

Land Developers Report Progress On Two New Housing Projects Here

Greenbelt Community Builders Inc. report that their first project is almost ready for public release and that the second has been filed with FHA.

Woodland Homes, a fifty unit cooperative of two, three, four, and five bedroom houses on 75 foot wide lots, should be approved by FHA early in August and a model will be started immediately thereafter, on the first extension of Northway and Hillside Road. Greenbelters will be given first opportunity to buy homes in this new development. Prices and terms will be announced in August.

Lutheran Ordain Minister Sunday

Edward H. Birner will be ordained as a minister in the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod and installed as pastor of Greenbelt Lutheran Church, 22 Ridge Road, in a special service to be held in the church on Sunday afternoon, August 2 at 4 p.m.

Father Performs Rites

The ordination rites will be performed by Mr. Birner's father, the Rev. Edward T. J. Birner, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, Mattoon, Illinois. Rev. Rudolph S. Rasmeyer, president of the Southeastern District of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod and pastor of Emmanuel Church of Baltimore will preach the sermon. Assisting in the laying on of hands will be the clergy of the Southeastern District.

Returns To Greenbelt

Mr. Birner returns to Greenbelt as the first called pastor of the church having served the congregation as vicar during 1951-1952.

Edward H. Birner

The first unit of the church was built under his supervision and was dedicated on his last Sunday of service as vicar on July 27, 1952.

Having won the hearts of the parishioners during his vicarage, the call was extended to him to become the church's pastor upon his graduation from Concordia Theological Seminary, St. Louis, Mo. in June of this year.

Mr. Birner had his early education in the schools of Mattoon, Illinois. During his sophomore year at Mattoon High School he decided to study for the ministry. In September 1944, he began his preparatory training at Concordia College, Fort Wayne, Indiana. He entered Concordia Theological Seminary in St. Louis in September 1948 and received his B.A. June 1950. He attended Valparaiso University summer sessions in 1950. In 1949 he served as summer field worker under Rev. R. Rasmeyer in Baltimore. He served on the student councils of the schools which he attended including Concordia Seminary.

Mr. Birner is 25 years old and unmarried. He will live at 8-G Parkway.

LOCAL BOY STUDIES JETS IN GEORGIA

George B. Havens of Greenbelt, student at University of Maryland, is one of the 241 Air Force ROTC Cadets who began four weeks of summer training at Turner Air Force Base, Albany, Georgia, on July 25.

Cadet Havens will observe the operational methods of a Strategic Air Command jet fighter base, witness air and ground fire power demonstrations, fly on a simulated mission on a B-29 bomber, and take part in many other summer encampment training activities.

Turner AFB is the home station of the 31st and 508th Strategic Fighter Wings.

GCS Staff Enjoys Gala Annual Picnic

Over 300 employees and members of their families enjoyed the ideal weather at a picnic on historic St. Helene's Island in the Severn River on Sunday, July 26th. The picnic is an annual affair at which the members of the GCS Board of Directors serve as hosts to the employees.

Such a good time was had by those who were there that they were reluctant to leave, and many expressed a wish that they could spend the entire summer there. Some even went so far as to suggest that GCS buy the Island and make it a permanent vacationing spot for its employees and members.

Te participants enjoyed swimming, fishing, crabbing, badminton, horseshoes, dancing, and exploring the island, in addition to the abundance of food and refreshments that were served.

Among those who had an active part in planning the affair were Sam Schwimer, chairman of the Picnic Committee; Keith Gamble, Max Fisher, Ben Rosenzweig, and Frank Lewis, assisted by the other Board members and their wives and by Mrs. Rose Amberg, newcomer to Greenbelt, who volunteered her services as a nurse.

Prominent among those present were City Manager Charles MacDonald and City Councilman James Wolfe.

Thanks are due to the Valley Forge Beer Company, who made the Island available and provided the boats to bring everyone to and from it.

Greenbelt Scouts Back From Camp

Scout Troop 202 of Greenbelt has returned from Camp Theodore Roosevelt where sixteen boys spent two weeks and eight boys one week.

