Elizabeth Fugitt Leaves Greenbelt

By Miriam G. Johnson

Mrs. Elizabeth Fugitt left Center School Tuesday after nine years of vital community service as principal. A well attended reception held in the social room Tuesday night testified to her popularity as supervisor as well as backgrounded a hum of surprise at her seemingly sudden transfer to the new Hollywood School. A lovely set of matched earrings and pin were presented to Mrs. Fugitt Monday night at the first executive committee meeting of the new Center School PTA, at which the incoming principal Miss Hannah Long, formerly principal at Silver Hill was also present. Although she anticipates the change for the challenge it presents, Mrs. Fugitt expressed a feeling for the humor of a situation in which she is leaving such hard-worked-for acquisitions as a new health room, camera film, strips, kiln, music books and typewriter, and going to a brand new school at which none but the barest essentials are now present. These necessary school aids were required as a direct result of her constant great interest in the school in which she happens to be working and her diligent, conscientious efforts will surely be successful wherever she directs activities.

Monday, 20 children returned to Mrs. Fugitt from the Junior High School where they had been promoted the previous year. Our charming ex-principal spoke with deserved pride about one young man who "hadn't wanted to leave elementary for Junior High School." His visit reflected a happy development of independence in his personality and he shone with success in his adjustment to the higher level schooling.

This particular student was only one of the 4706 children who have been under her supervision since Mrs. Fugitt became principal 9 years ago. At that time Center was the only Greenbelt Elementary School and there were twenty-three teachers to care for 900 children. Now there are 16 faculty members, including the principal, to teach some 600 children. The North End School was completed 7 years ago.

During 1938 and 1939, Mrs. Fugitt taught first grade at the Center School. For the next three years, she taught at Montgomery County's Parkside School. Her return to Greenbelt the following year found her in the role of principal. Previous to her first arrival in Greenbelt, Mrs. Fugitt taught at Seat Pleasant, Cottage City and Mt. Rainier as elementary school teacher. She attended Towson State Teachers College and has worked at the University of Maryland for the past several summers, as well as teaching at the Parkside Day Camp.

The message Mrs. Fugitt would like to leave with us takes the form of a stimulating, constructive question: "Is our educational program meeting the needs of the child today?" The faster paced social world facing today's youngsters she believes should alert parents to an ever more diligent observance of its continuing effect on the individual child's development. Should curbing or diverting of that pace be required, she believes correct timing to be of the essence and passes along this helpful word for all it is worth. She also recommends that school curriculum changes should be made as needed during the present fastmoving period of scientific development. In her own words, "Children also need to find pleasure, recreation and satisfaction from the use of books."

Mednicks Plan Tour Of Italy

Mr. and Mrs. Sol A. Mednick, 8-M Plateau Place, will sail from New York July 5 on the Conte Biancamano for Italy, where they will spend their vacation. They will visit Naples and surrounding resorts such as Sorrento, Capri, and Amalfi, then visit Rome, Milan, Florence, Venice, and the Riviera. After a visit to Paris they will return from the port of Genoa. Their trip will last seven weeks.

Sol is studying for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy at the University of Maryland, on a research fellowship in chemistry. Doris, a member of the Cooperator staff, is a singer. As she is particularly interested in Italian music, she intends to take full advantage of the opportunity of hearing the opera in Naples and Rome and attending the music festival at Menton, France.

Church Improvements Installed This Week

During the past week two handrails leading up to the front door of the Community Church were installed by the Gichner Iron Works of Washington. The work, supervised by Lloyd Moore, adds a distinctive as well as utilitarian touch to the entrance of the church.

The work on the new sign for the church is being directed by Donald G. Kern of the Board of Trustees. The sign, now under construction, will be dedicated in memory of Miss Anna Volckhausen, charter member of the church. The design and blueprints for this work were donated by the church architects McLeod and Ferrara. The design features two brick pillars with the name of the church carved on three redwood planks with an enclosed lighting arrangement. Bricks have been donated by the Gichner Brick Company of Bowie, Maryland. Men of the church who are working on the sign include Kern, Herbert Hall, Sr., Ray Bochert, Wilmer Kluth, and Hans Jorgensen, who is chairman of the landscape committee.

