been offered free of charge by the Greenbelt Athletic Club, not rented as was reported in last week's paper.

NCJW Plays Bingo Next Saturday Nite

The National Council of Jewish Women invites all its members friends and relatives to a bingo party to be held Saturday night, November 5, at 8:30 p.m. in the social room of the Center school. The ways and means committee headed by Nora Levsky, and including Esther Gerson, Ida Tannenbaum, Dorothy Terkeltaub, Vivian Pines, Helen Gerhoff, Kay Ehrlich, has planned an evening of fun and refreshments for everyone. E. Don-Bullian will be the caller and master of ceremonies. Among the prizes to be offered to the lucky winners will be a Beltsville turkey, a huge fruit basket valued at $8.50, a silex coffee-maker, a case of beer; wine, record albums and other cash prizes.

A general business meeting of the Council is planned for November 9 in the arts and crafts room of the Center school, to hear a report from the delegates to the Triennial Convention in Baltimore, and to discuss programs for the coming year. Refreshments will be served by the hospitality committee.

Farm Bureau Holds Auto Tests at GHS

Automobile safety will be demonstrated at the Greenbelt High School Tuesday, November 8 by Harry M. Pontius, safety director of the Farm Bureau Insurance Companies. The demonstration is one of a series being given by Mr. Pontius in high schools in Metropolitan Washington and other cities.

The demonstration consists of a 30-minute talk, followed by a 45-minute "laboratory" period. During the latter period, a specially-equipped car provided by the insurance companies is used for a driver-reaction test and demonstration. Students and school staff discover how far a car travels in the time it takes them to bring it to a stop.

For the last two years Mr. Pontius has been a member of President Truman's highway safety committee. The Farm Bureau Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, which is putting on the demonstrations as a public service, is a member of the Cooperative League of the U.S.A.

G. S. Frolic On Halloween

The witches and spooks were at their very best last Wednesday night when they invaded the Girl Scout room for their Hallowe'en party. The girls, under the guidance of Mrs. Elsie Kennedy and Mrs. Thelma Zell, planned entertainment, prizes and refreshments.

On Friday, October 21 Brownie Troop 116 and leaders, Mrs. Louise Moore, and Mrs. Ott went on a hobnob hike to the lake.

Let's Talk Co-op

By Ben Rosenzweig

Our Motto: "Less heat, more light."

Personality Plus—Ithaca Co-operative Consumers Society, our sister organization in the Eastern Co-operative wholesale area, reports through its manager, Lee Shurter, in its latest "Co-op Bulletin" prospects for business of $1,200,000 for the year. Ithaca's "Golden Triple Rich" bread was demonstrated in Washington at the hearings on bread "additives" to show how Co-ops improve the staff of life. Some of our commercial additives, straight from the petroleum refinery, will give you a fit in more ways than one.

Also, the Co-op bread has gone to Palo Alto, Calif., for wider co-op participation. . . .

Say Ah!—With compulsory health insurance looming on the horizon, the new president of the American Medical Association suddenly finds voluntary plans, such as the Greenbelt Health Association, wonderful factors in health preservation, according to the latest Scientific American. What a change from the days of yesteryear when Group Health had to fight its way into the Supreme Court. . . .

Co-ops and Taxes—We hear much, including the recent A&P blast on the "tax-free" situation of Co-ops. It was interesting to note, in the little Farm Bureau booklet "Americans Together" that Tony Madden mailed out this week, that Farm Bureau alone paid $1,055,000 in taxes in 1948. By the way, Farm Bureau insurance is a good thing to look into. If you haven't heard, Farm Bureau competition has brought insurance rates down to reasonable levels in many investments. . . .

Quotations—If you are interested in how Greenbelt came to be, and why its building costs were higher than normal, you will be interested in a new book on Greenbelt in the making. Entitled "Called for Freedom—Greenbelt, an example in Applied Democracy," it is being written by former mayor, George Warner. An introduction by J. S. Lansell, director of the Green towns building program, gives the thinking in 1935 which led to the creation of the communities. Quite different from current versions!

Jrs. Make Fourth On Univ Pk. 12-0

Greenbelt's Boys Club Juniors continued their winning streak last Sunday by defeating the stubborn University Park Boys Club, 12-0.

The fast score came on the third play of the game, when on a quick opening play over left guard Kenny Miller raced 40 yards to score standing up. The try for the extra point was blocked.

In the second quarter, with two minutes to go to the half, Frankie Kelleher on an end-around scored from the twenty-yard stripe. The attempted pass for the extra point was out of the reach of end Mike Redd.

In the second half, University Park threatened several times but was repelled by the sterling defensive play of the local boys. Kenny Miller, in addition to his excellent offensive, was outstanding on defense, together with Bob Bradley and Don Flynn. The boys' record is four wins against one defeat.

The Juniors' journey to Beltsville at 2:30 this Saturday to conclude their league schedule.

St. Hugh's Parents Organize Guild

Some 150 Catholic parents attended the formal organization of St. Hugh's parents' guild Monday night in the Center school auditorium. Officers were elected and the constitution and by-laws of the organization accepted, following an introduction by Father Victor Dowgiallo, spiritual director of the Guild.

Officers are Mrs. Joseph Loftus, president; Adelbert Long, first vice president; Mrs. Alice Wade, second vice-president; Mrs. Thomas Callan, secretary, and Mrs. John Fallon, treasurer. Sister Elizabeth Clare, principal of the school is honorary president.

