American Legion Post No. 136

The dedication exercises next Sunday afternoon mark the transformation of the old Boyle farmhouse to a handsome, modern Home for The Greenbelt Post of the American Legion.

Two wings have just been completed on either side of the Home. Fresh white paint on the main portion of the building and on the railings of the sun-decks above the wings make an attractive contrast with the red brick of the wings. Architect for the new construction is George Brunatti, Greenbelt resident and Legion member, of the firm of Ross and Madden.

Today's building is a far cry from the three-story, ten-room farmhouse acquired by the Federal Government when the land was purchased for the town of Greenbelt. It was seventy years old on January 9, 1939, when the Legion Post signed a rental contract for five years at $15 a year and it needed just about everything to make it usable. Repair and remodeling was done by members of the Post who fortunately included electricians, carpenters and plumbers, and to quote from Leon Benefiel's History of Post No. 136 "general workers."

The first meeting was held at the Home on April 20, 1939, and the ritual of dedication was performed by Lansdale G. Sasser, then a member of the House of Representatives, at a ceremony held in the school on December 16, 1939. Pre-Home meetings were held in the office over the drug store and later in the room over Dr. James W. McCarl's office.

Vandalism was a problem in the early years of the Legion's Home and fund-raising activities were held to replace stolen property. The members kept working, however, and in 1947 purchase the property for $2,000 including over three acres of land. This transaction was the first sale of Greenbelt land by the Government following the announcement of its intention to sell all of Greenbelt.

A hall forty by eighty feet was built at the rear of the building during 1947 and 1948.

A separate corporation, Greenbelt Legion Post Home, Incorporated, was set up in 1947 for the purpose of owning the building and property. The Post pays rent to this corporation, and it is the Post Home organization which has carried on the current renovation and expansion of the building.

Heading the Post Home corporation is Frank Riley, president. Paul Cherry is vice-president, Edward Kaighn, treasurer, and Wayne Roberts, secretary.

It was estimated by Kaighn that excluding the cost of the land, approximately $26,000 was spent on the building by the end of 1947, and $20,000 since that time including the recently-completed work.

"Litter Limericks" Call For Talent

"Litter limericks" by local poets and Greenbelt's brand new litterbug emblem are soon to appear together on city trash cans in public places. A "litter limerick of the month" stencilled around the trash can will carry out the theme of the half-man-half-bug cartoon that city manager Charles T. McDonald plans to have reproduced on the trash-can flap. The city council, McDonald, and the Joint Committee on Cleanup, on whose behalf the Greenbelt Cooperative Publishing Association presented Isadore Parker's LITTERBUG drawing to the city, hope thereby to attract citizens' attention to the trash can itself. Parker created LITTERBUG as a result of Greenbelt Consumer Services Manager Samuel F. Ashelman, Jr.'s suggestion to the clean-up committee regarding the value of a cartoon figure in a cleanup campaign aimed at the public. GCS intends to use the cartoon in its own anti-litter posters. Other organizations, if they desire, may also use the official city litterbug emblem for their anti-litter material. Parker has, by way of example, already composed a couple of rhymes on his own:

"Around our fair Center
Please do not roam.
Litterbug, litterbug . . .
Fly away home!"

and:

"Children often imitate
Their father or their mutter;
Did you leave a lot of clutter?"

The "litter limerick of the month" will be chosen from among those submitted to the Cooperator by readers. Every entry will be printed in the newspaper, so send your litter limerick of four lines along to the Greenbelt Cooperative Publishing Association, Box 68, Greenbelt, with your name and address. Do not delay. Remember,

"Hasn't it always been your plan,
To see your poem upon a can?
Is there a more inviting spectacle
Than words of wisdom on a receptacle?
If you think trash and litter shame us,
Write about it and be famous!"

Municipal Building Report Under Study

A report on a new municipal building, its design and cost, was requested by the city council last Monday night. City Manager Charles McDonald was instructed to start preparing a list of requirements, appropriate sites, and financial figures, and report to the city council.