The mural on the chancel wall of the church, being the design and work of Mrs. Leland Love, is progressing nicely. Bev Fonda and Frank Kriby are technical associates in the planning and executing of the mural.

Senior Song Recital

The Lydalu Palmer senior recital of the season will take place Monday, June 23, 8 p.m., at the Social Hall of the First Methodist Church in Hyattsville. Participants will be Betty Whitely, Evelyn Smith, Frieda Bell, Janice Anzulovic, Jean Flanigan, Virginia Amos, John Fogarty, Lee Clark, Dan Johnson, Lydia Cecchetti, Mary Lois Rawley, Nancy Lord, Norma Knauer, Richard Hampton and Tony Salvan.

Louis Guzman will act as accompanist and flutist, and Mrs. Donald Kern as accompanist.

GVHC Omits Apartments From Bidding Contract

By Doris Mednick

At its Friday night board meeting, Greenbelt Housing Corporation decided not to purchase the apartments in original Greenbelt, but to ask PHA for the "privilege of the right of first refusal with respect to any other bid." Should the government reduce the price on those units, GVHC would like to be given first consideration in the bidding.

Over the week-end, six vacant units were made available by the local PHA for inspection by non-residents.

Down Payments

A motion was made that GVHC request People's Development Corporation, a Farm Bureau subsidiary, to extend a line of credit not to exceed $200,000 for the purpose of providing down payments on the unsold units. They plan to ask PDC to provide all of the down payment for all of the undeveloped land, the terms to be approved by the board.

A membership meeting will be held after the signing of the preliminary contract to purchase.

Norman Altman of the law firm of Krooth & Altman was present at the Monday night GVHC board meeting for consultation on various legal questions.

There is a possibility that the required number of 800 units, still short by about 20, will be scratched if GVHC does not purchase the 306 apartments.

Credit application forms are being sent to resident members, as well as a questionnaire on the undeveloped land, permitting residents to express their interest in the purchase of such land, the price home they would like to build and how soon they would be ready for this undertaking.

Another opportunity will be given to those residents needing help on their down payments to make their needs known on a form being mailed to each home.

Boys Club Sponsor July Fourth Fete

By L. A. Lee

Again this year the Greenbelt Boy's Club will endeavor to give the residents and friends of Greenbelt a bigger and better Fourth of July Celebration than ever before. If you are remaining at home for the day, plan to spend it with us at the Lake area commencing at 10 a.m. and continuing on until after the fireworks after dark which will take place between 9:30 and 10 p.m. or whenever it becomes dark enough for effective fireworks. A considerably larger display of fireworks is planned for this year.

The day's activities will commence with the parade which will begin promptly at 10 a.m., winding up at the lake area. Actual route of the parade will be published later. Anyone desiring information on the parade can obtain it by contacting Officer Austin Green, the parade marshal. There will be many more amusements and games this year, also many athletic events; in fact, there will be something doing all the time and something for everyone to enjoy. Plenty of refreshments will be on hand, in fact everything to make your holiday a wonderful time long to be remembered.

More detailed information and program of events will be published in the next issues of the paper before the Fourth. Plan on celebrating the Fourth with us at the lake area and we assure you, you will have a good time in a safe and sane celebration. Watch the paper for further information.

GCS Directors To Seek Membership Action On Sale And Board Elections

In two special meetings over the week-end GCS directors faced head-on the issues of the sale of Greenbelt commercial property and the repercussions following the June 6th election of a new board member to replace Takoma director Charles Bicking.

Commerce and Politics

On Friday night general manager Sam Ashelman, with Bassett Ferguson and Bob Morrow, presented for consideration budgets of estimated costs based on their own research and GVHC breakdowns on the charges for alternative dispositions of the commercial property. Ultimately the board voted to ask the housing corporation to try to negotiate with PHA for sale of part of the land at the center, exclusive of buildings.