Sister Elizabeth Clare spoke briefly on the purpose of the guild, which should be the development of the child, aided through the bringing of the teachers and the parents into a closer relationship. She emphasized the mutual responsibility of the home and school stressing the rights of the parents in the education of their children.

Msgr. John J. Russell, pastor of the Church of the Nativity, will be guest speaker at the first regular meeting of the St. Hugh's Parents Guild following its organization. The meeting will be held on Tuesday night, November 8, in the new St. Hugh's parish hall.

At a recent meeting the Executive Committee decided to plan for two money-raising events for the year, first of which will be a Thanksgiving turkey raffle, under the chairmanship of ways and means committee chairman Al Long. Meetings for the Guild will be on the second Tuesday of each month, regularly, with the exception of two Sunday afternoon meetings. One of these will be a Christmas party for parents and children.

Also at the Executive Committee meeting it was decided to extend a vote of thanks to GCS for the use of the Greenbelt theater for a temporary school, pending the completion of the new building.

Sodality Plans Book Fair

The Catholic Truth committee of Our Lady of Fatima Sodality is planning a Book Fair, with books from St. Benedict's Book Center on display November 8 and 9 in the new St. Hugh's parish hall. The fair, which will feature children's books, will open before the meeting of the St. Hugh's Parents Guild on Tuesday, November 8 and will be on view again the following night at the regular meeting of the Sodality.

More Pupils Wanted For Public Speaking

More students are needed for the continuation of the public speaking class offered again this year by the adult education program, according to Mrs. Mary Jane Kinzer, director. The class meets at the Center School, and will continue through November 29. The course is adapted to the needs of all its students, whether housewife or a business man. A recording will be made of each student's voice. The only fee is the dollar charged by all adult education classes. For further information call Mrs. William McDonald, Greenbelt 5104.

Womans Club Hears Talk On Hearing

At the first meeting of the Woman's Club for this season, Mrs. Edna K. Monsees, director of the Hearing Rehabilitation Center in Washington, D. C., spoke on "What Can Be Done for the Impaired in Hearing."

Four new members were received and presented corsages: Mrs. Harry Fleisher, Mrs. Adelbert Long, Mrs. Gene Walker, and Mrs. Lyman Woodman.

The Fine Arts Department, Mrs. David Granahan, chairman, sponsored the next meeting at the American Legion hall on October 26. The speaker was Mrs. Judson Bell, who spoke on "Flower Arrangements." Members were asked to bring floral arrangements, plant arrangements, dish gardens, which were displayed and judged by Mrs. Bell. Hostesses were Mrs. Donald Romer, Mrs. Helen Mott, Mrs. Mattie Blake, Mrs. George Domchick, Mrs. Harry McNeel.

North End Kids Elect School Patrol

Fifth and sixth graders at the North End school selected their 1949 school patrol from those two grades through nomination and a secret ballot. The three officers of the patrol for the year were also chosen as follows: Captain, Tony Baker; 1st Lieutenant, John Berry; 2nd Lieutenant, Paula Bibler. Each week the officers and patrolmen meet with their sponsors, Mrs. Ruth Lynch and Mrs. Hazel Heller. There are four substitute patrolmen.

Articles on how best to improve their safety patrol were written by the children of the 5th and 6th grades. Excerpts from the best articles, have been combined by the class with the help of their teacher, Mrs. Phyllis Dickey, follow: "During the school year of 1948 and 1949, the pupils and teachers became conscious of the patrol force taking advantage of their position. This led to a unit on safety. We made a careful study about the attitudes of patrolmen and children, the duties of the patrol, and characteristics of a good patrolman.

"At the close of this study the children of the 5th and 6th grades nominated children in their groups for the patrol. These names were voted on by the children. The patrol force at the close of the year showed great progress.

"At the beginning of this school year we had a temporary patrol until we became organized. We nominated our patrol as we did last year, but we voted by secret ballot.

"It is the patrols duty to make our schoolday safe. To do this the patrol needs the cooperation of the parents. The patrol is working for a safe school year. Let's all cooperate."

HOMEMAKERS CLUB

A Homemakers Club will be organized in Greenbelt as soon as a sufficient number of women are interested in having one. There are several such clubs in the county at present, and Miss Ethel Regan, county home demonstration agent, direct their meetings once a month.

The homemakers clubs are a part of the Agricultural Extension Service of the University of Maryland in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Members of the club receive information about foods and nutrition, clothing, and textiles, home furnishing and management, child development, and any other subjects that interest the members.

Meetings will be held once a month. Anyone interested in joining should phone Mrs. Charles Orleans, 3231.

Madden Nears Insurance Record

Anthony M. Madden, long-time Greenbelt resident is about to break all his company's records for life insurance sales. Mr. Madden is Greenbelt agent for the Farm Bureau Insurance companies, regarded as leaders in the cooperative movement in the United States. Last week Mr. Madden's life insurance sales for the current year passed the half-million-dollar mark—a record passed only once before by a Farm Bureau representative.

Mr. Madden began selling Farm Bureau insurance in 1942, and became a full time representative only a little over a year ago, in July 1948. When questioned about his remarkable record, Mr. Madden said: "Much of the credit should go to my wife, who helps me tremendously."

My Mom has to work

She didn't always work . . . not before my Dad died . . . but now she works to get money to pay the rent and the other bills.

Mom says things would have been simpler if Dad had taken out the Family Income policy he talked to some man about . . . but he didn't get around to it. I wish Dad hadn't put it off . . . Mom gets pretty tired working all the time.

Let me tell you Dads about our Family Income policy—call
