

GVHC Board Argues Maintenance Policies, Charges And Salaries

By Russell Greenbaum

Whether GVHC is to be responsible for maintaining structures added to GVHC homes by home-owners was one of several maintenance matters discussed by the Greenbelt Veteran Housing Corporation board of directors at their regular meeting on Friday, June 25. Ed Burgoon, vice-president of the board, presided in the absence of Ralph Webster.

Upon the recommendation of the maintenance committee, headed by Frank Kriby, the board voted not to include the upkeep of these structures in the maintenance program, except to paint the exterior wood trim during the regular five-year painting cycle. All repairs on these additions will be made by GVHC on a fee basis.

The maintenance committee also recommended that the removal of trees and shrubs by GVHC be placed on a fee basis. At the present time GVHC removes all dead trees, and charges a nominal fee of ten dollars for the removal of other trees from the yards of residents. The committee felt that only trees and limbs of trees that are creating a hazard or blocking sewage facilities should be removed without fee.

No Further Reductions Now

Kriby, however, stated that he felt it would be more fair to the members to postpone further reduction of maintenance until next year when it could be included in budget planning. The board agreed with this view and asked Kriby and his committee to prepare a list of items they felt could be or should be placed on a fee basis for next year.

The committee suggested that the quality of the maintenance work might be improved by an increased wage scale plus additional wage increases on the basis of merit. Kriby stated that the pay of the maintenance workers was too low to provide real incentive for the men. Board member Al Long disagreed with the view that a raise in the wages would improve the quality of the work. He argued that interest in one's work was an equal incentive along with the salary received.

Paul Campbell, GVHC manager, pointed out that there were now provisions for increasing a man's pay if he performed his work during the past year in an exceptional manner, but he did not indicate whether such increases had ever been made. The entire matter of wages was placed in the hands of Frank Lastner, chairman of the personnel committee, for further study.

Maintenance Survey

Another matter raised by the maintenance committee was a survey of GVHC members as a check on the manner in which maintenance work was being performed. Kriby pointed out that such a survey should not be made during a set period so that maintenance workers would not be forewarned that such a check was being made. It was decided to leave the decision in the hand of management who would send out cards to members picked at random shortly after maintenance work had been performed for them.

Hans Jorgensen, chairman of the home improvement and grounds committee, suggested that the board offer prizes for home improvements, both to the interior and exterior of the home as well as to grounds. The board, however, felt that this would not be feasible, particularly under our present budget, and might be in conflict with the by-laws.

Jorgensen ascertained from Campbell that the contract for repair of worn-out gutters is in the final stages and that work should start after the Fourth of July.

National Conference Attended By Ashelman

Representing the Cooperative League of USA, GCS General Manager Sam Ashelman attended the Conference of National Organizations at White Sulphur Spring, W. Va. on June 17-18. Earlier in the year, he also represented the League at a similar conference in Atlantic City.

The purpose of these conferences, according to Ashelman, is to bring together leaders of national organizations in many different fields, giving them an opportunity to broaden their own horizons and exchange experience. "How this works out", he said, "is shown by the following incident: I was present in a discussion where the past president of the National Association of Manufacturers was telling a farm cooperative leader the difficulties he had in explaining to the NAM people how farm cooperatives worked and what their tax situation is. As a result of these two men exchanging information, the NAM passed a resolution on cooperatives and taxation which was completely acceptable to the farm cooperative people."

The theme for the White Sulphur Springs Conference was centered around the business picture for 1954-55. The AFL President, George Meany, was the principal speaker. Although it is the policy of the Conference that no direct quotes from the discussions are given out to the press, "It can be said", Ashelman stated, "that these business and national leaders and their economists feel quite optimistic about the outlook for the next year or two."

Jorgensen also suggested to the board that it ask the graduate architect departments of such local schools as Howard, Catholic, and Maryland Universities that they engage in planning projects for Greenbelt as part of their classroom work. It was agreed by the board that these universities should be contacted by management for such purpose.

Garage Workshop

Earlier in the evening Charles Barclay, a GVHC member, asked the board for permission to rent three garages on Parkway, two of which would be used for a small furniture repair shop and the third for a delivery truck. He maintained that this would be a one-man shop with no machinery or the noise of manufacturing.

The executive committee of the board agreed to consider whether the board should ask the county for a rezoning of this area and whether GVHC should allow such workshops to be set up.

Calendar Of Events

Big Chief Leadum Heap Big Parade

Leading the Independence Day parade this year will be a full-blooded pseudo-Sioux Indian Chief from the Indian Spring tribe. Big Chief "Laughing Bull" will ride a brown-and-white spotted war-horse, followed by his faithful warrior, "Grinning Calf" on a pinto pony.