Haward Hunt was acting leader for the first week and Stanley R. Edwards, Sr. for the second. Stanley Edwards, Jr. was assistant leader during both weeks.

During the two week period, five boys completed the Junior Leader's Training courses sponsored by the Camp. Several boys advanced in rank and four merit badges were earned. The Greenbelt camp site was awarded the "Clean Campers" award for the two week period and ten boys earned their buckskins by completing ten required projects.

Activities for the two weeks consisted of swimming, canoeing, boating, skeet shooting, archery, softball, sharks tooth hunts, classes in woodcraft, campercraft and handicraft, also two beach parties.

The appreciation and thanks of 202 Scout Troop Committee is extended to the staff.

Mike Salzman, GVHC Board Head, Leaves Greenbelt For California

By Isadore Parker

Greenbelt will lose one of the founding fathers of Greenbelt Veteran Housing Corporation on August 31, when Michael Salzman will move to Long Beach, California, with his family. Mike, president of the housing corporation which purchased about 1200 dwellings at the beginning of this year, is resigning to enter a medical and surgical supply firm in California.

GVHC Comptroller Outlines Finances

John W. Pharis, Greenbelt Veteran Housing Corporation's comptroller, spent over an hour last Thursday night outlining the corporation's financial position to the board of directors. He analyzed the results of operations from the six months ending June 30, 1953. The statements he made were interim and pre-audit. They were based on certain tentative assumptions regarding depreciation policy, income taxes, etc. which were subject to review and modification by the firm of independent auditors, certified public accountants, who are currently auditing the books. Board members at the meeting, and those visitors who were present, were visibly encouraged by the report and by the evidence that the corporation is in a sound position financially.

Although Treasurer Bernard Bordenet was absent, other board members were present.

Church Sponsors Mountain Camp

For the second summer, Greenbelt Community Church is sponsoring a family camp at Camp Kanesatake, Spruce Creek, Penna. August 9-23. Twenty-five to thirty families may spend one or two weeks in cabins in the mountains, swimming, hiking, sunning, eating, and enjoying fellowship in worship, discussion and recreation. Roy McCorkel, Director of the CARE Self-Help program will be available as a resource leader, as will Terry Braund of Community College.

The camp is 18 miles from Penn State College, 30 miles from Altoona, 170 miles of beautiful country driving from Greenbelt. There is an outdoor swimming pool with life-guard provided, as well as mountain brook, fields for baseball and volleyball, assembly and recreation buildings for evening movies and square-dancing. The meals are cooked and served in the dining hall, and the dishes are washed by the regular Camp Staff.

His association with the housing dilemma in Greenbelt since July, 1946, has made Mike a well-known figure in town. At that time, the federal government announced its intentions to sell the city. Mike became secretary of a newly-formed Greenbelt Mutual Housing Association. In November, 1947, Salzman was elected president of Greenbelt Mutual Housing Corporation and in July, 1949, elected president of the present group.

"Non-controversial"

Although denying that he is a "controversial" figure, Mike agrees that he has been the center of many controversies. The long battle to capture Greenbelt homes for Greenbelt residents has been a sustained climb to achievement, Salzman admits. The four main victories, Mike declares, are (1) protecting the rights of residents in legislation passed by Congress, (2) gaining the right to negotiate for the purchase, (3) buying the homes at the earliest, or lowest, appraisal and (4) avoiding liability of GVHC members in purchasing the undeveloped land.

Salzman moved to Greenbelt in 1941. He was employed by the Department of Agriculture at Beltsville. He first resided at 5-F Parkway, moved to 56-B Crescent in 1944, and to his present home, 4 Woodlandway, recently.

Navy Man

In 1943, Mike entered the U. S. Navy as an apprentice seaman and was discharged as a Petty Officer 1st class in 1945. He is now a lieutenant in the USNR, as part of the volunteer research reserves in the bio-science unit. Receiving a Bachelor of Science degree from American University, majoring in economics, Mike is now preparing for his Ph.D. He leaves a position as Deputy Director of Distribution Control with the U. S. Navy Hydrographic Office.