It is hoped that the report will be complete in time to arrange a referendum on a bond issue, to finance the structure, by the next municipal election, when the issue can be placed on the ballot. McDonald declared that it is not necessary to wait until an election to hold a referendum, indicating that the need for a new building may be more acute than realized.

The city now rents office space from the federal government. The commercial center, which houses the city offices, was offered for sale by the government last week-end. Although the new owners must recognize the city's lease, their future plans for the space, when the lease has expired, is unknown.

(The city now owns the community building, which is used as an elementary school, and several members deplore the fact that the city pays rent while it owns a large community building. A proposal to sell the community building to the county board of education was stymied by the disapproving attitude of the federal government, which dedicated the community building to the city two years ago.

The city owns several parcels of land, through dedication, which can be used for the site of a new community building. Such a building, as now envisioned, would house the police and fire department, the library, all the municipal offices and most likely, a youth center.)

New Post Home Dedication Sunday, National Figures Plan To Attend

By Carolyn R. Miller

Sunday is American Legion Day in Greenbelt by proclamation of the City Council, for that day the new Post Home will be dedicated in ceremonies commencing at four o'clock.

Invitations have been sent to over 300 guests, including a number of nationally-known Legionnaires.

Three top candidates for the position of National Commander of the Legion will be present at the dedication: Seaborn P. Collins, W. C. "Dan" Daniel and J. Addington Wagner.

Actual dedication of the Home will be made by the Governor of Indiana, George N. Craig. Representing Maryland's Governor McKeldin will be the State Attorney General, Edward D. E. Rollins.

In addition, Louis A. Johnson, former Secretary of Defense and Past National Commander of the Legion, will be present, as will another Past Commander, James F. O'Neil, who visited here in September 1948 and in whose honor Greenbelt designated the day of his visit "Jimmy O'Neil Day."

School Registration Thursday, Sept. 2

School registration will be held in the Center School auditorium on Thursday, September 2 - 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The registration is for all First Grade children who were not registered in the spring and all students of other grades now in the community who have not attended the Greenbelt school. It is hoped that the registration will be as complete as possible. The more accurate the registration, the better prepared the school will be to meet the children.

Registration will be held in the North End school on the same day for the children in the North End area.

City Puts Off Decision On Sewage Line Tie-In

Permission to tie in 200 housing units to the city sewage system was denied to Roger Willcox, representative of the Greenbelt Community Builders, developers of three housing projects now under way in Greenbelt. The request from Willcox declared that a commitment from the federal government was based on such advantage, and he asked the council to confirm the arrangement.

The council balked at the move, declaring that the construction of the homes is too indefinite; another group may build homes first, the council felt, and the policy established earlier was a "first come first served" basis. Long time planning and too little action convinced the council that the city should not commit its remaining capacity for 200 more units in the sewage system (after which more facilities must be constructed at considerable expense) to any builder is ready to accept bids on the remaining facilities when a builder is ready to accept bids on the actual work of tying in the sewage lines.

(Cost of additional facilities to accommodate future development was put at $250,000 by city manager Charles McDonald. The financing of such a venture will be done by a bond issue, first to be approved by a referendum. Plans disclosed earlier call for the burden of such a bond issue to be borne by the new home-owners and not by present residents of Greenbelt.)

Presiding at the ceremonies Sunday will be Frank Riley, President of the Greenbelt Legion Post Home, Inc. There will be greetings from the Post Commander, Nelson Chapman, and from Mayor Frank Lastner.

The Greenbelt Post has grown steadily from its charter membership of fifty-eight to the present 304. In November 1937 seven World War I veterans got together at the first gathering of the early citizens of Greenbelt and considered the prospects for forming a veterans' organization. These men were Leon G. Benefiel, George Barkalew, George Bryant, Howard Carr, Jennings B. Craig, David R. Steinle and Allen D. Morrison.

With the encouragement of the community manager, Roy S. Braden, these men and fifteen more applied for a temporary charter from the American Legion. The qualifications for Legion organization were met, and on January 31, 1938, a temporary charter was granted.