"Laughing Bull" will wear the authentic war-paint associated with his tribe, presently being imitated by many local squaws. The Chief has consented to leave his tribe, which has grown prosperous in the rain-making enterprises near Peace Cross on the Anacostia Flats, to lead the Greenbelt parade. The Sioux tribe has just celebrated the 18th year of peace under a peace pact consummated on the shores of Greenbelt Lake, with the local Constabulary tribe.

Wearing many-colored feathers and fox tails, Chief "Laughing Bull" will make a colorful addition to the parade. He has just returned from a conference on the Berwyn Heights Reservation where he sits on the war council.

A recent smoke-signal message to the Cooperator newspaper discloses that "Laughing Bull" will carry his tomahawk with him in the parade. When asked whether he had any peace offerings to make he replied he did not intend to offer anything which he may want returned. "I'm no Indian-giver," he declared. "Ugh!"

St. Hugh's CYO Team Wins Nine, Lose Fives

The St. Hugh's C. Y. O. Junior Baseball team finished the 1954 season with a record of nine wins and five losses. This gave them third place in the final standings of the Prince Georges Division of C. Y. O. play. St. Margarets of Seat Pleasant finished first and St. Jeromes of Hyattsville, second, in the eight team league.

Under the guidance of "Chet" Speziale, the team made a remarkable showing in 1954 considering the 1953 results which showed no victories.

The team should do better the next few years with a very large crop of rookies coming up. Some of the rookies from whom great things are expected are: Bernie Emmert, Jackie O'Neil, Doug Endres, Carleton Schessler, Paul Hyland and numerous other Little Leaguers who have shown they can compete with 14 year old boys.

However, on the dark side of the picture are the losses suffered thru graduation. The following boys will be sorely missed in 1955: Bob Canning, Dave Flynn, Kenny Dean, Donnie King, and Pat Ready. The murderer's row of Canning, Flynn and Dean will be hard to replace in the coming years. Next year at this time, however, the won and lost column will be more impressive than the nine and five posted this year.

Fifth of July To Offer Fireworks, Parade, Byrd Speech, Fun At Lake

The city of Greenbelt is all prepared for a bang-up fourth of July celebration on Monday the Fifth. A huge parade will start the festivities at 10:30 a.m. led by Officer Austin Green, Marshal. Floats representing various business, civic and church organizations of Greenbelt and vicinity will participate along with nearby volunteer fire departments. Prizes will be given for the best floats, to be judged by Rev. Eric T. Braund, William Sutton - Fire Chief of Washington, and Dr. H. C. Byrd.

LITTLE PARADERS

Small fry who wish to join the line of march in the Independence Day Parade, with tricycles or wagons, will assemble at Parkway and Crescent Road. They will pass the reviewing stand on Crescent opposite Eastway, and may then drop out anywhere between Hillside and the Lake.

Babe Ruth Loop In Rollicking Start

The Babe Ruth League of Greenbelt got off to a rousing start this week as all four teams saw action at Ray S. Braden Memorial Field. Edwin Link held Co-op Supermarket to 7 hits Monday morning as his Co-op Drug Store mates pounded three pitchers for a 19 to 5 victory. Dickie Taylor and Dale White pitched and caught three innings apiece, holding Co-op Variety Store to 5 hits in an 18-2 Co-op Service Station romp. Thursday's and Friday's games will be reported in next week's Cooperator.

The big Grocery nine was sorely handicapped in the opener. Captain Bobby "Bumps" Holmes suffered a broken leg in an accident at 14 Hillside and will be out of action for at least eight weeks according to Dr. Hans Wodak. Two other Market mainstays missed the inaugural due to family vacations. Wes Hogan and Fred Slauch were out of town.

The two Canning brothers supplied four-fifths of the winning Drug Store punch. Shortstop Bob batted in two runs and scored three with a 3 for 4 performance while catcher Mike powered in 5 runs and scored four with a single, double and homer in four official attempts. Carroll Barcus walked four times and tallied four runs. Richard Day salvaged some of the day's slugging honors for the Foodmen with a perfect three for three. Dave Flynn would have duplicated Day's performance but for two stellar catches. The hard working catcher had to settle for a 1 for 3 day.

Drug Store 6 3 0 4 6 - 19 8 0
Supermarket 1 3 0 0 1 - 5 7 4

Link and M. Canning; Newman, Powers (1st), Fonda (5th) and Flynn. Umpires - Bill Marshall (P) and Chuck Link (B).