Mike has been active in many community activities. He was a member of the board of the Greenbelt Health Association in 1945, and was chosen "man of the year" that year by the Cooperator for his work as chairman of the auditing committee of Greenbelt Consumer Services during that time.

Parking Puzzle Poses Problem

There is a drastic shortage of parking space in Greenbelt, it was disclosed at the last meeting of the Greenbelt Veteran Housing Corporation. The discussion came about as a result of a request which a resident had made to the city council to paint parking lines for the cars in his court. The city manager had informed GVHC of this request, since the court parking areas belong to the corporation, and not to the city.

During the discussion it was brought out that Greenbelt had been designed for a limited number of cars, and the planners had not anticipated that many residents would own their own cars. However, automobiles have become almost as common as radios today—or TV—and the parking space is simply not adequate. Added to this is the fact that many families now own two cars—(what a revolting development this is, said one board member)—and consequently the court parking areas are not big enough to accommodate all the vehicles in the court. Many residents are therefore forced to park their cars out in the street.

The whole parking problem was referred to the Grounds Committee for further study, in an effort to alleviate the problem. Co-chairmen Long and Fitzmaurice have issued an urgent appeal for help.

Perhaps the high point of Mike Salzman's long career of public service in Greenbelt was symbolized early this year as he handed the down payment which transfers Greenbelt to the possession of its resident owners to Commissioner John T. Egan (left) of the Public Housing Administration.

Vol. 17 Thursday, July 30, 1953 No. 50

Thirty Hectic Days

Today marks the end of the first month of operation under our paid circulation system. For our circulation department, it has been a hectic month. It has been a month of hard work, endless records to set up, checking to do, some mistakes were made, some papers were not delivered, some went to the wrong homes. We can only apologize for these incidents, and promise to straighten them out as soon as possible. And we ask those whose service has not been 100%, to please bear with us. Now that the initial upheaval is over, we hope to settle down to a steady and efficient delivery service.

By and large, we are pleased with the results of our subscription campaign thus far, although we are not yet satisfied. Indeed, we will not be entirely satisfied until we have achieved full community coverage, even though most community newspapers never attain this goal. But it is something for which we will continue to strive. Meanwhile, those who want to subscribe should call the Cooperator, GR 3-3131, any Tuesday evening. —H.Z.

Dollars and Sense

Select Melons For Quality

Look for a "full slip" when you select cantaloupes of good eating quality. This smooth, slightly sunken, well calloused scar at the stem attachment of the fruit tells you that the cantaloupe is mature. It separated easily from the vine when harvested.

University of Maryland marketing specialists point out that during hot weather, especially when cantaloupes must be shipped great distances, they are often picked with a "half slip." A half of the scar is slightly sunken and the other half is rough.

Only in well-matured fruit will you find sweetness, good texture and fine flavor, say the specialists. Look for cantaloupes with coarse netting or veining on the outside surface. The dark green ground color of the rind should be of a lighter shade with a grayish or yellowish tinge.

You can't improve the quality of a melon after it has been harvested. Never buy an unripe melon — it can't be improved in flavor. It can only spoil.

designed for GCB to continue Greenbelt tradition of homes that face away from the street into peaceful, private outdoor living area. All houses will have more than 1000 feet gross floor area. Lots are to be 70 feet by 120 feet or larger. Precision Built Homes Inc. of Pikesville, Md. is slated to do most of the construction.

Individual Driveway

Every house will have an individual, asphalt surface driveway and will be designed so that an inexpensive carport can be added if the owner wants it.

In laying out the sub-division and placing the houses, special care will be taken to preserve trees. Every house should have trees between it and the road as well as in the rear yard.

Greenbelt Community Builders, Inc. was established to build homes on designated parts of the 700 acres of vacant land around Greenbelt acquired by GVHC. Its five board members include two, recommended by GVHC, Michael Salzman and Elliot Bukzin; two from the Foundation for Cooperative Housing Company, Julian Whittlesey and Roger Wilcox; and Wallace J. Campbell of the Cooperative League of the USA.