The Greenbelt Cooperator, dated March 2, 1938, reports the ceremony for charter members held February 24, 1938. An excerpt follows:

"Pledged to safeguard the principles of justice, freedom and democracy, 39 charter members of Greenbelt American Legion Post No. 136 were instructed in the work and symbols of the organization at the school auditorium."

The permanent charter was granted in November 1938. Of the fifty-eight charter members, the following are still active members of the Greenbelt Post: Elmer Allison, Leon G. Benefiel, Roy Bell, Ray S. Borchert, Lambert Brezina, Jennings B. Craig, Thomas R. Freeman, Charles Friedman, Henley M. Goode, Gail M. Harper, James W. McCarl, Allen D. Morrison, Emmet H. Nanna, George W. O'Brien, J. J. Somers and David R. Steinle.

The Post's present officers are Commander Nelson Chapman, 1st vice-commander Le Roy H. McCawley, 2nd vice-commander Clifford White, financial officer Paul Cherry, Adjutant Wayne Roberts, Historian James C. Wells, Sergeant-at-Arms William Clark. President of the Ladies Auxiliary is Mrs. Paul H. Cherry.

The program of the Legion here follows the National and State policy and includes the junior baseball program, oratorical contests in schools on the subject of citizenship, and the sending of representatives from the high school to Boys' State. Much help is given individual needy cases also, and although the officers are reluctant to discuss the charitable work of this nature the Post carries on, it is known that such help runs over $1,000 a year.

Examples of community service by the local Post include a program to test hearing in the elementary school, conduct of the civilian defense program during World War II and a recent donation of an inhalator to the Greenbelt Rescue Squad. Commander Chapman told the Cooperator that he looks "toward a greater area of service to the community during the years ahead."

Kasko-Hardy

Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Kasko of Greenbelt announce the marriage of their daughter, Jeanne, to Wilton A. Hardy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilton A. Hardy of Berwyn.

The ceremony was performed August 21 by Father Fealy at the Holy Redeemer Church in Berwyn.

The bride's sister, Judy Kasko, was maid of honor, and Donald Hardy, the groom's brother, served as best man. Bridesmaid's were Carol Day, Doris Greaver and Eunice Birtman, all of Greenbelt.

A reception at the Legion Hall was followed by a luncheon at the Kasko home for the bridal party and relatives. Many relatives came to the wedding from Pittsburgh and Cleveland.

The bride is a graduate of Greenbelt High School. Hardy graduated from De Matha High School and is now attending Maryland University.

The couple will make their home in Greenbelt after a wedding trip to Pennsylvania and New York City.

SURPRISE PARTY

Friends of Miss Thelma Smith, former principal of the North End School, are invited to a surprise reception in her honor Friday evening from 8:30 to 10.

Hostesses are the officers of the North End Parent-Teachers Association and Mrs. Herbert Hertz, 45-A Ridge Road, is contributing her lawn for the gathering. Refreshments will be served.

Miss Smith will be principal of the Woodridge Elementary School next year.

Dunn-Williams

The marriage of Miss Lois Virginia Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Dunn of 18-U Ridge, to James Henry Williams, son of Reverend and Mrs. Patrick H. Williams, was solemnized at Greenbelt Community Church on Saturday, August 14, with Reverend Eric Braund officiating.

The bride, who entered with her father, wore a white embroidered gown and a white tulle veil. She carried white gladiolus. Miss Peggy Jean Dunn, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore orchid organdy and carried yellow glads. Paul Williams was his brother's best man.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Frances Bellmyer of Edgewood, Md., sister of the bride, who wore pink organdy and carried blue glads; Miss Naomi Williams, sister of the groom, who wore blue and carried pink glads; and Miss Janice Buckingham, who wore green and carried flame glads. Linda Bellmyer niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore yellow and carried a basket of daisies. Ushers were Allan Carneal, Jack Snoddy, and Earl Hampton. Mrs. Bellmyer sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

After the ceremony, a reception was held at American Legion Post No. 136. Punch was served by Mrs. Beverly Fonda and Mrs. Samuel Firebaugh. Mrs. Stephen Lewis of Baltimore served the cake. A number of out-of-town guests from Washington, Baltimore, Edgewood, and New Orleans were present.