Takoma director William Arntz interrupted discussion to ask for consideration of the election at the last regular board meeting on June 6 because he had no notice that Bicking's position had been vacated officially nor that an election would be held. Bierwagen and Walter, who were also absent from that meeting, contended that in the past it had been the practice to announce the vacancy at one meeting and fill it at the next or even later. Cal Winegarden, treasurer and chairman of the meeting in question, affirmed the by-law legality of the board action and refused, as was requested, to reconsider. It was agreed to hold a special meeting tonight.

Auditing Report

The auditing committee, however, alarmed at the board's apparent neglect to call a special membership meeting to act on "such a major decision as the purchase of the (commercial) facilities," announced its intention to call such a meeting for June 27 (3 days before the GVHC deadline) if the board, convened at its request Monday night, did not do so. Chairman Carrie Harper, speaking for auditing committee members Ben Rosenzweig and Paul Kasko, scored the board for its delay in this vital matter and for the June 6 election which the committee deemed "damaging to the morale of the organization." In a report read to directors at the meeting, Mrs. Harper stated that the committee believed that in filling vacancies the board ought "to notify all members of the existence of a vacancy and of the meeting at which it is to be filled; that nominations be solicited from all board members; that "particular consideration should be given to candidates living in the same geographic area" as that of the defaulting director; and that the board reconsider its action in the light of these opinions.

Agenda

The following is the agenda directed by the auditing committee

ST. HUGH'S PICNIC

Robert C. Myers has been appointed chairman of the St. Hugh's Parish Picnic which is to be held on the Church grounds July 13. The picnic, sponsored by the Holy Name Society of St. Hugh's, is for the benefit of the St. Hugh's Building Fund. Other members of the Committee who will assist Mr. Myers are: Walter Dean, George Holland, Leroy Day, Charles Wright and Thomas Canning.

GREENBELT BUS CONCLUDES FIRST YEAR OF OPERATION IN THE BLACK!

for the special membership meeting on June 27 and, with an amendment by Winegarden in parentheses, as it was finally adopted:

1. Action on the purchase of commercial facilities in Greenbelt and related considerations.
2. Report of the Auditing Committee, relating to items 3 and 4 of the agenda.
3. Consideration of the method by which a vacancy on the board of directors was filled at the board meeting on June 6 (and consideration of related items).
4. Consideration of the auditing committee's recommendation concerning the procedure to be followed in filling such vacancies.

Heated Debate

In the absence of president Walter Bierwagen, the meeting was chaired by vice-president William Arntz. Walter, Winegarden, Schwimmer and the auditing committee bore the brunt of the discussion. Treasurer Cal Winegarden, while defending the board's position in the June 6 election and consistently maintaining the legality of the action, proposed that the auditing committee agenda be accepted in full, with the amendment noted above, in order not to obstruct membership discussion.

Takoma member Mrs. Mark Wolsey asked the board what it would do if the membership decided the manner of election was "ill-considered." Schwimmer, Solomon and Winegarden invoked the by-laws, as had been done at the previous special meeting, to point out that removal of a director required special procedure and that any re-consideration would be "illegal." Another Takoma member and erstwhile candidate for the board, Frank W. Lewis, asked Mrs. Eleanor Ritchie, the new director, if she would continue her directorship if the membership asked for reconsideration by the board. Mrs. Ritchie, pointing out that she had not participated in the election under fire, replied that of course she would feel answerable to the wishes of the membership.

Pointed Exchange

Winegarden wanted to know if the auditing committee was equally interested in other past instances of board action taken under the same circumstances.

Harper: We're interested in this election.

Winegarden: I'm merely asking if you are also interested in similar actions in the past.

Harper: I must ask you to stick to the point.

Faced with the threat of auditing committee action and a strict time limit since GCS by-laws require 10-day advance notice of a special membership meeting and June 30 is the GVHC deadline, the board adopted the substance of the auditing committee report. Bob Volckhausen, present as an observer, remarked that the board was "previewing" the discussion which ought to take place at the general meeting.

Present in addition to those already mentioned were Bicking and his wife, Mrs. William Arntz, and Mrs. Rosemary Shoenfeld of Takoma. Walter Bierwagen joined during the last hour.