David Goldfaden, Dickie Taylor and Dale White were the big guns for the Gasmen in Tuesday morning's game. Goldfaden batted in 3 runs with his three hits in 5; Taylor smacked a three-bagger and single in 4 tries to also drive in 3 runs; and White counted thrice and knocked in two with his pair of two-baggers.

Variety store's only variety from several singles was a booming triple off the bat of Barry Petroff in the fifth inning. It was felt that Ronnie DonBullian's absence due to a virus hurt Variety's chances in this tilt.

At 11 a.m. Byrd will speak to the crowd at the lake, after an introduction by Mayor Frank Lastner. (Both Byrd and Lastner were victors this week in primary elections for nominations for Governor and county commissioner.) Following the speeches, various contests will be held for additional prizes.

At 11:45 the Lake area will be the scene of numerous concessions and activities run by the local Boys Club. Refreshments and games will be available, and many local and out-of-town visitors are expected to take advantage of the day for picnics and fun at the lake area. A giant Bingo and a Track Meet will be held. The day will end at the Lake with a mammoth display of fireworks. The swimming pool will be open from 10 to midnight for a refreshing swim.

The annual Independence Day celebration has been the most outstanding holiday in Greenbelt during the past years with families participating in picnics, games, fishing, and patriotic displays. Crowds from nearby areas flock to the city because of the reputation Greenbelt has earned for celebrating Independence Day.

Local Voters Help Lastner In Primary

Frank J. Lastner, mayor of Greenbelt and Democratic candidate for one of the five county commissioners' seats, led the entire slate of his party in Greenbelt voting in last Tuesday's primary election. Local Democrats gave him 590 votes while giving Dr. Harry C. Byrd 533 votes in the latter's race for governor. At least 657 Democrats, the total of the ballots for governor, voted in Greenbelt.

Other Democratic candidates for county commissioner received less than 350 votes from Greenbelt voters. Lastner finished with 9807 votes in the county, running third behind Lansdale Claggett with 10,366 votes and Herbert Reichelt with 10,228 votes.

Allan A. Bryan, local Republican candidate for register of wills, received 83 of the 128 votes cast by Greenbelt Republicans for the two candidates for that office. However, in the county his opponent Frank Gasch, received 3655 votes to his 1539 ballots. Local Republicans cast a total of 126 ballots for governor with 86 going to the incumbent Governor McKeldin.

Mrs. Irma Bogdanoff, who lost in her race for the Democratic county commissioner nomination, made her second best showing in Greenbelt where she gained 229 votes, the fifth largest number for that office in Greenbelt. Chillum's tenth precinct gave her 344 votes.

In the Democratic race for the nomination for Congress, Greenbelt voters gave H. Winship Wheatley, Jr., the winner, 345 votes; Walter Green, 186 votes; and Paul Menck, 112 votes.

Greenbelt Democrats also gave overwhelming support to Judge Charles Marbury for the Court of Appeals, and Republicans here also gave him a plurality.

GVHC Board: First Appraisal

Now that the first quarterly membership meeting under this year's GVHC board of directors has come and gone, it appears appropriate to make our first appraisal of the activities and accomplishments of the current board. Keeping in mind that the present board members have nearly three-quarters of their term ahead of them and that much can happen to change our opinion, we would like to present our preliminary impressions of the individual directors.

First of all, we believe that there is little disagreement on the superior job that Ralph Webster is doing. Continuing in office as president of the GVHC board with the unanimous approval of his fellow directors, his efficient handling of board and membership meetings has demonstrated him to be leader on whom the members can rely. His detailed and comprehensive reports at membership meetings, on which he has evidently worked hard, fill in the members on all phases of GVHC's operations. Members who come before the board with requests or complaints can attest to his unfailing sympathy and attentiveness to their problems. It is not surprising that the board has overwhelmingly backed his judgment again and again.

Two other reelected board members have continued to perform their job in the capable manner expected of them. These are Ed Burgoon, vice-president of the board, and Bruce Bowman, who holds the office of secretary. Burgoon is responsible for the GVHC Newsletter, which for the first time is now issued regularly every month. By providing a medium through which committee chairmen can report regularly to the members, the Newsletter also enables members to keep a check on the work of these committees. It is also a credit to Burgoon that as yet he has not allowed his many other civic interests to interfere with his attention to GVHC business. As for Bowman, the residents of the North End are well aware of his keen championship of their particular problems. On the other hand, Bowman and his member relations committee usually keep these problems in their proper perspective and develop suggestions and plans that bring equal benefit to the entire membership.