After a honeymoon in the Great Smoky Mountains of North Carolina, the young couple will reside at 36-F Crescent in Greenbelt.

A surprise wedding shower was held on Friday, Aug. 20, in honor of Joy Iveson, 11-B Hillside Rd. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Charles Ritter of 6-P Hillside Rd. and her daughter, Helen Hindt, of Hillside Md. Miss Iveson, who will be married to Richard Flynn on September 11, at the Community Church, received many lovely household gifts.

Mrs. James H. Ott, 4-F Hillside, was selected by the Girl Scout Council of Prince Georges County to represent District 1 at Camp Macy this summer. This camp, located at Pleasantville, N.Y., offers courses to adult scouts to further the advancement of the Girl Scout movement. Mrs. Ott, who left last Sunday night for a 12-day stay, will be taking a course in advanced leadership for various age groups. She is now entering her sixth year as a volunteer leader, having given her free time first to Brownies, then flying up with them as an intermediate leader.

Dominick Marvaso, 10-B Plateau, was recently awarded a $275 incentive award by the Military Air Transport Service for an idea which will save the Government many thousands of dollars a year in the handling of personnel records.

Emmett H. Nanna, Jr., better known as "Zip", was among 294 applicants who passed the June examinations for admission to the District bar. The tests were taken by 519 persons. Zip is a graduate of the George Washington University Law School and also has a bachelor's degree from the University of Maryland. Until last year, Zip resided at 2-A Hillside for 16 years with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Vernoff and daughters, Ellen and Debby, spent two busy weeks visiting friends in upstate New York. The United Nations building held new thrills for the girls as they walked through the gift shop filled with wonders from all over the world.

Explorer Scout Post 202 returned Sunday, Aug. 22, from their scouting expedition to the foothills of New Mexico. Our Greenbelt boys in traditional fashion came home with all possible scouting awards - Teddy Kaufman, Pete Bowman, Kenneth Hertz. Your reporter is certain that each mother reacted in typical female fashion when she viewed the horned toads brought back as the gift of an outstanding adventure. Not yet recovered from this exposure, they probably established new pressure readings when Teddy Kaufman, Pete Bowman and Stanley Edwards pulled out the piece de resistance - a giant rattler which they killed just prior to their section. Our thanks to Scout Leader Jimmy Fowler of our town, who did a wonderful job of supervising and guiding the boys.

Mrs. Ann Baxter is a patient of the Suburban Hospital, Room 14 Bethesda, Md., where she is receiving treatment and possibly will have surgery. She formerly resided at 56 Court of Ridge, and taught third grade at the North End School for a number of years before moving to Bethesda, where she is teaching third grade at the Bethesda Ele. School. (Her daughter Beverly Ann will be a Freshman at U. of Md. this fall.)

Bob and Marcia Halpin of 11-L Ridge are the proud parents of a baby girl, Anne Elizabeth, born last Wednesday at Prince Georges Hospital. Anne's weight was a lucky 7 lbs, 7 oz.

Boys Club Opens Annual Fund Drive

By Rachel Algaze

The Boys Club of Greenbelt, a volunteer organization, will hold its annual (1954-1955) finance drive from August 30 to September 15. Families are urged to contribute one dollar or more to the volunteer collector, who will most likely be a Rescue Squad captain. Honorary membership cards will be issued to the donors.

The Boys Club of Greenbelt, under the direction of eleven board members, renders a fine service to the community, organizing between 500 and 1,000 boys, in football, basketball, and baseball teams. Financially, however, it is dependent on contributions from citizens. The City makes available free use of its athletic fields and maintains them in proper order. The Boys Club supplies all athletic equipment with the exception of shoes.

This organization requires a budget of $2,000 or better to operate each year. Only two finance drives are held—one in conjunction with July 4 activities, which usually nets about $500, and the other during August and September during which the aim is to raise $1,500 or more.