Bus Buss

It is with great satisfaction and pride that we disclose an outstanding example of good management and service to the community with the news that the Greenbelt bus has operated one full year at a profit. Credit for the achievement goes to the city council, who defied the odds and found courage to proceed with a venture that lacked the approval of the Public Housing Administration. With the prospect of being an "isolated" community in regard to public transportation, the council acted with vigor and unanimity in the best interests of Greenbelt citizens.

But it is very doubtful the entire project would have been successful without the capable and resourceful talents of our city manager Charles T. McDonald. Without any previous experience in the operation of a public transit system, and with the knowledge that two huge transit companies had failed in this area (and a third local transit company failing) McDonald planned carefully and shrewdly. Foremost in his thinking was service; and therein lies the key to his success.

The Ides of June 27

There is more than meets the eye in the controversy over the June 27 special meeting of GCS members. The main event of the evening ought to be a discussion on the sale of the commercial property in Greenbelt - a poser which GCS members must solve at the eleventh hour.

But the auditing committee, acting as "watchdog" of members' rights, has attached to this vital question a suspicious-looking "rider" insisting on consideration of the recent election of a new director by a quorum of five board members. The committee, in effect, has forced the board to submit to public review of this action by making it part and parcel of an agenda whose main issue—the sale of the property at the Center—must be concluded by June 30.

It seems to us that much is revealed in the query of a board member who asked the auditing committee chairman whether she was interested in other instances of board action taken over the heads of an absent opposition. The committee was not—although recent GCS history abounds in examples of such action.

On the other hand, directors who participated in the controversial election appear to us to have tried fighting fire with fire—and they have been burned.

We do not favor hiding behind by-laws. We believe the membership is the final authority on the moral value of board actions, no matter how deviously these actions are brought to the members' attention. We look to the board of directors of GCS to implement to the letter the directives of the membership.

My Daze

An intriguing radio commercial is the one which claims for a certain automobile that in its '52 model "a child can turn the wheel with just one finger." If the small fry get wind of this, they'll be demanding the use of the car. This modern age . . . ?

The Jewish Community Center now going up on Ridge near Westway is the site of an exciting cooperative building venture. Evenings and weekends, during good weather, find about two dozen able-bodied office workers temporarily turned bricklayers, hod carriers, masons, etc., eagerly applying themselves to their "labor of love." The problem now is to get this bunch of amateurs to turn out a professional about an effective fusion of know-job. Cheer up, boys; stick to it, and experience will eventually bring how and zeal. Let's not hear any more jokes about the "leaning tower of Greenbelt."

In a hilarious scene of an old Marx Brothers' movie some sea voyagers are assigned a tiny stateroom in which they have difficulty placing themselves and their luggage. There begins a seemingly endless influx of the steward, manicurist, captain, charwoman, and others, who are not seen coming out. Our daily lives get as cluttered, and like the utility closet at home, have the same incredible capacity as that stateroom. Just as we think nothing more can be accommodated, something comes up which gets taken care of anyway.

PERSONALS

Friends and neighbors regret the moving this week of Estelle Dolgoff of 2-B Westway and youngsters Robert and Diana. They have gone to join the head of the family in Topeka, Kansas, where he is currently working in a top administrative job at the famous Menninger Foundation.

Long-time residents Charles and Ruth Dwiggins of 17-H Ridge, with their 3 pretty daughters Anne, Fay and Mary Lou, have also left Greenbelt for nearby Hollywood, where they recently bought a new home.

A new grandson was born to the Guy Andros family, one of Greenbelt's first families, at 11-R Ridge. "Lucky" John England Clark, Jr., who was born on Friday, June 13 weighed in at 7 lbs. 14 oz. and is the son of Jerry (nee Andros) and Captain Jack Clark of Rockville, currently recalled on active Air Force duty.

Local residents, who have not and who wish to contribute to the fund for the aid of the family of the young Greenbelter, Paul Powell, who met his death recently in a railroad accident at College Park, may have their donations picked up by Mrs. Ruth Tanner, 2-H Parkway. Mrs. Tanner suggests calling her at 2574 or Mrs. Hancock at 5517 for quick pick-up.