Some To Be Sold?

GCB is also trying to arrange for some house to be sold outright to their owners. These would be available both to members of the Lakeside Homeowners sub-division on their own lots and for other people in a new sub-division.

"Big Chunk"

Naturally, Mike hates leaving Greenbelt. His wife, Helen, and their two boys Gil, 10½, and Stevie, 5½, share his reluctance to leave Greenbelt. Gil and Stevie were born here. "It's a big chunk out of my life," Mike says. "But you gotta look ahead." The most inspiring thing about Greenbelt is the people, he stated. "There are so many people in the city who willingly sacrifice time and effort to help build a better and more democratic community. Participation in Greenbelt activities broadens individual experience and develops good Americans," Salzman added.

As to the future of GVHC, Mike hopes to write a letter to the Cooperator to express himself personally and at length. If there was any "ideal" that Mike had in mind while he worked for resident ownership of Greenbelt homes, he disclosed that he hoped the residents would be given the opportunity to keep Greenbelt a good place to live at a reasonable cost. He has received much satisfaction that Greenbelt home-owners can now control their own housing costs despite the elimination of rent control in the area. "GVHC is in a firm, strong, position. One of the major things left is the orderly development of Greenbelt in order to make Greenbelt economically self-sufficient by reducing the taxes per unit."

operator, "Housing America." Housing will continue to occupy his attention, Mike hopes, during his residence in California.

Although the history of mutual housing in Greenbelt is closely associated with Mike's civic career in this community, Mike refuses to take any major share of the credit. He paid tribute to the many volunteer workers at the early stages of GVHC and to the steadfast faith the majority of the members had in the cooperative housing idea. "After all," Mike admits, "it's not houses that are really important, but people. It was another instance of people working together, cooperatively, for mutual advantage."

members questioned Pharis closely, particularly with regard to the interim operating statement. The operating income, as opposed to the operating expense, was thoroughly discussed. The figures, as reported by Pharis, showed a total of $570,294.11 in operating receipts for the six month period, and a total of $533,329.03 in operating expense. According to his calculations, the net surplus before reserves amounted to $39,749.91. This, one board member pointed out, was a far cry from statements made to the membership at the last quarterly meeting.

NAVY WIVES BID MEMBER FAREWELL

The Truman Riddle Navy Wives of Greenbelt bid farewell to one of their long time members, Mrs. Edward Mangold, who is leaving soon to make her home in Philadelphia. The affair was held on Monday evening, July 27, at 24-C Ridge, the home of Mrs. James K. O'Neill, president of the club. Twenty guests were present to wish best wishes for the future and to present a lovely gift to the guest of honor. All 20 members enjoyed an evening of cards followed by delicious refreshments.

Parents Must Fix Band Instruments

By Joseph W. Taylor
At the last meeting of the Board of Directors and Parent members of the Greenbelt band a long standing issue was voted upon and passed that parents issued instruments would keep them in repair. This is a return to a former policy that when funds were not available from the band's treasury, instruments issued for the children's musical education would be kept in repair by the parents.

Louis Lushine was elected to the office of Assistant Vice President to bolster the strength of the board and assist in the work load in the organization of a larger band.

Mrs. Cresson B. Henderson was elected a member of the Ways and Means Committee to fill the vacancy of her late husband, an ardent board member who has faithfully worked with the board in building a bigger and better band for Greenbelt.

Plans are being formulated for a tour of the surrounding communities in the present Polio drive, a worthy cause that will help both the Polio fund and the band, by giving experience and training in playing before the public. It is hoped that the members can be fully outfitted with uniforms in the near future, so that they will be able to compete in contests to win the coveted honors our band has held in the past.