Turning to the new directors, we feel that the highest marks for achievement unquestionably go to Lloyd Moore, who serves as treasurer and is the only new board member to become an officer. Moore has plunged into the maze of GVHC's financial affairs and has taken a grasp of them that is steadily becoming firmer. His simple, clear-cut explanation of his quarterly treasurer's report at the recent membership meeting was an informative guide through that formidable document. He has won the complete confidence of the entire board, and we feel that the members can rely on Moore's stated belief that GVHC is doing well financially.

Two other new directors have also quickly taken hold of the tasks assigned to them. One is Hans Jorgenson, who might be called Mr. Landscape, and the other is Wayne Tucker, chairman of the heating and utilities committee. Jorgenson is determined to transform the presently unappealing grounds that surround the frame homes into a blooming paradise, and he gives us the impression that he will do it by his own sheer energy. Actually, the plans of his committee call for the beautification of the entire city of Greenbelt, and his own expert knowledge insures that these plans will be developed in a practical manner. Tucker has already laid plans for improving the efficiency of the heating system and he has taken the time and trouble to investigate personally this and other GVHC matters as part of his service to the board and the membership.

Although we cannot give unqualified approval to the job Frank Kriby has done so far, we feel that judgment should be withheld for the time being. Admittedly Kriby was handed the toughest committee job of all — maintenance, but it must be remembered that he campaigned for the board on this basis. Although we would prefer a more aggressive approach to the problem of maintenance Kriby has argued with justification that a task of this magnitude and complexity cannot be tackled quickly. However, he and his hard-working committee have been meeting regularly, and some initial results should be expected soon.

Finally, we turn to two board members whom we feel have been less of an asset to GVHC during the first quarter. Potentially Frank Lastner is an ideal GVHC director. His familiarity with Greenbelt problems and his long civic experience can be of inestimable value to GVHC. Unfortunately, his outside activities have forced him to spread himself thin. He has had to miss board meetings and also the quarterly membership meeting. We wish him luck in his political campaign, but we feel that GVHC can hardly benefit if his time and energies are concentrated elsewhere.

We also feel that Al Long is not pulling his weight. Although quite vocal at board meetings (and elsewhere), he seems to have done nothing with his management improvement committee as yet. In addition, his employment takes him out of town for long periods and has caused him to miss board meetings. He also missed the recent quarterly meeting. Again we wonder if a GVHC member should present himself as candidate for the board if he is aware that other duties will not allow him to devote his full attention to GVHC. Long has energy and a refreshing bluntness, but sometimes he dissipates these talents by launching into sweeping criticisms which we feel are usually uncalled-for and tend to disrupt the harmony of the board.

On the whole, it can be seen that we feel that GVHC has an excellent board this year. Most are hard workers and take their responsibilities seriously. The few debits that exist are far outweighed by the credits, and the members (and all but a handful of Greenbelt residents are members) can be assured that the Corporation is in safe hands. (R.G.)

Little League The Long View

By E. DonBullian

Tigers 20 - Redbirds 10. Winning pitcher, Hoffman, who allowed 6 hits and hit a double. P. Miller hit 3 for 3 and 4 RBI's while Graff banged out a triple and 2 singles and 5 RBI's. For the losers Sandvick got a double while McNally got 2 for 4. Both teams had 3 errors with the Redbirds using 13 players.

Pirates 12 - Redbirds 3. Winning pitcher, Gelberg, who gave only 1 hit in 2 innings while Tierney who started the game allowed 5 hits in 4 innings. The losing pitcher was McCarthy who allowed only 3 hits in 3 innings and banged out a triple and single and got 3 RBI's in his 2 visits to the plate. Terret, who relieved him in the 4th, gave up only 1 hit. It looks like the pitchers did their best to win but 5 errors were too many. Day got a triple and 3 RBI's in his 1 official trip to the plate. Page got 2 for 3 for the losers.

Athletics 7 - Giants 3. Winning pitcher, McCauley, who struck out 12, got a triple and 4 RBI's and allowed only 3 hits. The losing pitchers, P. McCauley and Vaughn, only allowed 4 hits but the 11 errors behind them settled the game. For the winners Sherer got a double while Vaughn banged out 2 double and 3 RBI's for the losers. It was a good close game but 11 errors can spoil any game.

Tigers 16 - Redbirds 11. Winning pitcher, Braund, who struck out 6 and got a triple and single for 4. Graff was the big hitter with a homer, double and single in 4. Endres also knocked out a homer. Fink got 3 for 3. For the losers McCarthy also got 3 for 3 while Page got 3 for 4. This was another good game but 4 errors cost the Redbirds the game.