All boys between the ages of 12 and 18 are eligible to join the club, those between 8 and 12. The Greenbelt teams also participate in tournaments of the Prince Georges County League which includes about 40 other groups.

Currently, starting August 25, tryouts are being held for the first football team at Braden Field at 10 a.m. Boys must be 12 years old, or under, if they weigh 90 lbs. The coach for this group is Chester Speziale, an employee in our local Post Office.

Tryouts for the second and third teams will be held on September 15. Boys for the second team must be 14 years, or under, if they weigh 105 lbs. Charles Link, coach for this team may be contacted at 53-P Ridge, Granite 3-3076. The third team will consist of boys of 16 or under if weight is 128 lbs. Coach for this team is Bill Sauls, 28-A Ridge, Granite 3-4661.

The executive body of the Boys Club consists of Caldwell Baker, President; James McCord, Vice President; Bill Sauls, Secretary; Charles Link, Treasurer; Counselor, Ben Goldfaden. Other appointed board members are Bill Moore, Tom Canning, Frank Comploier, Bill Hayo, Chester Speziale, Donald Zahn, and William America.

August 16

Pirates 11 - Redbirds 5. Winning pitcher, Day, struck out 8 and only allowed 3 hits. The Pirates pitchers, McCarthy, Sandvik and Page did not give the Pirates a single hit. A no-hitter lost by a score of 11 to 5 but that is to be expected when they have 6 errors. Fink was the outstanding batter with 2 hits with Stone getting the other hit. There were two sparkling double plays—Stone to Reese and Sandvik to Reese. Farrar led in RBI's with 5.

August 17

Tigers 14 - Indians 8. Winning pitcher, Hoffman, struck out 7, allowed 5 hits and banded out a double himself. J. Miller got the longest hit, a triple. Both Endres boys got doubles while Fink slammed out a double and single. Bienna, Hyland and Dye also had singles. The game was called in the 5th reverting back to the 4th inning.

August 18

Giants 12 - Wildcats 11. Winning pitcher, Schossler, struck out 11, allowed 5 hits and got a single himself. Ailstock also pitched a good game, allowing only 4 hits but the 5 errors behind him decided the game. Panagoulis was the batting hero of the game with a double and single in 3 trips to the plate. Vaughn, Bronstein and Holmes also banded out doubles. McCaulley, White and Moore came up with singles.

The fishing part of the tournament will commence at 9:30 and continue until 1 p.m. Register at the pavilion as soon as you come down. The prizes are a complete rod and reel fishing outfit to the boy and girl catching the largest fish. You will not be eligible for a prize unless you do register.

Casting contests will commence at 1:30 p.m. This will be for both distance and accuracy and there will be three age groups. Group 1, nine years and under, group 2, 10 and 11 year olds, group 3, 12 to 14 year olds. Prizes for the fishing contest will be awarded after the contest closes at 1 p.m. and prizes for casting will be awarded after the close of that contest.

A fishing contest for adults is planned for Sunday, September 12. This contest will be limited to Izaak Walton League members. Contact Harry L. (Pop) Bell, 16-B Crescent, for membership application in the Greenbelt Chapter of the Izaak Walton League.

Venerable Shamrocks Trim Boys Club, 13-3

The old Greenbelt Shamrocks returned to Braden Field last Sunday to play a ball game with the youthful Greenbelt Juniors, newly crowned champs of the Prince Georges County Boys Club American Junior League. Manager-coach Caldwell Baker insisted the Old-timers stick strictly to the rules and abandon the "free substitution" privilege they demanded in this game the past couple of seasons. "Bake" relented in the later innings and allowed the old slugger, Leo Mullin, to pinch promiscuously. Manager Donnie Wolfe's Ageing Shamrocks won "going away", 13 to 3. The old youths had their day.

The Juniors could solve Ernie Boggs' pitching for just two hits in his five inning stint. The old Shamrock mound ace whiffed 9 and issued only one freebie. Behind the bat catching Boggs was Joe Todd, just as spry! Todd had to retire after a few innings when a low toss ricocheted off home plate and caught the doughty receiver behind the ear. After a little rest Todd was trying to get back into the game!