My Daze

DADDY WAS LITERALLY THRILLED THE OTHER EVENING by our big boy's antics in the water. This was after just a few days' swimming lessons in the beginners' middle group. Our six year old was able to show off by going down the slide, doing the jellyfish float, diving head first from the pool's edge, and even swimming a short distance. He's now being taught how to turn his face up for a gulp of air during swimming. It's fun for him, and he "trusts" the water. Other parents we know express similar pleasure at their youngsters' progress in Greenbelt's swimming instruction program. One of these mothers is a veteran swimmer herself, and she declares that after a few years' lessons, her eight year old daughter is now a better swimmer than she is herself. A younger daughter is doing well in the water too. Another mother whose daughter has attended swimming classes many seasons mentioned today that this year's courses seem better administered and operated than in previous years. Registration was more efficiently handled, and the classes are smaller. We don't hope for all the children to become swim champs, but the program insures their safety whenever they are in the water. We parents are grateful for this Recreation Dept. activity, and trust it will be carried on, and perhaps expanded, in the future.

SOME MONTHS AHEAD OF HER BIRTHDAY, our girl was presented with a fine doll. The flaxen hair was combed, brushed, curled, braided, put up with bows and ribbons, and tied into a pony tail. The doll itself was undressed and dressed an infinite number of times. We asked her the inevitable, "What will you call your dollie?", and she answered, "Susie." I reached way back into my childhood and told her of the two dolls I had owned and named Lorraine and Loretta. Hoping she would take the hint I asked "Now which of these names do you prefer for YOUR baby?" I waited expectantly, as she thought a long while. "Susie", was her murmured reply, and that was that.

Three

Fishing Lines

By Lee

Boys, even with this hot weather bass are being taken at the lake. Sunday morning Willard Wilson took a real nice one, run about sixteen inches or a little better, weighing in at about three pounds. Several more running about fourteen and fifteen inches have been taken in the past week, so rig up fellows and try your luck.

Now is the chance, kids, to get down to the lake and find the good spots where the best fishing is so you can win that big award on rodeo day. There is a beautiful rod and reel outfit waiting for the boy and girl under fourteen catching the largest fish during the rodeo. Also you can get in a little practice to help you win a nice prize in the casting trials. Wednesday evening Harry Millard will again be present to give some valuable hints and instructions. Date of the fishing rodeo is the 29th of August and if it should be raining that day it will probably be held the following day; in any event, an announcement will be made later. Registration time is from 9 to 11 a.m., and you must be registered to be eligible to win any prize, so be on hand early. We will have the forms very soon now from Better Fishing, Inc., for you boys and girls who would like to enter in the National Awards. These awards are based on your entire summer fishing activity. The boy and girl selected by Better Fishing, Inc., for this award will be the National King and Queen of the Better Fishing Program. For those who may get hungry or thirsty there will be "Hot Dogs" and soft drinks available at the refreshment stand. See you at the lake on Wednesday evenings.

The committee also wishes to thank all of those who so willingly provided transportation to and from camp for the boys.

Low Score Features Little League Play

By Bill Moore

With two-thirds of Greenbelt Little League baseball season over it is pretty apparent that George Preston's White Elephants will be trumpeting National League entry in Greenbelt's first Little League Series.

Runner-up Greenbelt Legion's inability to whip the Athletics is a glaring clue to their second place status, they haven't lost to the Pirates or the Tigers.

In last week's Little League baseball story your reporter erroneously reported a 13 to 7 Indian win over the Giants. To all those Giant fans, we humbly apologize. The Giants scalped the Indians by 13-7!

The American League race to the wire should be a dilly as the tail-end Indians knocked off leading Co-Op by the surprisingly (!) low score of 4-2 while the Wildcats edged the Giants to pull into a second place tie with the Big Men only two games off the Co-Op pace.

Team Standings

	American	National
Co-Op	7 3	Athletics 10 0
Giants	5 5	Redbirds 7 3
Wildcats	5 5	Pirates 2 8
Indians	3 7	Tigers 1 9

On July 20 Mel Taylor's Wildcats outlasted Jim Ewing's Giants by 15 to 14 in an interesting but loosely played game. The Giants' Tom Bartholomew led all batters with his 3 for 4. The Wildcats' Tom Bartholomew could get but one hit in two. Neil Vaughn, Ronnie Bussard and Ernie Fahlfeder smacked three-baggers for the losers. Losing pitcher Vaughn gave up eleven bases on balls.