We missed it at the time but it is not too late to say a reluctant goodbye to the Woodman family, formerly of 2-A Westway, who left Greenbelt some weeks ago to try life in Washington. Major Lyman and his wife Betsy were both active in community affairs during their many years' residence. The children, Kent, Karen and Ross, report regret at leaving their friends mixed with the joy of having, at last, their own real live pets.

A former resident of Greenbelt, Mrs. Esther Chwalow will be honored by a lawn party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Granims, 2-S Plateau Place at 9 p.m. on Saturday, June 21. All her old friends and neighbors are invited to stop by and say "hello."

Among those boys to achieve outstanding records and receive medals at Fork Union Military Academy this year was Harry C. Fox, son of Vernon T. Fox, 2-K Gardenway, Greenbelt.

Cadet Fox was awarded a Citizenship Medal for fine personal conduct throughout the school year. Fork Union Military Academy uses the demerit system for penalties, and the Greenbelt cadet went through the entire school year without receiving a single demerit. Such a record is considered excellent by the Fork Union authorities.

Lieutenant-Colonel S. Y. Kennedy, assistant commandant at Fork Union, presented the medal to Fox during a special award program held in the academy gymnasium in conjunction with graduation exercises.

Letters To Editor

Since Mrs. Salzman thought it necessary to use the columns of the Cooperator to inform the town of her housing plans, I, too, would like to announce that I have no intention of moving, I have not donated any money to G.V.H.C., and my house is not available for inspection by any prospective tenant who may have been given this address by G.V.H.C.

As long as I am paying rent to P.H.A. I do not intend to be involved in any program sponsored by G.V.H.C.

I hope this will discourage any further inquiries.

Summer Theatre Debut Due Near Laurel Soon

A new and exciting addition to the summer theatre season is being planned in the Baltimore-Washington area on the grounds of the Avondale Farms one mile south of Laurel, Maryland, on Route 1, the Baltimore-Washington highway.

The new group known as the Pine Tree Players will open its inaugural season on or about July 1 at the Avondale Playhouse and will include in its company a selection of the finest campus-trained theatrical talent culled from some 50 colleges on the eastern seaboard.

Production personnel which will emphasize a new vitality and enthusiasm will be headed by co-producers Rudolph Pugliese, Borah Z. Burman and J. Allen Bowers.

Rudolph Pugliese is a member of the staff of the Drama Department at the University of Maryland. He is a graduate of Miami University of Ohio and Catholic University. He was associated with the Barter Theatre at Abington, Virginia and was stage manager for the Sesqui-centennial production of "Faith Of Our Fathers" by Paul Green at Washington, D. C. during the two summers it was in operation.

Borah Z. Burman has been connected with the Westchester Playhouse, Mt. Kisco, N. Y. and the Spa Summer Theatre at Saratoga Springs, N. Y. He has been associated with the William Morris Agency in New York.

J. Allen Bowers has been connected with drama at the University of Maryland, the University of Wisconsin, and Ohio State University. He has served as technical director of the Bryn Mawr Summer Theatre.

The season's repertoire will include popular Broadway plays interspersed with some serious fare along with an original new script.

The opening bill to be presented will be the hilarious farce of Greenwich Village, "My Sister, Eileen" by Joseph Fields and Jerome Chodorov, July 2-6. "Light Up The Sky" by Moss Hart is the second bill, July 9-13. The third, July 15-22, is the powerful drama by Arthur Miller, "All My Sons". This play received the award of the New York Critics Circle in 1947.

The fourth show will again focus on comedy in "The Show-Off" by George Kelly, July 23-27, a Pulitzer prize-winner.

"Guest In The House", the thriller by Dale Eunson and Hagar Wilde will serve as the fifth production, July 30-August 3.

Laughter again becomes the keynote for the sixth week with "George Washington Slept Here" by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart, August 6-10. The Players will perform every night except Monday and Tuesday and there will be weekly matinees on Sunday. Information can be had at the Avondale Playhouse regarding subscriptions for these first six Pine Tree Player productions. Other productions to round out the season will be announced shortly.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

At its closing monthly session until after the summer recess, held last Friday morning, June 13, in Mt. Rainier, the Prince Georges County Girl Scout council voted in favor of changing to the association type of council. One of the few remaining traditional type councils in the United States, the local council has had this move under consideration for several months.