Vince Holochwest, early day southpaw Shamrock ace, took over the pitching chores with a 12-2 run cushion in the sixth inning. The Juniors reached "Holly" for seven hits and all their 3 runs but the crafty vet was pitching easily and looked like he could stop any great threat the Boys could muster.

Bill Zerwick made the game's greatest play in the eighth inning when he turned his back on a Butch Brown smash to center, ran for 30 or forty feet, turned and gloved the ball just in front of the Little League backstop! Grand larceny, Zerwick style!

Thirdsacker Tommy Canning made a fine backhand stab of Al Nuzzo's wicked slash in the fourth and made a bulletlike throw to Brown to nip the "speeding" Nuzzo. Dickey "Scooter" Taylor robbed a couple of the old boys of hits aimed shortstop way.

A five man committee has been formed to make this event an annual affair with a lot more trimmings and have set the date as the third Sunday in August.

The Long View New Books

By A. C. Long

Fiction

Pat and I have just returned from a trip to Cleveland where we both have many relatives. In rural Ohio we have aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews, on farms and in small towns; all interested in agricultural pursuits, ranging from farmers and farm implement dealers to country lawyers and pastoral ministers. In the Cleveland metropolitan area we have just as many kissing kin but all engaged in heavy industry and its by-products; here they range from tool makers, apprentices and shop superintendents to bank officials and surgeons. This is a somewhat uncommon heritage even in America and came about when my Irish Catholic urban mother accepted the proposal of my German Lutheran rural father. Without boring you with the many religious, sociological, economic and temperamental conflicts resultant from such a happy and dynamic union, I will only say it was anything but dull.

But all my relatives have one thing in common, they are producers of material wealth and as such look somewhat askance at a parasitical Washington bureaucrat. It was understandable to take a job with the government during the depression but I can tell from the tone of the question "You're not still with the government?", that in their minds I should be "earning a living" at this stage of the game.

Important government job titles or GS grades mean nothing to them. Around Washington you can get a fairly complete picture from, "He's a budget analyst, grade 12 at Commerce", or "He just got a 9 as section chief in Interior". In Ohio, it's different, one cousin "just bought the Heffelfinger place, 300 fine acres. The Heffelfingers always farmed that place well." In Cleveland one just "got promoted to shop supt." or another "will finish his apprenticeship next month".

Balmer - In his hands; Best - Diane; Christie - Pocket full of rye; Eberhart - Man missing; De La Roche - Whiteoak brothers; Jalna-1923; Frankau - A wreath for the enemy; Gibson - The cobweb; Keyes - The Royal box.

Lockridge - Death and the gentle bull; Matthiessen - Race rock; Parrish - And have not love; Schoonover - The Spider king; Seifert - Farewell, my general; Stinetorf - Beyond the hungry country; Stone - Love is eternal; Tolbert - Bigamy Jones; Tutton - Guard your daughters; Vidal - Death likes it hot.

Non-Fiction

Becker - Success and satisfaction in your office job; Bailey - Landscaping plans for small homes; Canham - New frontiers for freedom; Goldberger - Helping your heart; Kimbrough - Forty plus and fancy free; Lake - Hunter's choice; Millay - Mine the harvest.

Moats - At home abroad; Northen - Secret of the green thumb; Oliver - Syngman Rhee, the man behind the myth; Reiley - Group fun; Roth - I'll cry tomorrow; Stieri - How to make your home worth more; Wertham - Seduction of the innocent.

It's all very confusing because I can't tell them how I'm doing by casually mentioning my grade and I have no idea what Heffelfingers' 300 acres are worth or how much a shop superintendent makes.

We feel our children have exceptional advantages in living in Greenbelt and cheerfully make small sacrifices in our own scheme of living so they can continue to live here. Then picture how we feel when we drive through Cleveland industrial and suburban areas alike, and they say "Why can't we move back to Cleveland? We like it here!"