Athletics 32 - Giants 13. Winning pitcher—Emmert, who allowed only 5 hits, struck out 5 and hit a double. Not bad for a youngster! The batting hero was Sherer who banged out a homer, 2 doubles and 2 singles for a perfect day at bat. He was closely followed by Mundy who hit a triple, double and 3 singles in 6 trips to the plate. McCarthy homered, doubled and singled. For the losers Vaughn welded the big bat; he banged out 2 homers a single and 5 RBI's in 4 trips to the plate. Powell and Arensdorf also hit extra base hits. Leatherberry was the only one to be hit by a pitched ball. The 22 errors were evenly divided.

Indians 20 - Pirates 6. Winning pitcher—Dye, who only allowed 4 hits, struck out 8 and got 2 singles. Endres handled the heavy bat getting a triple and 2 doubles. Byers, however, got a double, 3 singles and 5 RBI's in 5 trips to the plate, in addition to an unassisted double play. Haslinger only got 1 hit, a triple. The losing pitcher, Day, didn't do so bad but 9 errors are enough to lose any game; he got 2 singles and struck out 10.

Coop 10 - Wildcats 3. Winning pitcher—Hickey, who allowed 6 hits, struck out 9 and got a single. Big hitter of the day was Schwan with 2 doubles, a single and 3 RBI's in 4 times at bat. He was closely followed by Ruppel with 2 doubles in 4 trips to the plate. Bronstein was the big gun for the loser with 2 singles and 2 RBI's in addition to scoring once himself.

Redbirds 12 - Pirates 11. Winning pitcher—McCarthy, who relieved Sandvick in the 5th and only allowed 1 hit in 2 innings. His team was behind 10 to 7 when he took over. He struck out 4 and banged out 2 singles and got 3 RBI's in his 2 trips to the plate. Sandvick did pretty good himself with a home run, a single and 3 RBI's in 4 times at bat. America got 2 for 4. A Temple-to-Fink double play came just at the right time. For the losers Shelton was the heavy hitter with a homer, double and 3 RBI's in 4. Shaver got 3 for 4 including a double. Other extra base hitters were Walden, Day, Gelberg and Stone. It was a good game until the last inning when the Redbirds drove in 5 runs, and won.

The Long View

By A. C. Long

It takes time to get back to normal. The Army-McCarthy hearings have been over a couple of weeks — and dinner was still late twice last week.

According to the Federal Safety Council, government workers are still falling down on the job, — fifty percent of all accidents were due to falling.

As a safety precaution the Council suggests that all supervisors survey their office and correct or remove causes of accidents, for example things should be "well stacked" in an office, — "several girls will have to go in my office," cracked one of the safety men.

Do any of the fishermen at Greenbelt Lake ever catch anything, or is it just an excuse to get away from home? I've yet to see one with a fish.

Wonder how many people in town would be seriously interested in a Little Theatre group?

Wearing Shorts at the Center
When Council first considered shorts, They were met with hoots and snorts, By men who should know better.

For women are inclined to wear, Clothes that men would never dare, And some do indeed look better.

Some may think it rather lewd, Of women shopping almost nude, And causing all this public stir.

But it's the bloomer type I do entreat, That when you're dressing for the street, Please use a full length mirror.

The contest sponsored by the Citizens Association, on cleaning up Greenbelt could be won hands down by GCS. Just making the North End store passably clean would be the biggest improvement in town. As it stands now it is an eyesore and even a menace with broken glass and cinders where grass should be.

This is written under some difficulty as I'm also acting as a baby-sitter. My wife left several hours ago to be gone "for just a few minutes"

The Long View on the much discussed women's shorts is — censored by the boss.

Famous last words, — "When we begin to build new homes our taxes will be automatically reduced because we will have a broader tax base." News item, — the City Council announced the establishment of a new Department of Engineering because of the new building program.

Can't resist one remark about women wearing shorts in the Center. Mayor Lastner suggested a referendum to see if they have any support, — are you blind Frank?

GREENBELT BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. James Hughes, 8-K Plateau, boy.

Mr. and Mrs. William Visscher, 22-E Crescent, girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Tastet, 56-K Crescent, boy.

Coop 6 - Giants 3. Winning pitcher—O'Neill, who pitched the first no-hitter of the season. This is an especially noteworthy achievement in that he held one of the hardest hitting teams in the league hitless for 6 innings and struck out 6 of them. Vaughn, the losing pitcher, didn't do so bad himself as he allowed 5 hits and struck out 11. Schwann was the big gun with 2 triples and 4 RBI's in two attempts. Other hitters were Cozad, Ruppel and Hodges. It was a well played game with the score at the end of the 5th at 4 to 3.