The new plan will greatly enlarge the council, permitting a much wider membership of adult workers with a voice in the administration of the service. It will mean drawing a new constitution and effecting a reorganization, and committees will be appointed at once by Mrs. S. L. Emsweller, county commissioner, to work out the details.

A stated policy code for Girl Scouts was reported by Mrs. L. C. Rosenkraus for the policy committee, and adopted. The resignation of Mrs. Louis Dashiell, of Hyattsville, a member of the Girl Scout council for the last 36 years, and the first commissioner for Prince Georges county, was accepted.

Reports were given on the plans for day camp, which opened Tuesday (17th) at Camp Conestoga with a registration of almost 450 girls and about 50 adult volunteer helpers; and Camp Misty Mount, which will open in July, near Thurmont.

DOLLARS & SENSE

By Morris Solomon

Guaranteed Textiles at the Variety Store

The "guaranteed" textile is a worthwhile product. The manufacturer is sure to build wear into his product when he risks a refund or replacement if it doesn't measure up.

An excellent value is the "Fruit of the Loom Superweave" white shirt at the GCS Variety Store now selling at the sales price of $2.55. Most men find that the collar and cuffs of a shirt go first. The collar and cuffs of this shirt are guaranteed to outlast the body of the shirt and the body is sturdy.

Another guaranteed textile is men's socks at 3 for $1.15. Three pair are guaranteed to last at least three months.

Consumer is King— But Will He Rule

Have you noticed the bold red signs near the suggestion boxes? "Your Suggestions are Wanted." The boxes have been put where you can find them and get to them. The one in the Supermarket is next to the literature cabinet near the exit door. The box in the Variety Store is near the hosiery counter.

These boxes will be serviced by the Store Operations and Price Policy Committee. They will keep suggestion forms handy, collect your suggestions which are under lock and key, register them, hand them to the General Manager, and periodically review them for the board. The General Manager of course will continue to responsible for acting on your suggestions.

It all adds up to a systematic way of giving the consumer the real say—if he'll only talk.

Incidentally if you put your name and address on the suggestion, it will be acknowledged by the General Manager.

If you have a suggestion on CGS operations, sound off to your car pool or your neighbor if you must, but more important, send it where it can do the most good—in the suggestion box. It will be treated as a valuable asset of the business.

To parents, she says she would like to hear about their children's development beyond the time of her local principalship and trusts happiness will be found by community residents, no matter under whose leadership the town may be finally changed to.

Mrs. Fugitt was very appreciative of the warm reception accorded her during the party for her Tuesday night. The room was very decorative with fresh flowers, colorful punch and delicious accompanying refreshments. The Center School Parent Teachers Association appreciates in particular the efforts of Claire Panagoulis and Beulah Parker in arranging the details for this occasion.

Sisters Depart

Sunday, June 22, the Sisters of St. Hugh's will depart for various colleges throughout the country. Sister Rita Cascia and Sr. Daniel Marie will go to Dunbarton College; Sr. Marie Michelle and Sister St. Hugh will attend a Fred Waring Choral Workshop at Penn. State College; Sister Cornelius will go to Notre Dame, Indiana, and Sister M. Annella will go to Alexandria, Virginia. The Sisters will be returning to Greenbelt after the Summer Sessions in August.

Boy's Club Activities

By Lee

Our baseball teams are coming along fine at this writing. I am sorry I haven't been able to give you a weekly account of the teams and their games and standings but there seems to be a lack of reporting the games. We hope to have it cleared up in the future and can pass the information on to you through this column. To date the Midget Team is doing very good, they have played a total of 21 games and have won 17 of them for an average of .810. In the County League they have played 6 games and won them all for an average of 1000. Highlights since last reporting is their game last Wednesday June 11th when they defeated Riverdale 9 to 2, Butch Brown pitching a no-hitter, Riverdale scoring its runs on errors. Last Saturday the boys defeated one of the best Boy's Club teams in the Washington area, Murphy's Esso by a close score of 3 to 2 with Brown again doing a grand one hit pitching job. Big guns helping him were Rock with two hits, Cherry with a triple and Dick Taylor with a nice hit. The boys are going a swell job; come down and see them play on Wednesday nights when they are at home.