Edmonston Highway Will Attract Truckers

Construction has begun on a four-lane dual highway project that will turn most of Edmonston Road and part of Greenbelt Road into a truckers' route, a Washington newspaper revealed last week.

The project, which will cost an estimated $3.1 million, will convert the northern part of the present Edmonston Road below Greenbelt Road into a dual highway. An entirely new road will then veer slightly westward into Parkland at Carter Lane below Riverdale Road, cross the Defense Highway (Route 50) via an overpass to be located between Peace Cross and the River road intersection; swing eastward across the present Kenilworth Avenue (or River Road); cross the new Washington-Baltimore and Annapolis Expressways at the Kenilworth interchange; then swing west and rejoin the present Kenilworth avenue near the District line.

The State Roads Commission has reported that construction is in progress on a mile section of the new road between Kenilworth avenue and Inwood street. Construction will begin on the Defense Highway overpass on September 1.

The contract has also been awarded on a 1.5-mile stretch of the new road between Inwood and Upshur. To be advertised soon is the contract for dualizing Edmonston from Upshur northward to Brier Ditch, just south of Good Luck Road.

Vital Link

This project is a vital link in the Maryland road builders' plans for shuttling commuter and truck traffic between the District and the Berwyn-Beltsville section of Prince Georges country. Eventually, it is hoped to extend the dualization of Edmonston north of Greenbelt Road to Beltsville through the farm. State roads officials have been negotiating with

MISSION VISUAL

"Your Beautiful America" is the title of a film strip to be shown at the 6:45 p.m. Worship Hour of the Greenbelt Baptist Chapel, in Center School, Sunday evening. The showing of this visual grows out of the recent attendance of the Pastor at Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly, Ridgecrest, N. C., for Home Missions Week. It depicts the mission work of Southern Baptists throughout the nation. Everyone is invited.

Babe Ruth League Revises Schedule

Greenbelt's first season of Babe Ruth League baseball play goes into its final week August 30. Everything considered, it is felt that we've had a very successful season. The kids all seem to think so. Co-op's purchase of the sixty baseball uniforms seems money well spent.

Vacations and rain forced postponements have made it necessary to revise the remainder of the schedule. Four games are reported elsewhere in these pages and as this paper goes to press three more games will have been played barring further rain. Monday, August 23 will have Drug meeting Supermarket; Tuesday, August 24 will have Variety playing Service Station and Thursday, August 26 Supermarket meets Variety. These games will be reported in your next paper.

We are now come to the final week of Babe Ruth League play with four games:

Monday 8-30 Service Station-Supermarket.

Tues. 8-31 Drug Store-Supermarket.

Thurs. 9-2 Variety-Service Station.

Fri. 9-3 Variety-Drug.

All games are 10 a.m. and a coin will be tossed for home team in these last games.

Co-op has invited the local Babe Ruth League to play a game at the Gaithersburg Fairgrounds baseball park Sunday, September 19. Further plans for this game will be published later.

The new highway will also avoid the 90-degree or better curves on the present Kenilworth Avenue just south of Route 50.

Attention Men Bowlers

Men's Major Bowling League of Greenbelt meets at the Bowling Center

Monday, Aug. 30 at 8 p.m.

All men interested in bowling should attend

Federal authorities, who own this portion of Edmonston, concerning the extension.

The state has officially denied that the new road will be a truck route, as many residents of that area fear. However, it was conceded that many truckers would prefer to swing off Baltimore Boulevard at Greenbelt road and use the new dual artery the rest of the way into Washington, thus avoiding many stoplights and congested business sections.

Truckers' Delight

There will be no signs on the Boulevard channelling trucks onto the new road, however, since the law does not allow the state to designate certain highways as truck routes. Later on, truckers will prefer to swing off Baltimore Boulevard at Beltsville if the dualization is completed all the way.

The new road will eliminate one of the county's worst traffic bottlenecks where Edmonston road and Kenilworth (or River Road) now intersect the Defense Highway about 100 yards apart. The