Wildcats 0 4 1 2 8 - 15 6 9
Giants 0 4 2 4 4 - 14 13 5

Johnson and Attick; Bussard, Vaughn and McDonald.

The Athletics ran roughshod over the ever-trying Tigers 29-1 Tuesday evening. Emmert, Callanan and McCauley smacked three hits each but yielded swatting honors to Iveson who collected a perfect 5 for 5. Only two of Hofstetter's Bengals could hit safely, Hoffman and J. Miller doing it once each.

Tigers 0 0 0 0 1 0 - 1 2 15
Athletics 3 15 6 1 4 x - 29 18 0

P. Miller, Hoffman, Soo and Chavrid; B. Emmert, Wade and G. Moore, Shere.

Chet Speziale's Indians pulled a stunning upset when they downed Bernie Emmert's Co-Op nine 4-2 Wednesday evening. The modest score stunned all local Little League supporters. Elly Byers struck out 7 and walked 6 to shade Bobby Clark. Clark fanned 8 and passed only 4 but his mates betrayed him in the field, 5 errors for Co-Op to just one error for the Braves. Both pitchers hurled two hit ball.

Co-Op 1 0 0 0 1 - 2 2 5
Indians 1 0 2 1 x - 4 2 1

Clark and Kelly; Byers and Dye.

Bob Kelly's Legion Redbirds came from behind to win over Lou Tierney's Pirates, 14-9. David Goldfaden was winning pitcher with Johnny Moore the loser. Doug Endres' two hits were best Post 136 production while Franny Day topped Bucco batters with 3 hits. Day and Knickelbine smacked triples.

Post 136 2 9 4 1 2 5 - 14 6 6
Pirates 2 6 0 1 0 0 - 9 5 12

Henderson, Herman, Goldfaden and Goldfaden, Dambroskas; J. Moore, Day and Day, J. Moore.

BOY'S CLUB NEWS

Tony Baker, fugitive Boy's Club midget pitching ace, returned to the mound yesterday as Greenbelt Junior and hurled a no-hit, no-run game in his debut. In winning 6-0 over Takoma Park he fanned 11, walked 1 and came within two men of chucking a perfect game. He and Bob Gross dominated the hitting as they accounted for half of the team's 10 hits. The Juniors, who now seem a sure bet to tangle for the County title, play again Friday evening.

connected with the building of the church were most enjoyable, as were also the pictures shown by the Beverly Fondas of their trip to Yellowstone Park and the west. Games for the children were provided in the Fellowship Center, and the evening closed with a hilarious round of square dancing.

volunteers to work with them on the committee to help solve this problem.

On the problem of fences around frame houses, the physical plant and equipment committee made the following recommendations: (anyone who wants to put up a fence should check with the GVHC office before doing so).

1. Plats originated in 1942 by the Farm Security Administration and showing recommended areas around each frame unit shall be the primary guide.

2. Except where otherwise indicated on the plan, a maximum of 75 feet shall be permitted on the living room side of the frame houses.

3. A uniform fence line along the houses which face the road shall be required for each group of houses.

4. The fence line shall not be so close to the road as to create a visibility hazard for autos, etc.

5. A walkway of a minimum of 5 feet in width shall be provided between rows of houses and be maintained by the residents in the contiguous areas.

6. Park and play areas either shown on the plan or established by custom shall not be fenced in.

7. Land enclosed for personal use does not become the property of the individual for his perpetual use if the land is suitable for development by the Corporation.

8. The committee strongly recommends that hedges or natural foliage be used in lieu of fences.

9. If disagreements exist between individuals and management, such disagreements shall be brought to this committee.

10. The committee recommends that individuals maintain the property shown on the plan around each unit.