The Intermediate (Blue Jays) played a total of five games to date, winning 4 of them. In their 4 County League games played they have won three for an average of .750. They play on Monday evenings at Braden Field when at home.

The Juniors (Orioles) have played 4 games, winning three of them for an average of .750. In their league play they have won 2 and lost 1 for an average in the County League of .666.

The Seniors have played one game and lost so their average is nil as of now, but they will get started in the future. The Boy's Club is playing a total of 5 baseball teams this year, with four teams in full uniform and one with caps only. Each of these teams carry an average of 15 boys—a total of 75 taken care of in baseball by the Boy's Club this year.

Little League Leaders Still College Park

June 11 through 17 was the busiest Little League week of the season. The diminutive denizens of McDonald Park played six league games plus a Fathers' Day trip to Severna Park, Maryland by the Co-Ops. Feature of the week is the still unbeaten status of Mel Taylor's College Park Legion.

Bernie Emmert's Co-Op took the measure of Jim Ewing's Bowlers in a well played game Wednesday, June 11 by a 5-2 score. Dewayne "Sammy" Barron squelched a last inning rally to be winning pitcher. Richie Fonda's two for two paced the winners while Marv Sayers' 2 for 3 was best for the Bowlers.

The next evening found Chet Speziale's Indians on the long end of a 7-4 game with Co-Op. Mike Nance got a well-deserved victory with a 16 strikeout effort. Richie Fonda's homer wasn't enough to turn the tide for Coach Bernie Emmert's boys.

Bobby Taylor pitched a one-hitter on Friday the Thirteenth, bad luck for the hapless Redbirds of Post 136, to spark his Izaak Walton Leaguers to a 3-2 win.

Brent Barker pitched George Preston's Waltonians to their second win in as many days over the Redbirds Saturday morning. Little Bernie Emmert, young son of the Co-Op coach, was the batting star of the 17-5 rout. Emmert smote a three-bagger off the right-center field Pepsi-Cola sign and two doubles to show the way for the Fishboys.

In perhaps the most exciting game of the season Jim Ewing's Bowlers overcame a two run deficit in the third extra inning for a 10-9 victory over Chet Speziale's hard-luck Indians. Ken Reamy's third home run of the season tied the score in the last inning to send the game into overtime.

When the Indians jumped on Norman Brooks for two runs in the top of the 9th inning it looked like curtains for the Bowlers but a last-ditch 3 run rally saved their day. Eddie Wilkerson had 3 for 5 and Larry Mogavero hit two-doubles to assist Reamy with the bat chores. Mike Nance hit safely thrice in 4 tries and Johnny Moore and Jerry VanCamp had two hits apiece for Speziale's Braves.

Co-Op journeyed to Severna Park on Fathers' Day in an eight-car caravan for a ball game and picnic. Their four run last inning rally was one short as the host nine took the contest by 9 to 8.

Mel Taylor's College Park Legion remains undefeated as it trounced Co-Op Tuesday by 14 to 5. Don McDonald was the winning pitcher and Richie Fonda was the loser.

The Bowlers and Redbirds play at McDonald Park this evening. Saturday's 9:30 game brings together College Park Legion and the Indians; at 11 o'clock Izaak Walton plays Co-Op.

LIBRARY LORE

Chief librarian Marjorie Muir announces that the new assistant librarian Mrs. Marian Slaugh has assumed her duties at the library in the Center School. Mrs. Marie Roberts, former assistant librarian, moved out of Greenbelt last week and necessitated the change.

Children are welcome to register for the Book-train through tomorrow (Friday). The plan is designed to encourage summer book reading, as well as to provide avid readers with attractive toys. Curious children are invited to visit the library before five tomorrow and find out all about it.
